sary evidence to assist him in the prosecution of his present claim, applied to a friend to write a letter to a former member of his company then living at Albia, Iowa. This correspondence proved to give all the necessary evidence, for in a short time through the influence and assistance of Senator Dolliver, the claim was speedily allowed. Time rolled on, nothing was heard from the Albia friend, who becoming anxious wrote again to the party who had written him years before making inquiry as to the whereabouts of his old comrade, Uncle Jake. The post-office address was promptly furnished and by return mail Uncle Jake received a letter inviting him to come to Albia, visit his mess mate, live over again the trials and hardships of 61 to 65. The recipient was unable to resist and so without regard to his advanced age, 75 years, he boarded the train at Charter Oak and is now charging the rebel strongholds with his old comrade, Dr. S. M. King, of Albia, Iowa. We hope for its safe return.

If Charter Oak does not turn out professional men in the shape of doctors it will not be for the want of material for on Monday Lowell Goin, John Rees and Thos. Thomsen, Jr., left for Iowa City with the intention of studying medicine—sure to win.

Mrs. M. M. Black, who has been a very sick person, is reported as some better Monday with strong hopes of recovery.

Mrs. Mary Winn Barr, a returned missionary from Osaka, Japan, gave two addresses on Sunday, Sept. 13, morning and evening to large union congregations. In the evening
