NOTICE TO PARENTS

We are pleased to say that our store is amply supplied to clothe the boys for school. We have the famous which is so desirably popular. It is made specially for them. And then, you know; the widow keeps track of the birthdays of each boy and sends a nice present.

Widow Jones Clothing

The Prices are the Lowest for Good Clothing—Bring the Boys to us.

Mr. Shoe Buyer:--

It isn't just the few cents we make on a single pair of shoes that we care. What we do care for is your shoe business. We want to sell you shoes for yourself and entire family. It is important to us to sell you the first pair because they are sure to bring you back again.

About a dozen ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. R. Timm Wednesday to spend the afternoon with her mother, Grandma Jebens, it being her 90th birthday.

The Hanover band furnished good music during the day. J. Stuart with his songs and slight of hand performances; Dr. Conn's diving dog; and Prof. Parker's juggling were part of the amusements. The Jacobson Bros. acrobats from Charter Oak were much appreciated. The political speaking in the park during the hot afternoon afforded rest for the crowd in the cool shade. The ball game between Charter Oak and our home boys resulted 11 to 9 in favor of the Oak. In the evening the fire company made a run and showed what our chemical engine will do. The Gregg orchestra from Denison furnished excellent dance music for the bowery and a large crowd enjoyed it all. The hall was also opened and with the Christiansen band there, the evening was pleasantly spent. The merry go-round had its usual amount of patronage.

Thos. and Anna Munster drove out to see Grandpa Munster Sunday. He is able to be up again after his long illness.
