

THE MANILLA REPUBLICAN

Established 1896.

Incorporated in Denison Review 1907.

Eben Ihrie spent Sunday in Manning visiting friends.

Tom Moore spent Sunday in Denison visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. F. E. Shaw was a Sioux City business visitor Saturday.

Emma Bobland has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. D. H. Naeve returned home from Perry Wednesday noon after spending the winter there with her daughter, Mrs. Tony Rozum.

Jacob Gessman moved out onto his farm, four miles west of town, Thursday.

Emil Eggers moved into the Claus Liek, property recently vacated by John Carey, Saturday.

Mr. Berkmen moved into the Claus Liek property, recently vacated by Jacob Gessman, Friday.

Harry Westbrook spent Sunday in defiance at his parental home.

John Gleiser left for Perry Sunday morning to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Packard departed for Council Bluffs Sunday noon to visit there a few days at the Arnold home.

Mr. D. H. Naeve returned home from Perry Friday noon after a pleasant visit there with his daughter, Mrs. Tony Rozum.

Floyd E. Shaw of Sioux City spent Sunday here visiting his wife, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Jackson.

Martin McNertney, Lizzie Slattery, Mrs. Collins, Maurice McNertney, D. P. McMahon, Lizzie McNertney and sisters went to Charter Oak Sunday morning to attend a funeral.

John Carey moved out onto his farm near Denison Saturday.

Hugo Wenzel and Hilda Tallgard attended the dance in Denison Friday evening.

Transfers on the railroad are reported to be numerous here this week. A man by the name of Willard is taking the place of Mr. Lounies, who we understand got fired.

Wm. Neiman will be given charge of the section out of Earling. John Thompson will take Nick White's place on the Sioux City section while Mr. White will go back to an extra gang. Wm. Dougherty will be given a section out of Kenwood.

Andy Simpson went to Sioux City Sunday night to take examination for brakeman.

Ethel Barr spent Sunday in Astor visiting at her parental home there.

Rae Westbrook spent Sunday in defiance visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Westbrook.

F. C. Bock has been reported to be on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Harry Westbrook and baby spent Saturday and Sunday in defiance visiting friends and relatives.

Rae Zollinger spent Sunday in defiance at his parental home.

Isaac Hird left for Eagle Grove Sunday morning to visit his brother there.

John Stoker departed for Omaha Sunday morning after a pleasant visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stoker.

Hans Lieck was an over Sunday visitor in Manning.

John Breckinridge moved into the residence, recently vacated by Jennie Farver, this week.

The dance held here Thursday evening by the German Verein was quite well attended considering the bad roads.

The Nishnabotany township spelling contest took place here Friday afternoon. Two schools were represented besides ours, namely, the schools taught by Miss Ida Lowles and Miss Mabel Thebald. Frank Hook won first prize, Eva Cooper second and Glen Lacy third. All three were from our school. Frank Hook and Glen Lacy being in the eighth grade and Eva Cooper in the sixth grade.

Fred Conrad and John Krohn loaded their household goods and departed for Montana the first of the week.

Hugo Willey moved into the residence, recently vacated by John Krohn, this week.

Mrs. Al Weaver spent Saturday in Astor, visiting at the Claus Pepper home.

John Frederickson loaded his household goods and shipped them to Council Bluffs this week.

Matt Hamm moved into the house, recently vacated by John Frederickson, this week.

Bert Thrapp moved into the Miller property in Walkerton this week, recently occupied by Matt Hamm.

Mrs. John Miller of Grant Center spent Thursday here in this burg shopping.

P. C. Gray returned home Friday morning from his extended visit with his mother and other relatives in Chenoa, Ill.

Jim Griffin of Neola transacted business in Manilla Friday.

Nellye Woodard and Mr. Monroe returned to Chicago Thursday morning after an extended visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Woodard.

D. P. Robertson was an Aspinwall business visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Pete Hoffers went to Manning Thursday morning to visit relatives and to attend a silver wedding.

Mrs. D. P. Robertson was called to Aspinwall Thursday on account of the serious illness of her father.

Alma Joens attended the dance in Manning Wednesday.

John Griffin of Buck Grove attended the dance here Thursday evening.

David Boot spent Sunday at his parental home in Ute.

Harry Harbin, nephew of George Bumphrey, went to Sioux City Sunday evening to pass examination as brakeman.

Rev. Lacey returned home from Colorado Friday, where he had been conducting revival meetings.

Lulu Willis, who is teaching school in Danbury spent Sunday here visiting with her parents.

Lynn Rood of Nebraska spent Saturday visiting at the Alvin Willis home.

The Guild met with Mrs. J. H. Graham Friday afternoon. It was decided to keep the pipe-organ and officers were elected—President, Mrs. J. C. Rickter, treasurer, Mattie Buffington, secretary, Goldie Fuller. The Guild will entertain the Philathan society next Friday afternoon at the home of Dr. Gardner.

Rev. and Mrs. Cable and neighbors of Frank Macumber and wife gave them a surprise Saturday in honor of their 25th anniversary.

Father Coffee was a Buck Grove visitor Sunday.

Mr. Schultz and family spent Sunday in the country at the home of John Shur.

Wm. Kehr departed for South Dakota Thursday morning. Mrs. Kehr will remain here for a few weeks and visit with relatives and friends.

The Pansy club met with Alice Baker Saturday evening. Refreshments were served, consisting of brick ice cream, cake, pickles and sandwiches. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Junior Endeavor held a social and business meeting at the home of I. B. Alfred Tuesday evening.

Mrs. L. B. Beckman is reported to be on the sick list.

Lena Saltwell and father spent

Tuesday visiting in the country with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Henry Meyers.

Wm. Purdy of Newport, Nebr., has been visiting his mother, here the past week.

Wm. Neiman and wife went to Earling Thursday to attend the funeral of Mr. Ford of that place.

Rob Schroeder and Herman Neiman departed for Wagner, D. S. Monday morning, after a pleasant visit at the Wm. Neiman's home.

Mr. Detlef of Manning purchased the farm owned by Alexander Flaugh Monday.

Hans Jensen, who formerly resided here, but now lives in Coon Rapids, has been quite sick the past few weeks is reported to be improving.

Mrs. John Woods is reported to be on the sick list this week.

Somehow the roof of the Gardner hotel caught fire on Monday evening. The fire bell rang but before the fire department had reached there through the mud, some one had climbed upon the roof and extinguished the fire with a sponge.

Mrs. Harry Harbin left for Persia Monday morning for an extended visit here with her sister.

Rev. Gable of Chicago spent Monday here with Rev. and Mrs. Cable.

Mrs. Sutton left for Shenandoah on Monday morning being called there by the illness of her grandmother.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

This has been a busy week with the M. E. church as on Monday evening the bible study class met in the lecture room and then on Tuesday evening the Philathean society was entertained at the home of Mr. Hladik and wife. The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Fish on Wednesday afternoon. Thursday evening is the regular prayer service, Friday evening choir practice.

Next Sunday the services will be as follows: 10 a. m. Sunday school 11 o'clock preaching services with reception of new members. Class meeting at the close of the morning preaching services. Junior league at 2:30 o'clock. Epworth League devotional services 6:30 p. m. and preaching by the pastor at 7:30. Everyone invited.

Young married couples intending to start housekeeping should see John Fastje for their furniture, for he can sell good goods at the lowest prices. 7-1f

W. S. MOORE,
LAWYER
PRACTICE IN FEDERAL AND STATE COURTS
MANILLA, IOWA.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Kingston of Denison visited friends here for a few days last week.

James Griffin of Neola visited at the home of his parents last week from Monday until Saturday.

Roy Moffitt, who has been attending school at Denison Normal College for several months is now at home, and will not return at present.

Jake Bills and family moved last week to a farm north of here, they have been tenants for the past year of Selvester Thews farm, a mile east of town.

Mrs. Winnie Sterrett of Cedar Rapids is visiting her mother, Mrs. Andrew Peterson, for a few days. The lady came very unexpectedly and gave her mother a very pleasant surprise by so doing. Mrs. Sterrett will visit in Des Moines on her way home.

Mrs. Carl Iseminger and Mrs. Bert Waworth were Manilla visitors between trains Monday. They paid a visit to the dentist.

Lawrence Hagan and George Bone-steel, were business visitors to the county seat Thursday.

Mrs. Cal Carpenter is having quite a severe seige with rheumatism lately. She doesn't think it is very pleasant company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gigax with their daughter, Mrs. Carl Iseminger and children, left Thursday for their new home in North Dakota. Buck Grove regrets the loss of these two estimable families, as they are all old settlers and well known and respected by everybody. The good wishes of all in this vicinity follow them to their new home and trust that the change will prove a great financial success. Their post office address is now Tappan, North Dakota.

Bert Bicknell went to Manilla Thursday. Bert is having a fine time visiting among his old friends. He expects to leave for Sioux City this week, where he will visit for a while before going to his home in North Dakota.

Mr. Walworth of Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived, Thursday, for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. L. W. Hagan and family.

Carl Cruise of Arlon is the guest of his sister, Mrs. John Green, for a few days. He will assist in the moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Green will again become citizens of our town and will occupy the house they recently purchased from Fred Paulson. We welcome them back again.

Leon Bocknell, who formerly resided here, runs through here as brakeman on a regular freight, and gets to say "hello" to his old friends quite often.

Harley Chase has been laid up with a bad attack of lumbago for a week. Sidney Bonney has been staying with him for the past week, out of school hours.

Quite a few young folks went from here to the dance at Manilla, Thursday evening. Among them were Thos. White, Mollie Griffin, Roy Slater, Emil Stegeman and John Bills. All report a very enjoyable time.

Nora Finnegan, Bertha Dieber and Erma Beutel, are the three best spellers of the Buck Grove school, who will take part in the spelling contest to be held in the school house here, Friday evening, March 6th, to see which one of them will get to go to Denison to compete for the prizes. It is hoped that each teacher from Washington township, especially will be present Friday evening to help with the work and encourage their pupils by their presence. All outsiders are cordially requested to come.

Miss Lola Cox is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gertie Haga. Miss Cox resides at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Nellie Sullivan and her cousin, Bernard Finnegan, went to Charter Oak, Sunday, to attend the funeral of a cousin, Mrs. Collins.

Hale Cox has gone to Wisconsin to visit relatives. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Dwight Hutchinson was a business visitor to Manilla, Friday evening.

Miss Lizzie Slattery came down from Manilla, Sunday, for a farewell visit at the old home, as her parents will move to another farm this week.

The box social held last Friday evening at Daisy Glassburners school was a grand success. They took in about eighteen dollars, and now have enough to buy an organ for their school. That looks like enterprise.

Mrs. Joe Bowman is slowly regaining her health after several weeks of severe illness.

John Gorman has so far recovered from his sprain, as to get about as usual, by the aid of a cane.

Kate Hassett of Denison spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Joe Bowman.

Martin Slattery's sale, held last week, owing to the bad roads and inclement weather, was not very largely attended, but those present, went there to buy; consequently every thing sold at a good figure and Mr. Slattery was well satisfied. He expects to leave soon for Dakota, and if he likes it, will remain there. It is hoped that he will decide to locate in Iowa, as we don't like to lose such good citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brewster and family have vacated the hotel and have moved to the Olsen property East of town. It is hoped that somebody will see a good opening and take charge of the hotel soon, as it is quite a hardship to the travelling public to strike a town with no hotel accommodations.

Little Claude Welsh is quite sick with a gathering in his head, complicated with a cold, with symptoms of la grippe. It is hoped that it will not prove serious.

Miss Irene Garber took the train, Saturday, for an over Sunday visit with her parents in Denison.

Mrs. George Harvey is quite sick with a bad cold.

Dr. Evans of Arlon was in town on business, Thursday.

Ira Chase has been under the doctor's care for a few days.

Hayes.

August Voss and family moved to West Side Friday.

Will Weise and wife visited with her mother, Mrs. Voss one day last week.

Julius Molter and wife moved to the farm recently occupied by his father, Charles Molter and family last Thursday.

John Wiese and wife entertained a number of their friends Sunday in honor of Mrs. Wiese's birthday.

Detlef Martens moved on the Julius Thiedmann farm.

Anna Peterson of Denison came Sunday for a visit with her mother Mrs. Voss.

MARRIED.

At the five mile house the 26th of February occurred the wedding of Peter Gehlsen and Nellie Hammer. Rev. Fauth of West Side officiating. The bride is the youngest daughter of Henry Hammer. She is a popular and respectable young lady and is an elegant housekeeper. The groom is the son of Claus Gehlsen and wife, and is one of the most popular and thrifty young farmers in this vicinity. They will make their home on the John Rickers farm south east of West Side. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

WILLOW TOWNSHIP.

Della Coleman returned Monday from St. Joe Missouri, where she made an extended visit with relatives.

Louise Myler and Cora Irwin were over Sunday visitors at the James Wickwire home.

Marion Wilson and family started last week for Spencer S. D. where Mr. Wilson has bought a fine farm and they expect to make their home.

Florence Wickwire visited last week with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Brown, north of Charter Oak.

W. H. Hodkin and wife were Sunday callers at John Grants.

Elmer McElwain and family made a business trip to Denison Monday.

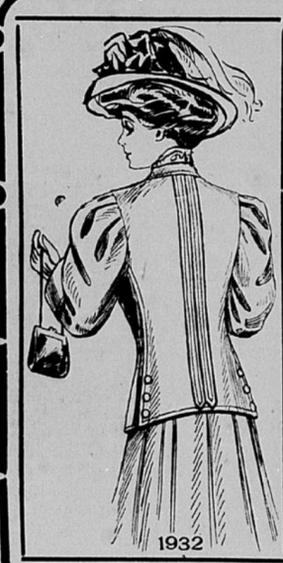

Willie Keim went to Spencer, S. D., Tuesday where he will work for Marion Wilson this year.

Wm. Miller met with quite a serious accident last week while jumping a small creek. In some way he got a very badly sprained ankle and it will keep him laid up for some time.

Laura McElwain returned home Monday, after a two weeks' visit on the Willow.

A. C. Wickwire and Francis Drake visited Sunday at James Wickwire's.

Mrs. T. M. Gardner and daughter, Flo went to Denison Monday morning to visit a few days with relatives there before they leave for their new home in Coleman, S. D. Mr. Gardner and sons Reggie and Glen went Monday noon with their car. We are sorry to see these old neighbors leave but hope they will like their new country as well as Iowa.

Spring Coats and Jackets....

Entirely new line, not one carried over--the very latest styles, in the colors and weaves that will be worn this spring. From $5.00 to 10.00

Ready made little dresses for little folks. The material and work put into them are such that you can't buy the material and make them yourself any cheaper--all this tedious sewing done away with. Price range from

50, 75c and $1.00

Emroideries

Our new line of embroideries is as complete as you could wish. There never was a time when you could have such a variety of beauties to select from 85c per yd.

Try Advo Groceries--They're the Best
Phone No. 37 when you wish to know the highest price on Poultry and Produce.

Boys' Suits.

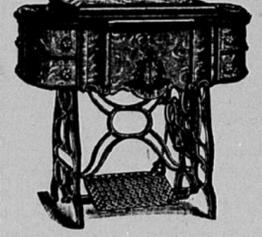

A great big line of "Viking" boys' suits just arrived. If your boys' last suit was a "Viking" we know his next one will be. If his last one wasn't, then try "Viking." No discouraging rips or loosening seams when your boy wears a "Viking" suit. Prices from $3.50 to $15.00.

Kehr's Department Store

SELLS EVERYTHING

Goodrich "B"

Sewing Machine

Contain all the latest and best sewing machine improvements--full ball bearing stand, drop head, automatic lift, automatic drawer locking device, automatic side tension release, automatic self-threading positive take-up, capped needle bar, guaranteed belt wheel and a written guarantee for 10 years.

Price, only $27.00

Bartcher Brothers
Denison's Leading Furniture Store