AN OVER DOSE OF PARIS GREEN

FAILS TO KILL EDITH FLODINE WHO WISHED TO DIE.

ATE POISON BY THE HANDFUL.

Large Quantity Served to Nauseate and Thus Saved Life of the Despondent Girl.

On yesterday morning Edith Flodine, who is employed at the John R. Meyer home, east of Denison, made a determined effort to kill herself by eating Paris Green mixed with sugar. The over dose made her very sick and she finally staggered out of the barn where she had hidden after which prompt medical attention saved her life.

Edith Flodine is an attractive appearing girl of about twenty years. She had been despondent for some time over personal affairs and had several times spoken of making an end of her life. On Tuesday morning she arose at the usual hour and went about her duties until the men of the household went out to milk. She then took a package of Paris Green from the shelf, mixed it with sugar and taking the mixture went out to the barn where she completely hid herself under the hay. Being well concealed she deliberately set about eating enough poison to kill herself. Her ignorance of the amount required was her ultimate salvation. She ate a little and as that did not work quick enough she ate more and more until it is thought she must have taken two or three table spoonsful of the poison. Finally after two hours she became violently ill and during the next few hours she suffered terribly from nausea, nature making a determined and successful effort to rid the system of the poison. Finally she attempted to return to the house but she was so weak that it took her an hour to get out of the barn and stagger to the well for a drink. She was immediately seen and simple remedies were used until physicians arrived. Later she was taken to the city hospital and while she passed a night of suffering it is now almost certain that she will recover.

It was between six and seven in the morning when she was missed from the Meyer home. The tell tale grains of Paris Green indicated only too clearly what had become of the girl. The alarm was immediately given and from then until three o'clock when the young lady made her appearance the search was conducted unceasingly, twenty-five searchers being out a part of the time. Miss Flodine concealed herself, well crawling far under the hay and leaving no trace. The barn was searched several times but she heard the searchers and kept still and the hay hid her completely.

At the Meyer home and from the neighbors it is learned that she is a girl of excellent character, industrious, frugal and of a kindly disposition. She had been despondent for some time but she has assured her friends that she will never attempt to take her life again.

DENISON SHOULD CLEAN HOUSE.

The percentage is not large but Denison has a few genuine toughs. There is a bunch of loud mouthed, tin-horn gamblers who hang about trying to rope in some farm boy who has a little cash. They would beat up their grandmothers for fifteen cents.

There is also another clique of boot-leggers, men who buy whisky for Keeley cure grads, and those who cannot get it direct from the saloons. Then there are professional drunkards, unfortunate, weak minded vi-ridden creatures who should be sent to a Keeley institute forthwith. It is time that Denison should act. Twenty determined men, acting with sober judgment and without violence, could rid the city of these people in twenty days. Wherever possible the wrecks should be saved and given a chance, but some are so bad that the only relief will be to get them out of the community. But the first to go should be, not the unfortunate victims, but the boot-leggers and the tin-horns. Every man about town knows just about whom the Review means.

Mr. Chas. Taber is not bragging about knowing every inch of Crawford county land since he started to drive from Deloit to Denison and wound up two miles east of Vail. Broad daylight too.

THE EMPIRE CLOTHING CO.

NEW FIRM ENTERS CLOTHING BUSINESS AT DENISON THIS WEEK.

McAHREN AND KIRKUP OWNERS

Engage in Business at Former Denison Clothing Co. Stand on Main Street.

Denison is to have a fourth exclusive clothing store. It launches its bark this week under the title of the Empire Clothing Co., and plans to steer safely to the harbor of financial success. The captain is Mr. Milton McAhren, a young business man who was born and grew to manhood in this county. For five years he was with the Denison Clothing Co., when conducted by that pushing business man Mr. Kemming, and later was in business at Pierre, S. Dak., with Mr. Homer Partridge.

He therefore brings to the navigating of the ship experience and a good reputation as a salesman. His life spent nearly all in the county, and his numerous relations, give him a wide acquaintanceship which will be a valuable asset for the future. He is the youngest son of G. M. McAhren and wife, unmarried, handsome, popular both with the gentlemen and the ladies. It is a pleasure to see him starting out in business in his home town and there is general wish that he may succeed.

The other member of the firm is Mr. W. R. Kirkup. He likewise needs little introduction to the people of Denison. For twenty years he has been at the head of a merchant tailoring department in Denison stores. He was with Haugh & Kemming and later with Mr. Kemming. If he were not an artist in his line, a man keeping up to date he could not maintain himself so long as a cutter and master merchant tailor. In the time of his residence here he has brought up a fine family of two daughters and a son who have been an honor to him and their mother. He has been working for others in the past but now becomes one of the firm, and an important one too. His experience a hand on the helm will insure conservatism, business methods which will make and hold trade. The motto of the firm will be "A Square Deal" for all. The doors will be open at once although the entire stock will not be in place for some days. The firm will make formal announcement next week.

THE W. O. W. WILL TRY AGAIN

AUG. 2ND IS NEW DATE FOR UNVEILING EXERCISES.

WOODMEN INVITE OTHER GAMPERS

Ladies of Woodmen Circle join in Ceremony and the General Public is Invited to Participate.

On Sunday, August 2nd, the handsome monument erected by the Woodmen of the World to the memory of Chester R. Dixon is to be formally dedicated. On the same day the graves of the departed Sovereigns will be decorated. Twice has this ceremony been postponed, once on account of the heavy rains and once on account of the unfavorable absence of several who were to take part in the ritualistic ceremony.

The Woodmen of the World from all parts of the county are to be invited and it is hoped to make a great showing of the strength of the order. F. W. Meyers will deliver the address and excellent music under the leadership of Mr. B. J. Sibbert will be a feature.

On Saturday evening August 1st, the Denison camp has also arranged for a "smoker" to which the other camps of the county are to be invited. An informal program is to be arranged and refreshments will be served. Members of the order are requested to remember the two dates and to arrange to be presents.

Mrs. D. H. McWilliams, of Charter Oak, is spending the week in Denison visiting friends.

Mrs. Nielson, a sister of Mrs. B. Brodersen, was a welcome Denison visitor this week. She has been very ill and this was her first Denison visit in seven months.

BUSINESSES PLAY PUSH AROUND

KNAUL SECURES FINE LOCATION ON MAIN STREET.

LEASES FROM 1ST. NAT'L. BANK.

T. C. McCarthy Will Move His Saloon to the Knaul Building October 1st.

A little game of "push around" played by some of our business houses has resulted in R. Knaul, the veteran druggist securing the fine location on Main street between The Boys store and the First National bank. This is one of the best locations in the city and Mr. Knaul proposes to fix it up in fine style. A large new soda fountain will be a part of the equipment of the new store. Those who know how neat and shipshape Mr. Knaul has always kept his place of business, are assured that the new store will be a beauty. Mr. Knaul has been some what handicapped the past few years by his location which has been to one side of the main business streets. He is confident that this move will be highly beneficial. Mr. Ed Liese who will remain in Denison for some months will assist in getting the new store into running order. Mr. Knaul is our senior druggist. He is an honorable, upright citizen and a business man of proven integrity. We join with his many friends in wishing him the best possible success in his new location.

The Knaul building has been leased for a period of five years to T. C. McCarthy, who will remove from his present location on October. Mr. McCarthy was pleased with his present location but it seems impossible to continue another winter in the old building which he occupied. In fact the same reason which made the Knaul location a poor one for a drug store, make it a good one for a saloon. No matter what one's beliefs or prejudices may be concerning saloons, it is generally admitted that if we are to have saloons in our city they are much better in the hands of such men as Tom McCarthy than of others.

IT IS HERE THE CHAUTAUQUA

DENISON ALL ASTIR WITH CHAUTAUQUA VISITORS.

THE ATTENDANCE VERY LARGE

Lectures and Concerts Taking Place According to Program.

Although by the car arriving late the Chautauqua assembly got a little lame start, things are now going on smoothly, and the affair will be an undoubted success. It would appear there will be no disappointments on the program. On the first day the hero Hobson and the eminent Dr. Will spoke as will be seen in the write-ups in another column. The children are pleased with the Indian games and this will be a most interesting part of the week's amusements. The bible lectures by Dr. Fnyart are proving fine. Those who believe in the Chautauqua management having bible talks in the program should turn out to the morning talks from ten to eleven.

On Wednesday the Pueblo Indians were here and gave an idea of the ancient civilization of their ancestors. They added to the lecture given in the evening by Dr. Cole. Miller, of Ohio, made good in his lecture on "Animal Husbandry."

There are a host of good things to come. Opie Read on Thursday evening, Thomas Brooks Flecher, Friday afternoon. The great Brooklyn preacher, Cadman, on Saturday afternoon. Then the musical features are ever good so you cannot miss it by coming any time. Sunday is certain to be a great day and the seating capacity of the big tent in the city park on the east side of town will be taxed. But there is plenty of standing room on the grass. Dr. Hood is proving a good conductor and he says the crowds present from the beginning surprised him.

Miss Haidee Brodersen and brothers have returned from a Battle Creek visit.

Mrs. Ed Phelan, of Omaha, is in Denison this week visiting her sisters, Mrs. D. O. Johnson and Mrs. J. H. Mahony.

HE CAME, HE SAW, HE CONQUERED.

THE HERO OF THE MERRIMAC CAPTIVATES HIS HEARERS

CAPTAIN HOBSON AT DENISON.

An Appreciative Audience Attends the First Chautauqua Address and Applauds Demand for a Greater Navy.

Our people have seen and heard a real live hero, a man whose name and fame will be told when all of us are dead and gone. For has not Hobson the man who sank the Merrimac in the harbor to "bottle up" the Spanish fleet been here, delivered his plea for a greater navy, and shaken hands with all who desired?

The Chautauqua management made no mistake in placing Hobson the first day. He was certainly a drawing card. Being a fellow member of congress with Hon. J. P. Conner it was most fitting that he should introduce the speaker which he did in a neat brief speech. The Captain was not long in getting down to the burden of his talk, an appeal for a greater navy, and arousing of his hearers to the danger of war with Japan, which nation he claims is but waiting an excuse which it can present to the world, to send forth its fleets, sweep our island possessions from us, and invade our coasts with a million soldiers.

Hobson made much of the alliance which Japan has with England, claiming that by it, that great country is bound to support it in war with the United States if occasion required. He told of the fact that Japan had not ceased to keep on a war footing, that it was gathering up money, buying munitions of war, in every market of the world, placing contract for the entire output for years to come. He told of how the British ports of the Pacific coast would furnish how easy it was for these to swarm over the borders.

Hobson gave some inside facts as to the incident of keeping the Japanese students from the San Francisco schools. He says that if it had not been for the coolness of President Roosevelt that a war might have then come upon us. When something similar occurred up in British America where England would be effected nothing was done, but when a quarrel could be picked with the United States, war was threatened at once. He claims that our nation was humiliated when it had to put the Japanese pupils back in the San Francisco schools against the local sentiment of the people there. He called to mind that the mayor went on breathing defiance, and went back from Washington meek as a lamb.

Captain Hobson urges more large ships, greater in size, with more far reaching guns, and faster than any other nation now has. Expense should not be counted, for in case of war with Japan the treasure of our country would flow without limit. A navy would be no menace to the land, like a great standing army. He says that in case of war with Japan we would at first be beaten, but in the course of a few years our great resources would show up and success might come our way. In conclusion he offered certain resolutions which were adopted urging congress to have the international court of arbitration made stronger, and give more powers, and to provide for a greater navy. We hear that Captain Hobson was much pleased with his reception at Denison, and people certainly were with him.

E. T. Cochran is a business visitor in Vail today.

Henry Nehis and John Watts, of Lake View, were business callers in Denison on Tuesday.

The A. Herrig home in north Denison is the scene of a delightful house party this week. The guests are Mrs. Keenan, of New Bethlehem, Pa. Miss Brown, of Bloomington, Ind.; and Miss Iona Brown and Miss Wanda Sifford, of Wall Lake.

POLICE FIND AN UNSAVORY MESS.

MAYOR ROLLINS IS TO DEAL WITH A BUNCH OF BAD PEOPLE.

DENISON NEEDS HOUSECLEANING

Bootleggers, Drunkards and Tin Horn Sports Must be Driven From Our City.

The police unearthed a most unsavory bunch of law-breakers at the McKean home last week. George who is an inebriate and had been furnished liquor by boot-leggers, his mother who is a victim of the liquor habit was in a wretched condition and a man named Harrison and young Plough were having what they considered a great old time.

George McKean came across to the Mayor with evidence which is said to implicate a number of the low-lived whelps about town, who are making a part of their living by buying whiskey for men who are barred from the saloons. He is now in jail on a charge of intoxication. Mrs. McKean is a total wreck and should be cared for by the authorities. Harrison is in jail having failed to secure bail and he will be held to the grand jury. Plough is out on bail.

Mrs. Theo. Kuhl left this morning for Okoboji, where she will visit friends for a week or two.

Congressman Conner was at the summer school Monday forenoon by invitation, and spoke for a time before the teachers. He made a plea for more stability in the teaching profession. There should be some method adopted by which the teachers would be glad to regard it as a life work, and not a temporary make shift. He advocated normal schools aided by the state in every county, and that those who would pledge themselves to teach for a given number of years should have special training given them.
