January 1st has Come and Gone

Invoicing is all done and we know just where we are at. It has been the best year in our business experience. We do not care to take all of this credit to ourselves, but we do wish to thank our friends for staying with us. Now for 1908. To begin with we are making a great reduction in the price of our stock of Ladies' Set Rings, and to appreciate this reduction you will need to call and see them.

And on Watches. Well, we have always been the right place to buy watches; but now, we will make you a better price—all things considered—than a mail order house can do. In the first place you must consider express, you must consider your letter and money order, and then after all, when you buy of me, I am here for you to come in and settle anything that is wrong. So why not give us your watch trade. Hoping your 1908 will be better than your 1907.

Mr. T. W. Harker that most respected citizen is contemplating making his home for the future with his daughter Eva, out in Colorado. He will be taking his departure within ten days. It is needless to say that his friends are sorry to see him leave their knowing that they will never see him in Denison again.
Mr. H. W. Randall, who is well known here, met with an accident on last Saturday. He was driving to Charter Oak with a load of corn. On going down a hill the tongue let loose allowing the wagon to run from one side of the road to the other. This threw him out on the bank, and the seat struck him in the face, cutting one eye and bruising his leg and shoulder badly. He does not feel alarmed but that he will be about again soon, which his friends are glad to hear.

Our friend, Matt Hugg is playing in hard luck in the past few years as far as bodily injuries are concerned. In the past five years he has had three broken limbs. Just now he is laid up with a leg broken from a log he was handling, rolling over on him, breaking two bones. Mr. Hugg is one of our best citizens and prominent in the German Methodist church.
Music does not always have power to soothe the breast as is evidenced by the ruction among the musicians of Denison that went as far as the justice court. The boys ought to have more harmony about them. We advise them to get, up to concert pitch and then stay in tune. It is not becoming for grown-ups to have such spats, it sets a bad example for the children.
There is joy at the home of Mr. A. L. Strong and wife on the home coming of the only son Albert. He has been working as an expert for the Kellogg electrical supply company of Chicago, and thus was sent up in Nova Scotia for a year and then to the extreme south, making it seem a long time between visits at home. He is an exceptionally fine young man, an interesting conversationalist, and we are glad his vacation now will be for some months.

THE LATE REVIEW.
It is the "late" Review, not deceased, but late, just the same.
The reasons are as follows:
First: We are too greedy, we want to print all the news of next week as well as of this, and such desire naturally delays the game.
Second: About Tuesday noon nearly fifteen columns of correspondence comes in on us. No county paper on the foot stool can handle this and get out on time.
Third: If we published a dinky paper like the Bulletin we could get out on time.
Fourth: One of the editors was flat on his back with the grip this week.
Fifth: We shall try to be on time next week.

BOARD COMMITTEES.
The board of supervisors is now checking up the various county officials. This is being done with the membership made up in the following committees.
To settle with treasurer: Baeth and Abart. With auditor: Cook, Holland and Molter. With clerk, and recorder: Cook and Holland. With sheriff and superintendent of schools, Molter.
Mr. Julius A. Hathun and brother Henry, called on friends in Carroll and Manning on Sunday and Monday and reporting a fine time.
