

Photographs

Made as well in cloudy weather as in sunshine. At

Ferguson's Studio,

Laub Block...

E. Gulick was a Dakota visitor week.
The old Commercial Band is to be reorganized.

The very latest in folding go-carts at Barcher Bros?

R. A. Romans spent a part of last week in Sioux City.

Fred Gronau was down from Kiron the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGuire were victims of la grippe last week.

Geo. Brotherson of Jackson township spent last week in Denison.

John Richardson is yet very sick and has a trained nurse with him.

Mrs. R. A. Romans returned on Tuesday evening from a Lisbon visit.

Mr. Charles Bullock was off early Monday morning for a business trip up in Dakota.

A nice box of fresh cut flowers sent to any address in the U. S. for only $1.00 by Barcher Bros.

An enameled dish pan for 10c next Saturday at 10 o'clock and 3 p. m. At the Racket store.

The Sears McHenry family were guests of Rev. and Mrs. DePree at a dinner party last evening.

Mr. Kemp tells us that so far there are forty-four candidates for the examination for city carriers.

Mrs. C. M. Jensen and Mrs. P. D. McMahon were in Dunlap on Tuesday, as guests at an afternoon party given by Mrs. Jessup, a sister of Mrs. McMahon.

Milton McAhren is home from Pierre, S. D. He has sold his interest in the clothing business to his partner, Homer Partridge, and may go on the road as a salesman.

Mr. L. E. Blosser and family left last week for their old home in Kei-logg, Iowa. During their stay in Denison they made numerous friends who join in wishing them a future of good fortune.

"Gone to Chicago" is the sign which greeted the visitors at the Sarahon Millinery store this week. The ladies spent a number of days studying latest fashions and are now returned ready with new ideas for the spring trade.

Special sale of enameled ware at the Racket store next Saturday March 7th, 56 dozen on sale at 10 o'clock a. m. and 56 dozen at 3 p. m., consisting of dish pans, coffee pots, stew pans, large basins, covered buckets, dippers etc. Your choice at 10c each while they last.

Mr. Joe Kelly of Carroll spent Sunday in Denison.

Mrs. F. J. Young was an Omaha visitor last week.

Get ready for a great musical on Friday, March 13.

The merchants have Review coupons, ask for them.

Have you seen the Stork? Where? In Barcher Bros. window.

Myrtle McAhren was over from Charter Oak for a Sunday at home.

Mrs. John Woodruff is now able to be about after a rather severe attack of the gripp.

Mrs. Hall, wife of the West Side agent, and daughter Verona, were Denison visitors on Saturday.

Mrs. White returned Wednesday to her home in Portland, Oregon, after a two months visit with her sisters, the Misses Sarachon.

"Don't forget to see Dr. Weber, the Eye and Ear Doctor who cures, on Thursday, March 12, at Nielsen house, examination free. 9-2t.

For Sale—Two pure bred short horn bulls. John R. Robinson, Denison, Rt. 1. 10-5t.

Mr. Earl Winans returned to his home in Bonesteel, S. D., Saturday morning after a two weeks stay in this vicinity.

Mr. Rob Champion of Kansas City returned home Saturday morning, being called here on account of the sickness and death of his sister, Mrs. Pete Burke.

Mrs. Peter Atzen, who recently moved to the Sievers house from off the farm in Hanover, is quite sick with rheumatism at the home of her son in the country.

A goodly number of friends of Miss Janet Muir gave her a surprise party on last Friday evening. She was called over to the home of Mrs. Gregg and there found a group of friends much to her surprise.

Miss Fanchon Bamford and Miss Grace Bamford left last week for Boulder, Colo., where they will resume their work in successful millinery. Miss Fanchon scored a splendid success there during the last season and she has built up a fine business.

Miss Lous Tucker entertained a company of her friends last Thursday evening as a compliment to Miss Edna Caver of Woodbine. The evening was spent in playing games and at the midnight hour dainty refreshments were served. All report an enjoyable time.

A dish pan for 10c also large stew pans, coffee pots, covered buckets, basins, etc., in a 1st quality double coat Royal gray enameled ware at the Racket store. Next Saturday 56 dozen on sale at 10 o'clock a. m. and 56 dozen at 3 o'clock. Come early 10c a piece while it lasts.

The commercial club is much interested in a billiard tournament. B. J. Sibbert, Hugo Gebert and Dr. C. W. Carr head the list at present. The exhibition of automobile pants given by Dr. Lacey of Council Bluffs was worth the price of admission. Since Saturday the Doctor has added to the gayety of nations with his interesting trousers and his winsome smile.

Fountain Pens!

Fountain Pens
Fountain Pens

Fountain Pens!

YEP, that's it, and at ONE-HALF PRICE while they last. Think of it. A first-class Fountain Pen for SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS. We are it for prices straight through our line. If you are a doubter, well, call and see us, for we are the show you kind.

E. C. Chamberlin the Jeweler,

Read the new ads. Convention Friday.

Do not forget the caucuses. Be sure to hear the Rose Maiden.

Vote early and often in the Review contest.

J. H. Walker returned from South Dakota last night for a brief home visit.

No better music was ever sung in Denison than will be given in the Rose Maiden.

Nels Johnson and Oscar Johnson of Kiron were Denison business visitors this week.

Lost in Denison last Monday—a white toy poodle. Reward for return to Review office.

E. Stegeman, one of the prominent farmers of Washington township spent Tuesday with Denison friends.

Owing to constant demand the Solomon Furniture Co., has fresh cut flowers in stock. The first consignment went off right away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and children, John and Madeline, returned to their home at Marion, Iowa, after attending the funeral of Mrs. Pete Burke.

A. B. Lorenzen has just moved into his new house, although it is not entirely completed. Mr. Peter Teut of Soldier township has taken possession of the Lorenzen home which he purchased last fall.

Mrs. Al Robert of this city was called last week to mourn the death of her sister, Mrs. Frank Davis of Correctionville, Ia. Funeral services were held on Friday last. Mr. Roberts returned on Saturday but Mrs. Roberts remained to care at least temporarily for the little family which has been desolated by the loss of the mother. Mrs. Roberts has been called to mourn several deaths in her family during the past few months and the sympathy of her friends goes out towards her.

CHOICE CUT FLOWERS

always on hand

Carnations, Roses and Narcissus now in season.

Floral Designs made to order.

We carry a nice stock of Ribbons for Boquet work.

Barcher Bros.
Wholesale and Retail

Ask your merchants for Review coupons.

Mr. Hughes, the father of Mrs. P. E. C. Lally continues to be very ill at the Lally home.

Mr. John Carey, who has been farming near Manilla has moved up on the Hargans place in East Boyer.

You can buy better furniture for less money than anywhere in Western Iowa at Barcher Bros. Try it and see.

P. J. Farrelly, who will contest the democratic nomination for county auditor with Mike Collins, was a Denison visitor on Wednesday.

John C. Christiansen is among our new subscribers this week who has not voted in the Auto Piano contest. The girls ought to get busy and get his votes.

A. P. Lyman of Dunlap was a Denisonite on Wednesday on business connected with the Dunlap lumber yard in which he is a prominent stockholder.

News comes from Omaha that Miss Theresia Schafer is so much improved in health that she has left the hospital and gone to the home of her brother at 2627 Patrick avenue. This is good news to her many friends.

We wish to say that those enjoying good music must keep well in mind the Rose Maiden opera given by home talent Friday March 13. The music is by a famous German composer. Our home talent for singing is far above the average in an Iowa town. The price is but thirty-five cents including reserved seats. It will be a shame if the hall is not well filled.

Wall PAPER

I have on hand of last year's stock of Wall Paper a number of patterns of side wall, with ceiling and border to match, for all kinds of rooms, that I will close out at

Less Than Cost

I am also adding to my stock some new, handsome and stylish patterns that I will make very close prices on. When in want of Wall Paper call and see me.

W. A. JOHNSON, Broadway Pharmacy

When you buy, ask for Review coupons.

Mrs. Bamford has returned from Chicago.

Miss Edla Johnson of Kiron visited Denison friends over Sunday.

Mike Burke says the snow plow works just as well in mind.

R. W. Lownes has bought the Searl house in the north part of town.

John Richardson is reported as not improving, and is a very sick man.

The Schlumberger drug store looks swell and neat, after receiving its spring dress of paint and paper.

Mr. Cummings, late deputy sheriff at Arion and family are now residents of Denison, living in the east part of town. We welcome them as citizens.

There will be a "Mothers Meeting" at the McKim hall on Thursday afternoon. Miss Bond, the teacher will speak and read for the mothers as a child culture. She is an expert on this subject.

The faithful night watch L. M. Baer is a sick man and accompanied by Dr. Wright went to Rochester, Minn., on Tuesday night. All hope the report on his case will be favorable. Mrs. Baer is doubly in trouble for her mother is very sick at Boone and not expected to live.

The OXford

Saturday Dinner, March 7th, 1908

- Cream of Celery Soup
- Roast Leg of Pork—Apple Sauce
- Baked Briscuit of Veal with dressing
- Hamburger Roll—Brown Gravy
- Stewed Beef Spanish
- Brown Potatoes
- June Peas
- Cottage Pudding
- Coffee
- Tea
- Milk

A Special 25c Dinner Every Day.

Watch this space for our Bill of Fare, and try our splendid meals.

Men's Silk Plated Half Hose.

New, imported, economical, desirable. Every desirable color, plated of real silk, all plain, specially priced at 50c the pair.

The Balle-Broderben Co.

DENISON, IOWA.

A 15c Home Journal pattern free with the Quarterly Style Book—20c.

Refreshingly New Spring Silks.

Distinctively different and the novelty kind will be hailed with welcome by women who desire a decided change from the sorts in vogue the past two and three years. Range of patterns and prices too extensive to admit of description and pricing here. Ask to see the new silks.

1908 Shirtwaists --

One of the most interesting stocks here just now is the new 1908 line of shirtwaists; interesting because of their newness, freshness and attractiveness. Both long and short sleeve styles are shown and they embrace everything that is new in waist styles; and of all materials admitting of a choice to suit all purposes.

Gingham Waists

Color Plain blues and tans. Blue and white and brown and white checks. Made with V shaped pleated back, eight small knife pleats in front, trimmed with band of same material and twenty small pearl buttons, buttoned in front. Long sleeves. Price each..... $1.15

College Waists.

Made of plain gingham. Colors—Blue's, Brown's and Tan's, button back. Elbow sleeves with turned back cuffs. Soft, attached, lay down collars. Trimmed with pleat and pearl buttons. Price each..... $1.25

White Waists India Linen

$1.25 each.

Blacks, have ten fine tucks. Collar attached with five rows of tucks and edge of collar trimmed with fine Val Lace. Front of waists have ten plaits at each side. Strip down the front made of eyelet embroidery.

White (India Linen) Waists.

$1.25 to $2.00 each.

Open back and open front styles. Long and short sleeves and the new Yokohoma styles, trimmed with Val Lace and Insertion, Fillet Lace, and insertion, and embroideries.

Fancy White Waists.

Made of figured lawns, organdies and swisses and trimmed with fine laces and embroideries. Price each..... $2.50

Fancy Waists.

Net over silk and all over lace over silk. Colors black and white. Prices each..... $3.75 to $12.00

Silk Waists.

Plain colors, white, black, brown and navy, fancy brown and blue with fine white stripes. Black and white and fancy colored plaids. Price each..... $2.00 to $6.50

Other styles in white waists at $2.75, 3.00, 3.50, 4.00, 4.50 and 4.75 each.