

Xmas only Two Weeks Away --

And you haven't ordered those Photos yet? You MUST hurry. -- See

Ferguson Today

Ground Floor Studio 109 Broadway

Christmas Goods In Abundance

We will soon have Christmas trees, Holly, Wreaths, etc., which we will sell at bottom prices. Now as to good things to eat we have a complete stock of the best. We have canned fruits and vegetables that smack of the Orchard and Garden flavor.

A full line of Candies from 8c to 40c per pound, Nuts of all varieties both shelled and whole.

We still have a liberal supply of those fancy Jonathan Apples at 50c a peck or $1.75 Per Bushel, this is lower than they can be bought anywhere at wholesale.

J. B. LYON Broadway Grocery Denison, Iowa.

It is warm—in Texas.

P. J. Eggers made Scranton a business visit yesterday.

John Scott of Dow City was a Denisonite yesterday.

Mrs. R. A. Romans left on Tuesday for a Des Moines visit.

John Kott made West Side a professional visit this week.

Ralph Jackson transacted business in Dow City on Monday.

The Lyman brothers enjoyed a visit this week from their mother of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Reiley of Boone visited at the home of her brother, Mr. J. H. Mahoney this week.

Miss Myrtle McAhren expects to visit her brother, Wid, at Kansas City during the Holidays.

Messrs. John Saggau, Wm. Northam and H. W. Moeller took in the corn show at Omaha this week.

Mrs. E. H. Wood and Mrs. Lulu Woodruff expect to spend the Holidays with relatives at DeWitt, Iowa.

Mrs. Nichols and Miss Marie Matthews were Sunday visitors with their aunt, Mrs. J. H. Mahoney.

Sears McHenry and son, William, returned this week from the Chicago stock show, where they had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobler drove in from West Side Saturday. They are interested in the purchase of a new buggy.

A. F. Durkee came up from Omaha on Tuesday for a brief visit with relatives and Fairmont Creamery friends.

Mrs. McKim, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tucker, for the past week, returned to Deloit Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kraemer drove in from Charter Oak on Saturday to see what "Santa Claus" had in the stores of Denison.

Mrs. W. J. McAhren returned on Monday from her visit to Marysville, Mo., where she attended the wedding of her nephew.

In another column we state that Miss Willetta Strahan is visiting in Cedar Rapids. This is an error, it is Miss Clara who is enjoying the visit.

The R. A. Romans household is looking forward to a delightful Holiday season with the families of Garnett and John, both to be under the roof-tree.

The advertisement of gas engines by the Stewart Lumber Co. and of the Maxwell Auto in this issue are also good examples of Look Ahead Advertising.

Hon. J. P. Conner writes that the family is once more cosily ensconced in their rooms at the Hamilton and that he finds Mrs. Conner in excellent health and spirits.

Oscar Ericson expects to leave in a few days for Lipsaig, Ohio, where he has a position as telegrapher on the same road on which his brother, Clarence, is employed.

The number who have announced their intention of going to Texas in January is increasing and it now looks very encouraging for that special car. If you are interested let us know before it is too late.

The Denison "Booster envelope" is about to make its appearance. Nearly all of our progressive business men have ordered them. The face of the envelope will bear a cut of the court house, the Hotel Denison, the library and the college buildings. On the reverse side will be a concise statement of Denison's claims to greatness. Any who were missed by the canvass can place their order with F. W. Meyers.

Dr. C. G. Brandt made Omaha a business visit this week.

Scott McKim visited his son, Clare, in Omaha on Tuesday.

Geo. Nicholson made a flying trip to Chicago the first of the week.

D. C. Thew went to Whiting, Iowa, on Monday on a business mission.

Mrs. John Rae of Dow City has been a Denison visitor this week.

Miss Anna Iversen of Schleswig was among the Denison shoppers on Tuesday.

Mr. James McKim, the prominent citizen of Deloit, was at the county seat on Tuesday.

Miss Grace Dieter of Vail visited between trains Tuesday with her friend, Miss Anna Heiden.

Dr. Hugo Kahler of Reinbeck, Iowa, was a visitor with his brother, Waldo, one day last week.

County Treasurer Evers received the turkey which Mr. Laird raffled off prior to going to Persia.

John Menagh, who has charge of the meat market department, was sick in the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Palous, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Wm. Northam, returned to their home in Elkader on Friday.

Mrs. Gosler and son, William, living on a farm near Berne were in Denison Monday, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mr. C. H. Koenekamp returned yesterday to Tekoa, Washington, after a delightful visit with his many Crawford county relatives.

Mr. William McCalmant and wife returned to Carson, Iowa, on Tuesday after a visit of a month at the home of T. J. Bone on West Vine street.

Mr. Robert Ewall accompanied Rev. LaReau to Kiron on Sunday afternoon. They came back in the below zero cold on Monday forenoon.

The masquerade skate last night drew a large crowd of spectators who seemed to enjoy themselves greatly. There were not many maskers on the floor but their antics were enough to amuse the crowd.

The orphaned children of Mr. Richard Hattery of Deloit wish the Review to express for them their thanks for all the kindnesses with which the Christian people of the county have sought to help them in their great bereavement. Especially do they wish to thank Mrs. C. M. Jensen of Denison for her exceeding kindness to them.

The Northwestern is rapidly putting in the last link of its automatic block system. The installation from Boone to Logan will make it complete from Chicago to Omaha. When this system is installed trains can, with safety, run a mile apart instead of a station apart. This will mean a great saving in time and consequently in expense of operation, but not in rates.

Gaylord Weeks writes to his father, Denison's Marshal, that he has joined with a company in the purchase and working of a large gravel and sand deposit near Houston, Texas, and that the prospects are good for a very paying business. When the editor was in Houston, Mr. Weeks told us that gravel was in great demand there for the fast growing city and that the contract on which he was then engaged had frequently been delayed for lack of gravel. Gaylord is making good in Texas. He writes that they now have green vegetables, home grown and that the weather is warm and delightful. The Crawford county party will visit Houston next month and Mr. A. C. Swanson, formerly of Kiron has already extended an invitation for an automobile ride about the city.

Sears McHenry spent today in Omaha.

Miss Alys Knaul is visiting in Woodbine.

Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick is visiting her parents in Vail.

Chauncy Liscomb of Dunlap was a Denison visitor over Sunday.

Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly visited his brother in Carroll this week.

Dr. Bond and little granddaughter went to Fonda on Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. H. Willroth is enjoying a visit from Miss Jones of Charter Oak.

Mrs. Alice Gregory visited her daughter, Kate, in Omaha this week.

Mrs. Cora Lensar of Charter Oak took in the sights of Denison Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Kahler expect to spend Holiday week with Traer relatives.

No school on account of no heat has given the school children a chance to go skating.

Miss Anna Strong is now home from Vail for some weeks, the millinery season being over.

Miss Garnet Norman was among the entertainers on the concert program at Kiron on Wednesday evening.

Miss Grace Schlumberger is expected home from Davenport, where she is studying music, to spend the Holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gronau are soon to start for their winter in California to be spent with their daughter, Mrs. Sievers, and the grandchildren.

Had to issue sixteen pages again this week to accommodate our advertisers and give our readers all the reading we wanted them to have.

Miss Emily Schneckloth has begun teaching again north of West Side. She has a fine boarding place, and a good school, so is happy in her work.

Miss Bessie Gillett is at home from Omaha for a week's vacation. She is finding good employment as an artist, in which line she has much talent.

Oh! just look here—Picnic hams for 9 cents a pound. Sugar cured hams, 15 cents a pound and Tennessee sorghum for 50 cents a gallon at The Boy's store.

Mrs. J. P. Jones and little son went to Cedar Rapids Monday to visit until after Christmas with her mother. Mr. Jones will join them about Christmas eve.

The people about Boyer will be glad to hear that word has been received from Rochester, Minn., that the little son of Chris. Cook has been successfully operated on for a goitre.

Monday morning came bright and clear, but with it the thermometer down to eighteen below. This did not last long, but those having to be out that forenoon found the air pretty nipping.

The Methodist Sunday School at Boyer is planning for a convention in the near future. It will be held on a week day with a picnic dinner at the church. The plan seems popular and the convention will be a success.

We call attention to the two bank statements found in the paper this week Crawford county has reason to be proud of the strong banks it has and the McHenry and the Crawford County State are among the best. The large amount of deposits are most gratifying, showing that our farmers are in a forehanded condition.

Mrs. W. H. Littell returns to her home at Independence today after a stay of more than three months in Denison. She has been of great help in caring for the sick ones at the Tabor home. In the fore part of January Mr. and Mrs. Littell will return to Denison to accompany Mr. Chas. Tabor to California, where he goes in the hope that the balmy breezes will fully restore him to health.

Mr. Jesse Dieter was a visitor from Vail on Tuesday.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehne returned last Friday from a visit to Chicago.

Mr. Huntendorf of Charter Oak was in town on business Monday.

Miss Lena Nelson and Mrs. Olson were down from Vail on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Dean of Wall Lake spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Hope.

The smiling George Hird of Manilla was with the folks at home last Sunday.

Mrs. Curtis, wife of the Dow City pastor, was in Denison Wednesday.

Mrs. Tribble of Ulmer was in Denison Tuesday filling an order for Santa Claus.

Born Monday, Nov. 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Varner, a bouncing eight pound boy.

Mrs. Fritz Witt of Schleswig was among those at the county seat trading on Tuesday last.

Mrs. D. L. Ballard and two children left today for Creston, Iowa, for a ten days' visit with relatives.

It has been suggested that the churches who believe in revival meetings hire a building up town this winter and hold services near the people.

Mr. George McHenry is interested in the raising of birds with beautiful plumage. If you want to see something pretty ask him to look at the birds.

Owing to a breakdown of the heating apparatus at the High School building the pupils there have been excused for some days, after answering to roll call.

There are a number of auction sale notices in the paper this week. We will not enumerate them, but call attention so that those needing stock and machinery can be on hand for bargains. Those selling out appreciate that the Review is the paper to reach the people, so we have many notices to print.

Miss Tillie Nordholm, who is assisting at the Charles Tabor home, has had her thoughts much this week up at Kiron where her parents and friends were enjoying the meetings in the new Baptist church. She expects to be with them by the end of the week and hear the great preachers of the denomination.

Miss Nellie Higgins, who is the faithful helper on the typesetting machine, was surprised on Monday by a visit from her sisters, Mrs. Thos. Caulfield of Jefferson and Miss Jennie Higgins of Grand Junction. After walking about over our hills, they longed for the level streets of their home towns. Mrs. Caulfield is the wife of the deputy sheriff of Greene county and his assistant in the clerical work of that office.

The first article of the magazine section this week is written by that entertaining writer, William Lightfoot Visscher. His style leads along in a way which is most interesting. His article this week is headed "The Autobiography of a Good Fellow," and it is rich reading. Of course there are the "Funny Pictures" for the children, and then some stories for the grown-ups. The magazine section is very popular and every subscriber ought to have it.

Cushman visited Charter Oak and Ute yesterday.

Dr. VanMetre of Dow City spent Tuesday in Denison.

Fine timothy hay for sale. N. Pearson. Phone 31B. 50-2pd

The popular Berry Goin of Charter Oak could be seen in town Monday.

A. T. Monahan of Dunlap could be seen in town Monday greeting friends.

I have a good blacksmith shop for rent. 50x80. Lem Watts, Boyer, Iowa. 50-3pd

A. A. Conrad, the enterprising Arion merchant, transacted business in Denison this morning.

Mr. Daniel Cruse has moved from Arion and will occupy the pretty home he has bought in south Denison.

The Boys have traded their store at Pisgah for Monona county land.

Thursday Miss June Romans entertained a large party including the S. S. Club and a number of other friends.

Many readers regret with us that in some way we missed connection with our Charter Oak and Buck Grove letters this week.

Mrs. A. L. Hart is contemplating spending the winter in Arizona and so is offering some of her heavy furniture at private sale.

The famous Friday Club cook book is on sale at the corner book store and by Miss Ethel Gulick. Every housewife should have one.

The Baxter Perry concert given at the opera house on Saturday night was one of the very finest entertainments of its kind our city has ever known. The deficit was about twenty dollars.

Our respected friend, Robert Hird, has been making extensive improvements about his house this fall. The former one has been moved to the west and a big addition made. The family is hoping to be well settled by Christmas.

Mrs. Robertson and Miss Maud Williams of Deloit will soon make a return trip to England expecting to arrive in time to spend Christmas Day with the loved ones at the old home. It will be a joyous time without doubt.

A. A. Luke, who lives between Dow City and Buck Grove was in Denison Tuesday and became one of the many new subscribers we have recently added to our list. He is contemplating opening a harness shop at Buck Grove. Announcement will be made in these columns when he is ready for business.

Please Read every Page.

Ice skates and hand sleds at Wygant's. 49-2

Mrs. E. W. Fellows leaves tonight for a visit of several weeks in Chicago.

Architect E. L. Barber made a business trip to Rockwell City Wednesday.

M. A. Penney had a pleasant call Wednesday from Supt. Fletcher and several other Division officials from Fort Dodge.

C. H. and John Koekamp started Wednesday for a trip to the Pacific coast. They expect to stop at Spokane for a time.

Mrs. J. H. Gable had the last Penelope on Tuesday to be held before Christmas, the ladies carrying away impressions of such a pleasant afternoon that it will linger with them during the entire season. Mrs. Gable had a number of friends as well as club members. Mrs. Dillon assisted her mother in serving a delicious two course supper.

The D. A. R. are keeping alive the memory of the heroes of long ago. Mr. C. F. Kuehne addressed the chapter on Monday night at the club room. The D. A. R. entertained the W. R. C. as well as a number of friends. The club room was decorated in flags. Mr. Kuehne gave a very eloquent address upon James Otis, an address that showed much research and interest in his subject and was splendidly delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lally gave a series of very notable and elegant dinners last week. The first dinner was Wednesday and was given in honor of Judge Conner. The table was very beautiful in appearance. Lace doilies were laid on the polished table and red roses and white had the place of honor in the center. The place cards were done in water colors of dainty design. The dinner was a culinary triumph from blue points to bon bons and was served in six courses. Misses Beatrice and Inez Lally served. On Wednesday the guests were Judge Conner and Rev. Mr. Farrelly, Mr. and Mrs. Gulick, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans and Mr. and Mrs. Naeve. On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Voss, Mr. and Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Ley, Mrs. Sears McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones were present. Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Broderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Brannon, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kemming and Mr. and Mrs. Haugh enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Lally's home. It was a very notable and delightful dinner series.

When down town doing your Christmas shopping don't forget to stop in and get a bottle of White Pine cough syrup for the children and incidentally look over our large stock of Perfumes.

Your Druggist
Ph. A. Schlumberger.

THIS ONE ONE DOLLAR

When you come in and see this nice felt slipper, made with different colored fur trimming—with belting soles and in six colors, you will say it is the greatest bargain you ever saw—We know it is, but we want you to know it. Another strong line is our Men's Slippers at $1.00, black or tan and such slippers as are usually sold at $1.25—Then, too, we show an extensive line of Fine Slippers—including several styles of party and pumps—We know they would be appreciated by many ladies in this city—Suppose you come in and see them at

KELLY'S SHOE STORE DENISON, IA.