

You Will "Take" Well

AT

Ferguson's Studio
199 EAST BROADWAY.
Ground Floor.

Attend the Mission.

Mr. B. J. Sibbert made at business trip to Omaha Monday.

A beautiful line of hats in all the new colorings at Sarachon Sisters.

Flower pots, in all sizes, two for 5 cents and up. The Racket Store.

Mr. John Boliou of Sioux City transacted business in Denison Tuesday.

Mr. Jess McAhren transacted business in Dow City last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Patterson and children spent Sunday in Dunlap visiting relatives.

Mrs. Don Butler and daughter, Stella were up from Dow City last Saturday shopping.

Its to the Book store for everything you need in your school work at the lowest prices.

Mr. R. A. Romans and children spent Sunday at the home of Frank Woolston near Ellis.

Mr. Dan Howarth was up from Dow City the latter part of last week transacting business.

Mr. E. C. Chamberlin and family drove down to Dunlap Sunday in their auto and visited friends.

Dr. Weber's Glasses fit right, look right and are right, call Wednesday, Sept. 30, at Nielson House. Examination free. 38-2t

Mr. C. L. Voss and wife and Mr. E. Gulick and wife drove up to Frank Woolston's home near Ellis in Mr. Voss' machine last Sunday.

Mrs. William Strahn has gone to Cedar Rapids where she will visit relatives for two weeks and attend the temperance convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Brown returned to their home at Rhineland, Wis., after a weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Brown, Mr. Darragh and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner spent Sunday at the home of Congressman Walter I. Smith at Council Bluffs.

Mr. J. F. Glenn has purchased a Ford runabout from the J. B. Romans' Company to use in connection with the Crawford County Telephone Company.

The reports that Rhineland, Wis., was in danger of destruction from forest fires has had more personal interest to Denison people since the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Brown at the Conner home.

Mr. W. J. Scriver and Mr. E. C. Chamberlin transacted business in Omaha last Friday in connection with the new garage that Mr. Scriver is going to conduct in the building near his implement house.

Sunday Schools Rally next Sunday.

M. O'Connor of Vail was a Denisonite yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Gwin has gone to Persia, Ia., to make her home.

Puffs, switches and all kinds of hair goods at Sarachon Sisters.

Ten records made by our next president—come in and near them. The Racket Store.

Mr. Sears McHenry and Mr. George McHenry made a business trip to Dow City last Friday in George's new auto.

Mr. Peter Johansen was down from Schleswig last Saturday. While in Denison he purchased a runabout from Boylan & Tamm.

Rev. LaReau, the Baptist pastor, is at Boone this week conducting a series of revival meetings. He will not be home before Saturday.

Mr. P. D. McMahon and Jim Sims made a business trip to Schleswig, Kiron and Ellis on Tuesday. They made the trip in A. F. Boylan's auto.

Mr. E. Gulick left on Tuesday for Sioux Falls, S. D., to look over some land interests in that locality. He stopped at Sioux City to see his aunt, Mrs. Schuyler, who is very sick.

Mr. George R. Smith of Goodland, Kan., is in Denison this week visiting his wife. Mr. Smith has been in Kansas for some time looking for a suitable location.

Hear Bryan and Taft views on the issues of the campaign. Won't cost you anything and they are certainly worth hearing. The Racket Store Edison Phonograph Dept.

Mr. M. F. Carroll, who is employed in the city division of the Carriers Department of the Chicago post office was in Denison yesterday. He has been visiting relatives near Buck Grove and gave the Denison postoffice a friendly call.

Mr. C. E. Johnson, Mr. O. E. Strahn, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Sanstrom, Mr. E. Santsrom, Mr. W. J. Sandberg, Mr. Ellis Sandberg and Mr. Huzo Foglstrom of Kiron composed an auto party that visited friends in Denison Tuesday afternoon.

We call the attention of our readers to the W. A. McHenry Poland China Hog sale Ad in another column of this issue. These hogs are perfectly healthy and are of the big bone breeding, such as farmers demand. Longfellow, their sire, can be made to weigh 1000 pounds. 39-2t

Rev. LaReau of the Baptist church will have for his subject next Sunday morning, "God's Two Calls." The text will be found in Romans 8, 28-30. About two weeks ago one of the ministers of town said that successful preaching was best attained by hearers who were prepared as well as the pastor. Rev. LaReau is acting on this suggestion and giving out the verses about which his sermon will treat with the hope and expectation that his people will read them over in advance, think of them, thus become more interested and better hearers.

Kreso Dip

Now is the time to dip your stock and get them in a healthy condition before cold weather sets in. For sale in 4 and 5 gallon cartons at

Schlumberger's
PHARMACY.

When We Tell You That Our New line of Clocks

is good enough for us to sell:--Well, that is about all we need to say, for we will not sell goods that do not come up to the highest efficiency. The best is cheap enough is our motto. TRY US AND SEE.

E. C. Chamberlin

The Jeweler and Optician.....

Miss Hink went up to Sioux City on last Saturday.

See our hats before making your fall purchase. Sarachon Sisters.

Nice, fresh Acme chocolates always in stock at the Book store.

Miss Martha Watje has been over near Buck Grove visiting her brother.

Mrs. E. W. Johnson leaves this week to join her husband at Aberdeen, S. D.

Robert Whiting is a brand new year in advance Review subscriber from Vail.

John Shaw Van is helping out at the Patterson Drug store at West Side this week.

The rustling David Menagh was off on Monday night for St. Paul on a business deal.

Quality, style and price considered you will find our line of trimmed hats leads all others. Sarachon Sisters.

A fish globe, two gold fish, pebbles, plant, etc., complete for 10 cents Saturday, Sept. 26th, at 9 a. m. at The Racket Store.

Two pretty gold fish in a fish globe with plant, pebbles, etc., complete for 10c each at The Racket Store Saturday, Sept. 26, at 9 a. m. A can of fish food must be purchased with each globe.

Mrs. T. E. Pearson has gone to Chicago to remain for a time while arranging for further education of her son, Townsend and daughter, Miss Laura. The son will take up dentistry and the daughter continue her instrumental music in which she is showing such proficiency Mrs. Pearson may be gone for some months.

Tod Clock is back in Denison after three years service in the regular army in the Philippines. He is now employed at the electric light power house. He is now married and will begin housekeeping near the city park. Tod has had lots of experience in the regular army but he is glad to get back to the States once more and settle down as a civilian.

Mr. E. W. Johnson and family are about to move to Aberdeen, S. D., and so the playmates the children of the family gave them a picnic in Grace Park last Saturday afternoon. There were present Irene, Garnet, Lola and Harold Johnson besides a nice groupe of their friends. All had a good time despite the fact that it was a farewell affair. Mr. Johnson is a carpenter by trade and has been living on the west side of town. He has been doing splendidly at Aberdeen. His children will long remember their farewell picnic and it was nice of their little friends to arrange it for them.

Mrs. C. A. Jones was a Carroll visitor last week.

Miss Davis, of the college faculty, is enjoying a brief visit from her mother.

Mrs. Lee and daughter of Arion were among the Denison shoppers last Saturday.

Mrs. John Champion and son of Vail were over Sunday guests with Denison friends.

The Misses Theresa and Dora Hansen of Schleswig were Denison visitors on Monday last.

Mrs. Otto Hink has been enjoying a visit from her brother, Mr. Wm. Baltisberger, of Malcom, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Andrews and Mrs. Conroy were all Vail visitors on Sunday.

Mrs. John Van Winkle returned last week from Council Bluffs, where she was called by the illness of her infant grandson.

Mr. Tom McGarth, who is the expert for the Stewart Lumber Co. in the machinery department and Harold Heiden were over at the Oak last Sunday.

Buy a gold fish for 10c and let us throw in another fish and a globe, plant, pebbles, etc., free at the special sale Saturday, Sept. 26, at 9 a. m. at The Racket Store.

Mrs. A. J. Larson and Mrs. Disberg left this week for Phillipsburg, Kansas. Mrs. Larson expects to remain in Kansas for a couple of months, but she has not decided where she will make her home.

Miss Nell Cushman has been in Omaha recently and has taken occasion to take dancing lessons from an Omaha dancing master. Miss Cushman is thinking of conducting a dancing class in Denison this season.

Mrs. N. E. Lafferty and son, Bert, leave this week for Vinton where Bert is to enter the college for the blind. The many friends of the family hope he will find much happiness and benefit at the state institution.

Mr. Willis Renfro and Miss Blanche Tillet of the vicinity of Dow City were married at Denison on Wednesday, Sept. 16, by Rev. La Reau, the Baptist pastor. They were at the Arion fair next day receiving the congratulations of their friends.

Miss Elizabeth Menagh has returned from a visit of two weeks at Spokane, Wash., where she was a guest of the family of E. A. Stone. She had a fine trip and returned looking better than ever. Miss Menagh ranks as one of the best business women in Denison, is a hard worker, and needed a rest.

Mrs. Johnson of Casper, Wyoming, was a guest of her uncle, J. H. Mahoney, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Romans are expected back this week from a sojourn at Hot Springs, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterse expect to go to Baltimore about October 1st to visit Miss Ollie Patterson.

Miss Verne Stocking has returned from a prolonged visit at Seattle and other cities of the western coast.

Miss Flora Iseminger returned on Sunday evening from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Evans, at Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. H. J. Matthews well known to all the old-timers of the county and dearly beloved by them is the guest of her brother, Mr. John Van Winkle.

Mr. Charles Tabor has been confined to his home for the past week with an attack of nervous prostration. At present writing he is much improved and two weeks of dieting and quiet are expected to bring him out alright.

Denison friends learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Kittie Barr Rae in New Mexico. Intermment was made in Carrollton, Mo. A number of years ago Miss Barr was a teacher of the primary department of the Denison schools and was one of our most popular young ladies. The old-timers who remember her will be saddened by the news of her death.

The Hotel Denison is waiting for beds. Everything else is ready and the chef is preparing meals for the force of help who are here in readiness for the opening. Mr. Harry Dunn tells us that he expects to have the hotel open for the inspection of Denison people the evening before it is open for business. Music will be provided and Denison people will be invited to look the hotel over.

Notice

School Books are furnished by the school board through the Book Store at

ABSOLUTE COST

Therefore there will be no credit on these books hereafter.

Actually cloudy.

LOST—Square Roman Gold Medal. Leave at this office.

Swan Mauritz of Kiron called on Denison friends today.

Mr. Chas. Duboc of Oskaloosa, a grandson of Mr. J. W. Denison, founder of our city, was a business visitor here this week.

Mrs. Fritz Buhman of Deloit was a Denison visitor today. She tells us that they are expecting to move to South Dakota in the near future.

Miss Ida Kusel, the daughter of the respected German citizen residing in Grace Park, is making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Ginder, in Chicago.

T. C. McCarthy tells us it will hurry him to get moved into his new quarters by the first of October. He expects to have the handsomest thirist parlor in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Miller have written to Denison friends from Mares Island, Cal., where they are evidently having a splendid visit with their son, who is in government employ.

Hon. Thos. Rae of Arion was a pleasant caller yesterday. He tells us that the Crawford county fair is several hundred dollars to the good. Well, the association gave a good program and ought to come out ahead.

S. P. Jacobsen entertained the staff of the new Hotel Denison yesterday morning, serving coffee and delicious fresh rolls for their benefit. Mr. Jacobsen evidently believes in harmony and good will among our business men.

Mr. M. L. Root of Storm Lake is in the city with a view to giving lessons in physical culture for men and women. He has been at other places and comes with the best of recommendations. There is no doubt as to the benefits coming from a course in physical culture. Hundreds of people have been benefited by it. At Mason City there is an instructor who gives her entire time to the city schools. Mr. Root should have no difficulty in securing classes.

On Sunday last at the Baptist church a Philathea class was organized by Mrs. LaReau with twenty-five charter members enrolled. The following officers were elected: Mrs. LaReau as leader; Miss Susie Craft, president; Miss May Hayes, vice-president; Miss Agatha Brummer, secretary; Miss Della Swartzem-bugh, assistant secretary; Miss Davis, treasurer. We expect to hear of very good results from the work of this class.

FOR SALE.
My barn. Theo. Walker. 39-1t pd

COME AND LOOK AT THE NEW CLOAK STYLES!

Come just to look if you choose; if you want to buy, we'll help you make a selection

You will like our new and natty Cloak models; they possess a quality and style that are unusual; the Workshop of Worth put them there; wool fabrics, rich linings, perfect tailoring.

Look at the pretty semi-fitting models with radius braid and shimmering satin trimmings. See the single-breasted types with their knack of minimizing the hip size and adding to the wearer's height. Double-breasted models for those who prefer them; novelty ideas in the Princess Nippon, Princess Directoire and Princess Empire shapes; the very newest things in cloakdom.

You cannot ever anticipate the elegance, fit and finish of these new models. They are in a class by themselves; they lift their wearers into a class by themselves.

Our showing at $8.50, 12.50, 16.50, 20.00, 22.50, 27.50, 30.00, 32.50, 35.00 and upwards is unequalled; it is the best evidence we can offer of your advantage in trading here.

The Ballo-Broderben Co.
DENISON, IOWA.
CRAWFORD'S STYLE CENTER.