

Arion Anchor

Local Briefs.

Jessie Butler visited her brother, Hal of Sioux City and returned Monday.

Wm. Antrim of Omaha transacted business here Monday.

Mrs. Sylester Thew of Denison spent Tuesday in Arion with her friend, Mrs. Byron Glee.

The Ladies Aid Society will serve supper next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Clark. All are invited to partake of a good meal for fifteen cents.

Bert Cruise returned home from Dakota and states that they are very much in need of rain there.

Mrs. Earl Mackey of Sioux City visited Monday at the Mackey home and then went to the home of her father in Dunlap to remain a few days.

Mrs. R. A. Talcott and daughter Olive were in Denison last Friday.

Mrs. W. W. Coon was very sick last Sunday night, and is still in a dangerous condition.

Born Sunday April 26th, to Mr. Valquartsen and wife a baby boy.

Grant Walburn with his family and mother started last Sunday on their journey to Idaho where they expect to make their future home. J. Walburn will remain under the Dr.'s care until he is able to take the long journey.

Dr. Evans made a trip to Omaha last Saturday and returned the same day.

Gertrude Logsdon spent Saturday with her aunt, Mrs. Howard Cole of Denison.

Leonard Butterworth returned from Independence, Mo., where he spent three weeks attending the L. D. S. general conference. He had the pleasure of hearing many prominent speakers.

Aunt Maggie Talcott attended the W. C. T. U. convention in Denison last week.

Inez Hollowell came from Ames last Wednesday to attend the Talcott-Rule wedding. She returned to her school work Thursday.

Many homes were saddened in Arion when the news of the death of little Frederick Louis Meyers was learned. The parents and other relatives have the sympathy of all, who know that their loss has been great.

Byron Cloe, wife and Stella Butler came from Omaha Friday. Mr. Cloe returned Sunday. Mrs. Cloe and Stella will remain for several days.

Mrs. Murphy of Rodney changed cars here Monday for Denison where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Quade.

Mr. Stilwell of Missouri Valley spent Sunday with friends here.

W. C. Larson transacted business in Council Bluffs last Thursday.

John and Heury Doidge drove to Denison last Saturday.

Hudson Downs is again quite sick.

The Mises Blosser and Howorth gave their pupils one quarter day holiday last Friday. The pupils having earned this by their regular attendance.

The last meeting of the Friday club was held at the home of Mrs. Pete Hollowell where a very pleasant afternoon was spent. A two course luncheon was served, Mrs. Hollowell was assisted in serving by Stella Riddle. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Larson.

Several of our Arion boys who attend the Dow City high school were much pleased over the results of the ball game with Charter Oak, which resulted in favor of the Dow City team. The return game will be played in Charter Oak one week from Saturday.

J. L. Maurer and wife will move to Omaha May 1st. This will be regretted by all, as Mr. Maurer for several years has been identified with Arion and its interests and will be missed. Mrs. Maurer will also be missed greatly in church work where she was always a willing worker. For several years Mr. Maurer was city mayor and did much to enforce the laws to make the place better. May success follow them in their new home and among new friends.

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday evening at the home of Wm. H. Rule, where Geo. Talcott was united in marriage to Nettie Rule. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the happy event. Mr. Talcott is a young man of ability and one of our most respected and prosperous young farmers. Miss Rule is a favorite of the entire community from her long service in the telephone office, here she became so well known. These worthy young people have the brightest prospects in life. All join in hearty congratulations.

T. J. Henry, Mrs. Menagh and Mrs. Henry went to Omaha Monday evening where they were called by telegram to come owing to the sickness of Mrs. Grady.

Ella Fox returned Monday morning from Ute where she spent a few days with her friend, Mrs. Barnard. She reports Mr. Barnard doing well with his broken limb.

Deniel Cruise and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Biggs of Goodrich township.

Frank Howorth and Miss Glee were calling on Arion friends here last Sunday.

Dow City.

There has been some politics doing in the past week owing to the necessity of getting nominations to the auditor by May 2nd and township tickets have been made up by both parties. The republican ticket will be as follows.

Clerk—G. M. Goddard.

Justices—W. V. Whaley and A. A. Conrad.

Constables—M. Riley and Milo Kelly.

Trustees—Jas. Walters, Herman Logsdon and E. H. Crandall.

Assessor—H. B. Johnson.

Committeeman—W. H. Wiggins.

Delegates to county convention—Hermon Logsdon, G. W. Fritz, E. G. Wiggins, J. W. Cramer, Jas. Walters, Ed. Butts, Frank McHenry, Will McBride, B. F. Judd and Thos. A. Rae.

The democrats were also active and named the following ticket:

Clerk—Frank Odell.

Justices—G. W. Langley and Geo. Huntington.

Assessor—A. A. Fishel.

Trustees—Clark Sterrett and Ed. Ahart.

Committeeman—Chas. Smith.

Delegates—Henry Messenbrink, Henry Young, Eugene Crandall, Ed. Poitevin, A. H. Rudd, Ed. Riddle, David McNeil, Thos. Ahart, N. R. Wilder and Ed. Ahart.

Special interest is being taken in the meeting of the missionary society of the M. E. church at the home of Aunt Maggie Talcott on the afternoon of the first Wednesday in May which comes on the sixth. There will be a sale of drawn work made by the Chinese pupils of Miss Mamie Glassburner in far away China. This work should bring a big price because of where it came from. We hope there will be a large attendance of ladies and men also. Tea will be served.

Mr. Cummings, who is a candidate for sheriff on the democratic primary ticket was at Dow City Tuesday.

Mr. Lister, the competent piano tuner was tuning the Methodist church piano on Tuesday.

Elder Sheldon preached morning and evening at the Saints church last Sunday and will probably preach here next Sunday.

Fred Jackson and wife are much concerned over the condition of their little boy Lewis. He has become quite helpless from what some call creeping paralysis. All hope the child will be better when the summer comes.

There was much concern during the past week over the condition of Verne O'Meara, the little son of the saloon keeper. He was operated on for appendicitis and is now better.

The Clark Sterrett family is enjoying a visit from her uncle, J. B. Thompson whose home has been at Joseph, Oregon for many years. He went out to Oregon in 1864 and is an old timer. His home has been in the ranch country not far from the Idaho line and he can tell all about roughing it far from railroads.

Our people were interested in the wedding of George Talcott and Jennette Rule. They have no superiors as worthy young people. The details of the wedding will be given by other correspondents.

The Methodist people are well pleased over making their offering for missions larger than ever before. It will run up to nearly $265, thanks to the energy of Pastor Curtis and his people.

Mrs. Whaley is reported as not so well.

Mrs. S. E. Rudd, Josie McBride and Rena Brake went up to Denison Tuesday. Sears Nelson was also along but insists that he did not go because the young ladies did.

The 89th anniversary of the Odd Fellows order called to Carroll on Monday night some of our Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Among them were: George Brake, Bert Cooper, Ira Sterrett and the Misses Lottie Bixler and Florence Miller. They came home Tuesday morning reporting a good time.

Scott Ballengee and family returned to their home at Lusk, Wyoming Thursday.

Mrs. L. Jones returned to Lincoln, Neb., Saturday.

A number of her girl friends surprised Clara Williamson Saturday afternoon, it being her eleventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in games, and a nice lunch was served.

Born to Carl Nickelson and wife a son.

Mrs. S. J. Waters has returned home after an extended visit at the Fred Feinhold home.

Attorney E. H. Swasey returned Thursday from Colfax Springs, and is looking much improved.

Lola Fishel is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Rita Odell is in Omaha.

Mrs. R. S. McColl and Mrs. Alex Baber attended the temperance meeting in Denison Friday and Saturday.

Sunday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Toon were driving east of town for a call. The horses became frightened and commenced running. The Dr. lost control of the horses and leaped out expecting to catch the bridle, but failed. Mrs. Toon was thrown out of the buggy, but fortunately no one was

A Land Bargain!

160 Acre Farm for Sale

Good house, good barn and out buildings. Water works, good grove, good orchard. Not a foot of waste land on the farm. Five miles over fine roads to good market town in Crawford County. Will sell for

$77.50 per acre

Two-thirds cash; balance to suit buyer. This price will be shaded to an all cash customer. If you mean business write to hurt. The team turned and ran back to town and no damage was done.

X 19 care Review, Denison, Iowa

Write--Don't Ask.

Prof. Kies had a knee quite badly strained Saturday playing ball.

SOLDIER NEWS.

Christ Clausen and wife visited at the home of the latter's parents, Aug. Namanny.

Henry Stamp, wife and family spent Sunday with Hans Stamp in Berne.

A large number of young folks spent Saturday evening at the Fred Kuhlmann home.

Freda Kuehl is spending a few days with her friends near Schleswig.

Otto Clausen was the guest of Peter Paulson at the E. Wilson home Sunday.

Mrs. Adolph Rosburg returned home from the Charter Oak hospital Wednesday, and her many friends are glad to see her improving.

Wilhelm Meyers, wife and Louie Kroll, wife and family and Rev. Wehking spent Sunday afternoon at the Binger home.

Bertha Clausen spent Sunday at the Buhn home.

Paul Kroll and Ernest Binger visited at Wilhelm Kroll's Sunday.

Mr. John Riha of Vining Ia., says: "I have been selling De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

DELOIT.

Chas. Flint of Middleton, Idaho started Thursday morning for his home after a short visit here among relatives and friends. He was accompanied to Omaha by James McKim.

C. J. Cose and Mike Myers were at Denison last Thursday.

O. C. Armour returned to Deloit last Sunday.

E. W. Pilcher came down from Ida Grove Saturday.

Mrs. F. P. Nixon has been spending several days at Correctionville by the bedside of her sick father.

A farewell reception was held in the hall Friday evening in honor of J. A. Halberg and wife but the day being so bad only a few were permitted to meet.

Among those in town Saturday we noticed, J. M. Childress, P. O. Huckstep and P. Spence.

Mrs. Myrtle Myers and Mrs. Alice Turner and little daughter visited Saturday with their parents, Fred Schuler and wife.

Word was received Sunday that a nine pound baby boy came to gladden the home of Earl Winans and wife Wednesday April 22, 1908. Their many friends here congratulate them and wish the little fellow long life and joy to its parents.

Margie Brogden went down to her uncle Charley Brogden's Sunday to assist her aunt this week.

C. W. Winey shipped his sheep to Omaha Monday and went down with them. His wife went down Tuesday morning and joined Mr. Winey in Council Bluffs and together they will spend the day in Omaha returning Tuesday evening.

Mr. Morris received his regular spring shipment of Maple sugar and syrup from New York the latter part of the week. He gets the genuine article from his niece, Mrs. Frank Duryea for a year's use, who makes a lot of Maple sugar and syrup every year.

Mrs. R. B. Howard went to Modale last Friday to spend a few days.

J. A. Halberg and wife were at Denison Monday.

Mill on Johnson of Denison was in town Tuesday.

Charles Brogden and son came up to Deloit Tuesday with some fine mules to turn in the pasture east of own.

Mrs. J. T. Spence and son Arthur were passengers to Omaha Saturday.

RICKETTS ITEMS.

A large crowd gathered at the Wm. Nemitz home Wednesday evening for a few hours of pleasure as it was his birthday. The Hanover Band under the direction of Prof. C. Wendt was there and with such music the evening could not have been other than pleasant for one and all.

Freda Kuhl boarded the east bound train Thursday for a few days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. P. C. Petersen returned Tuesday from a short stay with her mother near Castana.

A large crowd attended the Posthoff sale Saturday afternoon. On account of a telephone meeting held before the sale the time was so short that everything was not sold so there will be another sale next Saturday.

A few friends of Mrs. C. Mohnke spent Saturday afternoon with her in remembrance of her birthday.

Mrs. Adams of Smithland is visiting her friends Mesdames. W. Howland, H. Wood and E. G. Hess this week.

One of the pleasant evenings of the season was spent with J. C. Jacobsen and wife Friday when a few of their best friends were invited in. "Somerset and Millionaire" were the games played and enjoyed by all. At eleven Mrs. Jacobsen served delicious refreshments to which the crowd did ample justice. At a late hour we departed declaring Mr. Jacobsen and wife most royal entertainers.

Mrs. L. H. Jonannsen called on Mrs. H. R. Timm Saturday evening.

Helen Garber enjoyed supper with Mrs. L. F. Kreymborg Thursday.

Jungen Krohnke and wife were down from Schleswig Saturday.

L. B. Goodrich came Saturday morning and acted as our barber for a few days assisting L. M. Ryman. The men are all smiles to see Ike back and wish he would come to stay.

Robert Hoek has been quite sick the past week.

August Hintze returned from Daventport Saturday and intends to work around here this summer.

Claus Rusch attended the Posthoff sale Saturday and visited friends in town.

Sherman Seiford was up town for the first time for several months. We are glad to see Sherm slowly recovering.

Mrs. L. C. Goodrich of Kiron and Jessie Cook of Schleswig were guests of Mrs. H. R. Timm Friday.

Scott Jones, wife and Mrs. C. T. Marshall visited at the J. C. Jacobsen home Saturday.

A crowd went to charivari Clint Seiford Friday evening amid all the rain and mud and when they arrived were informed that they arrived a little early. Clint invited them back Monday evening and gave a big dance. The bride is a Sioux City lady unknown to us. We certainly wish them a life of happiness.

Henry Lyons and Velma Smith drove up from Soldier to spend Sunday with Chas. Lyons and wife. The bad weather kept them until Monday and Henry will remain a few days as he came down with the measles Sunday night so cannot return home.

A man and his wife from Sloan were here Monday looking for a location. He is station agent and is thinking of taking Mr. Ryman's place. He was formerly agent at Breda and we trust he will like our town enough to locate here.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

Kenwood

The son and daughter of Mr. Turner and wife, who have been so ill are now reported as improving.

Oscar Fienhold and wife attended services in Denison Sunday.

The Catholic church in our little burg is fast nearing completion and prospects for a full house is expected.

Anna Ranninger of Denison attended the wedding of her friend, Jeannette Rule last Wednesday.

At the home of the bride's parents, Wm. Rule and wife, occurred the quiet wedding of Miss Jeannette Rule to Mr. Talcott of Arion, on Wednesday evening. Only the immediate relatives were present. A delicious luncheon was served and those present report a most enjoyable time. Miss Hollowell of Ames and Howard Rule of Sioux City, Miss Ranninger of Denison and Garfield Rule of Dunlap were the out of town guests. All join in wishing this couple every joy and happiness possible. They will live with the groom's mother just south of Arion.

Miss Agnes Ownes was a Sunday visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. Fienhold.

Mrs. Waters returned to her home in Dow City after a few days visit with her niece, Mrs. Arthur Cook.

WHEN THE HEART IS AFFECTED

or the muscles surrounding that organ by rheumatism, experimenting with sample treatment is like tampering with a live electric wire for death may come at any moment. If life is worth it do not hesitate to get the treatment which has stood the test for twenty years—Dr. Drummond's. Write to the Drummond Medicine Co., New York, and they will send you literature free, worth $5 to a rheumatic. It is not as quick as electricity, but will save life if you act in time.

JACKSON,

William Detbond had his hand taken off with a rotary saw, while sawing lumber at his place last Tuesday noon.

Chris. Bolling and Dora Mink were married at the prairie church near Breda, April 22.

The Easter dance at Herring was well attended and all had a merry time.

Anna Hendrichsen is on the sick list.

Mrs. Martin Peters' niece, Mrs. Hidden, living in Dakota, was killed by lightning last Friday morning.

Mrs. Dick Dean is very sick at her home in Wall Lake.

Martin Peters has bought the old Sherwood place and will move on it when he gets the house repaired, and a barn built.

Someone stole the "swill" from the blind pig one night last week.

Martin Peters' team ran away from him last Saturday evening as he was unhitching. No one was hurt.

Mrs. W. A. Murdock of Chicago is visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. N. Gunn this week.

Frank Weed is on the sick list.

Albert Wagoner and family of Odebolt visited with his relatives in Jackson this week.

Arion State Bank

Arion, Iowa.

Capital $25000.00

5 per cent interest on Time Deposits.

WE WRITE

INSURANCE

of all kinds. If you are in need of a policy, come in and let us tell you all about it.

Money to Loan

OFFICERS
THOS. RAE, Pres., SAM FOX, Vice Pres., CHAS. HORN, Cashier.

J. U. WISE,

Funeral Director and Embalmer.
Now with
ARION MERCANTILE CO., Arion, Ia.
Calls answered day and night. Floral designs furnished.

N. F. STILLSON,

Blacksmith and Wagon Maker
Arion, Iowa.
Horseshoeing a Specialty.
All work guaranteed.

Nye, Schneider, Fowler Co.

Dealers in Lumber, Grain and Coal....

Highest market price paid for Grain. We sell Lumber and Coal at prices that are right.

Your Patronage Solicited

R. O. CLARK, Mgr.
Arion, Iowa.

W. B. EVANS

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
ARION, IOWA

Consumption is less deadly than it used to be.

Certain relief and usually complete recovery will result from the following treatment:

Hope, rest, fresh air, and—Scott's Emulsion.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

