March 22—Review of the Lessons of the Quarter.

The lessons of this quarter have been priceless. After a number of years, seemingly of wanderings, about in the Old Testament relearning what the most of the children and adults attending Sabbath school knew before, it has been refreshing to have the pure plain gospel of the Lord Jesus set forth for consideration. Again, the gospel of John is the choicest part of the bible. It has been said that if the other three gospels were taken out and that of John could remain, it would be sufficient for the christian world to base its knowledge of the life work of the Savior. It is in this precious book that the lessons have been for the past quarter.

First of all came the opening chapter which told how the Son of God came to earth, and was the Word made flesh which dwelt among us. John the Baptist is next introduced, one of the striking characters of the bible. He came as the forerunner of the Christ and bore testimony that He was the Son of God. The fortitude with which John saw his power and popularity wane, and his death, because of denouncing sin in high places, presents a strong lesson to all.

The following lesson told of the choosing of the first disciples by Jesus and their testimony that He was the one of whom Moses and the prophets spoke, the redeemer of Israel and the world. From the cleansing of the temple by Jesus, we learned that there is a line between the religious and the worldly; that our bodies are the temple of God's spirit and must be kept clean; that our hearts are the special sanctuaries of this spirit, and should not be polluted. In the following lesson came the great verse of the bible, John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." There was added the important truth that Christ came not to condemn the world but that all through him might be saved.

After this our attention was called to a remarkable series of talks and miracles which open to the view the true mission of Christ. He spoke to the woman at the well telling her and us, that God is a spirit and they who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. He explained how His gospel was like water to the soul, reviving it and making it bloom into radiance fitting it to be transplanted to heaven. Jesus healed the son of the nobleman, and the faith of the father brought out the lesson that faith is the foundation stone of christian living. He healed the man at the pool, picking out the most helpless of a group, showing that His heart of love went out to the most dejected. Jesus fed the five thousand people with bread and fishes, and then gave the remarkable talk explaining that He was the bread of life; that His words were life giving, and that all who obeyed His commands, and did his will, should have eternal life. The closing lesson, in which it is told of the healing of the blind man, called to mind that Jesus is the light of the world, that brutality, degradation, selfishness, must give away before the light of His gospel. Thus we have given a rapid review of the lessons since January. They have been most precious, and will bear close, prayerful consideration. Next Sunday comes the temperance lesson.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING.

Interesting Gathering to Talk as to the Education of the Children.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. met in the parlor of the McKim Hall. As previously arranged this was a mothers' meeting, under the leadership of Miss Bond, the kindergarten teacher. A special invitation had been given to all mothers to attend. Notwithstanding the rain and muddy condition of the day a goodly number of members and guests were present. A suitable program was given, enlivened by discussion, in which nearly everyone present took part. The subject under consideration was "The Value of Constructive Work, Showing the Relation of Manual Training to the Kindergarten." Many expressions of appreciation of the helpfulness of the meeting were heard at the close. The program was followed by a social half hour, when light refreshments were served. Sectional Mothers' meetings have been one of the features of the W. C. T. U. work in Denison this year under the supervision of Miss Bond, who is the efficient superintendent of that department. They have all been well worth attending. We hope to see the good work go on.

Dow City.

Dow City furnished the pilot for the French Auto from here to Logan, E. N. Chamberlain. At that point a high toned dude had come out from Council Bluffs to be the pilot and so Chamberlain came back. Well, the French auto stuck in the mud and remained there for some days. We are thinking a good pilot would have got around the mud holes. Still we have no better train service.

Part of our homestead contingent got off this week. J. E. Pearsoll, Will Sterrett and Harry Huntington shipped their car from Arion and will soon be improving their claims at Draper, S. D.

 THE OLD "HUB" CORNER.

Wonderland!

What is it? — It is a White Ash Coal

It is exceptionally one of the Highest Qualities of Bituminous Coal that is mined.

In its nature it is a Splint Coal, and far superior to Cannell Coal for Domestic use.

It is hard as a rock, and can be exposed to all kinds of weather without Slacking, and Stocks as well as Anthracite or Hard Coal.

It is a free burner, its Heat Units far exceed Wellston Shaft Coal, and it will outlast that Coal two or three times to one.

It ignites quickly. Fire can be started by the use of paper only, and with an average good draft, no kindling is required.

It will hold fire over night, makes a very small percentage of ash, and is Absolutely Free from Clinkers, and clean to handle.

It will make one half the soot that other West Virginia Coal does, and not more than Jackson Hill Coal, which is the best Coal in the east.

We want you to try a little and satisfy yourselves.
