

HOTEL DENISON IS NOW OPEN

MAGNIFICENT NEW HOSTLERY COMMENCED BUSINESS THIS MORNING.

ALL APPOINTMENTS ARE PERFECT

The Neatest, Prettiest, Most Up To Date Hotel In Iowa Opened Its Doors To The Public Today.

Hotel Denison is a deed accomplished. The doors of the new hostelry which is to spread the fame of Denison and make it noted in all western Iowa opened its doors to the public this morning. Last night the citizens of Denison were invited to inspect the hotel and today breakfast was served to the first guests.

The completion of the hotel is the fruition of the work of our most enterprising citizens and all are now rejoicing that the hopes and plans of many months have been fulfilled and that under such excellent management the hotel which is to be the pride of Denison, her standing invitation to the stranger, is now open, ready for business, standing without a peer among the hotels of Iowa for a city of Denison's size. There is no necessity for going into the history of the hotel project. Suffice it to say that it was built under the direction of a number of our wealthiest citizens and they had the hotel built as if it was to be their own home. A hotel man at Fort Dodge said to us concerning the hotel, "It will be too nice. I know what your folks will do, they will build a hotel as if they were building a house and it won't pay." The Fort Dodge man was right as to the method of building. It is built like a watch and no city west of Chicago can boast a daintier, prettier hotel.

While all the rooms are not as yet fully furnished, as for instance, the billiard room, yet under the management of W. F. Dunn and Sons it is easy to be seen that all is to be of the best.

Entering, one is impressed with the size and beauty of the office lobby. The handsome tiled floors, the rich furnishings, the handsome decorations. The writing room is a thing of beauty and the parlors devoted to the ladies are as finely furnished and as elegant as can be found in any city. The dining room, "White Hall" is one of the prettiest in the state. With its white walls, enamelled wainscoting and decorations of orange plants, it looks as if arrayed for a bridal feast. The dainty linen, the handsome silver, the rich mahogany furniture, make a pretty picture.

The guest rooms are handsome. Heavy Brussels rugs cover the floors. A telephone stands handy at the head of each bed. And, oh, those beds. It makes a man sleepy to think of them. Box springs, silk fibre mattresses, the finest sheets, each bed is said to have cost $55.00 and there are fifty of them in the hotel.

All the furnishings and furniture of the hotel were bought through the Balle-Brodersen Co. They acted as representatives of the Improvement Co. and were able through their whole sale connections to underbid any offers made by other wholesale concerns. The Balle-Brodersen Co. gave their service without pay, except that the expenses of Mr. J. E. Balle were paid on the trip which he made to Chicago to represent the Improvement Co. when the buying was done. The Balle-Brodersen Co. was undoubtedly able to save the hotel management and the Improvement Co. many hundreds of dollars and this they did without a penny of profit to themselves. There is no question but that the hotel was furnished as cheaply as possible, considering the elegance and completeness of every detail.

W. F. Dunn & Sons have leased the hotel for this year with an option for ten years. It is of course their intention to remain here if the business warrants. They are fine hotel people and seem to have a perfect knowledge of what the travelling public will want. Per example, each room is to have as one of the details of furnishing, a pin cushion, containing needle and thread, pins, safety pins, odd buttons, a regular little "housewife."

The Dunns have high ideals of the way in which a hotel should be managed and they will at least try the experiment of giving Denison as good a hotel as can be found in all the west.

Mr. Harry Dunn, who has already proven himself an efficient manager and who has gained the confidence of all have had to deal with him, will be the manager and day clerk for the present.

Mr. Will Chupp will be the night clerk. Mrs. Troost of Minneapolis will be the housekeeper with two chambermaids and two porters at her command. Mrs. Spratt will be headwaitress with four waitresses. Curt Schnalke of Indianapolis is the chef upon whom so much depends, Louis Jencks will be pastry cook. The above with the addition of the all important "bell-hops" complete the directory of the hotel. The telephone service installed by the Crawford County Telephone Co. under the supervision of J. F. Glenn is the latest and best and was a rush order well filled.

We have not the space to give further details of this beautiful hotel, the pride of Denison. It should be seen to be appreciated and, by the way, Manager Dunn requests us to ask the good people of Denison who shall be pleased to christen the new hotel by taking their Sunday dinner there this week, to please notify him in advance if possible so that they may know approximately how many are to be entertained. The dining room seats sixty-four without crowding.

TO CELEBRATE GERMAN DAY

The Deutsche Bruderschaft, which for the benefit of our non-Tuetic readers we will explain means German Brotherhood, has decided to make German Day one long to be remembered in Crawford county. The celebration will be held at the Bruderschaft park in North Denison but it will be a county affair and already acceptances have been received from lodges and clubs from a number of our neighboring towns. Many of our business men have promised to place handsome floats in the forenoon parade and these together with the many marching clubs and the Cavalry Club in honor of the bumpy day will make an imposing parade.

The afternoon will be devoted to speech-making and to sports and the evening will be given over to dancing and fireworks and a general good time.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

MRS. STREETER RECEIVES $450 FOR SALE OF LIQUOR TO HER HUSBAND.

LANG CASE NOW ON TRIAL

Claimed That Elder Lang Is Not Competent To Manage Estate. Seventy Witnesses are Called.

After the evidence in the case of the Farmers State Bank vs. Henry Hoefler had been taken, the parties to the suit got together and settled it. This case was on trial at close of our report last week.

The attention of the court and jury was occupied Wednesday and Thursday of last week with the case of Mrs. Mary Streeter against Henry Koenekamp and Title Guaranty & Trust Co., in which the plaintiff asked damages from the defendant on account of illegal sales of intoxicating liquors made to her husband at Deloit where the defendant Koenekamp runs a saloon; the Title Guaranty & Trust Co. furnishing the bond to Mr. Koenekamp under which the saloon was conducted. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $300.00 actual damages and $150.00 exemplary damages. Shaw, Sims & Kuehne represented the plaintiff, and E. K. Burch and Geo. A. Richardson the defendants.

The case of The Cardiff Gypsum Plaster Co. vs Henry Grill was taken up Thursday morning before a jury. The plaintiff brought suit for a car of cement shipped to the defendant. The defendant contended that under instructions from the plaintiff he had returned all of the cement except a small portion which had been used, and had paid them for the same. It transpired, however, that he had sent his personal check to the company which they had refused to accept, claiming it was not the right amount, and that they did not receive the shipment of cement when it arrived at Ft. Dodge at their factory for the reason that it was spoiled enroute by getting wet. The defendant, being unable to show payment according to the terms of the instructions given him for the return of the cement, confessed judgment for the amount involved, $127.20.

A jury was empanelled Monday of this week in the case of Thomas, Frank and Cora Lang against John R. Lang, their father, in which they seek to have the temporary guardianship heretofore secured for their father, made permanent. Conner & Lally appear for the plaintiffs, and Harding & Kahler, and E. H. Swazey for the defendant. It is said some 70 witnesses have been subpoenaed, and the case will likely take the balance of the week. At this time but few witnesses have been examined on behalf of the plaintiff, all bearing on the question of the relations of the defendant to his family and his present wife. The sons have been on the stand and show that their father has in the past been addicted to liquor and to have been very often intoxicated. They claim that he is disposing of his property at the over persuasion of a young wife who is not a proper person. There is much interest in the case, and it will take all the week for the trial. The defense claims Mr. Lang is not now drinking and is fully able to manage his own affairs. The following are the jurymen: George Hugg, Henry Wingrove, Walter Stout, Fred Fitzsimons, U. G. Murtagh, Chas. Heiden, Fred Stammer, Chas. Tamm, Ed. Ebert, Henry Marquardt, Wm. McLaren and John Ehlers.

TAFT AND SHERMAN CLUBS

The Republicans of Denison And Crawford County Will Organize Clubs On Behalf Of Their Candidates.

There was a meeting of the republicans of Denison on last Monday evening when the matter of organizing a Taft and Sherman club was considered. It was unanimous that this be done and between now and next Monday membership in the club will be offered to all republicans. Not alone Denison but each township in the county will be asked to organize a club of its own. Let the republicans in the towns go at the matter at once.

There is every evidence that the county will increase its republican vote this year. Those who know they are republicans can give encouragement to the doubtful ones by joining the Taft clubs. To be sure republicans can vote in November, but it will help in the enthusiasm of the campaign to have the clubs formed. Let the township committeemen write chairman of the republican committee, Alfred Wright, at Denison and get the lists blank and go to work.

STRAIGHTENING BOYER RIVER

A Plan To Take The Bends Out Of The Boyer And Reclaim Bottom Lands.

The boards of supervisors in Harrison and Pottawattamie counties are meeting in joint session to consider the question of so changing the channel of the Boyer river that overflows will not be so common. There is some discussion over the best way to proceed, but none over the necessity of something being done, and that at once. It does not seem right that thousands of acres of the best and most fertile land in the world should be allowed to remain waste when the expenditure of a few thousand dollars would make it all the equal of any.

The land owners on the Boyer in Crawford county must sooner or later face this matter. Because of the many bends and curves the Boyer is sluggish. If straightened the current would be swifter, and thus the water would rush out of the country faster and not overflow the land. With a swifter current the river bed would not fill up so rapidly with deposit. Every argument is on the side of undertaking the improvement, but the expense to the land owners. Of course the expense objection is met by showing that the land is nearly worthless, and that when drained its value would amount up forty and fifty percent. The land owners on the Boyer had better begin investing what can be done, and the best way to do it.

TO OUR NEW READERS.

Two weeks ago the democrats inaugurated the plan of sending the Bulletin free throughout the county.

Believing that all fairminded people will be glad to hear both sides, Mr. A. Wright, Chairman of the republican Central Committee has arranged with the Review to reach all the people. The Reviews paid for by Mr. Wright as chairman will be stopped Nov. 15th, unless specially ordered to be continued.

The Review welcomes this opportunity or all the people to make comparisons. Place the Review along side any other weekly paper and we are not afraid of results.

While sent out by the republican committee as campaign literature. The Review promises now not to be offensive in its partisanship and especially not to indulge in any form of personal abuse or misrepresentation.

The edition this week is 3300. Next week it will be larger. The value of the Review to its advertisers cannot be overestimated and the wise merchant will put up an advertising campaign of his own that will surely reach the people.
