

Arion Anchor

Local Briefs.

Henry Bell Jr. attended the democratic convention in Denver and is now at the Colorado Springs, where he will remain until about September 1st and will then continue his work in the Denison Normal school of which he has been a faithful student for some time.

T. J. Rule's baby is quite sick. Mr. and Mrs. Weber, of Denison, spent Sunday at the Milo Kelly home.

Rev. Mix assistant pastor of the First Congregational church of Chicago, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Graul, of Dow City, expected to occupy the pulpit here last Sunday but owing to sickness was not able to be present. Rev. Cornelius Butterworth, of Dow City, with an able sermon filled his place. Mr. Butterworth has been preaching the gospel in Australia for twenty years, and expects to return to that place in about two weeks.

A pleasant social gathering was held last Thursday evening at the home of W. W. Kavin in honor of Miss Miller, of Lincoln, Neb. About thirty of the young people were invited, the evening being very warm many games were played on the beautiful lawn. Light refreshments were served and all enjoyed the hospitality of the Kavan family. Miss Miller made many friends while here and all regret her departure for her home in Lincoln.

Mrs. Con. Groves, of Upland, Neb. called on her friend, Mrs. A. J. Mackey.

Helen Setwintin won the prize for the best essay on "The benefit of a Chautauqua to a Community". Golda Dow and Norine Fishel visited Mrs. J. U. Wise Monday evening.

Mr. Nichols, of the Milwaukee depot has been sick for the past few days. He was relieved by Mr. Dean, of Sioux City.

Miss Cora Macomber is spending the week with Miss Ellen Scott.

Helen Sherman who is attending summer school at Denison, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Benson Smith.

Mrs. John Green, of Buck Grove was shopping in Arion Friday.

Mrs. Otis Nelson and sister Grace Fredrickson spent Sunday at the home of Samuel Fox.

Elmer Charles, of Mapleton, spent Sunday with Arion friends.

Geo. Servoss and wife and Mrs. John Doidge, of Denison, visited relatives here Sunday and also drove to Willow township to visit Mr. Albert Doidge. Mrs. Wm. Doidge of this place accompanied them.

Mrs. Frank Evans returned to this place from Panora, where she spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Davis, and on Wednesday returned to her home in Concord, Neb.

The Friday club was nicely entertained at the home of Mrs. Dr. Van Metre of Dow City.

Mr. Hayes, of Marshalltown, is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Berka.

Messrs Wilder and Butterworth were here Sunday with the auto which they made. The workmanship speaks well for the boys and we predict for them a bright future. They have shown pluck, energy and ability.

Levi Green has been busy taking care of swarms of bees that have seemed to come from Buck Grove. Ola Hodgell changed cars here for Denison, where she is attending the summer school.

Last Saturday Mr. Sriver was a business caller here.

Farmers in this locality are very busy with haying and harvesting and some find it difficult to find enough help to care for the abundant hay crop.

Wm. Barsby and wife, of Woodbine, visited with their niece, Mrs. Stillson, and attended church services here Sunday evening.

Wm. Schonten and wife and little daughter visited at the W. W. Coon home.

Hudson Downs has returned from the hospital in Omaha and his many friends are glad to learn that his health is much improved.

Fleet Fox returned to his home in Dakota last Monday. His sister Ollie returned with him and will remain about four weeks.

Robert Cruise received quite an injury while raking hay. His team became unmanageable and threw him from the rake and he has suffered since from a lame back.

Mrs. Frank Downs received the announcement of the marriage of her daughter Eva, who for some time has resided with her grandmother, Mrs. Acker, of Tacoma, Wash.

L. E. Butler and family have gone to Lake View, where they will enjoy an outing until September 1st.

The dance given in the hall Saturday evening was well attended. The music was good and all enjoyed themselves.

Mesdames Wise and Seeman were Denison visitors last Thursday.

Chas. Horn and wife are enjoying a new auto which Mr. Horn recently purchased.

Hillie Newman was a Denison visitor last Thursday.

Wm. Houston and wife, of Dow City, were pleasant callers here Wednesday.

Mrs. Gillmor, of Big Rock, and niece, Edith Gillmor, of Denison, were here Wednesday. Mrs. Gillmor went on the Milwaukee train for her home in Big Rock.

T. J. Phillips and N. P. Underhill drove to the latter's home farm in Willow township and report fine crops.

The Misses McDonald and Josie McBride were calling on friends here.

Wm. Seeman and wife spent Friday in Dow City.

Riley Talcott took a pleasant drive eight miles south of here last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Flossie Lynch and little daughter were calling on friends here Friday.

Chas. Horn and wife went to the Gibson home last Sunday with their new auto.

Uncle Morris McHenry was surveying for the ditch that will be cut through to the river and it will solve the problem of the bad roads east of Arion.

Dow City.

So many of our people will attend the Denison Chautauqua this week that we will not try to enumerate them.

Our smiling deputy postmistress is taking a vacation as far as the patrons are concerned, but she may not think so, for it mean helping at home during the rushing season on the farm. Flora Wiggins is assisting in the postoffice in her place.

Rev. Mix, of Chicago, who is a son-in-law of Graul, preached in the M. E. church last Sunday evening. He is an able preacher and all hope he will consent to speak again.

There will be no services in the M. E. church on next Sunday evening.

Miss Rena Brake has gone to Ottumwa, visiting at a number of towns on the way. She will be the guest of the A. W. Wiggins family while at Ottumwa.

It was good news to the pupils of the high school to hear that Miss Lisle would return to teach this fall.

Mrs. S. E. Rudd has been an Ames visitor.

Rev. LaReau preached in the Baptist church on last Sunday afternoon, but there will be no preaching there next Sunday.

Mrs. Cohn and Herman have been Omaha visitors this week.

Charley Smith has had the painters down from Denison painting his house. His wife very wisely took occasion to visit relatives out of town and thus avoid the annoyance of the affair.

Miss Millie Wiggins is spending the week at the James McBride home down near Defiance.

The good M. E. pastor is cheered by the news that Mrs. Curtis and daughter will be home by the end of the month.

Mr. Whaley is on the sick list this week. The little Brake boy is doing as well as could be expected with the fever and will come through all right.

The Royal Neighbors of Arion and Dow City, were invited out to the fine country home of Mrs. Hollowell on Tuesday afternoon. Of course they were well entertained.

The Tuesday markets were as follows: Oats 40; wheat 90; corn 65 and hogs $6.00.

Lon Cramer and wife were at Denison last week with her parents, Geo. Schultz and wife.

Miss Gieser, of Manilla, was over last Wednesday evening and installed the following officers in the Rebekah lodge: N. G. Lottie Bixler; V. G., Florence Miller; Sec., Grace Swatman; treasurer, Hildur Turnlund; chaplain, Lucy Scott; warden, Emeline Fritz; sentinels, Bertha Rolfs and Stella Rudd.

Sears Nelson was an over Sunday visitor in Omaha.

Mrs. C. M. Norris and son went to Woodbine Saturday for a week's visit there and at Logan.

Mrs. S. J. Waters is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Carson at Sac City.

Mrs. W. E. Fishel returned home Sunday from Ute Sunday from a ten day's visit with relatives.

John Halliday moved down from Denison Monday and is living in the Wiggins house in the west part of town.

Mrs. Dr. Van Metre entertained the Friday club of Arion Friday afternoon. A large number was present and a very enjoyable time was had by all who were fortunate enough to be members.

Mrs. Will Road and children returned Thursday to their home in Leighton, Neb. after visiting several weeks in and about Dow City.

J. U. WISE,
Funeral Director and Embalmer,
Dow City, Iowa.
Calls answered day and night. Floral designs furnished.

R. T. VAN METRE, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,
Dow City, Iowa

DELOIT ITEMS.

Mrs. J. N. Turner and little daughter returned from Omaha the first of the week, where she has been having an eye specialist treat the baby's eyes.

Farmers are busy finishing up their corn and haying. Harvesting will soon begin.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillett and daughter, of Manilla, visited at the Munsiey home the first of last week.

Bertha Munsiey is visiting relatives and friends at Manilla and Buck Grove at present.

Mrs. Geo. Winans and daughter Bessie drove up to see little Bessie Pilcher at her Grandmother Pilcher's Friday.

Mrs. J. D. Newcom called on Mrs. S. K. Dobson Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Maggie Winans and daughter

FRIDAY, JULY 31st
is the day to see DR. WEBER, the Eye and Ear Doctor who cures, at Nielsen Hotel, Denison Examination Free.

Jessie are spending a few days at Deloit.

J. T. Baner has recovered from his recent illness and is able to be around again.

J. Worley and wife went to Sac City Friday to visit their son J. B. Worley and wife.

Chas. Robertson was surprised Friday evening by a few friends gathering in to spend the evening, helping him to celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. Cook and two lady friends of Denison spent one day last week with Mrs. Jas. McKim.

Harold Wedlock spent a week at the home of his brother, R. E. Wedlock at Lawton, Iowa. He was accompanied home last Friday by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Wedlock.

J. T. Baner and wife entertained at their home Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Childress, C. T. Childress and wife and family, W. H. Cose and children, Mrs. Anna Turner and two sons and S. Brown, wife and son Clifford.

The L. D. S. Sunday school will have a picnic Saturday, August 1st. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Lawyer Harding and wife, of Denison, came to Deloit Sunday afternoon and spent the afternoon with Jas. McKim and wife.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS

Mrs. Winans, sister of Mrs. Mike Copps, went to Sac City last Wednesday to visit a friend.

Rev. Winn spent last week with his cousin, Mr. Lamp, who is about to go to Korea, as a missionary. Rev. Winn returned Saturday.

Mrs. L. M. Jones and daughter, Mrs. Bert Wright, of Gayville, S. Dakota, returned from Dow City last week, where they visited Mrs. Schonten, Mrs. Wright returned to her home at Gayville Sunday morning.

Ed Weed is making an extensive addition to his residence, south of town.

Earl Dubois, of Logan, made his parents in Charter Oak a short visit last week.

Mrs. James Reid, of Ames, is spending two or three weeks in Charter Oak visiting her parents, E. P. Andrews and wife, and calling upon old friends.

Mrs. Fred Fletcher left for Williamsburg Monday morning, after a visit of several weeks in Charter Oak. She was accompanied by her little brother, Herbert Arff, who went as far as Vail, where he will visit his cousins.

Lydia Wertz came Saturday from Ida Grove to visit in the Oak.

Mrs. Ernest Morgan, of Sioux City, is visiting at the home of her parents in Charter Oak. She came Saturday and was accompanied by Milton Morgan, of Algona.

Mrs. Tom Graves returned to Charter Oak Monday, after a short visit with her brother Earl Dubois, of Logan.

Mrs. Fred Gillett, of South Dak., came Saturday for a few days with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Goin and family.

Merle Simmons, of Ute, spent a few days with her friend, Iola Bickman, of Charter Oak.

Mrs. Will Schouten arrived Saturday for a visit with her parents, L. M. Jones and wife. She returned to her home at Dow City Sunday evening.

Rev. Beeson, who was in Charter Oak in interest of the Council Bluffs Children's Home, preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Rev. Winn preached Sunday evening to the united congregations of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. Hazel McWilliams is entertaining her cousin, Miss Jessie Luney, of Denison.

Rev. Amstein and Rev. Wehking went to Danube, Minn., to attend a conference of their church held at that place.

Mrs. John Hannigan went to Plainview, Neb., to visit her brother.

Florence Wickwire, of Willow, went to Dunlap for a visit of two weeks among friends.

A. Tinker and daughter Helen went to Denison Tuesday of last week. Miss Helen went to Omaha from Denison to visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. Paul Clausen took her little son to Sioux City on Tuesday for an examination. The son underwent an operation two weeks ago.

Mrs. Sarah Riddle, of Denison, spent a few days in the Oak last week.

The hearing granted by Federal court in the case of First National Bank vs. Grant and Perry, bankrupts, was held in our city hall last Wednesday. The plaintiff was represented by L. E. Goodwin and C. G. Saunders, the defendants by P. W. Harding and Geo. Mayne. Owing to the great number of witnesses it was necessary to take the evidence in short hand to be submitted to the decision of the court in the future.

E. F. Glau accompanied by his daughter Mable went to Council Bluffs Wednesday.

Mrs. Nels. Thompson has been entertaining her sisters from Denison this week. They returned home Wednesday.

J. M. Murphy and wife returned from Colfax, where they have been taking a much needed rest.

H. F. Arff returned Wednesday from Denver, where he attended the National Democratic convention.

Mrs. Chas. Simms went to Dow City Thursday to visit her friend, Mrs. W. V. Whaley, before returning home to Nebraska.

Mrs. Emma Henning was a Denison visitor Thursday.

D. M. Walters, of Galva, Ia. D. D. G. M., of I. O. O. F. installed the officers of the Charter Oak lodge No. 105 last Wednesday night as follows: H. G. Heald, N. G.; G. W. Deter, V. G.; J. H. Glau, Sec.; T. Drake, Treas. The Rebekahs witnessed the installation and served refreshments later in the evening.

Chas. Robertson went to Denison on business Thursday.

Jessie and Leona McWilliams spent several days visiting in the Gooch home at Ute last week.

There was "spring" house cleaning at the Methodist church last week.

E. H. Weed and wife went to Sioux City last Friday.

Barney Printess and Chas. Ehrke went to Lake Preston, South Dakota, Friday.

In answer to a telegram announcing the death of his mother at Mansfield, Ohio, W. S. Rae accompanied by his wife took the train Saturday night to attend the funeral. Mr. Rae has the sympathy of all his friends in his trouble. Mrs. Hiatt, of Omaha, a sister of Mrs. Rae, will care for the children during her absence.

Mrs. Ed Schelm and Miss Gust Topf came from Atlantic Saturday morning to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

R. A. Rawlins went to Sioux City Monday morning on business.

Lulu Messenbrink went to Denison the first of the week.

Wm. Rohr and daughter of Clinton, father and sister, of Mrs. John Timm, returned home after a visit of several days in the Oak.

Mrs. C. H. Weed returned home Monday morning from a visit with her daughter at Grand Island, Neb.

P. F. Fiene went to Hartington, Neb., to transact business.

L. Dorenkamp, of Fort Morgan, Col., arrived Monday to visit his brother John, of Soldier township.

Geo. Pautsch from Mitchell, S. Dak., is visiting friends in Charter Oak and vicinity.

Fred Christiansen and Miss Hansmans, of Battle Creek, came down in their auto Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Vollertsen.

JACKSON.

Herb. Dean lost some cattle with the blackleg.

Geo. Weed and Jim Maynard went to Denver last Tuesday.

Phil. Signall was seen shaking hands with some of his old friends in Wall Lake last Saturday.

Mrs. Barry, of Davenport, is visiting Mrs. John Kelly this week.

Steve Jens gave a porch party last Saturday night.

John Kock gave a little party at his house last Sunday evening.

Quiet a number of Jackson young folks went to Lake View last Sunday.

Harry Weed and wife went to Deloit last Sunday and made a short visit with William Cook and wife.

Henry Gerkin, of Wall Lake visited with her brother Amos Jergens last Saturday.

The town of Herring had quite a time over a rattle snake last Saturday. The town people got after him in good style but his "snake ship" took a merry hike and saved his skin. One can see most anything in Herring these hot days.

Tom Brotherson is putting new tubes in his engine and will be ready to pound out this good grain crop in a few days.

Fulton Folding go carts, the World's Standard at John Fastjii. 20-1f

Arion State Bank
Arion, Iowa.
Capital $25000.00
5 per cent interest on Time Deposits.
WE WRITE
INSURANCE
of all kinds. If you are in need of a policy, come in and let us tell you all about it.
Money to Loan
OFFICERS
THOS. RAE, Pres., SAM FOX, Vice Pres., CHAS. HORN, Cashier.

N. F. STILLSON,
Blacksmith and Wagon Maker
Arion, Iowa.
Horseshoeing a Specialty.
All work guaranteed.

W. B. EVANS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
ARION, IOWA

Binder Twine!

Deering Standard Plymouth Standard

Two best brands of twine on the market. No trouble when you use this twine It always gives satisfaction.

When your old binder plays out come in and get a NEW DEERING

Stewart Lumber Co