BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Mr. Hillie Newman and wife, of Arion, visited with Mrs. George Carpenter from Sunday until Monday. Jim Jones, of Denison, was looking after his business interests in this section Monday. Miss Gertie Griffin, after a short vacation at home, returned to her school duties last week. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Carlson were Sioux City visitors last week. They returned Monday evening. Miss Mollie Griffin visited friends in Neola and Council Bluffs for a few days last week. Messrs Jasper Hain and Lawrence Hagan were absent at Neola all last week, where they were engaged in carpenter work. Mrs. George Harvey was a Ute visitor Monday, and she returned home in the evening. Mr. Samuel Moffitt is able to be on our streets again, but is in feeble health. Henry Tillett attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, whose body was brought from Nebraska to Dow City for interment Monday. Miss Ethelene Tillett entertained a lady friend last week. Your correspondent did not learn the name of her visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hemphill were county seat visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Connors and Mrs. McSaray and children of Manilla came Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Joe Bowman. Mrs. G. H. Larentzen and child are sick with an attack of the measles. G. H. Larentzen is cook now days. Mrs. Joe Bowman is somewhat better, and was able to go to Denison to consult Doctor Hamilton, a specialist from Omaha. Her many friends hope she may find permanent relief. Mr. Cummings, of Denison, candidate for sheriff, was here on business Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Denison, were Buck Grove visitors Wednesday. Mr. Smith transacted business in this vicinity while Mrs. Smith come with him for the ride. Mrs. George Harvey went to Ida Grove Wednesday to visit her brother, Mr. Ben Noble, and family. She returned home Thursday evening. Miss Mollie Griffin returned from her visit to Council Bluffs and other points, Wednesday evening. Roy Slater is kept quite busy lately painting and collecting. By the way, Roy makes a dandy collector. Mrs. Laughren returned last week from a hospital at Omaha, where she underwent a successful operation a few weeks ago. Henry Hast cut his finger quite badly on a barb wire Friday. Mrs. Hook is lying quite ill in a hospital in Sioux City, after an operation. Her many friends hope she will soon recover and be spared to her family. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmeyer are the happy parents of a little son, born Friday, May 15th. The Misses Mary and Lizzie Smith visited their aunt, Mrs. Hork, at the hospital in Sioux City Sunday. Mr. Tom Finnegan, of Omaha, brother of our mayor, arrived for an over Sunday visit. He took his little daughter, Mamie, home with him. Mamie has been visiting her cousins here for several months and made many friends among her little playmates, all of whom miss her very much. Miss Lizzie Smith went to Centerville South Dakota to visit relatives for a few weeks. Martin Slattery, who had his leg broke a few weeks ago is able to be about again. He made a remarkably quick recovery. The stork visited at the home of John Dieber last week and left a baby boy. Congratulations are in order. Lawrence Hagan arrived home from Nebraska Sunday morning. Mrs. George Harvey and Irene Garber drove to Arion Saturday afternoon. Miss Garber took the train from there for Denison to spend Sunday at home. Dr. Van Meter and wife and Moss Mildred Wiggins were Buck Grove callers for a short time Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Fritz Alsen had the handsome new barn painted last week and it certainly looks fine. Mr. Olsen has reason to feel proud of his new building. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luathamer and children drove to Defiance Sunday to visit relatives. They barely reached home before the heavy rain storm, but Ben is always lucky. Miss Nellie Sullivan went to Omaha Sunday evening to visit relatives for several weeks. Dwight Hutchison and Roy Slater were Arion visitors Sunday. Dr. Bonney mourns the loss of a fine Caucasian queen bee. Her ladyship arrived safely and the doctor was, he thought, very particular in giving her pleasant quarters in the apiary, but he inadvertently placed her in a hive with an Italian queen, with the inevitable result, that when the rivals met, there was a duel to the death, and the Caucasian was killed. Verily there are trials even in raising bees. Miss Lizzie Sewing arrived Sunday from Omaha and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Byron McMullen. Miss Lizzie Slattery left Monday for a few weeks stay in Denison. Jasper Hains returned Monday after a weeks carpenter work at Neola. Jack Welsh is the proud possessor of a new cow, purchased from Fred Thompson last week. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins and children of Dow City, drove over Sunday for a days visit. A big rain storm came up in the afternoon, or rather towards evening and Willis had to go home alone, leaving his wife and Wilren with her parents to follow later.

WEST SIDE ITEMS.

Mrs. Della Dickenson, of Glidden, Iowa, came last Thursday for a visit at the S. P. Gulick home. Miss Ella Thiedemann returned home last Wednesday from Omaha, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. We are pleased to report her doing nicely though still rather weak. Mrs. Henry Dohse and Mrs. A. C. Schoenjahn and daughter were Carroll visitors on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh and son Asburg, of Carroll, Iowa, visited friends in West Side last Friday and Saturday. Miss Ella Thiedemann was a Vail caller last Monday. Miss Alma Hannemann went to Manning, Iowa, Monday for a couple of weeks visit with friends. Messrs. A. J. Kelley, J. C. Kaschube, and M. R. Hueschen were Arcadia callers on Monday. Dr. C. O. Grimes and Mr. A. C. Bergmann went to Lake View last Sunday to spend a few days hunting and fishing. Miss Charlotte Anderson spent Sunday at home with her parents. Miss Minnie Mill, of Denison, spent Friday with friends in West Side. The Woman's Home Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. R. D. Barr last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. F. J. Gary being leader. A very good program was given, after which the hostess served very dainty refreshments. Died, at his home in West Side, May 16th, 1908, Frank F. E. Brown, Jr., after an illness of several weeks with stomach trouble and other complications. Frank was born in West Side, Iowa, January 6, 1880, and has spent the greater part of his life here, where he is so well known and beloved. He was always bright and painstaking in his school work when a child, and graduated from the West Side High school in the class of 1896. He afterward went to Ames, Iowa, to attend school, where he took up his chosen profession of Civil Engineering. After graduating from Ames he held many responsible positions, recently surveying for underground work in Chicago. It was here that his health gave way and he was compelled to come home in March. Since then he has been constantly losing strength, but it was not thought that his illness was of an alarming character until about four weeks ago, when he was taken worse. Trained nurses and several doctors have been in constant attendance as well as all that it was possible for his loved ones to do, and it was thought at times he might recover, but on Saturday he grew weaker and quietly passed away. He leaves to mourn his loss, his father, Frank F. Brown Sr., two sisters, Mrs. H. C. Bock and Miss Clara Brown and one brother, Otto Brown, all of West Side. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Avery Richards and Rev. Carl Fauth. The remains were laid to rest in the West Side cemetery beside those of his mother. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. Last Friday afternoon the friends and acquaintances of Miss Hazel Cathcart gave her a linen shower at the home of Miss Christine Bock. Each guest was requested to bring a favorite recipe with them. There were a number of toasts given, as follows: Mrs. Lillie Sievers, "Advice to a Bride"; Mrs. Clara L. Walsh of Carroll, Iowa, "How to keep a husband, after you get him"; Miss C. Anderson, "How we shall miss Hazel when she is gone". The hostess, Miss Bock, assisted by Misses Davis and Overholzer served very dainty refreshments. Miss Cathcart was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and the afternoon ended pleasantly with the heartiest of good wishes from all present for the future of Miss Cathcart who has made many friends by her winsome ways during her stay among us. Rev. E. M. Cathart left Monday for a weeks visit at his former home, near Des Moines. VAIL ITEMS.
