

A Dozen of Our Good Photos

Will make 12 handsome XMAS GIFTS

Order Them Now At

Ferguson's

109 Broadway Denison, Iowa

Alfred Wright transacted business in Vail yesterday.

Mr. Frank Lally will spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

A bargain in a second hand Hard coal burner, at Menagh's.

Mrs. J. H. Patterson has returned from her visit in Hastings, Neb.

Miss Eda Louis of Iowa City is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. W. Meyers.

An assortment of second hand soft coal burners. See them at Menagh's.

Speaking about "Julia" there's the "Texas Sweethearts" to be seen at the opera house this week.

Rural carriers have a day off for Thanksgiving so the Review will reach many just one day late.

Paul Norris is substituting on rural route number four while Chas. McWilliams takes his vacation.

Mrs. Stephen Tabor of Independence, Ia., will visit her cousin, Miss Meyers, the last of the week.

Mrs. F. W. Meyers expects her sister, Miss Ede T. Louis, of Iowa City for a brief visit this week.

Born on Sunday, Nov. 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Biggs, a daughter. Their many friends rejoice with them.

Every person purchasing a ton of soft coal will be presented with a china hand painted fruit plate. Stewart Lumber Co.

"Jack" Brockelsley, proprietor of Hays township, was a Denison caller yesterday. He says he feels mighty good since Taft was elected.

It is said that one irate P. E. O. got nearly home before her hubby could convince her that the scrap about paying for the banquet was all a hoax.

Sidney Bonney was a Denisonite Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carpenter made Omaha a Monday visit.

Have your mirrors resilvered while you wait at John Fastje's. 47tf

An assortment of second hand soft coal burners. See them at Menagh's.

"Hamlet" with Hamlet left out is a good deal like the Hickman-Bessey show with Hickman and Bessey somewhere else.

If the Missionary Rally could only have exchanged receipts with the Hickman-Bessey Co. the visitors could have been de-lighted.

Denison isn't near broke when it can spend $678 for theatres in one week—let alone supporting a skating rink, a banquet, a missionary rally and no end of social stunts.

Mrs. T. C. McCarthy left on Tuesday forenoon for a brief Colfax visit. She will return with Miss Maggie Wagner, who has been at Colfax for her health for some weeks.

Work on the Nicholson cold storage and ice plant is being pushed. We understand the contract for the machinery was let this week. The building is up as far as the second story.

Will McBride says it seems funny not to feel perfectly at home in Denison, but he finds that his heart is down in Union and there he must go as soon as Judge Church will let him off of jury duty.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

We note with regret that Mrs. W. B. Evans is to leave Arion to make her home in Idaho. Mrs. Evans has for a number of years been the Arion editor of the Review, and we have accounted her as one of the most faithful, intelligent and reliable correspondents we have ever had. She will be greatly missed from Arion, where she has been one of the best and most helpful influences that little city has known.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mrs. W. J. McAhren leaves this week for Marysville, Mo., where she will attend the wedding of her nephew, Mr. Harold Van Steenburgh.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mrs. W. J. McAhren leaves this week for Marysville, Mo., where she will attend the wedding of her nephew, Mr. Harold Van Steenburgh.

We note with regret that Mrs. W. B. Evans is to leave Arion to make her home in Idaho. Mrs. Evans has for a number of years been the Arion editor of the Review, and we have accounted her as one of the most faithful, intelligent and reliable correspondents we have ever had. She will be greatly missed from Arion, where she has been one of the best and most helpful influences that little city has known.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Work on the Nicholson cold storage and ice plant is being pushed. We understand the contract for the machinery was let this week. The building is up as far as the second story.

Will McBride says it seems funny not to feel perfectly at home in Denison, but he finds that his heart is down in Union and there he must go as soon as Judge Church will let him off of jury duty.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Mrs. Dr. Boyle served an elegant New England dinner to the Penelope Tuesday. A large attendance of club members and guests were present. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving by her daughters and Mrs. Kirkup. Mrs. Gable will have the next meeting.

Ed. Watke and Otto Vosgerau of the Review force, made Wall Lake a hunting visit last week. The boys bagged seven birds, but Watke fell into the lake in trying to get one duck. In other words he went after a duck and got a ducking. Mr. Vosgerau says the lake is just swarming—with hunters and that there are two guns for every bird.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Look Out! Look Out!

You will want to look out for our next week's advertisement. Yes, this means every man, woman and child in Crawford county. So keep your eyes open. YES, KEEP 'EM OPEN. You will sure set up and take notice. We are giving you a week's notice—so you will be on the look-out.

E. C. Chamberlin, the Jeweler

Remember Dec. 5th for music.

Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mrs. W. J. McAhren leaves this week for Marysville, Mo., where she will attend the wedding of her nephew, Mr. Harold Van Steenburgh.

We note with regret that Mrs. W. B. Evans is to leave Arion to make her home in Idaho. Mrs. Evans has for a number of years been the Arion editor of the Review, and we have accounted her as one of the most faithful, intelligent and reliable correspondents we have ever had. She will be greatly missed from Arion, where she has been one of the best and most helpful influences that little city has known.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Work on the Nicholson cold storage and ice plant is being pushed. We understand the contract for the machinery was let this week. The building is up as far as the second story.

Will McBride says it seems funny not to feel perfectly at home in Denison, but he finds that his heart is down in Union and there he must go as soon as Judge Church will let him off of jury duty.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Mrs. Dr. Boyle served an elegant New England dinner to the Penelope Tuesday. A large attendance of club members and guests were present. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving by her daughters and Mrs. Kirkup. Mrs. Gable will have the next meeting.

Ed. Watke and Otto Vosgerau of the Review force, made Wall Lake a hunting visit last week. The boys bagged seven birds, but Watke fell into the lake in trying to get one duck. In other words he went after a duck and got a ducking. Mr. Vosgerau says the lake is just swarming—with hunters and that there are two guns for every bird.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mrs. W. J. McAhren leaves this week for Marysville, Mo., where she will attend the wedding of her nephew, Mr. Harold Van Steenburgh.

We note with regret that Mrs. W. B. Evans is to leave Arion to make her home in Idaho. Mrs. Evans has for a number of years been the Arion editor of the Review, and we have accounted her as one of the most faithful, intelligent and reliable correspondents we have ever had. She will be greatly missed from Arion, where she has been one of the best and most helpful influences that little city has known.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Work on the Nicholson cold storage and ice plant is being pushed. We understand the contract for the machinery was let this week. The building is up as far as the second story.

Will McBride says it seems funny not to feel perfectly at home in Denison, but he finds that his heart is down in Union and there he must go as soon as Judge Church will let him off of jury duty.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Mrs. Dr. Boyle served an elegant New England dinner to the Penelope Tuesday. A large attendance of club members and guests were present. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving by her daughters and Mrs. Kirkup. Mrs. Gable will have the next meeting.

Ed. Watke and Otto Vosgerau of the Review force, made Wall Lake a hunting visit last week. The boys bagged seven birds, but Watke fell into the lake in trying to get one duck. In other words he went after a duck and got a ducking. Mr. Vosgerau says the lake is just swarming—with hunters and that there are two guns for every bird.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Read the ads.

Remember dat Chickun show. Sixteen Pages—All home print.

See the Big Bob at the Corner Book Store.

Mrs. P. D. McMahon spent Thursday in Omaha.

Miss Mae Thureson will spend her Thanksgiving vacation at Perry.

Perfume Day at Schlumberger's Pharmacy Dec. 5th. Remember the date.

The Misses Nell and Alice Staininger of Vail visited friends in Denison over Sunday.

Mr. E. L. Ireland of Blair, Neb., is assisting Mr. E. C. Chamberlin in his jewelry store.

Dr. Houlihan of Ida Grove visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Houlihan, in Denison over Sunday.

Miss Hilda Rowher closed a very successful term of school near West Side last Friday and has returned home.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Mrs. Dr. Scobee. It will be remembered that Dr. Scobee was shot and killed two years ago in San Francisco.

Dr. McConaughy is receiving congratulations over the advent into his home of a charming (Don't get excited) piano. Mrs. McConaughy was the lucky winner of the Free piano given in the Baldwin-Bartcher piano sale.

The ladies of the M. E. Home Missionary society had a large and very successful meeting with Mrs. W. R. Temple as the hostess. The annual Thanksgiving offering was taken and an interesting program carried out.

You can cure dyspepsia, indigestion, sour or weak stomach, or in fact any form of stomach trouble, if you will take Kodol occasionally. Try it today on our guarantee. We know what it will do for you. Sold by Lamson Drug Co. 45-4

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th, under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Mrs. Dr. Boyle served an elegant New England dinner to the Penelope Tuesday. A large attendance of club members and guests were present. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving by her daughters and Mrs. Kirkup. Mrs. Gable will have the next meeting.

Ed. Watke and Otto Vosgerau of the Review force, made Wall Lake a hunting visit last week. The boys bagged seven birds, but Watke fell into the lake in trying to get one duck. In other words he went after a duck and got a ducking. Mr. Vosgerau says the lake is just swarming—with hunters and that there are two guns for every bird.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mrs. W. J. McAhren leaves this week for Marysville, Mo., where she will attend the wedding of her nephew, Mr. Harold Van Steenburgh.

We note with regret that Mrs. W. B. Evans is to leave Arion to make her home in Idaho. Mrs. Evans has for a number of years been the Arion editor of the Review, and we have accounted her as one of the most faithful, intelligent and reliable correspondents we have ever had. She will be greatly missed from Arion, where she has been one of the best and most helpful influences that little city has known.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Work on the Nicholson cold storage and ice plant is being pushed. We understand the contract for the machinery was let this week. The building is up as far as the second story.

Will McBride says it seems funny not to feel perfectly at home in Denison, but he finds that his heart is down in Union and there he must go as soon as Judge Church will let him off of jury duty.

Do not forget the Lecture Recital by Edward Baxter Perry at the Opera House on Saturday, Dec. 5th under the auspices of the Musical Department of Denison college. The Omaha Bee says it is "the most interesting recital ever given in Omaha."

Mrs. Dr. Boyle served an elegant New England dinner to the Penelope Tuesday. A large attendance of club members and guests were present. Mrs. Boyle was assisted in serving by her daughters and Mrs. Kirkup. Mrs. Gable will have the next meeting.

Ed. Watke and Otto Vosgerau of the Review force, made Wall Lake a hunting visit last week. The boys bagged seven birds, but Watke fell into the lake in trying to get one duck. In other words he went after a duck and got a ducking. Mr. Vosgerau says the lake is just swarming—with hunters and that there are two guns for every bird.

Remember Dec. 5th for music. Mrs. S. J. Heston writes us from Long Beach, Cal.

Fresh roses and carnations. Salomon Furniture Co.

Born on Friday, Nov. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Zage, a son.

Yes, there will be skating on Thanksgiving Day—at the rink.

Mrs. L. E. Crippen left this week for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Garber has commenced her fall term of school after a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Clark Marshall spent Sunday with her sisters, Mrs. Mahoney and D. O. Johnson.

Miss Helen Phelan is reported as making a fine recovery, after a recent operation in Omaha.

Dr. Stockdale tells us that he will be in Denison on Tuesdays hereafter. His next date will be Tuesday, Dec. 22nd.

Do not forget the Rummage Sale Friday and Saturday of next week, Dec. 4th and 5th—Old Family Theatre building.

LOST—Two head of cattle two or three weeks ago. Reward for return. Fred Pody, Route 1, Denison, Sec. 2, Milford twp. 48tf

Mr. P. H. Jones of Manning was a caller in Denison last Monday.

Miss Margaret Champion visited friends in Dunlap over Sunday.

Miss Rena Brake of Dow City visited friends in Denison last Saturday.

Mrs. S. Rudd of Dow City was a shopper in Denison on last Saturday.

Miss Irene Garber will spend Thanksgiving with friends in Omaha.

Mr. J. M. Childress of Deloit was a business caller in Denison last Monday.

Mr. Roy McBride of Dow City called on friends in Denison last Saturday.

Mr. Hill and wife of Charter Oak were guests at the Rowher home over Sunday.

Mr. A. F. Boylan and Mr. John Tamm transacted business in Omaha the first of the week.

Miss Gena Hart of Fort Scott, Kansas, arrived last week for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. F. H. Morgan.

SHOE REPAIRING—Silk stitching on machine. Basement McKim Hall. C. C. Phone 395. 48-2pd.

Mr. C. L. Voss and Mr. E. Gulick drove to Schleswig in Mr. Voss's machine on Monday and transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon drove to Dunap Sunday in their auto and were guests at the Jacob Barrett home.

Gustav Franke has sold his home to Mrs. Jacob Lang, who returns from Spokane to make Denison her home.

We sell Guns and Traps cheap, and buy Hides, Furs, Pelts, etc. Northwestern Hide & Fur Co., Minneapolis. 12-30.

Earl Bleakney says this twin business is all right, although he admits that triplets might be a trifle too much. The tiny youngsters are doing finely, sleeping all day and spending real sociable nights together.

Mrs. R. W. Bamford entertained the coffee club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. B. J. Sibbert sang several selections and Mrs. J. B. Romans recited. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

WANTED—First class man, between the ages of 35 and 60, to represent us in Iowa. Salary and commission. References required. Address UNITED STATES LEGAL PRESS ASSOCIATION, Majestic Bldg, Detroit, Mich. 48-3t.

Last week we forgot to mention the election of our old friend, Frank Tighe, as a member of the Wyoming legislature. We guess it was women's suffrage that did it. The odd part of it is that Frank was elected as a republican having seen the error of his democratic ways since leaving Denison. He is a mighty likeable young man and will make a good legislator. Wyoming is partial to Denison men, Hon. Cyrus Beard occupying a place on the supreme bench of that state.

At the recent Sunday School convention held at Deolit a Milford township organization was made with the following officers: E. R. Snell, president; Joe Ingham, vice-president; Miss Lovelie Morris, secretary, and Mrs. Sarah McKim, secretary of the Home department. These officers promise to do their duty and to build up Sunday School interest in that part of the county.

At the recent Sunday School convention held at Deolit a Milford township organization was made with the following officers: E. R. Snell, president; Joe Ingham, vice-president; Miss Lovelie Morris, secretary, and Mrs. Sarah McKim, secretary of the Home department