

Arion Anchor

The members of the church are corresponding with Rev. Mix of Chicago, who has been assistant pastor of the 1st congregational church of that city. He occupied the pulpit a few Sundays ago and the people were very favorably impressed with him. He has recently expressed himself that he thinks favorably of coming here. The members of the church did not extend a call to Rev. McDaid.

Last Sunday we were very scarce of Sunday school teachers, it became necessary to combine three classes in one. There are several christian people in our midst who would make competent teachers. It will require an effort, time, and study, but for them there is a promise of reward. We trust that the matter will be seriously considered and the work taken up at once. The attendance at the Sunday school is very good.

Mr. Josh Sprague started Monday for his old home in Wisconsin. Earl Chambers returned from a trip to Texas but he seems to think Iowa is good enough for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Harding's brother, Mr. Wm. Kevan.

Miss Bertha Lewis assisted in the Cohan store in Dow City last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillie Newman returned from Laurel, Nebraska, where they spent a few days with Mr. Newman's brother, Hillie, also registered for one of the farms in the Rose Bud reservation.

All parties mentioned last week who went to Uncle Sam's drawing contest returned, owing to the throng of people who went they think their Lewis were Denison visitors Friday. chance small.

Mrs. Smith who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Howlett for some time, went to her home in Wilton Junction, Iowa.

Mark Nelson of Exira transacted business here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewins returned from their wedding tour last Wednesday and will take charge of Sprague hotel while Mrs. Sprague will visit with her mother in eastern Iowa.

Mr. Samuel Brazzel is just completing a large barn for Milo Kelly.

Last Saturday evening several young people met at the home of David Clark and enjoyed the evening hugely. Talcott Bros. then furnished music while the young people enjoyed the dancing.

The Friday club will meet this week at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kevan. Mrs. W. W. Coon is having two of her residence properties painted, the one occupied by W. C. Larson and the other by post master Maxey. The houses look very much improved.

Mrs. Fred Butch and niece Grace Howarth changed cars here for Moorhead, where they will visit with relatives for a short time and will then spend a few days with friends in Omaha. Mrs. Butler expects to soon return to her home in Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Wilder of Dow City were callers in Arion Thursday and said they had just returned from Council Bluffs. They made the journey with their auto.

Dr. and Mrs. Gennaway write their friends that they are pleasantly located in Seattle Washington.

While A. J. Mackey was handling the transfer mail truck he unfortunately dislocated his thumb.

Some of our people went to Dow City to attend the Democrat rally but as their speaker did not put in his appearance they did not rally very much.

Mrs. E. P. Wigg returned, from Treasqueton, Iowa, Monday evening, where she attended the funeral of her mother.

Barney Vollertsen was a passenger west the first of the week, going first to Presho, South Dakota, where he expects to register for a slip of Prip county soil.

Mrs. Wade returned from Woodbine Sunday evening, she has been assisting with caring for her mother who is very sick.

Mr. Isaac Bixler, who has been very sick for six weeks is slowly recovering.

Mr. Wm. Ballentine had the misfortune to break two of his ribs. He was plastering his house and fell in such a manner that the scaffold on which he stood struck him on his ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Stillton went to Dunlap last Sunday. Mrs. Stillton's father is very sick.

Mrs. Farrelly visited her sister, Mrs. Conroy; she and her family will make their future home in Dakota, having sold their farm near Sac City.

Mr. Howard Rule of Sioux City visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Talcott last Saturday. Mr. Rule has a good position in the recruiting station in Sioux City.

Mr. Benson Smith is suffering from blood poisoning that started from a sore on his face. It is hoped that he will soon be better.

The people in the locality continue to go to draw for land in the Rose

Bud reservation, the names of all who draw a quarter section will appear in the Arion letter later.

Mrs. Andrew Bell will go next Saturday to Aspinwall where she will spend several days with her mother.

There was a social at the Sam. Fox school on last Friday evening. The baskets sold well with Mr. Duncan as auctioneer and B. Bonney clerk. The proceeds were $12 to be used for decorations, books and the like. In the game of putting the tail on a donkey Jennie Hollowell received first prize and John Furne the booby. The children did well in the exercises being a credit to their teacher and parents.

Miss Anna Rae went to Sioux City to consult a specialist with reference to her eyes.

Miss Rose King of Mapleton paid a short visit to her brother in the Oak Wednesday.

Miss Rose Simons and Mrs. Henry Kohler went to Nebraska to visit relatives.

Mayor Schultz and wife of Schleswig came to the Oak to take the morning train for Sioux City Thursday.

Dr. G. S. Waterhouse, intends to keep up in his profession and has taken a two weeks lay off and gone to Rochester, Minn., when he will spend the time in a special course of surgery under the instructions of the noted specialist located there.

T. A. Christy of Hot Springs, S. D., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Sturges. Mr. Christy is in the employ of the U. S. Government in the Battle Mountain Sanitarium, a government hospital.

Mr. John Simons went to Wessington, South Dakota Tuesday to spend a few days with his son Bert.

W. E. A. Popf of Graceville, Minn., is spending a few days visiting relatives and friends in our neighborhood.

G. W. Woodward went to Des Moines Friday to transact business.

Mrs. Frank Reidesel, Mabel Reidesel, Grace Mains and Nell McGrath visited the county seat Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Reetz went to Denison Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson have returned from their western trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson returned Friday from their Colfax trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Romans visited over Sunday with their son Clayton.

Farnes Drake returned from her western trip Saturday. She spent the last week "taking in" Denver. The western country must agree with our tourists as they all returned improved in health.

J. R. Lang was a Sioux City visitor Saturday.

Mrs. John Gries, of Ute returned to her home after a visit with her brother, Theo. Wyckoff.

Thos. Hopper went to Dallas, Neb., to register for a piece of Uncle Sam's real estate.

Mr. Ed. Ebert was a passenger to Sioux City Monday.

C. H. Weed returned from Chicago Monday morning. Mr. Weed was a delegate to the "Deep Water Ways" convention and was there in attendance.

Harry Osborn and Leo Golhoefer, of Carthage, Mo., are spending a couple of weeks visiting John Golhoefer, south of town.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will serve dinner and supper in the old Murphy store on election day. Come and vote for "William" and get a good meal.

Mrs. Dessa Wilson accompanied by her daughter Cecil returned to Council Bluffs Saturday evening. Mrs. Knight, her mother, will make her home with Mrs. Wilson this winter. Mr. Chis. Vollertsen and wife will occupy the house vacated by them.

The daughter of Adolph Rossburg died at the Charter Oak Hospital last Tuesday morning. She was operated for appendicitis by Dr. Hermann of Sioux City who said that the case had been left too long and that an operation would not help. The funeral services were held at the Soldier church, conducted by Rev. Wikking.

Miss Nell Robertson visited in Mapleton last week. She thinks the new niece pretty fine.

Dan McGrath Jr. came up from Aspinwall to see his parents last Sunday.

H. F. Aff went to O'Neil, Nebraska Tuesday to look over the Prip county country. He says he expects to register, but we believe at the hotel

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mains were Denison visitors Tuesday.

I. A. Mains attended the Post Masters convention held in Des Moines.

Mrs. Robinson and daughter Nellie were Mapleton visitors Tuesday.

Mr. Joe Husten and wife of Clinton Iowa are visiting the family of Joe Ullrich. The two Joes are brothers-in-law and they left Tuesday P. M. for a trip through Nebraska.

Dr. J. J. McWilliams visited Sac City on professional business Wednesday.

Miss Anna Rae went to Sioux City to consult a specialist with reference to her eyes.

Miss Rose King of Mapleton paid a short visit to her brother in the Oak Wednesday.

Miss Rose Simons and Mrs. Henry Kohler went to Nebraska to visit relatives.

Mayor Schultz and wife of Schleswig came to the Oak to take the morning train for Sioux City Thursday.

Dr. G. S. Waterhouse, intends to keep up in his profession and has taken a two weeks lay off and gone to Rochester, Minn., when he will spend the time in a special course of surgery under the instructions of the noted specialist located there.

T. A. Christy of Hot Springs, S. D., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Sturges. Mr. Christy is in the employ of the U. S. Government in the Battle Mountain Sanitarium, a government hospital.

Mr. John Simons went to Wessington, South Dakota Tuesday to spend a few days with his son Bert.

W. E. A. Popf of Graceville, Minn., is spending a few days visiting relatives and friends in our neighborhood.

G. W. Woodward went to Des Moines Friday to transact business.

Mrs. Frank Reidesel, Mabel Reidesel, Grace Mains and Nell McGrath visited the county seat Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Reetz went to Denison Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson have returned from their western trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson returned Friday from their Colfax trip.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Romans visited over Sunday with their son Clayton.

Farnes Drake returned from her western trip Saturday. She spent the last week "taking in" Denver. The western country must agree with our tourists as they all returned improved in health.

J. R. Lang was a Sioux City visitor Saturday.

Mrs. John Gries, of Ute returned to her home after a visit with her brother, Theo. Wyckoff.

Thos. Hopper went to Dallas, Neb., to register for a piece of Uncle Sam's real estate.

Mr. Ed. Ebert was a passenger to Sioux City Monday.

C. H. Weed returned from Chicago Monday morning. Mr. Weed was a delegate to the "Deep Water Ways" convention and was there in attendance.

Harry Osborn and Leo Golhoefer, of Carthage, Mo., are spending a couple of weeks visiting John Golhoefer, south of town.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will serve dinner and supper in the old Murphy store on election day. Come and vote for "William" and get a good meal.

Mrs. Dessa Wilson accompanied by her daughter Cecil returned to Council Bluffs Saturday evening. Mrs. Knight, her mother, will make her home with Mrs. Wilson this winter. Mr. Chis. Vollertsen and wife will occupy the house vacated by them.

The daughter of Adolph Rossburg died at the Charter Oak Hospital last Tuesday morning. She was operated for appendicitis by Dr. Hermann of Sioux City who said that the case had been left too long and that an operation would not help. The funeral services were held at the Soldier church, conducted by Rev. Wikking.

Miss Nell Robertson visited in Mapleton last week. She thinks the new niece pretty fine.

Dan McGrath Jr. came up from Aspinwall to see his parents last Sunday.

H. F. Aff went to O'Neil, Nebraska Tuesday to look over the Prip county country. He says he expects to register, but we believe at the hotel

RICKETTS NEWS.

Supt. F. L. Hoffmann spent the past week visiting schools in this vicinity and was also the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. R. Timm.

Emma Mordhorst, Anna Minister and Tressa Riemer took a pleasure drive to Charter Oak Wednesday.

Anna Krohuke went to Sioux City Wednesday to consult a specialist and do some shopping.

Grandma Jebens has been quite sick the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Timm.

Mary Christiansen of Bloomfield, Neb., is making an extended visit with friends here.

Miss Ann Vollertsen returned Thursday evening from a four weeks' visit with relatives and friends in the eastern part of the state.

A number of our boys and girls attended a party given at the Henry Dvorak home a few miles west of here Saturday evening.

Miss Mae Marshall was a guest at the Jacobson home Friday.

Mrs. H. R. Timm and Helen Garber were over Sunday visitors at Denison.

Christina Hintz and Arthur Benson were married at the Benson home in Kiron Friday and came to Ricketts to visit relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Kartman and Mrs. A. F. Baak are in the sick list this week.

Ann Vollertsen, Helen Garber, Wm. Pershing, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Kuhlman were Charter Oak callers Friday evening.

Mrs. Martens of Manning and Mary and Hattie Ebert of Schleswig were guests at the Wm. Nemitz home Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Krohuke and Mrs. D. F. Nemitz visited at the Aug. Tech home in Charter Oak Sunday.

Wm. Ebert and son, Lester, returned to Omaha Saturday, after a week spent visiting relatives in this vicinity.

P. H. Clausen, J. C. Jacobsen, H. R. Timm, I. N. Vollertsen, John Dorenkamp and C. E. Church-ill are among those from here who went to register in the Tripp reservation this week.

Mrs. C. H. Vollertsen of Charter Oak is spending a few days with Mrs. I. N. Vollertsen waiting for the Knight house to be vacated in Charter Oak so they can move in.

Friends of Sophia Rosburg were grieved to hear of her sudden death Monday night in the hospital at Charter Oak. She had been sick for several weeks, but not that serious until Sunday. She was operated on for appendicitis that same evening and underwent a second operation Monday. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Rosburg and her many friends are grieved to hear of this sad loss to her parents and the community.

A large number from here attended the silver wedding at the Rev. C. Runge home Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Runge have been residents of this community for nineteen years. Their many friends remembered them by presenting them with some beautiful silver ware at this anniversary also by sending their best wishes.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup drives the cold out of the system through its laxative principle by assuring a free and gentle action of the bowels. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co.

BOYER RIPPLINGS.

Miss Erma Curtis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. M. Graham, returned to her home in Sac City Wednesday.

Mrs. John Quade, who has been visiting the past two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Gust. Dorle, of Bridgewater, S. D., has returned home. John has been batching and is glad to see his housekeeper return.

Mrs. Kulberg was among those who went to Odebolt to attend the Swedish Mission meeting Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Darling was taken sick Friday. On Saturday Doctor Darling of Vail was called. The doctor also visited at the home of Andrew Swanzel and found the baby, who has been sick some time not improving.

Mrs. Andrew Dozark returned from her visit in Denison on Monday.

Will Lackman, who has been visiting relatives near Deolit for the past two weeks, returned to his home in Traer, Ia., Saturday morning.

Emil Carlson and son, John, went to Oakes, S. D., Friday morning to build on their land.

Mrs. O. M. Graham was a passenger to Wall Lake Wednesday morning, returning in the afternoon.

Among those who went to Dakota to register for homesteads the past week were Messrs. Gustafson Ernest and Anthon Slecta, Gust Anderson, M. Larson and Dave McCullough.

Lem Watts, our rural mail carrier, went to Dakota Friday to register for a homestead. Mrs. Watts has been carrying the mail during the absence of her husband.

Mrs. Johnson, Levi Erickson and Germania Opera House B. J. Sibbert, Mgr.

Coming Attractions:
Electric Theatre 7:30 P. M. 2 performances.

Theatres and Lectures 8:15 P. M.

- " 14--Electric Theatre
- " 15--Electric Theatre
- " 16--Electric Theatre
- " 17--Lecture
- " 19--Electric Theatre
- " 20--Electric Theatre
- " 21--"All on the Quiet"

Evelyn Johnson went to Denison Friday afternoon to have dental work done. They returned Saturday morning.

United States Mail Inspector, Mr. Swanson, was here Tuesday looking after the mail business.

Mrs. G. P. Swartz and Mrs. C. P. Berglund visited in Kiron Tuesday.

Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Evelyn went to Kiron Thursday afternoon, returning in the evening.

Myrtle Lindman returned from Denison Friday.

Emma Frann came home from Denison Friday to spend a few days.

Willie Schruke came from Denison one day last week to visit at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Knutt Mattson.

Messrs. Sears and George McHenry while on their way from Kiron to Denison passed through Boyer in their auto last Friday.

Helen Garber of Denison stopped off between trains Monday morning while on her way to her school at Ricketts.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith took the train from Ells Monday morning to visit relatives and friends in Minnesota.

Miss Birdie O. Berg of Denison, while on her way to her school at Schleswig, stopped off between trains and visited her friend, Mrs. George Newcom.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Leon Bicknell of Sioux City was a pleasant caller for a short time Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Welsh and son Paul drove to Denison Tuesday on business.

R. J. Moffitt and son Forest, went to South Dakota Monday to register for the drawing for homestead land soon to be held near Tripp, South Dakota. They returned home Thursday.

Mrs. George Bonesteel got stung in the face by a bee last Sunday while visiting at Mr. Will Ham's home.

A quilting bee was held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Sherman Thursday, October 8th. Quite a number of ladies partook of her hospitality. They formed a ladies' aid society the same day. Mrs. Glassburner acted as President protom, and Mrs. Thomas as temporary secretary. After the organization was formed, Mrs. Sherman was elected president, Mrs. Robert Bentel, Vice-President, and Mrs. William Moffitt secretary. The society will meet once in two weeks, but the first place of meeting has not been decided on as yet. Mrs. Sherman served a bountiful repast for dinner, and the ladies departed for their homes after spending a very pleasant day. The writer did not learn how much quilting was accomplished.

Cal Carpenter was on the sick list for a couple of days last week but is all right again.

Dwight Hutchison returned from the Dakota trip Wednesday morning. He also registered for land.

Doctor Van Meter, of Dow City was a business caller here Friday.

Mrs. Bonney has been appointed post master here, in place of Robert Moffitt, who resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Gloc went to South Dakota last week, returning home Saturday. They were delighted with the country, and bought a farm one mile from Dell Rapids and fifteen miles from Sioux Falls, the consideration was sixty-four dollars an acre.

Bernie Bonney held a box sociable at her school house Friday evening last. Quite a number were present and the sum taken in was something over eleven dollars. The money will be used to buy pictures to decorate the school room.

Mr. August Bentel, of Denison, visited his son, Robert, for a few days last week. While here he built the chimney for the furnace soon to be installed in Bonneys drug store.

Mr. Bierman is having a fine barn erected on his farm just north-west of town, it is a good improvement.

J. P. Welsh, wife and children, went to Manila Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit, with Mr. Perrian and family.

Tom Bonney left Tuesday afternoon for Redfield South Dakota, after a two weeks visit home. He will visit friends in Sioux City for a couple of days on his way north.

The Misses Lucy and Ella Kane were Denison visitors Saturday.

Jack Welsh and Claude came home Monday morning from Manila but left his wife, Nellie and Gladys to visit a day or two longer.

Promptness Pays
For the Magazine Section.

Farm Homes of Crawford County

F. Neumann

A few from among the Hundreds of pleasant farm homes with which the prairies of Crawford county are dotted

Wm. Kroll, jr.

W. D. Nurse

Chr. Georgius

Views Published by Permission of C. A. Ogle & Co., from the Atlas of Crawford County.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.