

Remember--

we move to our
New Ground Floor Location
 on the south side of Broadway
APRIL FIRST
W. W. Ferguson, Photographer

Next Monday is city election day. Mrs. Dr. Robinson was an Omaha visitor on Monday.
 E. T. Ryan of Vail was a pleasant Denison caller on Monday.
 Results—Thats Sioux City seeds, sold by the J. B. Romans Co.
 Mr. Herman Schultz of Schleswig spent Monday in Denison transacting business.
 Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Duff of Denison township on Sunday, March 22nd, a son.

Court begins next Monday. Miss Anna DeWolf has returned from her visit in Chicago.
 Prof. Albert Healy of the schools at Oto was in Denison over Sunday.
 Best Seeds—most for the money at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 11-4t.
 The best seeds are the Sioux City seeds sold by the J. B. Romans Co.
 The public schools of Denison have a week of vacation beginning next Monday.

J. H. Mueller and F. A. Smith of Boyer were business visitors in Denison on Monday.
 Mr. Rank the well known house owner was down near Arion Monday looking after his farm.
 Flower and Garden Seeds—Abundant producers, crop assuring. The Balle-Brodersen Co. 11-4

Druggist Lamborn spent the early days of this week at his old home at Griswald, Iowa.
 Wanted—Position by a young man of good habits in town or country inquire at this office. 13-1t.
 Misses Marie Keane and Fay Ratchford of Vail spent Saturday and Sunday with Marguerite Haugh.
 Attorney Moore of Manilla who is a candidate for the office of county attorney was in Denison on Monday.
 Mr. John Richardson we are happy to say is much better and able to take walks out of doors on the pleasant days.

P. M. Lane of Vail, alderman for the Third ward of Denison was a jolly county seat visitor on Monday.
 Sarachon Sisters report that their opening was a great success. Lots of pretty ladies bought lots of pretty hats.

We are pleased to say that Mrs. Carey, wife of the mayor, is now some better and will soon be about again.
 Mr. Alfred Miller who has the saloon business in the new building at Manilla was a county seat visitor on Monday.
 The pastor and membership of the Baptist church are preparing to observe the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the society in Denison.

Sioux City seeds sold in bulk by the J. B. Romans Co. These seeds are Iowa grown and are the best for Iowa planting.
 Mr. T. J. Rasp now of El Reno Oklahoma, but who was county auditor of this county for many years is in the city called by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. John Kelly. He is finding many friends to greet him.

C. B. Rank, the noted temperance talker will be in Denison this spring to advocate the passing by the next legislature of the state marshal law.
 Coupon redeemable in valuable merchandise give with our teas, coffee, spices, extracts, and baking powder. Full particulars given when you call. J. B. Lyon.

Woodie Bamford wants to know what we would do if we had three "Merry Widow" hats in front of us at church. One good thing about it, the preacher could not see how soundly we slept. But we have referred the matter to the religious editor for solution.
 News comes to us from Omaha of the birth on Wednesday, March 18, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. Morgan. The little one has been named Muriel. The friends of the parents in the vicinity of Manilla will be pleased to hear the news and will tender congratulations.

I will sell at public auction all my furniture and household goods Saturday March 28, at 1:00 o'clock p. m. This furniture is high grade and in good condition. Joe Scott.
 Mr. Ross Saunders, the bustling busy postmaster at Manilla was in Denison Monday. He is finding time to build a fine house this summer as well as to attend to his other manifold duties.
 Elder Charles Butterworth of the Latter Day Saints denomination was in Denison all last week holding meetings at the home of Mr. Montgomery in East Denison. He returned home on Monday.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. O. L. Fink who is living at Willis Point in northern Texas. He says that down with him corn is up and stock out on grass; the fruit of all kind is looking well and if all is well the people expect a large fruit crop this year. Roses are in full bloom.

The Queen Esther Circle will hold a Market Day at the Broadway Grocery Saturday afternoon, March 28th, pies, cakes, rolls and other good things for your Sunday dinner will be on sale. By order of Secretary.
 Among the educators called to Denison last week was Prof. Boot of the Manilla schools. We hear he is making a success of this work. He is a most pleasing man to meet. We hope he will stick to the profession and if so, will be found in places of much influence in the educational world.

BLACK LEG
 Is prevented by using
BLACKLEGOIDS
 before turning your cattle into pasture. Now is the time. Always fresh at Schlumberger's PHARMACY.

Fountain Pens! Fountain Pens Fountain Pens Fountain Pens!

YEP, that's it, and at ONE-HALF PRICE while they last. Think of it. A first-class Fountain Pen for SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS. We are it for prices straight through our line. If you are a doubter-- well, call and see us, for we are the show you kind.

E. C. Chamberlin the Jeweler,

Rollins will win by at least a hundred.
 Seeds with a reputation. Rice's Seeds. Go to J. B. Romans Co.
 With the good weather continuing the farmers will soon be head-over-heels in work.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly left on Saturday for Lake View to hunt ducks for a few days.
 Mrs. F. W. Mitchell of Vail visited between trains Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Dan McCarthy.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly and son, Louis, spent Sunday in Denison visiting at the John Kelly home.
 Misses Mildred Larson, Fern and Edla Johnson of Kiron visited the latter part of last week, with Miss Birdie Berg.
 To the delight of his friends Mr. Lou Baer was on the streets Monday wearing his uniform as night watch and policeman. He has been a very sick man and his recovery has been marvelous. All hope he may grow in strength and be our faithful peace officer for many years.
 The millinery stores spring openings were last week. This was a big event for the ladies and they were out in large numbers crowding the business houses. On Saturday there were many strangers in, drawn by the spelling contest and meeting of teachers. Some of the new hats made their appearance on Sunday in the churches.
 There was a home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schutz on Tuesday evening March 24. At that time Miss Caroline J. Hambrecht, sister of Mrs. Schutz, was married to Mr. George H. Schroeder. Both the contracting parties reside at Madison, Wis. They will have their home seven miles east of that city on a fine dairy farm. They are both good sensible young German people and mean to found an ideal home. May the best of happiness be theirs. Rev. La Rue was the officiating minister.

Mr. Sears McHenry went to Cedar Rapids Tuesday night.
 Rice's Flower and fancy vegetables seeds—Inquire of the J. B. Romans Co.
 Mrs. C. F. Kuehne leaves for Chicago this week for a two weeks' visit.
 Mrs. Smith and daughter, Miss Mabel of Ute visited at the Dr. W. T. Wright home last week.
 Miss Nell McCarthy left for Monroe, Nebr., Saturday owing to the sickness of her niece, Mrs. Doty Hill.
 Mrs. Anna Winans of Woolsey, S. D., visited at the home of her brother, Mr. Scott McKim last week.
 Dr. Coon, the candidate for councilman in the third ward, was for many years on the council and was mayor of Arion. He will come on the council well qualified to act without waiting to gain experience.
 There will be a feat of basket ball at the opera house on Friday evening of this week. The Council Bluffs High school team will be here and play with the Denison High school. After that game the girls of West Side will play the girls of the Denison High school. These are the last games of the season and there should be a big attendance.

Mrs. Frank Foote of Logan spent Sunday with Sarachon Sisters.
 Mrs. R. Moleseed of Vail was in Denison shopping on Monday.
 Mr. Geo. Lee, who will have the Iseminger farm in Goodrich township is among the Review's new unsolicited subscribers.
 March 20th was a red letter day for the Review for on that day we received four brand new absolutely unsolicited subscribers.
 Services will be resumed at Trinity Episcopal church next Sunday Morning by Rev. Mr. Corbett, who has been appointed by the Bishop in charge of the parish.
 Maggie Flemming, who came so near receiving the second prize for spelling is a handsome bright young girl of fourteen. She made a good impression with all who saw her at the contest. She has the medal anyway for the best speller in Stockholm.
 Herman Schwingdorf of Charter Oak was one of the Review's German friends who came in to pay in advance today. The Review now has a splendid list among the German farmers of the county and we are more than glad to have them for subscribers.

Reports from Boulder, Colo., state that Miss Fanchon Bamford fell last week and sprained her ankle badly.
 W. R. Kelm of Ricketts was a Denison caller to-day. He told us to keep on sending the big Review as it was too good a paper to do without.
 The democratic state convention meets at Cedar Rapids this week. Bryan will be endorsed and a red hot platform adopted. Really, however a democratic state convention amounts to very little in Iowa.
 The Balle-Brodersen opening last week attracted people not only from all over Crawford but from adjoining counties. Carnations were given as favors and the big store looked its best. The firm pronounces this to be one of the largest "Openings" it has had.
PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.
 Morning worship 10:30, subject "The Seed." 1st series on "The growing christian." Sabbath school at 12 M. Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:30, topic "The wise use of influence" leader, Rollo Terry, Prayer and praise service at 7:30, theme "Lifes greatest question." At this service the Wheeler-Hover orchestra will render a sacred concert.
 J. Jas. DeDree, Pastor.

SPECIAL!
 Fancy Carnations, all colors, with ferns, 30 cents per dozen
 Fancy Roses, red, white or pink, 60 cents per dozen
Bartcher Bros.,
 Wholesale and Retail.

SPECIAL!
Paint at wholesale price, $1.25 per gal.
 We have decided to close out our entire line of Masury's Mixed Paints, and in order to turn our stock at once we are making a price of $1.25 per gallon.
 There is still a good assortment of colors left, and if you want to take advantage of this price, we advise that you call at once.
Lamborn Drug Co.,
 Next door to Postoffice. Denison, Iowa

The Oxford
 Saturday Dinner, March 28, 1908
 Navy Bean Soup
 Roast Beef—brown gravy
 Stewed Lamb Green Peas
 Loin of Pork with Apple Sauce
 Boston Baked Pork and Beans
 Mashed Potatoes June Peas
 Bread Pudding
 Coffee Tea Milk
A Special 25c Dinner Every Day.
 Watch this space for our Bill of Fare, and try our splendid meals.

CARPETS AND RUGS

Another season has crept upon us, but as usual we are prepared, and a little earlier than usual. And better prepared, too, better and larger stocks, greater varieties and better values.
 Our carpet department, showing Brussels and Ingrain carpetings, mattings, oil cloths, linoleums, small and large room size rugs, lace curtains and portieres, window shades, etc., is thoroughly alive with new attractions, ready to show our friends the beauty, luxury and elegance of the immense stock. If you are improving your home come in and see our grand array of floor coverings before you make a purchase. We have the first selections from the leading manufacturers, and are able to show you in addition to the staple lines, a splendid variety of original, novel and artistic designs in all kinds of floor coverings.

RUGS
 Axminsters and Moquettes. Sizes 27x54 inches to 12x15 feet. Four different grades.
 Velvet Rugs, size 27x54 inches to 9x12 feet. Three different grades.
 Smyrna Rugs, size 27x54 inches to 9x12 feet. Two different grades.
 Wilton Rugs, size 27x54 inches to 9x12 feet. Three different grades.
 Body Brussels Rugs, size 9x12 feet.
 Tapestry Rugs, size 8 1/4 x 10 1/2 feet to 10 1/2 x 13 1/2 feet. Three grades.

CARPETINGS
 Ingrain Carpets, 1 yard wide, 35c to 85c per yard.
 Sultana (washable) Carpet, 28c per yard.
 Sanitary Carpet (same as Sultana, but heavier) 35c per yard.
 Fibroid Carpeting (matting designs) 35c per yard.
 Velvet Carpeting (27 inches wide) only three different patterns left. While this lot lasts $1.00 per yard. (Special value.)

Straw Matting
 In plain colors. Plain with fancy painted figures. Plain with colored woven designs and a large variety of fancy woven designs. We guarantee our matting to be the best in the market for the prices asked. 25c to 75c per yard.

Linoleums
 Printed in Imported and Domestic, up to 12 feet wide.
 Inlaid in Imported only, 6 feet wide.
 Linoleum Rugs, 6x9 feet to 9x12 feet.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.