

Confidence is half the Battle

The other half is capability. That's why our work wins photographic laurels. . . .

Ferguson's
East Broadway. Ground Floor

Mr. John Casperson visited friends at Carroll last Friday.

Mr. George McHenry visited his parents at Okoboji over Sunday.

Fine hay for sale. Phone 31K. J. M. Brink. Denison. 31 tf.

Mr. Clarke White, of Vail, was a pleasant caller in Denison last Friday.

Mr. Jacob Sims transacted business in Omaha the latter part of last week.

Mr. Eugene Gulick transacted business at Moorhead the first of the week.

Mr. Will Fishel, of Dow City, transacted business in the city last Saturday.

Mr. Chas. Jones transacted business in West Side last Friday and Saturday.

Get fine fern and fern dish complete for 19c at the special sale at the Racket Store Saturday.

Don't forget to see Dr. Weber, the eye and ear doctor who cures on Wednesday, Aug. 13, at Nielson House. Examination free. 31 2t.

A very pretty, footed two piece glass fern dish, filled with a handsome fern at 19c complete. Saturday, August 8th, at 9 a. m. at The Racket Store.

Last Sunday the German Lutheran Missionary society held the annual meeting in Hanover township. A large attendance was present and a goodly sum of money was raised for the missionary work. The Hanover township band furnished music which was enjoyed by all. Rev. Amstein, of Ida county, conducted the services.

A party of Denison young men composed of George Sprecher, Otto Paul, Mike Burke, Mark Clarke and John Flahive attended the ball game at Omaha Sunday, between Omaha and Sioux City. The boys report having seen a good game of ball but it was a little one sided as the score of six to two in favor of Omaha indicated.

Miss Clara McCarthy is in Vail this week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, of Mankilla, were in Denison Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. L. C. Butterworth, of Arion, was a pleasant Denison caller the latter part of last week.

Mr. Arthur Schwartzbach went on Monday to Ottumwa, Ia., where he has secured a position.

Miss Dollie Faul and Mrs. Otto Faul went the first of the week to for an outing at Lake View.

Mr. Tom Ratchford, of Vail, transacted business in Denison the latter part of last week.

Mr. J. P. Conner left on Monday for Alberta, Canada, where he is looking after some land interests.

Mr. Chauncey Liscumb, of Dunlap, is assisting in the Broadway meat market this week during Mr. Jensen's absence.

Miss Clara Strahn returned on Monday from Des Moines, where she has been visiting friends for the past two weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Bail, returned last Friday to her home in Missouri Valley, after a pleasant week with Mrs. J. B. Lyon.

Mrs. Theo. Walker returned Thursday from a Chicago, where she has been visiting her son David Walker for the past two months.

Mr. Barney Sibbert returned on Monday from South Dakota, where he has been looking after some land interests for the past week.

Mr. P. Henry and Mr. C. Norman left the first of the week for Madison, South Dakota, where they will remain the rest of the summer.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reimers, Aug. 2d, a son. The little fellow is a bouncer and tips the scales at ten pound. The Review offers congratulations.

The Misses Dier have returned to their home at LeMars, after a delightful visit at the Goodrich home. Miss Gertrude Romans accompanied them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick, of Salix, Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott McKim last week. Mr. Chadwick was returning from a visit to his old Michigan home.

Mr. Cushman, the real estate man, accompanied Wm. Lill and A. Wendt, of Soldier township, to southwestern Kansas, where he will show them the beauties of the land.

Special Sale—An imitation cut glass two piece fern dish, with fine fern of your own choice Saturday, August 8th at 19c, complete. Sale starts at 9 o'clock. The Racket Store.

Mr. and Geo. Nicholson and Mrs. Holmes returned last week from a trip through Yellowstone Park. The pleasure of the trip was marred by Mrs. Nicholson's illness during the greater part of the trip.

The Voss auto made a fine run from Okoboji on Thursday. The guests were Messrs Voss, Tabor, Moreland and Gulick. They brought a "mess" of fish along, some of which we acknowledge with thanks.

W. A. Lamborn left on Friday for Denver. In Colorado he will join C. E. Humphreys and they will go hunting for big game. Mr. Lamborn has promised to present the pelt of his second grizzly to the Review. His first grizzly being already promised. Prof. Humphreys is said to disapprove of the bear hunt for fear that he will get hugged, a thing which has never happened to him before. Mr. Lamborn says he will risk it.

IT IS EASY TO SAY

We Have the Largest Stock in the County--

It's easy to say we are the best workmen---It's easy to say you should do this, and you should do that. And it's easy to have the right time all of the time if does your work.

E. C. Chamberlin

The Jeweler and Optician

Give us your business---it pays in the end.

Glen Ajnsworth was up from Omaha for a few days last week.

The Methodist church roof is enjoying a coat of rubber-tar paint.

Miss Minnie Mill leaves this week for a vacation visit in Sioux Falls.

Mrs. Frank Pfarr and children returned on Friday from a delightful outing at Okoboji.

Miss Edna Rain returned last week from her work at the summer school of Simpson college.

Mrs. Geo. Richardson and daughter Fern are visiting relatives in Cedar Rapids and Blairtown.

Miss Mabel Merrill started on Monday for a month's vacation at Cedar Rapids and Albert Lee, Minn.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, safe, easy, pleasant, sure, little liver pills. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

Miss Bertha Sachau returned to her work at Omaha on Saturday, after a pleasant visit at home.

We call attention to the half page ad of Mr. Bamford. He is making sweeping reductions in prices for mid-summer sale.

All lovers of plants should get one or more of the handsome ferns with a fern dish on sale at the Racket Store Saturday at 19c each.

Joseph Collins, who formerly handled Milwaukee's famous product at Flynn's dispensary, made Denison friends a welcome visit last week.

Monday was a scorching day for heat. The city authorities had out the hose and gave the business streets a good wetting down in the morning.

Our esteemed friend Mr. Harker, has come back from Colorado, to South Dakota, and has been with his daughter, Sadie at Rapid City, for a time. He is now at the great government hospital at Hot Springs and likes it so well he says he will remain for quite a while. We would not be surprised if he came back to Denison for a time.

With last Saturday a third meat market opened in Denison. It is one of the departments of the Menagh company store, and in charge of John, the youngest son of George Menagh. In preparation for the new department a large cooling room was built and the meat shop room laid with a tile floor, the walls alabastined, and good fixtures procured. The slaughter house is on the farm three miles east of town. John looks like a butcher sure in his white apron. The firm reports business opening in satisfactory style. No expense was spared to make this shop one of the most up-to-date in western Iowa. Mr. George Menagh and his sons are to be congratulated.

Oscar Strahn is sick at home threatened with typhoid fever.

Miss Leon Maddock, of Des Moines, is the guest of Miss Marion Striver.

Miss Agnes Adams, of Carroll, visited friends in Denison several days last week.

Miss Letta Stoel, of Canton, S. D., was the guest of Miss Gladys Tucker last week.

Miss Anna Dillenberger, of Vail, visited friends in Denison the latter part of last week.

A nephew of J. R. Meyers, living east of Denison on the farm, is down with typhoid fever.

Miss Tillie Hink, of the Geo. Menagh store, is spending a few weeks' vacation in Chicago.

W. W. Coon has been in Denison this week. He was for some time a very sick man, and his friends are glad indeed, to see him about again.

Mr. Otto Dresselhouse and Mr. A. Wright were off the first of the week for Denver and Colorado Springs, where they will remain for a week or two.

Miss Ollie Patterson returned on Saturday from Baltimore, Maryland where she has been for the past two years attending the John Hopkins university.

There is another grand child in the Morris McHenry family for a fine boy was born to Mott McHenry and wife, near Dow City, on Saturday morning, August 1st.

We are having a splendid trade in flour. Our Ardee and Morning Glory are the best for the price anywhere. When all others fail, try these brands. J. B. Lyon.

The W. R. C. will hold a social on the beautiful lawn of the J. B. Roman's residence on Friday evening. This is a most convenient and attractive place and the ladies will doubtless have large patronage for their delicious ice cream.

It seems that Gentry Bros. advertised their circus in Der Demokrat as well as in the Zietung and Review, so we hasten to correct the statement was made last week. We are glad to make the correction as it was not our intention to do injustice to anyone.

Conner & Lally of this place are in receipt of a letter from Mr. John Stevenson, clerk of the courts at Jefferson, stating that Judge Church "says he does not care to go farther in the race for Supreme Judge." The Judge's friends in this vicinity regret his decision to withdraw from the race, because they hoped to help secure his nomination.

Miss Fannie Hayes left on Tuesday for Iowa City, where she will visit friends.

County Attorney Klinker was off for Aberdeen, S. D. Wednesday on a business deal.

George Seeman was down from Okoboji the first of the week to spend a few days at home.

Mr. Rawlings, the real estate man of Charter Oak, was a county seat visitor on Wednesday.

James Armstrong is up at Gettysburg, S. D., and vicinity looking after business affairs.

Mr. E. W. Pierce returned on Friday from Faulkton, S. D., where he visited his son Foster.

Miss Ella Buesing returned on Monday from Sioux City, where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. J. H. Kelly is spending the week at his home in Emmetsburg during Judge Conner's absence.

California Bartlet Pears, this week while they last $2.20 per bu. box. J. B. Lyon.

Miss Margaret Champion returned on Monday from Council Bluffs, where she visited freinds for a week.

Samuel Luney and son are back from Gettysburg, S. D. by rail and his brothers are driving home cross country.

Wanted—A young man for night work at the Oxford. Good pay to right party. Address Lyman Bros., Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Seemann left this morning for Okoboji, where they will remain a week or two at the McHenry cottage.

Mr. C. F. Kuehnle left last Friday for an extended visit in Boston and New York. He will attend the Pythian Supreme lodge.

Mr. T. Benecke returned the first of the week from St. Paul, where he has been for the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. W. L. Fink is visiting his brother, Mr. Edward Fink. From here he will go to Florida, where he will remain during the winter.

Miss May Hayes returned on Monday from her vacation which she spent visiting friends and relatives at different points in Illinois and Wisconsin. While away she made a trip to Niagara Falls.

The Racket Store is noted for its wonderful bargains offered at the special sale. This week, Saturday they will sell two piece glass fern dish filled with a handsome fern, for the one day only, at 19c complete. It's seldom one can get such a bargain as this.

Hot Weather Meals at the Oxford!

Are not only a comfort and a luxury but they relieve you of the hot walk home at noon and relieve your wife of the hard work in a roasting hot kitchen.

Coollest Place in Town
Light running fans constantly in motion make this a delightful place to eat.

Ice Cream the Best
We make our own, and guarantee its purity, wholesomeness, richness and absolute cleanliness of manufacture.

Our Chef
Has gained a splendid reputation among our patrons, and you will find his cooking delightful.

25c Pays the Bill For a First Class Meal.

LYMAN BROS. Proprietors.

Miss Pearl Riddle and Norman of Dow City, were in town on Wednesday.

On Wednesday morning, Aug. 6th and son-in-law took their departure for White Lake, S. D.

Mr. V. R. Clark, of Chicago, paid visit to Denison this week visiting his cousin, Miss Ella Harding.

The Misses Kate Kelly and Gertrude Conroy spent Sunday in Carroll visiting friends and relatives.

Among those coming to the county seat on Tuesday were Miss Jennie Marten and brother Elmer, of West Side.

The union services on next Sunday evening will be held in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Thureson will deliver the sermon.

The big glass for the Menagh & Co. window has come again and was put in on Wednesday. It is one of the largest in town.

Mr. Bremser drove his Olds auto up to Denison on Wednesday. It is a twin to the one the Review gave in the contest, and a bird on the road.

PEDIGREED POLAND CHINA STOCK HOGS.

I have for sale a superior stock hog, with pedigree. Has shown a first class sire. Arthur Girard, Schleswig, Iowa. 32-3t.

MANY HAVE TAKEN ADVANTAGE of the Good Things Offered at our Great Mid-Summer Shoe Sale!

Advertised in detail in all last week's papers. To those who failed to read the advertisement, we beg to refer to last week's papers for particulars. To all who failed to attend the sale thus far we want to urge you to come in and see at what reduction we are offering reliable footwear. Every provider of a family's needs should not fail to shoe the family at this sale, on account of the saving possibilities.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.

