

Dow City.

The advertising matter is out for our Fourth of July celebration and it is seen that we are to have a big time. While all usual attractions are free, the added one of the wrestling match will cost an admission fee to see, for the men would not come for a small sum of money.

J. U. Wise is back with his Dow City friends, having been secured as a clerk by the enterprising Cohen & Son firm. He will do undertaking work as a business of his own. His friends welcome him and his wife back.

The worthy women of our town have taken up the matter of raising funds for the building of a permanent band stand in the park. They have organized with the following officers: President Mrs. Swazey; vice-president, Mrs. Van Metre; secretary, Miss Helen Goddard; treasurer, Mrs. Will Dow. They had a social at the hall last week and the funds raised then and what they gained otherwise has made a fund of nearly $60. They may give meals in the rink on July Fourth. Mr. Swatman, the owner has tendered the use of the rink free for them for that day.

The results of the National Convention has met with disfavor in general among the republican voters here. The choice for President is satisfactory but the choice for Vice-President is not, as it was hoped that the place would have been given to Governor Cummins. If it is the fault of the Iowa delegation that Governor Cummins was kept from getting the nomination it will cost the republican party a number of votes in the state at the next election.

John P. Tureen was a business passenger for Scheswig on Monday.

For a Sprained Ankle
As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the direction with each bottle faithfully, cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by Ph. A. Schlumberger.
