

Arion Anchor

Walter Larson and Mr. Beno were in Denison Friday on business.

Friday, a good many people from Denison transferred here on their way to the Charter Oak carnival.

Dean and Riley Talcott with Mr. Arndt played for a dance in Boyer Saturday evening.

Miss Agnes Halliday of Dow City, spent Sunday with Arion friends.

Mrs. Willey, of Omaha, who has been visiting with Arion friends returned to her home today leaving Master Earl to spend a few more days with his friend Edward Butler.

Miss Mabel Craft, of Dunlap spent Saturday night with her friend, Miss Butler. Miss Craft will teach the sixth grade in Mapleton this fall.

Miss Ulthea Wiley, of Dow City came to Arion Saturday night to meet Miss Rena Brake, who has been visiting in Ottumwa.

Mrs. Dr. Coon and son, Louis spent several days at the home of Mrs. W. W. Coon.

The Misses Keans were in Omaha last Wednesday.

L. C. Butler and family returned from the Lake last Tuesday.

Several of the Dow City high school pupils are from Arion, their place should make an effort to train the high school pupils in their own town.

Dr. L. M. Coon and Sears McHenry of Denison remained in Arion Saturday night at the W. W. Coon home.

Morris Dettesen, who went to white Lake, South Dakota has purchased of John Setepheon his residence property in Bell and will move there in about two weeks.

Dr. W. B. Evans traded his residence to Geo. Reynolds for his farm four miles south of Arion, neither will possession until March 1st when Mr. Reynolds will move to town and Dr. Evans has another residence property in view and the farm will be for sale.

Mrs. W. B. Evans returned from Omaha where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Byron Clow. She heard the noted temperance lecturer, Mrs. Armour of Georgia, who spoke to five thousand people in the Auditorium, church services for that evening were abandoned, in all of the churches, and this little lady held the attention of that vast audience for about two hours, and she has justly gained her national reputation.

E. P. Wigg has returned from an extended trip in the west and has accepted a position in Ft. Dodge. He is not so favorably impressed with the west.

Mr. John Widdows formerly of Arion went to Western Nebraska and is living on a homestead, and recently married a lady who was living on a homestead near him.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Stiltson attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Roberts in Dunlap last Thursday.

Mrs. Michels is visiting friends in Boone County.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark drove to Buck Grove last Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. McGuire.

Miss Jessie Butler is working in a printing office in Logan.

Mr. Chas. Horn has sold his auto to N. R. Wilder.

Several from Arion attended the carnival in Charter Oak.

Mr. John Miever is putting up an addition to his house on the farm and Milo Kelly is building a large barn. These gentlemen are taking the Presidents advice and are making things more attractive and convenient on their farm.

The N. W. Foreman departed from Arion Thursday. A. J. Mackey is efficiently taking charge of the work as foreman at present.

Elsie Winters, of Parkers, South Dakota, visited at the Geo. Reynolds home last Sunday.

Last Sunday there was talk of having a horse race on the track but Mayor Conrad informed them that if complaint was made the fine would be heavy and there was no horse racing.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott visited last Sunday at the Milo Kelly home.

Mrs. W. C. Larson and little daughters are expected to return about Sept. 18th. They having spent a pleasant summer with relatives in Stockholm Sweden.

The W. T. M. Society will meet with Mrs. J. B. Glassburner next Wednesday afternoon.

A great many people were here last Saturday to witness the horse races and the ball game. In the running race John Lee received 2nd prize. For the trotting race Ben Pollock received 1st prize and Geo. Binnell 2nd. In the Ball Game Dow City was about eleven scores ahead of Arion.

Mrs. Fred Gigax, of Hutchinson, Kansas, was here Monday and states that he is well pleased with his location.

At the fair meeting held last Wednesday, much interest was manifested among our business men and others. The Fair will be held September 16, 17 and 18 and efforts will be put forth to make it a success liberal premiums will be given on all kinds of stock, grains, vegetables and fruits, fancy work and many other things too numerous to mention the list will appear next week.

DOW CITY.

Mrs. John Trimble, of Virginia, Minn., is visiting at the W. E. Fishel home. Before marriage she was Fay Scott and her home was in Dow City.

Miss Ada Cross is the new deputy in the post office.

Mrs. Marion Cole and her mother, Mrs. Granger, started Wednesday for a month's visit in Canada.

Oscar Edwards returned home from Armour, S. D., and has now gone to Ames, where he is attending the agricultural college.

Mrs. Adolph Honz and children went to Charter Oak Friday for a few days visit.

Mrs. Asa Butterworth, of St. Louis, Mo., is here visiting at the Clair Butterworth home.

Ed Barber has traded his home for the Brewster automobile.

N. R. Wilder, the square deal man, has bought Chas. Horn's automobile. After spending several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Blanding, Hugh Talcott started Monday for his home in Denver.

Mrs. Jack Scott returned home Friday evening from a ten days' visit at Armour and Mitchell, S. D.

Miss Barbara Scott has returned home from a visit at Lanesboro and Carroll.

Rev. Curtis has returned from Colorado Springs, where he went to perform the marriage ceremony in which his son, Homer, was one of the contracting parties.

Mrs. T. M. Swartman and daughter, Grace, are at Lincoln, Neb., this week visiting relatives.

Aunt Sorilda Rudd was taken very sick Saturday, but is now improving.

Mrs. Nettie Graves, who has been sick for several weeks is some better. Asa Barber started Tuesday for Santiago, Cal., where he hopes to find relief from throat trouble.

Elmer Edwards went to Ute and Tuesday he with Mr. and Mrs. Glassburner, started for an extended visit in California. All hope that the rest and change of climate will be beneficial to Elmer, as his health has not been good for some time.

Miss Winnie Rudd and Miss Ora Butterworth will attend Graceland college at Lamoni, Ia., this year.

Carpenters are now working on the band stand in Logan park and it will soon be ready for use.

James Riddle is making some good substantial improvements on his property in the west part of town.

The M. E. Sunday school was not as well attended as was expected, as the day was unfavorable. The showers in the afternoon gave some of them a wetting.

James Reed's little son met with quite a bad accident Monday. The children were playing with the washing machine, and got one of his fingers caught in the cogs. The finger was dislocated, besides being badly lacerated. It may have to be amputated.

School opened Monday with all the teachers in their places, and Prof. Gillespie as principal. He comes highly recommended, and should have the loyal support of every patron of the school.

Arthur and Asa Butterworth are home for a visit with their parents.

Mrs. Frank Binnall and son visited in Denison Saturday.

Mrs. Sanford Rudd entertained the Friday club last Friday afternoon.

Henry Scott's little daughter got her shoulder broken while playing at school Monday.

Mrs. Malon and Mrs. Spray Malone went to Dakota Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

So many are in attendance at the Nebraska state fair this week that all cannot be mentioned.

SOLDIER NEWS.

Miss Alfreda McCollough returned to Soldier township Saturday ready to begin her work, after a pleasant summer vacation.

August Meyer's daughter was christened Sunday.

A. Rosburg and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the Aug. Bohlman home.

Martha Baak celebrated her birthday Sunday. A number of her friends attended and all enjoyed themselves.

J. Eck and R. Kuehl returned Thursday evening from their Nebraska trip.

Kathrine, Anna, Henry and Herman Schneekloth, Frank and Theo. Passick spent Sunday evening at the home of John Eck's.

Willie Clausen called on his brother Otto at the Meyers home Sunday.

The Drogmiller, sisters and brothers, Fred Eck and sister, Helma, and Claus Johansen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nagel were visitors at the Kuehl home on Sunday afternoon.

Adolph Kuehl and brother Hans, from Battle Creek, called at the Eck home Tuesday morning.

A number of friends and relatives spent Sunday at the home of Cal Maas.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is the best thing to use for piles. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

DELOIT ITEMS.

Mr. J. G. Knight and son, Ray Winans and wife and Mearl Myers and wife attended the State Fair at Des Moines a few days last week.

Miss Elsie Beaman took her departure Tuesday last week for her homestead, near Lemmon, South Dakota. She was accompanied on her journey as far as Sioux City by her uncle and aunt, Jas. McKim and wife where they made a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor and children of Dale, Nebraska, are visiting relatives and friends at Deloit.

Mrs. Ed Darling and Mrs. Jennie Wright came over from Vail Tuesday, and called on old friends returning Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Newcom and Anna Lackman were in Denison Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Williams and daughter, Lottie went to Brogan Friday.

A few of our young people spent Thursday evening at the Carl Winey home.

Iva Falkland took her departure Friday for her home near Colman, South Dakota.

Mrs. A. E. Darling and her youngest son and two grand children and her daughter, Daisy had her two children visited relatives in Deloit, Wednesday afternoon and part of the day Thursday.

Miss Emily E. Hunt and Mrs. Celestia Farris of Washington, D. C., cousins of C. J. Hunt and family, Mrs. N. L. Hunt drove up from Denison in the evening and took them back to Denison.

Mrs. W. A. Willoughby, of Bonesteel, South Dakota, mother of Mrs. A. J. Mason, came Thursday for a visit at her home and to see her grand-daughter who has been seriously ill.

Friday morning C. J. Hunt and family, J. A. Wedlock and E. K. Patchin, took her early train for Little Sioux to attend the L. D. S. reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Streeter and two sons visited part of last week at Auburn with her daughter, Nina and husband.

Sunday school class, Senior No. 3, visited by their teacher, Mrs. S. Horr, held an ice cream social last Wednesday evening. It looked very much like rain, but a nice crowd was present. A good time was had and seven dollars received for their Xmas offering.

Georgia Nicewanner returned from Fairfield, Iowa, Thursday.

W. L. Tupper, the Deloit principal for our school moved to Deloit Friday, in the Wicks house.

Elihu Johnson and wife arrived from Texas, Friday evening, and is visiting among relatives and friends.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the M. E. Church Friday afternoon and reorganized their society. Mrs. Sarah McKim was chosen president.

Rev. Bruce and wife visited her people at Ida Grove last week.

Mrs. S. W. Streeter went to Denison Saturday and visited at her sisters, Mrs. Cornstock.

M. Myers attended a board of Health meeting at Milford Center Monday forenoon.

Mrs. M. Myers and her daughter, Mrs. C. Ines went to Little Sioux Monday morning to attend the L. D. S. reunion.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson and daughter Eunice and Guy Johnson visited Sunday at the J. D. Newcom home.

Mrs. E. A. McKim went to Odebolt Monday morning to attend the wedding of her grand-daughter, Miss Margie Newcom, which we understand occurs at her parents home Wednesday morning.

Miss Edna Myers commenced her school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Browne are also teaching on their fall terms.

Deloit schools begin next Monday. Five parties united with the L. D. S. church by baptism Sunday. Elder J. G. Myers performing the rite.

N. L. Hunt and wife, of Denison, and their cousins from Washington D. C. passed through town Sunday evening in an Auto. They had been out viewing the country.

The school house has undergone a general over-hauling and will present a very neat appearance for our next term of school.

W. B. EVANS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
ARION, IOWA

N. F. STILLSON,
Blacksmith and Wagon Maker
Arion, Iowa.
Horseshoeing a Specialty.
All work guaranteed.

J. U. WISE,
Funeral Director and Embalmer.
Dow City, Iowa.
Calls answered day and night. Floral designs furnished.

Crawford County Fair

AT ARION, IOWA, 16 17 18

SEPTEMBER

LARGE EXHIBITS CASH PRIZES FINE BAND MUSIC
.... MANY SPLENDID ATTRACTIONS

COME - ALL ROADS LEAD TO ARION - COME!

ST. ANN'S CHURCH WILL PICNIC

LABOR DAY WILL WITNESS GREAT VAIL EVENT.

MANY RACES ARE ARRANGED

Merchants Offer Good Prizes and This Year's Events Will Eclipse All Previous Picnics.

St. Ann's picnic is the next attraction in Vail, Monday, September 7, and we expect a large crowd as usual. The following are a list of sports, the prizes for each contest and by whom donated.

- Men's Races.
100 yard foot race—1st prize, hat $2.60, by Casey and Duffy; 2nd prize, box cigars, $1.75, by Dingman; 3rd prize, hair brush, $1.25, Dieter.
50 yds, boys under 14 years—1st, 1 dozen photos, $3.00, Ogle; 2nd, 1 sack flour, $1.50, Mill.
Horse shoes—1st, 2 sets horse shoes $4.00, Ryan and Brockelsby; 2nd, whips, $3.00, Watson.
Putting shot—1st, box cigars $2.00, McCullough; 2nd, 1 year subscription to Observer, $1.50.
Relay race—1st, 2 whips, $2.50, Watson; 2nd, box cigars, $1.75, Gubne High Jump—1st prize, lawn swing, $2.50, Byrnes.
Potatoe race—1st, 1/2 ton coal, $2.00 Dugan; 2nd, 50 lbs flour, $1.50, Mill.

- Ladies Program.
Married ladies race—1st, lisk roaster, $2.00, M. Guire and Duffy; 2nd sack flour, $1.50, Cranny and Hickey.
Young ladies egg race—1st, waist, $2.50, T. J. Kenney; 2nd, shoes, $2.50, T. J. Kenney; 2nd, shoes, $2.50, Ryan and Ratchford.
Girls under 12 years bean bag throwing—1st, doll, $1.75, Vail Drug Co.; 2nd, cap, $1.50, Mrs. M. F. Maguire.
Misses 12 to 18 years nail driving—1st, hat, $3.00, Bazaar; 2nd, parasol, $2.50, J. J. McCormick.

- Cash Donations.
Traders Bank, $2.50.
J. F. Barton—$2.00.
Sheridan and Olson—$2.50.
J. P. Dougherty—$1.00.
G. L. Novotte—$1.00.
Green Bay Lumber Co.—$2.00.
A. W. Lyman—$1.00.
Wm. Hannan—$1.00.
L. L. Hoffman—$1.00.
Dr. L. E. Molsseed—$1.00.

There are about twenty-five men and boys from Turkey working with John Duffy on the section at Vail. These folks are called Turks and I suppose they are from Turkey. Some people claim they prefer chicken to turkey.
John Mangan, of DeWitt, Iowa, spent a couple of days here with his brother, James, and wife the first of the week.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small pills, easy to take, gentle and sure. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co. 36-5t

Cut Flowers

Carnations, Roses and
Asters now carried in stock.

Our prices are about half that of others. The quality of our flowers is the best that can be grown.
Try one of our $1.00 boxes of assorted flowers - -

BULBS

Tulips, Hyacinths, Crocus, Hardy Lillies, Snow Drops, Jonquils, Narcissus, Daffodils, etc. We can save you from 50 to 100 per cent on your bulb wants.

Bartcher Bros.

VAIL ITEMS

Mike Kelly was a Denison caller Tuesday.

Wm. Albert was in Denison Thursday on business.

Dr. J. L. Giblin spent last week at Albion, Nebraska.

Mary Dupont was calling on Denison friends Friday.

Pete McCormick spent Friday and Saturday in Denison.

Herman Grill, of Denison was here on business Thursday.

Mrs. Staininger spent Sunday with relatives in Denison.

Joe Harrington is in South Dakota looking at the country.

Wm. Farley was a passenger to Omaha Sunday noon.

Andrew Gallagher and wife were Denison callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley White spent last week in Des Moines.

Mrs. Jno Dieter was calling on West Side friends Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark White were visiting in Denison Thursday.

Miss Loretta Holland spent a couple of days last week in Denison.

Mrs. Mary Quick went to Dunlap Thursday to see a sick friend.

John Kelly of Denison was calling on Vail friends here Saturday.

Ed Christy and family, of Dunlap, visited friends here last week.

Dr. Wright of Denison made a professional call to Vail Thursday.

Alfie Starck came over from Manning Sunday for a visit at home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Peterson spent Sunday in Arcadia with friends.

George Nicholson, of Denison was looking after business here Saturday.

M. J. Keane and Master Ignatius drove to Deloit on business Thursday.

Charles Weisbrod, of Des Moines, visited at the John Kral home Sunday.

Miss Rookh Lyman visited her friend, Miss Cushman in Denison Tuesday.

Miss Cushman of Denison, visited at the A. W. Lyman home last Thursday.

Mrs. Dr. Darling spent a couple of days with friends at Denison last week.

Miss Eva Norton and sister Anna spent last week in Odebolt with relatives.

Miss Anna Mae Strong was an over Sunday visitor with her parents in Denison.

Mrs. Lambertson and daughter of Sac City visited at the Wm. Dobles home last week.

John McCormick was transacting business in the county seat the first of the week.

Miss Nellie Collins, of Denison, was an over Sunday visitor at the John Holland home.

Mrs. E. Devaney and Miss Nellie spent last week in West Side at the T. Tarry home.

Leonard Dieter was a guest at the Ratchford Cottage at Lake Wood a part of last week.

A. W. Lyman and P. M. Cullough, spent a couple of days last week sight seeing in Omaha.

Mrs. William Harrington spent last week in Jefferson with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Hamilton.

Mrs. Baumhover, of Carroll, spent last week here with her daughter, Mrs. John L. Giblin.

John Tonner and wife of Lynch, Nebraska were guests at the Dave Tonner home last week.

Geo. Thompson home for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Armstrong of Denison, spent a couple of days here last week, the guests of Miss Short.

Wm. Maynard left Monday evening for a trip through Kansas, with a view of buying a farm if he likes the country.

Miss Clara and Pearl McAndrews returned from an extended visit with their sister at Bridgewater, South Dakota, Saturday.

Mrs. P. Gallagher and Mrs. Hawley were Denison visitors Monday.

Ralph Quick was an over Sunday visitor in Denison.

Miss Marie Keane entertained a number of young ladies at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mae McCalpin, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Ellen McCarthy, of Denison, spent last week here at the W. F. Mitchell home, helping care for the twins who were quite sick, but are better at this writing.

Miss Ella Kruger, after spending the summer with her grandparents, B. Mitchells left Thursday evening for Charter Oak, where she attended the Carnival from there she goes to her home at Omaha.

Mrs. John Molony and children left Monday evening for Kennebec, South Dakota, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Molony has been there for the past six weeks and has a home ready for them. Mrs. Molony's sister, Maggie Seanlan went with her and will stay a couple of months and help her get settled.

Wednesday of last week at Madrid Iowa, the words were pronounced that united John Larson, and Miss Olga Levine in marriage. The couple will begin housekeeping soon in the Mrs. Kate Anderson residence in the northern part of town. John has many friends here and they will all unite in wishing this couple a long and happy life.

On Thursday last Chris Munday met with a very painful accident. He was working for Mr. Daniels on the foundation for the county bridge that is being built near the Catholic church in Vail. A deep ditch was dug for the concrete and while preparing to commence the foundation the walls of this ditch caved in and caught Mr. Munday in such a way that his spine is severely wrenched. He will be laid up for quite a while. Fortunately he is insured in the Woodman accident insurance company of Lincoln Nebraska and this will help to pay him while he will be unable to work.

John McCormick was transacting business in the county seat the first of the week.

Miss Nellie Collins, of Denison, was an over Sunday visitor at the John Holland home.

Mrs. E. Devaney and Miss Nellie spent last week in West Side at the T. Tarry home.

Leonard Dieter was a guest at the Ratchford Cottage at Lake Wood a part of last week.

A. W. Lyman and P. M. Cullough, spent a couple of days last week sight seeing in Omaha.

Mrs. William Harrington spent last week in Jefferson with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Hamilton.

Mrs. Baumhover, of Carroll, spent last week here with her daughter, Mrs. John L. Giblin.

John Tonner and wife of Lynch, Nebraska were guests at the Dave Tonner home last week.

Thos. Sheridan spent a part of last week in South Dakota looking after his land interests there.

Miss Widmeyer, of Carroll was an over Sunday visitor here with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Gronemeyer.

Mrs. T. J. Kenney and master Frank and Mary Kenney are visiting friends at Chicago and Sterling, Ill.

Miss Grace Barden, of Des Moines, is here for a couple of weeks visit with her grandpa, E. Barden.

Miss Grace Lang and Muree Keane spent a part of last week with their aunt, Mrs. Venon, near Boyer.

Mrs. Dr. Glynn and Miss Alice Glynn of DeWitt spent Thursday in Denison at the J. H. Jones home.

Miss Agnes Maher and cousin Gertrude Mohr, of Arcadia visited relatives in the vicinity of Vail last week.</