Provoking.
"I am so mad at him."
"What did he do?"
"It isn't that."
"What is it then?"
"It is what he didn't do."

Undoubtedly.
"Truth, they say, is stranger than fiction."
"Yes; so I have heard."
"I wonder why?"
"Probably because it doesn't pay so well."

Chasing Trouble.
Trouble when it's chasin' you,
Chasin' you,
Ever see it facin' you,
Facin' you?
No; it follows in your rear,
Tries to get your patient ear.
Snub it and 'twill disappear,
Naught but peace be pacin' you,
Pacin' you.

When a problem's vexin' you,
Vexin' you,
All the time perplexin' you,
Perplexin' you,
Tie a bright tin can to it,
Send another man to it,
Or a baseball fan to it,
Then joy'll be annexin' you,
Annexin' you.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.
If you take excellent care of yourself, your friends will look after your reputation.

Captivating a Queen.
It was by his graceful execution of a dance that young Hatton first captivated the heart of Queen Elizabeth, says Edward Scott in his book on "Dancing in All Ages." He had been brought up to the law and entered court, as his enemy, Sir John Perrot, used to say, "by the gaiter," as his first appearance there was on the occasion of a mask ball, and her majesty was so struck by his good looks and activity that she made him one of her hand of pensioners, who were considered the handsomest men in England. It is said that the favors which the virgin monarch extended to her new favorite excited the jealousy of the whole court, especially that of the Earl of Leicester, who, thinking to depreciate the accomplishments of the young lawyer, offered to introduce to Elizabeth's notice a professional dancer whose salutory performances were considered far more wonderful than Hatton's. To this suggestion, however, the royal lady, with more vehemence than elegance, exclaimed: "Pish! I will not see your man. It is his trade."

CHARTER OAK ITEMS

Miss Daisy Hardy came home Friday from her work in Geneva, Kansas, where she has finished her millinery season. She will have a rest of about ten weeks before entering upon her fall season.

Miss Mattie Hird took the Friday evening train for Denison to make an over Sunday visit with her people there. She still has three more weeks of school to teach and is one of Crawford county's most successful teachers.

Mrs. Helen Johnston, the teacher at Berne, went to make her family in Denison an over Sunday visit. She returns Monday morning having still two weeks to teach.

Mrs. J. J. McWilliams went to Sioux City Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Margan. She returned Friday evening.

Frank Yeager is still walking round with his arm in a sling. His hand is more seriously injured than was first deemed possible. The ligaments were torn loose on both front fingers (of one hand) and it is hoped nothing further happens to poor Frank of the still cheerful countenance.

Lew Jacobson's smiling face and stalwart base-ball form is again to be seen on our streets making friends and relatives a periodical visit.

Miss Frances Drake is visiting in Onawa this week taking in the Commencement exercises and all that pertains there to. Miss Drake was a high school teacher there last year, hence her desire to witness the graduation of some of her former pupils.

Martin Fiene went to Sioux City Saturday, returning the same evening.

Mrs. Tena Arff Fletcher is making her parents a good long visit. She came from Kingsley where she was staying after her return from Colorado Enroute she visited relatives at West Side, Vall and Arcadia. Mrs. Peter Munt and little Raymond Munt, cousins of Mrs. Fletcher came with her to Charter Oak for a short visit also. The boy is a son of Mrs. Arff's sister, who used to live here when she was Mrs. Ludwig.

Peter Ketelsen took the train Saturday evening for a visit with relatives in Buck Grove, where he used to live before coming to Charter Oak.

Mrs. Cora Schoute and small daughter came up Saturday from near Arion for a visit with grandpa and grand-mama Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown Romans left Saturday evening for Denison, where they expect to reside for a short time as they do not know themselves where their future domicile will be. We all are sorry to see them leave our midst where both have retired since childhood.

Miss Stella Robb is home for a long summer's vacation from her school in Schleswig, where she is primary teacher. She expects to teach there next year, also.

The Presbyterians now have a resident preacher; Mr. Wynn is now staying right here in Charter Oak which will be for that congregation's great advantage.

Miss Ethel Sturges went to Vermillion, S. D., Thursday to attend the Commencement exercises of the University there and visit with relatives at the same time. She expects to return next week some time.

Some of the school marns are mighty glad their schools are out as roads are nearly impassible. The rains have soaked the roads so that the bottom has nearly fallen out in places. The water stands on the road so long after a raise of the waters there being no possible drain in places. Also, the grading up of the roads causes a fine resting place for the water.

Mr. Asa Brown is spending the summer out at Bert Wickwires. He came in Sunday to see his sister, Mary, who is still quite ill.

Rain! Rain! go away! Come again some other day. All the people want to work, not play; seems to be the sentiment of everyone we meet.

These Milwaukee Railroad officials were in Charter Oak, Monday last, inspecting our depot and adjoining grounds and over-seeing the removal of a certain amount of superfluous material and such that has been accumulating for years and having a general clearing-up all around. Of course so much "red tape" is needed for anything in railroad business and others, that no individual step can be taken without it or our boys in the office, down there would have taken this step long ago.

Sheriff Meehan came over to look over the field politically from Denison on Monday last. Our sheriff has shown himself an able officer and much praise is due him for this.

Rev. S. D. Johnson and young brother, Arthur, were Denison visitors, Monday.

Dr. Waterhouse made a trip to Sioux City Tuesday, on professional business.

Geo. Neddermeyer was a Sioux City visitor last Tuesday, going on business and pleasure both.

Among our Sioux City visitors from Charter Oak were Aug. Green and B. C. Jacobsen, both going on business intent.

Thos. Thompson and children made a pleasant visit to see relatives in Council Bluffs last week, also on business connected with the Big Store.

Major Holmes, was a passenger to Denison to meet with the Soldier's Relief Commission, and do what he could toward relieving and aiding his old comrades of war time.

Mrs. Chas. Wilson, of Exira in Audubon county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Eckert of this place. She has been here before and is a very pleasant acquaintance to meet again.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, of Union Town, Mo., is visiting his niece, Mrs. Fred Eckert, and at the same time see his sister-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Wilson.

G. W. Woodward and Fred Newbun went east Tuesday morning to say they will come back in a brand new automobile, tho' how true we cannot say.

I. A. Mains has resigned his place as member of city council and Alex. Rogers, our genial landlord is taking his place. Mr. Mains has "made good" in his work and shown interest and worked hard for the welfare of Charter Oak. May his success be the same, which we are sure will be the case.

Mabel Fouts, of Mapleton has been visiting her uncle, Alex. Rogers the past week, returning home Friday. All were glad to welcome her again.

Miss Ryan of Buresford, S. D., was a visitor in the Alex. Rogers family last week, returning on the same train Friday, as Miss Fouts.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Haakinson, of Luton, Iowa, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. N. D. Langford, of this place, returned to their home Monday after their pleasant sojourn in our midst.

Mrs. Axel Larson was a Ute visitor during the former part of last week.

The Misses Vollertsen are in Arion visiting with friends and relatives. Miss Garnett needs a rest after her strenuous year's work.

Miss Anna Thompson returned to her work in nursing to Council Bluffs Tuesday. Miss Elsie went with her to see the sights and visit with relatives. Master Fred also accompanied them.

The infant child of Wm. Eckert has been a pretty sick boy for some time. We are glad to state that he seems better.

The school house is getting some needed improvements in the line of new fire escapes, etc. These are made of steel throughout and now parents need not be afraid of any accident in case of fire. The younger generation are trying them already as you can see them any time you may.

The ball game Sunday did not come off on account of the heavy rains, and their grounds being flooded.

Denison was favored with a visit from Otto Peters, Tuesday on business for the store.

John Rademacker and his better half took the west bound train Tuesday to Madison, S. D., for a visit with relatives and to see the country.

Miss Leona Herblson has gone on a long expected and talked of visit to relatives in Malvern, Iowa. Her aunt will meet her at Council Bluffs.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ed Lensar were visiting the latter's mother and brother, Mrs. and Dave Torrey last week. Katie is living on her husband's fine farm near Wall Lake, Iowa and this is her first visit home since she was married.

Mrs. Wm. Wilson made a visit to Denison and Arion friends on the first of last week.

Mrs. Oscar Nelson went to visit her parents at Ollie, the first of the week.

Miss Vera Tripp came up from Omaha, to see her aunt, Mrs. Miller, of Charter Oak.

Barthley Haley assisted G. V. Jordan in hauling porkers to market one day last week.
