

Arion Anchor

Local Briefs.

Chas. Green of Council Bluffs made a short stay with his parents, L. Green and wife, he also went to Rodney where he spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Larson.

Mrs. I. A. Underhill of Sioux City stopped with her friend, Mrs. Evans on her journey from Denison to her home in Sioux City.

While John Anderson and wife were absent from their home last Thursday morning one of their little boys started a fire by turning some kerosene on a quilt and touched a match to it, the flames burned through the partitions in the wall and were soon carried to the roof. The fire department soon did the work of extinguishing the flames. It was necessary to cut into the building so as to reach the fire with the hose, and with our excellent system of waterworks no great damage resulted from it.

Thomas Rae returned from Chicago last Saturday. He went with two cars of fat cattle that he sold quite satisfactorily.

Elsworth Downs went to Overton, Nebr., where he will spend a few days with his brothers at that place.

The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Coon are glad to know that she is improving in health.

Mrs. Sprague received an interesting letter from her son Leo, who is now at Norfolk, Va. He gave a very interesting description of his journey. He stated that his supper consisted of sausage, potatoes, biscuits and tea and that and other boys of the Navy were in good health and they succeeded in doing well on that bill of fare, he was sure he could.

The Misses Dow and Fishel were pleasant callers at the Wise home last Friday.

Leonard Butterworth attended the Sunday school convention in Deloit. Louie Kepford is a new member of the M. W. A. lodge.

A gentleman from eastern Iowa was here and talks of starting a cheese factory.

The friends of Mrs. J. N. Lee are pleased to learn that she has returned from the Denison hospital with her health much improved.

Rev. Johnston of Sioux City occupied the pulpit here last Sunday afternoon, he represents the Iowa Children's Home Society, after the sermon he received quite a liberal offering for the society.

Born to Mr. Matlack and wife Jan. 5th, a baby boy. Their friends here congratulate.

Mrs. Chris Eggers visited with relatives here Tuesday and then went to spend several days at the home of Wm. Eggers.

Drop a postal to the Racket Store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues.—contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

On last Wednesday John Garrett and wife entertained their many friends and neighbors at their home. Mr. Garrett and wife expect to leave about March 1st, and will move to a farm near Denison. They have many friends here, who are glad to know that they are not going far away.

Mrs. Moor returned to Wisconsin where she will make her home with a daughter.

The 9th grade in the Dow City High School enjoyed a fine sleigh ride Wednesday evening and did not forget the Arion pupils who are in that grade. They stopped for a short time at the pleasant home of Riley Talcott's and enjoyed some fine music that the family are capable of executing.

L. C. Butler returned from Crofton, Neb., last Friday.

Mrs. Willard of Omaha came Friday evening to visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Horn.

W. W. Coon and Henry Cummings were invited to the Robert Bell home Saturday evening where they spent the evening with their favorite games.

Born, to Joe Thompson and wife, Feb. 5th, a baby.

Benson Smith and wife visited at the Sherman home last Saturday.

Sybel Woodruff of Denison visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Maggie Talcott.

Last Friday evening Mr. Berka and wife invited a number of their friends who enjoyed the social dance, elegant refreshments were served, Jack Olliver and J. Butler furnished good music.

Mrs. Wm. Rule has been reported on the sick list but at present is better.

The many friends of Howard Rule are glad to learn that he has been promoted in his work with the U. S. Navy.

Bert Cruise went to Rockwell City where he will visit with his uncle for about two weeks.

Howard Biggs and wife and John Tranter and wife were Sunday guests at the Cruise home.

Mrs. Ralph Clark returned Friday from Mechanicsville, where she spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Matlack.

Samuel Fox shipped two cars of cattle to South Omaha where he received a good price for his stock.

Mrs. William Morrison is assisting with the care of her sister, Mrs. Kreman who is threatened with pneumonia.

Mrs. Willard Saul and children spent a few days at the pleasant home of Chas. Horn.

J. L. Maurer went to Webster City last Monday.

Stella Butler went to Omaha Saturday and will spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Bertha Leek visited in Kenwood Sunday with her sister Gusta.

Geo. Talcott returned from Chicago where he made a satisfactory sale of his fat cattle. He went to Evanston and made a short visit with his cousin Jennie Rae, who is attending college at that place. He also saw Mrs. Ollie Talcott, who is with the Wesleyan Hospital of Chicago preparing herself for a trained nurse. Her friends are pleased to know that she is pleased with her work there.

John Lee, Fred Stephenson and Delbert Lee were initiated in the M. W. A. lodge here Saturday evening, several from the M. W. A. lodge of Dow City were present. After the meeting refreshments were served at the Sprague hotel.

A great many from Denison, Dow City and Buck Grove attended the funeral of D. J. Butler last Friday.

Died, Feb. 8th, 1903, Mrs. Annie Hinz at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sol Muller of Paradise township. Mrs. Hinz was born July 10th, 1832 in Tilow, West Prussia. Her husband, one son and one daughter have preceded her to the life beyond. She came to America in 1880 and was accompanied by three sons and two daughters. The three sons and one daughter reside in Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. Sol Miller with whom she has spent several years with, resides in Paradise township. The funeral services were held Tuesday at the home of Sol Miller and the remains were buried in the Dow City cemetery. She had faith in her God and was willing to go to the home where mansions are prepared for those who believe in Christ as a Savior. She has been in poor health for many years and death came as a relief to her and may the relatives who are left to mourn for her remember that she can not return to them but they may, through faith, go to her.

For Rheumatic Sufferers.

The quick relief from pain afforded by playing Chamberlain's Pain Balm makes it a favorite with sufferers from rheumatism, sciatica, lame back lumbago, and deep seated and muscular pains. For sale by W. E. Johnson, Broadway Druggist.

Dow City.

Remember the great bazaar on Saturday.

Uncle Morris McHenry has a set back, and is not so well. He is down at Charley McHenry's on the farm.

Mr. Whaley has news that his wife is some better and is now staying at the home of her friend, Mrs. Boylan in Des Moines. She yet has to go to the hospital to have the wound dressed.

With the generous object in view to help the hotel project, Mr. Swartman has offered to devote the proceeds of two nights at his skating rink to the hotel fund. The dates are Feb. 12 and 22.

Mrs. Heinz, the mother-in-law of S. H. Miller, died at his home in Bell town and the funeral was held on Tuesday. Rev. Freese, the German Lutheran pastor of Denison officiating. Burial was made in the Dow City cemetery.

Mr. Vaughn, the barber is to have a new shop, his present location being too small for his increasing business. A portion of the room two doors north of the postoffice used by Mr. Best for his buggy warehouse will be partitioned off and arranged for a barber shop.

Master Medford Rudd is the latest victim of the sliding down hill amusement for the boys. He was going down at a good speed when he had to turn out to avoid striking another boy. This caused him to run into a barb wire fence, cutting his face so it had to be sewed up.

Fred Baber, who bought the barber shop was disappointed in Mr. Reimer of Denison coming here to help him. Reimers was here a week and then left.

O. A. Cooper the restaurant man, was up at Rolfe for some days and left the business in the hands of James Baber, who showed himself a good cook.

The revival services are still in progress with the evangelist, Rev. Window in charge. He is proving a strong speaker and the people have not for some time listened to such sermons as he is giving. He will certainly remain for this week and maybe longer.

B. N. Norris of Dunlap was in town Tuesday on his way down to the Howorth farm, where he has a saw mill outfit at work. A shed containing some of his property was recently destroyed by fire. He will cut some seventy-five thousand feet of lumber. This is from native trees as walnut, oak and softer woods. The walnut boards would be very valuable to ship out.

David Bremser, the merchant went up to Rockwell City on Tuesday.

The markets show little change. Hogs are bringing $3.75 to $3.80, corn in the ear 45 and shelled 46; oats 40; and wheat 85 and 90.

The big event of the week will be the bazaar given in the Cohn hall Saturday, for the purpose of securing funds for the new piano in the Methodist church. It is bound to be a big affair. Some of the farmers have given pigs, calves, chickens, seed corn, farm machinery and these will be auctioned off. At the hall will be found all kinds of needle work both useful and ornamental, and this will be sold in the usual way. A two course supper will be served at 4:30 at 25 cents. For this a liberal patronage is asked. The people have been quite generous and a most profitable bazaar is expected.

Charley Justice and Ned Marks went to the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Stemple and Winnie Wiggins chaperoned by Charley McHenry were at Denison one day this week.

Miss Riddle, the teacher, was out for the past week and Rhea Cummings was her substitute.

By a new rule the Illinois Central train going west early in the morning will not stop here only for Council Bluffs passengers and further west.

Mrs. Charlie Vasser is here for a visit with her parents, Brinten Sharp and wife.

Mrs. A. Baber returned home Tuesday of last week after an extended visit with relatives at Salem, Mo.

Joe Carson and wife of Sac county came Thursday evening on account of the illness of Mrs. Carson's mother, Mrs. S. J. Waters, who has been quite sick with pneumonia. Mr. Carson returned home Sunday. Mrs. Carson with the assistance of a nurse is caring for her mother, who is not much improved at this writing.

J. A. Scott was in Omaha Wednesday of last week and purchased a fine new gasoline engine for his blacksmith shop.

Jess Lesley has rented the Houston farm on Paradise and will move about the first of March.

Bob Houston and family are going to Colorado for a year's stay on account of Mrs. Houston's health.

Charley Kelley is here from Wisconsin for a visit with his parents.

Mrs. S. E. Baber got quite badly hurt while choreing last week.

The Senior and Junior classes went Saturday evening to the Graul home for a surprise on Melvin, it being his seventeenth birthday. Mrs. Graul served a nice lunch, and they spent the evening with games and other amusements. Some nice presents were left in remembrance of the occasion. Melvin is one of the popular pupils in the high school room and expects to soon go to Highland Park College at Des Moines.

Willis Wiggins took his family over to Buck Grove Sunday for a sleighride.

Mrs. Walter Swatman and Mrs. Woods entertained Mrs. Prentiss' music club Friday evening.

Helen Swasey and Trenea Chamberlain were Denison visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Quick has moved to town and is living in the Walters house.

Remember the bazaar Saturday.

Drop a postal to the Racket Store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues.—contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Mrs. Heinz, the mother-in-law of S. H. Miller, died at his home in Bell town and the funeral was held on Tuesday. Rev. Freese, the German Lutheran pastor of Denison officiating. Burial was made in the Dow City cemetery.

Mr. Vaughn, the barber is to have a new shop, his present location being too small for his increasing business. A portion of the room two doors north of the postoffice used by Mr. Best for his buggy warehouse will be partitioned off and arranged for a barber shop.

Master Medford Rudd is the latest victim of the sliding down hill amusement for the boys. He was going down at a good speed when he had to turn out to avoid striking another boy. This caused him to run into a barb wire fence, cutting his face so it had to be sewed up.

Fred Baber, who bought the barber shop was disappointed in Mr. Reimer of Denison coming here to help him. Reimers was here a week and then left.

O. A. Cooper the restaurant man, was up at Rolfe for some days and left the business in the hands of James Baber, who showed himself a good cook.

The revival services are still in progress with the evangelist, Rev. Window in charge. He is proving a strong speaker and the people have not for some time listened to such sermons as he is giving. He will certainly remain for this week and maybe longer.

B. N. Norris of Dunlap was in town Tuesday on his way down to the Howorth farm, where he has a saw mill outfit at work. A shed containing some of his property was recently destroyed by fire. He will cut some seventy-five thousand feet of lumber. This is from native trees as walnut, oak and softer woods. The walnut boards would be very valuable to ship out.

David Bremser, the merchant went up to Rockwell City on Tuesday.

The markets show little change. Hogs are bringing $3.75 to $3.80, corn in the ear 45 and shelled 46; oats 40; and wheat 85 and 90.

The big event of the week will be the bazaar given in the Cohn hall Saturday, for the purpose of securing funds for the new piano in the Methodist church. It is bound to be a big affair. Some of the farmers have given pigs, calves, chickens, seed corn, farm machinery and these will be auctioned off. At the hall will be found all kinds of needle work both useful and ornamental, and this will

WILL YOU NEED A New Harness This Spring???

BE SURE OF THE LABEL

LOOK FOR THIS RED LABEL

Wool Faced

ON THE GENUINE

DES MOINES SADDLERY CO. MANUFACTURERS

TRADE MARK

STAR POINT QUALITY

HORSE COLLARS

Best quality Black Kip Rim and Back, Fair Leather Face all Thong Sewed, Peaked Top Sole Leather Cap, Wool Faced.

Half Sweeney or Imitation Case

A full line of sizes. Can fit any horse

"STAR POINT QUALITY" HARNESS and Stable Supplies of All Kinds

We have anything you want from a light driving harness to a heavy team harness. All we ask is—if you need a harness, come in and let us show you ours, and we will guarantee a sale. Remember, we put out nothing but Hand-sewed harness. Bring in your harness to be oiled and repaired before the rush starts. Our prices are low—we can interest you.

Nelson Brothers, Dow City, Iowa

H. M. Hauchett is visiting his son Art, Mr. Hauchett was accompanied by his nephew Alfred Jones of Eagle Grove, whom he had not seen for forty-eight years. Of course there was some pretty tall visiting done about that time.

Omar McWilliams went up to Sioux City Saturday morning to visit his sister, Mrs. Morgan and friends at Morning Side.

The gas light trouble at the Charter Oak hospital was pronounced by Marshall Leeper to be an acute attack of appendicitis. Under his directions the "operation" was performed and now there is light.

Bertha Romans came over from Denison Friday to spend a few days with relatives and friends. She returned home the first of the week accompanied by Mrs. Brown Romans and niece, Olive Schurke.

Orpha Hieland, our High School assistant, had the misfortune to fall last Friday and sprain her ankle quite badly.

P. H. Simons arrived from Butte, Nebr., Saturday evening, being called as a witness in the probating of the will of his brother-in-law, Anton Gaestel.

Carl Huebner and wife went to Sioux City on Monday to consult a specialist in regard to Mrs. Huebner's health.

Rev. Chas. Runge was a passenger to Sioux City Monday.

Mayor Holmes and wife of Ute visited over Sunday with the "Major."

Harry M. Jones of Dow City is visiting his parents, L. M. Jones and wife of Charter Oak.

W. J. Peters of Dunlap is visiting friends in town.

Geo. H. Swinney of Belle Plain gave an interesting talk last Friday night to a company of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in the I. O. O. F. hall. After the speech a light luncheon was served.

Drop a postal to the Racket Store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues.—Contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

WILLOW TOWNSHIP.

Charlie Coleman and wife returned home Monday from St. Joe Missouri. Mrs. John Larson is visiting her parents, M. L. McElwain in Denison this week.

Hugh Foley and wife visited with Mrs. Foley's parents Sunday.

Rose and John Mordhust are having a seige of the grip.

George Weise shipped several loads of sheep to Chicago Tuesday evening. George Hargen went in with them.

Thomas Lang and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a new girl, who came Wednesday morning, Feb. 6th.

Edward Keim and Roy Miller made a business trip to Dow City Saturday.

Elmer McElwain and family were Sunday guests at his brother Ora's.

Mildred Sweet is reported to be quite sick with chicken pox, the last few days.

The Hargen brothers shipped a car of cattle Saturday to Chicago.

Louisa Myler spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents near Ute.

Marion Wilson and wife entertained several of their friends Sunday, among them were: Mrs. Gardner and daughter Flo, Cora Irwin, Wm. Keim and wife and John Wilson and wife.

M. L. McElwain was a visitor on the Willow a few days this week.

Henry Wilson is on the sick list.

Mrs. Corey and children from near Arion are staying a few days with her sister, Mrs. Tom Lang.

John Grant and wife were pleasant callers at Thos. Hodkins Sunday.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues. Contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Hayes.

Herman C. Baak, wife and four children of Charter Oak attended the Pencker-Hansen wedding.

Mrs. Wm. Baak and daughter Erma visited at the Mrs. Pencker home last week.

Mrs. Bud Smith is on the sick list. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Hans Hansen and wife entertained a number of their friends last Monday evening in honor of Mr. Hansen's birthday.

Hermann Hagge shipped a carload of hogs and John Hansen a carload of steers to Chicago Saturday. Hermann Hagge went in with the shipment.

Willie Pencker of Mapleton visited several days last week with his brother John Pencker.

Charlie Thiedemann went to Nebraska Monday to be present at the wedding of one of his cousins.

MARRIED.—At the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Pecker occurred the marriage of John Pencker and Emma Hansen of Manning, on Wednesday February, 5th at 2 o'clock. Rev. Fauth of West Side officiating. Elsie Pencker and Anna Hansen acted as bridesmaids and Hans Voss and John Peterson as best men. Only near relatives and a few friends were present. Their friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Drop a postal to the Racket store, Denison, Ia., and we will mail you one of our new sheet music catalogues contains all the latest music at unheard of prices.

Arion State Bank

Arion, Iowa.

Capital $25000.00

Our first thought at all times is to

Safeguard our Depositors' Money.

This we have done successfully in the past, and shall continue the same in the future.

DIRECTORS
L. C. BUTLER, J. L. MAURER, SAM FOX, W. M. EGERS, THOS. RAE.

J. U. WISE,

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

New with
ARION MERCANTILE CO., Arion, Ia.

Calls answered day and night. Floral designs furnished.

N. F. STILLSON,

Blacksmith and Wagon Maker

Arion, Iowa.

Horseshoeing a Specialty.

All work guaranteed.

Nye, Schneider, Fowler Co.

Dealers in

Lumber, Grain and Coal....

Highest market price paid for Grain. We sell Lumber and Coal at prices that are right.

Your Patronage Solicited

R. O. CLARK, Mgr.

Arion, Iowa.

Golden Sheaf Flour

OUR BEST FLOUR.

Farmers, bring your wheat in for exchange. We give you the best flour you ever used and a square deal. It pays to feed ground feed to your stock. We pay top prices for wheat. CALL US UP.

THE ARION MILL CO.

Don't neglect your cough.

Statistics show that in New York City alone over 200 people die every week from consumption.

And most of these consumptives might be living now if they had not neglected the warning cough.

You know how quickly Scott's Emulsion enables you to throw off a cough or cold.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.