

Arion Anchor

W. C. Larson was a Council Bluffs visitor Tuesday.

The Arion Mercantile Co. has sold the entire stock of goods to Mr. John Anderson of Bentley, Iowa. He will have a 3 days sale here and at the expiration of that time will decide whether or not it will be removed from this place.

Mr. C. M. Wilder, of Woodbine, was here Monday and hereafter, will give instructions in violin music.

Mr. Thomas Bonney, of Redfield, South Dakota, was a pleasant caller here Friday evening.

Dr. J. M. Talcott, of Crafton, Neb., has recently been nominated for Representative of Knox County, Neb., as he is a Crawford county boy. He has many friends here who will be glad to see him elected to that office.

Mr. Earl Kefford is assisting in the Arion Bank. He is a trusty young man and will do well in this position as he has the confidence of all.

The following gentlemen went Tuesday to draw for a claim in the Rosebud Reservation: H. Newman, A. A. Conrad, E. Schwartz, John Tranter, Louie and Joe Kefford.

Jake Bruhan and L. C. Butler returned from Crofton, Neb., near that place Mr. Bruhan purchased a large farm and sold the farm near Dow City to L. C. Butler. Mr. Bruhan is a prosperous farmer and his friends wish him abundant success, in his chosen locality.

Miss Elsie Kevan writes that she is enjoying an outing with several friends who are now at Mt. Harris, Idaho.

Mrs. Otis Nelson went Wednesday to visit with the family of Mack Nelson, and will then go to her old home in Wilton Junction, Iowa.

Mrs. E. P. Wigg received the sad news last Friday of the death of her mother, who resided in Quasqueton. Mrs. Wigg went at once after receiving the message although her mother had been in delicate health for several years the message was quite a shock to Mrs. Wigg.

Mrs. Davis of West Side visited in Arion Saturday forenoon, and went on the Milwaukee to Concord, Neb., where she will visit for several days with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Frank Evans.

Pete Thompson's little son swallowed a penny which seemed to act as a poison to his system. A physician was called and it was several hours before he received relief.

Frank Marr received quite a burn from the steam that escaped from a threshing machine engine.

The Friday club was very nicely entertained at the home of Mrs. D. J. Butler last Friday. Refreshments were served and the ladies busied themselves with fancy work.

Miss Lewis went to Gray, Iowa, where she will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lockmiller are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Albert Ruffer of West Point, Neb., also Mrs. Munk of Bremer, Neb.; the ladies are cousins of Mrs. Lockmiller and are enjoying a visit to this pleasant country home.

We regret to know that Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Wise expect to move to Dow City. Mr. Wise has purchased the Roll's furniture store of that place.

W. A. Matlack formerly of this place has purchased a farm near Emmetsberg and will move on to it in the Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruise were Denison visitors last Saturday.

Mr. E. O. Hoke went to Ogden Tuesday where he has accepted a position as day operation for the N. W. R. R. Co. This is quite a promotion for Mr. Hoke. His friends congratulate him but are sorry to lose the family from our midst.

A very pretty wedding occurred last Thursday, Oct. 1st, 1908, at 10:30 A. M. at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sprague, Arion, Iowa, when their daughter, Ethel was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Fowins. Promptly at 10:30 the wedding march began; Mrs. Wm. Seeman presided at the piano. The bridal couple stood beneath a beautiful wedding bell decorated with smilax and carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Walcott of Sioux City, Iowa, the beloved former pastor of Arion. The bride wore a cream silk gown trimmed with cream silk lace and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was attired in the conventional black. There were many invited guests who showered congratulations on the happy young couple, after which an elegant three course dinner was served. Mrs. Sprague was assisted in serving by the Misses Bertha Lewis, Fern Butler, Aida Stillson and Gertrude Talcott. The groom has ably assisted in the Sprague hotel for several months. He is industrious and possessed of good habits. The bride is well and favorably known and is not a novice in household duties. Amidst a shower of rice the young couple took the afternoon train for Stillwater, Kans., where they will spend their honeymoon with his parents and will then return and take charge of Sprague Hotel. The following people were the out of town guests Mr. Henry Prusia of Preston, Iowa; Mr. John Quade of Boyer, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Pance, of Dixon, Neb. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts from their many friends.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup drives the cold out of the system through its laxative principle by assuring a free and gentle action of the bowels. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

DOW CITY.

The revival meetings in the M. E. church begin this week. The pastor here is to be assisted by Rev. Smith the conference evangelist.

W. E. Fishel and E. Riddle and their wives were at Omaha and heard Taft. W. E. came home more enthusiastic than ever over the great republican candidate. He says senator Doliver did honor to Iowa in his talk while the people were awaiting to hear Taft.

Druggist Doser and wife and his mother were county seat visitors recently.

Mr. Cohen and wife are spending the week at Omaha.

Miss Bixler is back in the store as her father is some better.

Miss Ada Cross who is making so good a deputy in the post office was down near Defiance Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Curtis is able to be around without her crutches, which her friends are glad to hear.

The markets as given by Mr. McCall were as follows: for Tuesday, Oct. 6—Oats 40-42; wheat 85; Corn: old $5, new 50; barley 45-48; hogs $6.

Our milliner was enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Probasco of Charter Oak recently.

Postmaster Wiggins has been at Des Moines this week attending the convention of postmasters. He left Miss Cross and Flora in charge of the office so things have been running all right.

Enoch Winstrom, of Newman Grove Nebraska, visited last Wednesday at his cousins, the Nelson Bros.

Henry Galland has sold his home in town to Ed. Baber, and will move to the country.

Mrs. Howorth, who has been sick is improving.

P. Hildebrandt, of Denison, was in town Friday.

Mr. Norris, the barber has moved to Denison.

Mrs. W. V. Whaley returned from Correctionville Sunday where she has been helping to care for her little grandson, who has been very sick with typhoid fever. She reports the little one improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott were Dunlap visitors Sunday.

Miss Janette Rae returned home last Tuesday from a three weeks visit with friends in Glidden.

W. C. Rolls has sold his furniture business to J. U. Wise. Mr. Wise is an experienced furniture man and will surely be successful in the business.

Mrs. Bert Wiley, of Nebraska is here visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. W. E. Dow is spending the week with friends in Missouri Valley.

Henry and Sears Nelson were guests at Hotel Denison, Sunday.

The following were some of the Saturday shoppers in Denison: Mrs. Fishel and daughter Lola, Mrs. Vore and daughter Susie, Mrs. Fritz and daughter Edna, and the Misses Millie and Flora Wiggins, Ellen and Laura Scott, Hildur Turnlund, Golda Dow, and Norine Fishel.

The football game Saturday afternoon was won by Dunlap. The Dow City team were all High School boys, while the Dunlap team contained only four High School boys, the others being young men. Our boys did not have a fair chance, but they are gentlemen, anyway. The score was 18 to 12.

Miss Sylvia Galland has been very ill and it is said she will have to be operated on for appendicitis.

ANDREW SCHENCK.

President of the Germania Fire Insurance Co., Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for over a year, and can say that it has never failed to cure the most stubborn cough or cold. I can recommend it to any family as a sure and safe children's cough remedy.—Andrew Schenck, Ayton, Ont. This remedy is for sale by P. A. Schlumberger. 41-4

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

Clyde Morgan, who has been visiting friends in the Oak returned to Aberdeen, S. D. Tuesday.

R. A. Rawling took a trip to Spink County, South Dakota the first of the week in the interest of real estate.

Wm. Lenyor has bought the residence of W. T. Petersen, who in turn has bought from Wm. Wilson the property where he had commenced the erection of a dwelling by completing the foundation. Mr. Petersen expects to finish the building for a home.

Mr. Geo. Kuhlmann has purchased the residence of Wm. F. Miller and will move to town. This last purchase will place the three sisters, Mrs. Geo. Schelm, Mrs. Henry Schoreder and Mrs. Geo. Kuhlmann within speaking distance from St. John's Lutheran church where they worship.

A. P. Hart has sold his valuable farm of 300 acres. The consideration was $100 per acre. The lucky man was Kasper Miller, who expects to move on the farm in the spring. Report has it that his butcher shop is for sale.

Mrs. Wm. Pankow, of Dixon, Neb., arrived in the Oak Wednesday evening for a few days visit among relatives.

News of the death of Mr. Gust Jeschke of Ricketts who died at his home about 1 o'clock A. M. Wednesday was received at the Oak. The funeral will be held Friday and the remains laid to rest in the Hanover church cemetery.

Rev. A. Amstein went to Sac City Thursday to attend a meeting of the directors of the German Lutheran hospital. He is a member of the Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jeschke of Chicago arrived Thursday to attend the funeral of their brother.

Mrs. A. P. Knight arrived home Thursday P. M. She has been visiting relatives in the east for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson went to Colfax on a ten days trip.

Charley Marshall and his sister, Jessie and Mable went to Lane, South

Dakota to visit their sister Mrs. Wm. Smith for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson have gone to South Dakota to visit their son, Marion.

Mr. Joe Frei, Wm. Nemitz were passengers to Sioux City Saturday.

Mr. P. H. Davis was called to Denison Saturday to testify in the Lang case.

Willie Davis, Willie Grath and the Jacobson boys went to Rodney on Saturday to meet the high school boys in a field contest.

Miss Stella Robb, one of Schleswigs teachers spent Sunday with her parents in Charter Oak.

Services were held in the M. E. church Sunday morning, Rev. Barkley the new minister being here. He preached at Ute in the evening. Mrs. Barkley expects to settle here as soon as his goods come. He has only been here one year in this country. He and his wife were missionaries in Bengal, India, and poor health compelled their giving it up at least for a while.

Mrs. A. F. Barber entertained a company of 25 guests last Thursday, 15 of whom were the Coterie Club at Denison and the other 10 being from Charter Oak. She served a delicious six course supper being assisted by Misses Wilma Robb and Stella Arff.

The Denison club returned home on the evening train. On Friday evening Mrs. Barber again entertained some more of the Charter Oak ladies and all vote her a most charming hostess.

On Tuesday evening the Presbyterian Ladies held a reception for Rev. Winn and Rev. Johnson. It was a public affair and everybody was served with cake and coffee alike.

Mr. Winn was presented with a handsome gold watch fob and also a fountain pen. A missionary quilt presented by the missionary society was also given him.

Wednesday evening was the scene of another reception at the home of Mr. Charles Robertson in honor of Rev. Johnson. All report a good time and before they broke up the M. E. ladies presented him with a handsome arm chair.

The social given at the home of Mrs. George Jones was a decided success in every way.

Miss Eva Starkhouse who is bookkeeper at Woodward's store, spent Sunday at her home in Bayard.

Born to Mrs. Vic Larson at the home of her parents on Monday, Oct. 5, a fine baby girl.

Mrs. H. H. Sturges and Miss Nellie Robertson returned Friday from their western trip much improved in health and appearance. Miss Drake stayed over Sunday in Denver to visit her friend, Miss Mary Wright.

Mrs. L. E. Goodwin has been quite ill the past week or two. We hope to see her improve rapidly.

Mrs. Rogers has been having quite a spell of bad health lately too. She is improved now.

Miss Clara Davis is again feeling pretty bad and here's to hoping she will soon improve permanently.

Mrs. Black still continues to improve and we hope in course of time to have her out amongst us again.

Theo. Drake, Herman Riedesel and others made Mr. Grippe's acquaintance and consequently he gripped them too tightly for comfort Sunday, so they stayed at home from church till he lets go.

Mr. F. H. Davis has been granted a vacation for a few days and has gone to Nebraska to visit a brother.

Thos. McGrath, of Denison, has been over several days assisting in the construction of the new water supply for Ricketts.

A daughter of Adolph Rosburg was operated upon for apendicitis. Dr. Herman assisted Drs. McWilliams and Hill perform the operation at the city hospital Sunday evening.

Promptness Pays For the Magazine Section.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co. 41-4

N. F. STILLSON,

Blacksmith and Wagon Maker

Arion, Iowa.

Horseshoeing a Specialty.

All work guaranteed.

W. B. EVANS

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

ARION, IOWA

R. T. VAN METRE, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,

Dow City, - Iowa

J. U. WISE,

Funeral Director and Embalmer.

Dow City, Iowa.

Calls answered day and night. Floral designs furnished.

Promptness Pays For the Magazine Section.

Germania Opera House

B. J. Sibbert, Mgr.

Coming Attractions:
Electric Theatre 7:30 P. M. 2 performances.

Theatres and Lectures 8:15 P. M.

Oct. 7—Electric Theatre
“ 8—“When We Were Friends”
“ 9—Electric Theatre
“ 10—Electric Theatre
“ 12—Electric Theatre /
“ 13—Christian Science Lecture.
“ 14—Electric Theatre
“ 15—Electric Theatre
“ 16—Electric Theatre
“ 17—Lecture
“ 19—Electric Theatre
“ 20—Electric Theatre
“ 21—“All on the Quiet”

MAIL ITEMS

Mike McVey, of Odebolt, was a business caller here Thursday.

John Harrington left Sunday for Dallas, South Dakota to look at the country.

Mrs. Charles McCullough visited her son in Denison Thursday.

Mr. J. McCarville of Atlantic, Ia., Sunday in Vail.

R. H. Guhne was a county seat visitor Thursday.

Miss Mary Dougherty of Denison was an over Sunday guest at the Jno. Dougherty home.

T. J. Hoffman spent a couple of days last week in Des Moines.

Miss Merle Harrington and Miss Leila Quick spent Sunday and Monday in Dunlap with relatives.

Morris McHenry came down from Denison Friday on business.

Tom Cody and sister of Manilla spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Wm. White spent a part of last week in Omaha with her daughter, Mrs. Thurmond.

Miss Kate Okeeye departed Monday morning for Davenport.

Misses Kate and Loretta Holland, Mary O'Shea, Mame Harrington, Grace Long, Marie Keane and Marie Welch were Denison callers Saturday.

Bartley Mitchell and daughter, Agnes left Monday morning for South Dakota on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Dr. Darling is visiting friends at Detroit Michigan.

Mrs. C. Paine left Sunday evening for Sioux City to visit her son Fred and family.

Miss Carrie Butler departed Friday for Clinton for a months visit.

C. A. Sringeous of Belle Plaine was calling on Vail friends last week.

Margret McCarthy of Denison called on Vail friends Friday evening.

Mrs. James Harkin and children of El Reno, Oklahoma, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Jas. Watson visited her parents in Denison Tuesday.

John Cary of Denison was a Vail visitor Sunday.

Mrs. L. Molseed and daughter were visiting friends in Denison Wednesday.

Miss Daisy Cary, and sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Cary, of South Omaha visited friends here the first of the week.

Mrs. Kearns and Mrs. Kate Lynch made a trip to West Side Wednesday.

Mrs. M. O'Connor spent Friday in Denison with friends.

E. T. Ryan Sundayed in Dunlap.

The banns of marriage were published for the first time last Sunday between George Lawlor and Miss Ethel Downey.

Miss Mary Launderville spent last week in Omaha.

Clint Paine returned to his home in South Dakota Sunday evening.

Dan Molseed of Chicago visited here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCullough, of Denison was calling on friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

Henry Kelly of Denison was on our streets Wednesday.

Mrs. James Duffy visited her sister at Arion last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Easterly of Clinton visited at the Wm. Butler home Friday.

Miss Agnes Monaghan returned last week from a pleasant visit with the sister at Otumwa.

Wm. Farley spent a couple of days last week in Vail.

Mae Lynch came down from Denison Saturday and spent Sunday at home.

Wm. Welch of Maple River Junction spent a couple of days here the first of last week.

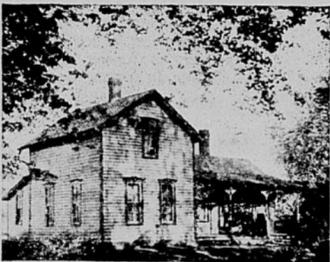

Miss Mary Gallagher and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell drove down to Denison Saturday.

Mrs. Breen and daughter Agnes was down from Denison Sunday.

Mrs. T. J. Kinney received the sad news Thursday noon of the death of her nephew John Leob who died at Chicago after an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Kinney left Thursday night for Chicago to attend the funeral.

Kodol is a combination of the natural digestive juices and it digests all classes of food and every kind of food, so see it will do the work that the stomach itself does. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co. 41-4

Farm Homes of Crawford County

Residence of H. E. Heinrichsen

Jno. Berkhofer

Residence of Henry Maynard

Alf. Winey

A few from among the Hundreds of pleasant farm homes with which the Primes of Crawford county are dotted Views Published by Permission of C. A. Ogle & Co., from the Atlas of Crawford County.

A good way.

Before you buy—is to have as large a selection as possible. If you want appropriate Headstones Monuments, etc.—Something that will fill all requirements in good stone work and artisticness of design it will pay you to visit our yards before you place the order.

HILL BROS.,
Denison, Iowa