KIRON.

B. N. Benson is spending a two weeks' pleasure trip visiting friends in Minnesota. Mamie Pearson of Denison was a passenger for home Friday, after a short and pleasant visit with her friends southeast of Kiron. Rev. A. Reichler and family came home Friday afternoon from a few days' stay with acquaintances in Breda, Iowa. Mabel and Edna Swanson took a train trip on Friday afternoon. Mabel stopping in Boyer, while Emma accompanied a friend as far as Wall Lake, both returning on the evening freight.

Mrs. Jno. Olson, who was taken to the Ida Grove hospital for an appendicitis operation is getting along very well and many friends hope to see her back soon to the neighborhood and her friends all restored. August Linman and G. A. Norelius returned on Thursday afternoon from Des Moines where they accompanied their daughters and spent a couple of days. Rufus Morgan of Lake City was entertained in Old Kiron Wednesday and Thursday last week.

The Ladies' Aid Circle met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Larson at Old Kiron with a very good attendance. John Larson of Bristow, Nebraska, spent the latter part of the week with friends and old neighbors in Kiron. Although well located and contented he can not forget Kiron. C. A. Lowry of Berne came to Kiron last week to relieve Henry Thomson as manager of the Fairmont Cream station at this place. Quite a number of our people attended the carnival at Scheswig last week and had a good time of its sort, some hardly over it yet. Amelia Michaelson returned home Thursday morning from her two weeks' visit which she enjoyed. Amy Magnuson of Arthur has been visiting at the A. Sedarberg home during the last week. Miss Gertrude Bradbury of Denison, who is teaching school near Boyer spent Saturday in Kiron. The Old Kiron school commenced last week with Miss Cora Robinson of Wall Lake as teacher. Alice Nordell went to Sioux City on Friday last, where she will undergo an operation for appendicitis of which she has been a sufferer of late. Her many Kiron friends trust that she will soon be home all well again. Miss Tilda Johnson returned to Sioux City Friday, after a short visit with relatives at Kiron. She accompanied Alice Nordell, who will receive treatment at the Samaritan hospital, where she is nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hill spent a few hours in Kiron on their way home to Ells from a short visit with relatives near Ida Grove. Mrs. Otto Clauson and Master Leslie visited relatives at Denison between Thursday and Saturday morning. Edna Stolt of Odebolt will teach the fall term of school two miles north of Kiron. B. A. Samuelson and family visited relatives at Slayton, Minnesota, last week. I. Michaelson went to Akron, Iowa, Friday to visit his relatives and look after his farm interests. Harry Sthran and family of Schaller, Iowa, visited the Sthran's in Kiron Wednesday and Thursday. Russell Engberg, who has spent the past summer with his aunt at Lyons, Neb., visited his grandparents and playmates in Kiron last week, leaving for Ames, Iowa, Friday, where he will take a course in the State College. P. Miller and J. E. Hoagland and wives and Richard Lilliehalm drove to Denison Thursday to see the elephant. Mrs. C. E. Engberg went to Ames, Iowa, Friday to spend several days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fowle, and her husband. Rev. A. Lagerquist, John Winquist and Nels Larson went to St. Paul on Tuesday morning to attend the Baptist Annual General Convention being delegates from the church here. The first annual conference held by the Swedish Baptist in America was held at Village Creek, Iowa, some twenty-nine years ago, when the conference was organized. Since then it has never been held in the state and the Baptist people in Kiron are planning to secure it for next year, which, if they succeed, will be quite an undertaking as some nearly five hundred delegates gathers each year besides the many other visitors. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Sandstrom went to Bronson Iowa, Saturday, where they visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Mauritz, going to Sioux City this week to attend the Interstate Fair. Miss Lillian made a quick trip to Wall Lake, Ia., in response to a telephone message informing her of the death of her friend, Mrs. Lee Taylor. Rev. William Swenson of Sumner, Neb., will preach at the Mission church next Sunday morn and evening, also on Friday evening of this week. Rev. Wright, pastor of the Baptist church in Sac City was in Kiron Thursday. The Baptist people in that town are planning to build a new church and Rev. Wright was sent to Kiron to inspect the new church which is being built in Kiron. F. L. Johnson left for Minnesota and South Dakota on Friday morning on a short preaching tour and to visit relatives. The Misses Mildred, Lulu, and Etta Larson went to Sioux City Monday to attend the Interstate fair and visited relatives. The Kiron school commenced on Monday last with Alma Hanson and Nellie Caster as teachers. Miss Hanson will have charge of the primary room. Kiron is fortunate in securing these two able teachers. Rev. Carl G. Anderson of New Windsor, Ill., who has been holding several meetings at the Mission church the past week left Monday for Denison. From where he goes to Alta to attend the annual state conference of the Y. P. Society of the Free Mission church. Rev. Anderson is a very interesting and stirring minister and his meetings resulted in much good. His life's story which he told in the Sunday school Sunday morning drew tears from every eye and caused many of his listeners to thank God for being spared from enduring such hardships and trials as Rev. Anderson had to go through during his childhood days. Alfred O. Larson of Kirkman, Ia., is conducting the Green Bay Lumber business during the absence of Chas. Iversen, who is taking a vacation visiting with his folks at Charter Oak and spending a few days in Sioux City. W. F. Bay of Odebolt drove to Kiron Monday to attend the directors' meeting of the Kiron State Bank. Kodol will, in a very short time, enable the stomach to do the work it should do, and the work it should do is to digest all the food you eat. It makes the stomach sweet and it is pleasant to take. It is sold here by Lmabern Drug Co. 36-5t
