One more car load of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges

These stoves were bought at wholesale prices and at a price that discounts any other dealers price in western Iowa. 87 different styles to select from on our floors at one time which insures you the satisfaction of getting what you want, not only in price but quality also. BUY WHILE THE LINE IS COMPLETE.

Oak Heaters

This Oak Heater is very low priced, but strictly up to date in every respect. The base constructed on air tight principles. Ash pit door, screwed draft regulates the amount of air one might desire. Has large deflector ring, also drop nickel foot rest which throws all heat rising from the fire bowl to the floor. Fire bowl is made of the best grade of iron, very little difference between top and bottom. Sides are corrugated to give more radiation. The steel in this stove is made of Wood's best old style steel and will not peel off when heated or turn red after being exposed to the fire. Has swing dome and No. 9 lid on top to use for cooking. We carry this stove in all sizes from 9 inch to 18 inch from

ELECTRO PENINSULAR

The largest selling range we carry in stock. Body is made of the best steel the market produces. The walls of the Electro are built on different construction than other makes, but are 3 ply with layers of steel on each side and genuine asbestos mill board between which holds the heat on the inside of the stove. Oven is square, 20 inches deep, oven rack same size as oven bottom. Top of oven double, bottom of oven is made of 10-gauge steel. Oven door when down comes flush with bottom of oven making a large shelf to turn bread on. Ash pit is very wide and deep, nearly double the size of the ash pan, giving plenty of air below the grates. Top has six No. 8 lids, two front key plates interchangeable, which makes their durability almost everlasting. Fire box has duplex grates, 3-piece fire back, front end door for wood. This is the best value we have at $49.75

Hard Coal Empire Peninsular

This is our leader in hard coal stoves, but one of our line of 30 base burners. It is a high grade construction and elegantly designed at a moderate price. Has large reflector top which throws heat and also adds cheerfulness to the room. Double heating capacity. The back of the stove has 2 flues which take cold air off the floor taking it through the stove and throwing it out of the top warm air. Stove has large magazine feed which keeps the fire well supplied at all times and insures an even amount of heat.

Our price on this stove, $38.00
