The Conner Club is still growing. Last week it passed the 400 mark. Unfortunately it cannot grow much larger for there are mighty few republicans in Denison who have not signed.

As soon as the list was published our democratic friends tried to punch holes in it, but they are unable to do so with any gratifying results. In fact the results have been just the contrary. They find on the list the name of several life long democrats, who now announce that they have voted the democratic ticket for the last time.

The list has had fine effect throughout the district as the lie had been industriously circulated that Judge Conner could not get good endorsement at home.

We are sure that not a man has signed this club roll who does not intend to cast his vote in the primary for Judge Conner.

If it were an election nearly 100 more votes could be added to the list as there are that many democrats in Denison who have such personal faith in Judge Conner and such pride in a Denison man that they will vote for him in spite of politics.

Judge Conner has every reason to be proud of the showing Denison has made and without violating any confidence we will say that Judge Conner is very apt to reciprocate in Denison's behalf.

BUS LINE TO CEMETERY.

For Ten Cents One Can Ride to Cemetery and Return

President Scriver of the cemetery association and his associates have a plan to assist lot owners in visiting the cemetery. It is the plan to have a bus run over on Sunday and Wednesday afternoons of each week. A start will be made from the Baptist church corner at 1:30, 2:30 and 3:30 and the last return trip to be made at six p. m. The fare has been placed way down, so that all can go who desire. Ten cents will be collected for going over and a ticket given good for return. If one walks back the ticket is not good for a ride out on another day.

There are many in town who do not own a carriage, or who cannot afford to hire a livery, who have loved ones buried on the hill. These long for some means in reach, to visit the cemetery and for such Mr. Scriver has devised the bus plan. It will be well to "get the habit" of going over. The bus will be ready on next Wednesday, and if the weather is good, will be well patronized.

AFTER THIRTY-SIX YEARS.

M E Jones Goes to Wisconsin to Meet Three Brothers

Mr. M. E. Jones, cashier of the Crawford County bank is at Warsaw, Wis., this week where there will be a reunion of four brothers of "his branch" of the Jones tribe. Their father died back in New York in 1871 and in 1872 "Mother Jones" and Marcus and Adelbert came to Iowa and since that time, the four boys have not been together, although three of them have. Adelbert has spent many years away up in the Klondike near Arctic circle, and the older brother had his residence at Montpelier Vermont. All the boys have "made good" in their careers in life, and we know the reunion will be a happy one. They will all be in Denison shortly to see their step mother, Mrs. Mary Jones, who was as constant in her love as a true mother could be. The boys are W. D. of Montpelier, Vt., G. D. of Warsaw, M. E. of Denison and L. A. of Chicago.

AT THE UNION DEPOT

Local Talent Scores Great Success on Tuesday Night

WAS AN EVENING OF MIRTH

Mrs J B Romans and Associates Entitled to Much Credit

Well, of all the funny side splitting things presented on a Denison stage the "Union Depot" takes the cake. The man or woman who originated the affair was evidently a close observer of the happenings in a big depot, and with Denison people to represent the scenes, they seemed humorous indeed. The entertainment was in charge of the young peoples' societies of the Methodist church, the Queen Esther and Standard Bearers. They were fortunate in securing Mrs. J. B. Romans to have charge of the rehearsals and to appear as the garulous old woman who was ever breaking in to tell how many husbands she had buried.

The stage of the opera house was arranged to appear as the waiting room of a big depot. There was the lunch counter, ticket office, seats, news boy, train board, depot master, and it really looked natural. The trains were heard arriving and departing. Soon the passengers began to arrive and then the fun began. It would take a page to tell all about the Italian singers, old gent who was sold a gold brick, and his wife, the talkative boy, the lecturing religious fanatic, the jolly school girls, the whistling news boy, the hen pecked husband, the lecturer who was given a baby to hold while the mother went out, but never returned, the widower with the four children who proposed on his knees to an aged spinster, the fresh wedding couple, the aunts guarding their niece who gave them the slip and was married while they sat waiting, the opera troupe headed by the great singer, Mrs. Sibbert, who sang magnificently in the depot to raise funds to help a deserving unfortunate woman. All did well and we shall not attempt to particularize among the performers.

Miss Edith Gillmor as president of the Queen Esther society did much to make the affair a success with her management. The sum added to the treasury of the societies will be fully $110. The management would thank the public for the liberal attendance which crowded the hall. Long will the Union Depot linger in remembrance of all who took part or saw it given.

The following persons took part in the performance:

Old Lady, Miss Gulick, Mrs. Chattermoch, Helen Burch, and daughter Marie, Ethel Mill, Italians, Lillie Raine and Warner Temple, Joe Gamin, Garnet Norman, Aunt Amelia Saylittie, Bertha Kelly, Nephew Willie, Carl Sibbert, Uncle Josh, Mr. Humphrey, Aunt Sary, Mrs. George Sprecher, Dude, James Hunter, School girls, Clara Scriver, Verne Stocking and Alice Romans, Mrs. Garrulous, Mrs. J. B. Romans, Prof. Learned, J. C. Baker, Woman with a baby, Edith Gillmor, Depot Master, Warren Romans, Opera Troupe, Mrs. Sibbert, Mrs. L. F. Reiter, Bertha Romans, George Seeman, Mrs. Needy, Mrs. Boyle, Three children, Harold Laub, Beth Romans, Hardy Gillmor, An Autoist, Leslie Gulick, Widower, Oliver Saul, Six children Hubert Van Ness, Howard Johnson, Ethel Chamberlin, Miss Fishwell, Gladys Tucker, Wedding party, Willetta Strahn, George Seeman, Effie Norris, Oscar Strahn, Beacon Street, Mabel Merrill, Aunt Martha Ancient, Mrs. Penny, Aunt Marie Ancient, Junia Romans, Helen Flighty, Clara Strahn, Harry Field, Luman Sewell, Depot Agent, Mr. Criswell, College Boys.

MADE GOOD RECORD

County Attorney Klinker Has Made Good Official.

ASKS FOR A RE-NOMINATION

Self-made Young German is Appealing to His Friends at the Primaries.

"Nothing succeeds like success." Ever since John Klinker has been a little boy this seems to have been his motto.

He made a success when he was a youngster running about Denison kicking up the dimes with which to make the dollars with which to take a college course.

He made a success of his school course. He made a success at Iowa University. He took hold of the college paper and made a success of it, being practically the first to put that institution on a self supporting basis. He came back to Denison and he has made good here. He has done it by persistent effort. Anyone who heard his great speech in the Hassan trial would hardly believe it was the same young man who made his first campaign speeches in Crawford but a few years before. As a candidate Klinker has made a success. He can get votes.

In the last election he and Uncle Morris were the only republican on our splendid ticket who managed to pull through.

The greatest event in Mr. Klinker's life so far was the Hassan trial. It was freely predicted that "Johnny" was up against the real thing and that it would prove too much for his inexperience. Throughout the trial however, Mr. Klinker showed thoroughness, good judgment, skill and finally he made an argument that at once put him in the rank with our best attorneys.

Mr. Klinker has already beaten democracy's strongest men, Sam O'Hare, supposedly invincible, Maurice O'Connor and Shaw Van have all been victims of his powers and he is confident that he can beat either of the possible democratic nominees if given a chance.

Mr. Klinker has a strong following among the Germans of the county who usually vote the democratic ticket and he believes they will stand by him again.

Klinker's "main holt" is in doing things efficiently promptly and well. The Review has previously published the portraits and a sketch of his opposing candidates W. S. Moore of Manilla and E. W. Kahler of Denison. The Review has naught but kind words to say for any of the candidates as it is convinced that anyone of them would make excellent officials.

WILL SEND PASTOR AWAY

The Membership of the Baptist Church Make up Purse to Send Pastor to a Missionary Convention

Pastor LaReau of the Baptist church is much pleased over the action of his membership in raising without notice to him a sum sufficient to defray his expenses to a great missionary convention of the denomination to be held at Oklahoma City May 20. The money was given him at the close of the service on Sunday evening. The Baptists of Oklahoma are preparing to entertain the visitors in regular new country style and will make the convention a big affair. Some of the best men of the denomination will be present and the gathering as a whole be one of the events in the Baptist church history in the convention line. Rev. LaReau has proven a hard worker, a successful pastor and the action of his people is well deserved.

THE SALE OF COUNTY BONDS.

Fifty Thousand Dollars of Crawford County Bonds to be Sold.

Thursday May 14th at two in the afternoon is the time set for the county treasurer to open the bids for the sale of fifty thousand dollars worth of bonds. This is necessary in that the board of supervisors has allowed the county to become that amount behind on the bridge fund. Of course now that the deed is done, it will be cheaper for the taxpayers to pay four and a-half per cent interest or less than to have the warrants marked "unpaid for lack of funds" drawing a higher rate.

The tax payers generally knew nothing about this debt, and the news that they were to be taxed three mills extra for over twenty years was not welcome. With the added three mills the rate for Denison property holders will be fully seven per cent on the assessed valuation. The only hope for the property holder of this class is to obtain the lowest possible assessment. The voters are about to elect four members of the board of supervisors the terms of Messrs Molter, Cook, Ahart and Baeth expiring. We urge that men be chosen in the place of these men who will not let any fund get so far behind as to require a sale of bonds, or demand that the members re-elected shall make a pledge to be more careful. Now is the time to act, for when the men once get in they will do as they please.

The report of the county auditor issued recently shows that on January first the outstanding bridge warrants amounted to thirty-eight thousand dollars. Three months after the board asked for fifty thousand to square up. The report shows that in 1905, the sum of $24,800 was expended for bridges, in '06 $32,800 and 1907 $47,244. This is a startling increase in three years, when the fund was already overdrawn. The tax payers will also note on page twenty-seven of the report that the cost of keeping the insane has amounted up in three years from $1,785 to about seven thousand dollars. It would be well for the voters to procure from the auditor the last report and take more interest in where the money is going. If this bond issue is the means of arousing the voters to know more about county affairs it will be well.

BUYS A SIX-FORTY

C L Voss Buys a Fine New Stevens Automobile

C. L. Voss will soon be making a noise like a millionaire as he dashes by in his new six cylinder—forty horse power, Stevens Duryea touring car. The purchase was made at Des Moines through A. F. Boylan and the car is now at the factory having some extras put on.

Mr. Voss expects to run it up from Des Moines some time next week. He will keep his other touring car for the present so that he will be fairly sure of having one car in commission all the time. Mr. Voss has real estate all over western Iowa, a swift strong car will prove of great value to him as well as a source of pleasure. Charles is such a splendid fellow that no one can grudge him his prosperity.

SICKNESS AT HILL HOME

R L Hill's Wife and Aged Father are Both Ill

The home of Mr. R. L. Hill is saddened by the severe illness of Mrs. Hill and the aged father of Mr. Hill who is now above ninety years of age.

Mrs. Hill is a frail little woman whose strength of mind and soul alone have kept her among the living. Much apprehension is felt for her as her vitality has not been gaining as it should. Her daughters, Mrs. Lulu Cox of Enid, Oklahoma and Mrs. Carrie Miller of Maquoketa are with her and last week her son residing in Cedar Falls, also visited her. It is the hope of all that both of those sick ones may recover.

TEST THE DAIRY HERDS

The Board of Health has Passed Resolution that All Dairy Cows Must be Tested.

In accordance with the request of the Current Event Club and in line with the action of the leading cities of the state the Denison Board of Health has passed a resolution directing and demanding that all cows whose milk is sold in Denison shall be tested to see whether they are healthy. This may result in some cows being killed, but the health of the community it is at stake and private rights will have to stand aside. It would be well for persons furnishing milk to take steps at once to test the cows.

MORE HITCHING POSTS

The Farmers Asking for More Places to Tie Their Teams

The town people do not realize how much the farmers are inconvenienced when on coming to town they cannot find a place to tie their teams. The Commercial Club is about to take this matter up in earnest. It would appear that the officials having charge of the court house square will not allow posts put up. Of course it somewhat spoils the looks of the beautiful surroundings to have the streets in front, full of holes from the tramping of horses and the straw, paper and rubbish generally are not ornamental. On the other hand, the farmers coming to town have some rights about the court house they are paying for it. The Commercial Club is asking property owners on Main Street to put in posts and iron rails for hitching purposes.

Ex Sheriff John Dethman has been cleared by a South Dakota jury of the offence of killing his partner. He claimed self-defense.

A ball game will be played between the Woodbine nine and the Denison nine Friday of this week on the College grounds.
