

MEN'S GOOD SHOES!

There is so much comfort in wearing a good shoe--There is poor economy in wearing a bad one--that we have put in for this fall the best line of good shoes for "men who care" that we know if we can get you to inspect our line of men's shoes you will buy them and be pleased--We are showing some Special Values in our Double Sole-to-heel Shoes this season--in Patent Leather--Gun metal--Velour Calf and Oxbloods--also the Popular Viscalf tan winter shoe Vici Kid lined--The best Dressy Storm Shoe made--and all at popular prices. We know quality considered--We can save you money--Will you do us the pleasure of looking at them? At

KELLY'S SHOE STORE, Denison, Ia.

ARE RAISING THE HUB

Well Known Clothing Store Is Having The Kinks Taken Out Of The Corner.

The well known clothing corner occupied by Huettman Bros. is undergoing extensive repairs. The foundation has been sunk causing the corner to bow out until it was in an almost unsafe condition. The second story is now being jacked up and a new foundation will be put in. Mr. Huettmann goes right on selling clothing, however, as if nothing was happening.

Take Your Choice.

Review With Mag. Sec., $1.50.
Review Without Mag. Sec., $1.50.

REV. G. E. KIENLE DEPARTS

The Faithful German Methodist Pastor Transferred to Webster, South Dakota.

It is with regret we state that the church authorities have moved Rev. Kienle of the German M. E. congregation from Denison, assigning him work at Webster, S. D., which is in Day county some fifty miles east of Aberdeen. His friends bow to the will of the bishop, but are grieved that the good pastor and his estimable wife must leave Denison. He is a christian gentleman, living up to the highest ideals of a minister of the gospel. His residence will be in the town of Webster, but his two churches are in the country. These make up a membership more than double as large as he has here. He will hold quarterly meeting for the Odebolt church next Sunday. The new pastor is Rev. O. E. Johnson, who comes here from White, S. D. We hope he may prove a worthy successor to Rev. Kienle.

Guaranteed safety razors Saturday, Oct. 3, at Menagh's.

DEATH OF JACKSON BROADUS

This Respected Colored Man Passes Away On Friday, Sept. 25.

Mr. Jackson Broadus, who has been a resident of Denison since 1880, died at the hospital on Friday at six p. m., and the funeral was held in the M. E. church at three on Saturday afternoon. Despite a severe rain the church was well filled with friends of the deceased. Rev. Senseney gave a strong sermon ending with deserved words of eulogy on the life of Mr. Broadus. As the paper speaks editorially on his life we give here the plain details. Jackson Broadus was born at Frankfort, Ky., June 8, 1832, and so was seventy-six years old. He was born in slavery and well remembered how when a boy of eight years he was sold with two brothers to become slaves for life. He never saw his brothers again. In time, the war came and he was free. He moved with his family to Denison in 1880 and has resided here since. In the past year, three of his children have died, Sam., Jackson, Jun. and James. He has two living children, William, of Indianola and Mary, who is at the Clarinda hospital. William came on notice of his father's last illness and was with him faithful to the end. He has been a good son and Denison people appreciate him. Friends gave many flowers and the utmost respect was shown for the life and spotless character of Mr. Jackson Broadus.

Mr. W. H. Cook, one of the well known residents, of the south Willow township, was in Denison on Monday and came in to pay for his paper up to date and a year in advance. That was very good, but he went better than that, for he brought the name of a new subscriber and paid for him a year in advance also. Mr. Cook is the kind of a friend a newspaper likes to have.

MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

M. E. Jones and Wife Celebrate Their Silver Wedding Day.

Last Friday, Sept. 25 was the anniversary of the wedding of M. E. Jones and wife for it was twenty-five years ago at Marion, Iowa, they were united in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and other members of the Miles family had gone down near Dunlap to visit her brother, Edward and Mother Jones and Miss Marshall hastily called up over the phone or saw, a few friends inviting them to be at the home that evening for a little surprise. It would also be an opportunity to see Adelbert Jones and wife who came recently to Denison. A few found that it was the wedding anniversary and bought presents as remembrances of the occasion.

Mr. Jones and his party came from Dunlap at a little after seven. Before they had been home long the friends began to arrive, much to their surprise, but also to their joy. Light refreshments were served to the guests who filled the parlors of the large house. Of course Marcus and his wife were the center of interest, and received the congratulations and best wishes of friends with becoming graciousness and thanks. It can be truthfully said that no couple stands higher in public esteem than Mr. Jones and his wife. The older settlers know how he came here a poor boy with his mother and brother, how he worked early and late, sawing wood and putting his hand to anything which would help the family, and allow him to go to school. While many of his companions went to high school and college, he left school early, clerked for Mr. Hendricks, did carpenter work with Mr. Raine, was deputy postmaster for a time for Mr. J. Fred Meyers, and later in the Crawford County State bank, where he has been cashier for many years. He is not much on style, but he is a true man, his good deeds are not done on the housetop.

He took his bride to the home where they have lived ever since, although the house has been made new. In these years of his life since his marriage he has been blessed with a most saintly wife for Lucy Miles Jones is a rare woman, a true mother, a good wife, a devout worthy christian. They have had their share of trials. But all these many trials have been borne by them with a fortitude which can only come to those whose trust is fully in God and who believe that He doeth all for the best. The gathering on Friday evening had added pleasure to their friends, in that five of the Miles sisters were present, in Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Orem and Mrs. Narcissa Smith of Denison, Mrs. Mattie Jones of Chicago and Mrs. Nannie Keenan of Denver. The guests were well pleased with being present and retired wishing Mr. and Mrs. Jones many further wedding anniversaries.

Do not forget the W. A. McHenry, Pure bred Poland China Hog sale, Tuesday, Oct. 6th. A chance of the year to buy a herd header, see advertisement in another column.

Promptness Pays For the Magazine Section.

PROF. GUY V. WHALEY ADVANCED

A Former Dow City Boy Called From The Correctionville Schools To Superintend The Perry Schools.

The friends of the Whaley family will be pleased to hear that Prof. Guy V. Whaley has been unanimously asked to assume the superintendency of the schools at Perry, Iowa. He has been at Correctionville for one year and was just beginning his second year. It means a big raise in salary, and may be looked to as a desirable promotion to a young educator. His resignation has been accepted "under protest" by the board at Correctionville. The chance came about through his friendship with Prof. Thornberg, who was obliged to resign at Perry on account of the death of a relative making it necessary to manage a large business. There is further joy for the friends of Supt. Whaley in the News of Correctionville for it tells that his infant son is on the road to recovery from a severe attack of typhoid fever. They had anxious times, for again and again the child's heart apparently stopped and he was revived only by heroic treatment. For four days hope of saving him was practically abandoned, but now it seems that the fight of love and care has won. It is needless to say the Crawford county friends are glad indeed. Little Reed is an exceptionally fine and promising child.

Physical Culture.

The opportunity now being offered in Denison to learn a complete course in Physical Culture and especially correct breathing should be appreciated and taken advantage of by many as it will be taught strictly as a self-treatment.

The classes for both ladies and gentlemen will start in a few days. Do not wait for Prof. Root to call on you but see him without delay. 40-1t

SOME SOCIAL NOTES.

"All-cheering plenty, with her flowing horn, Loads yellow Autumn, wreathed with nodding corn".

Bridge and dinners, dinners and bridge, with a club, now and then sandwiched in for good measure made last week an interesting one socially.

Mrs. Jensen gave a very pretty dinner on Wednesday as a compliment to her sister's guest, Mr. Darragh. Mrs. Jensen served a very fine menu which was much enjoyed and followed it up with bridge which made the cup of the bridge players run over with pleasure.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Voss entertained at dinner complimenting to Judge and Mrs. Conner and Mr. Darragh. The dinner was marked by the cleverness that distinguishes Mrs. Voss in her entertaining, both in menu and decorations.

"Go Rose, since you must; Flowerless and chill the winter draweth nigh. Cheerless we take our way, but not afraid; Will there not be more roses--by and by?"

Thursday afternoon the charming young matrons who compose the Coterie Club had a happy meeting at the home of Mrs. Chester Lyman. A game, the answers to which were magazines was played. Mrs. Ferguson captured the prize, a souvenir spoon. Mrs. Lyman's supper consisted of two courses and was a very excellent one. Mrs. Barber of Charter Oak was present and invited the Coterie in which she still retains her membership to meet with her in Charter Oak next Thursday.

On Thursday Mrs. Caswell was hostess at a bridge party and the ladies spent a very charming afternoon. The high score was held by Mrs. D. O. Johnson and she received as a prize two cut glass salt cellars. Mrs. Caswell was assisted in serving her dainty supper by her sister, Miss Clark.

The festive oyster is elbowing the spring chicken into retirement where he can think of the chicken pie season as the size increases.

Mrs. Gulick and Miss Gulick entertained at dinner Saturday night complimenting to Mr. Darragh of Michigan and Mr. and Mrs. Conner. A beautiful table, elegant menu and delightful social intercourse made this dinner memorable to the guests.

On Saturday the Teachers Union met with Miss Fannie Hayes. The city teachers have done a very graceful and sisterly act in inviting the college teachers to join them. The new teachers were initiated in the Union mysteries with great eclat. Old stunts and new were provided and the welkin (what ever that may be) rang with laughter, and fun and Fanny seemed synonymous. Refreshments were served as a finishing touch.

"Love on through all ills, and love on till they die".

All the world loves a lover and "Mark and Lucy" as they are known have stayed in love five and twenty years. For our part we do not wonder at it for their friends feel the same way about them themselves. A large company gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones to help them celebrate their 25th wedding day. The party was a very happy surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Jones who had been spending the day in Dunlap and returned to find their home invaded and the capturers in full possession of the place. The full account appears elsewhere but we want to add our tribute to these dear and honored friends.

Saturday evening Judge Conner gave a stag party as a compliment and farewell to his visitor, Mr. Darragh, of Michigan. Bridge whist was played at four tables, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Philbrook taking turns in playing to fill the place of Judge Powers who was called to his home in Carroll. Mr. Scriver was the lucky high score man winning an elegant leather card case and two decks of cards. Mrs. Conner had her innings later in the evening when assisted by Mesdames Patterson and Philbrook she served a bountiful and delicious supper.

The berries of the briar rose have lost their rounded pride The bitter sweet chrysanthemums are drooping heavy eyed".

The Current Event club held their opening meeting Thursday afternoon Mrs. S. G. Wright was elected president and Mrs. John Kott, vice president. The program consisted of a presentation of the platforms of all the great parties. Mrs. Jacob Sims spoke on the Republican platform; Mrs. George Richardson held the brief for the Democratic; Mrs. McCannaughy, the Socialistic view point; Mrs. Kuhler, the Populistic party; Mrs. Temple, the Prohibition and Mrs. Kott the Independent. It was a splendid program, helpful and, as the president, Mrs. Wright remarked, worthy of a large audience.

The Shakespeare club honored their retiring member, Mrs. Sealey, at the home of Mrs. S. G. Wright. Mrs. Richardson as president of the club presented Mrs. Sealey with a Shakespeare spoon as a token of their regard and regret over her departure.

"Farewell, a word that must be, and hath been-- A sound which makes us linger; yet--farewell".

A GLIMPSE AT SOUTHERN EDUCATION

Miss Dawn Thompson Writes Interestingly From Her Mountain Home in East Tennessee.

It will be only necessary to say that the paper this week has a letter from Miss Dawn Thompson, to have the readers in south East Boyer and about Manilla begin a search to find it. Miss Thompson is a brilliant daughter of Mr. Silas Thompson of Nishabotany township and has connection with the Methodist church at Manilla. She graduated last spring from the leading school of oratory in Chicago. While there, her heart was touched with the needs of the poor whites living in eastern Tennessee and she surprised her friends when on returning home for the summer, she said she had engaged to teach a year in the seemingly far off southland. Her resolution could not be shaken. She promised to send a letter for the Review as to how she found things, and she has redeemed it. We hope she will write again. Those reading the letter will see that she has the heroic christian spirit, and feels she has a mission among the people about her. She appeals for funds to help build the new school house and for an organ. We would not be surprised if the two churches under the pastorate of Rev. Cable would respond willing to this call. They will take it up because they know of Miss Thompson personally, and will have pride and satisfaction in gratifying her call for aid from the people who have known her from childhood. Of course, it did seem on first blush that for so talented and brilliant a girl to rush away from home and admirers to spend a year among a people supposedly having nothing in common with her tastes, was not the thing, but it would appear that it was for the best. She is with good people and has a God directed mission among the "Mountain Highlanders" of eastern Tennessee. May her ambitions to help them, be realized.

FOR RENT--Furnished room for lady. Inquire at 206 South Main street. 40-1t

Menagh's sell the best husking mitts.

Cut Glass

A complete line of beautiful designs and the prices are right . . . . .

J. V. Barborka

Jeweler and Optician.

Sign of the Big Clock.

Dry Goods AND Millinery

Our line of Millinery is complete in all the latest styles at prices lower than ever in Up-to-Date Goods. We solicit a share of your patronage and will treat you right.

DRESS HATS, TAILORED HATS, CAPS for CHILDREN

Gauntlet Gloves, Silk lined Gloves, Dress Kid Gloves, Collars, Handkerchiefs, Dress Goods, Fleeced Goods, Kimona Cloths.

LADIES' BUSTLES, BUST FORMS, BELT GIRDLES

Collar Foundations, Featherbone Sets, Hosiery all prices and kinds. Royal Worcester Corsets are the best.

CALL ON US--YOU ARE WELCOME.

At B A M F O R D'S