

W. I. PAUP OF HARLAN

A Former Crawford County Citizen Hurt In An Auto.

Harlan American: Saturday night as W. I. Paup was returning from Manre with H. H. and Geo. Paup and Henry Escher on board, when they reached the Waterbury bridge the machine slipped in the dust and overturned in such a manner as to pinion Mr. Paup under the steering lever. It was a pretty tight squeeze, worse than the panic, Less thinks, and he was short of breath before the others managed to get him from under. He was so badly hurt that they felt justified in flagging the train and were brought in to town on it. Two or three ribs fractured was damage enough for once. Man and machine are again fit for work.

NEW ARION PASTOR

The Congregational Church at Arion Now Has A Pastor.

After many months of waiting the church people of Arion feel that they have at last a minister who will stay with them and build up the society. His name is Rev. McDaid, who comes from Ceylon, Minn., just over the line north of Kossuth county. He appears to be much interested in his work, is a gentleman of pleasing ways and an effort will be made to rally to his support. His wife and daughter will not move to Arion this winter. The people about Arion are asked to come out and help the church and Sunday School.
