Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lyman left on Tuesday evening for Hutchinson, Kan. Their departure is a distinct loss to Denison. Chester is a fine, clean, straightforward young business man who is bound to make a success wherever he goes. Mrs. Lyman made many friends during her comparatively brief residence in Denison and will be greatly missed. Hutchinson is her old home and she will remain there until Mr. Lyman decides upon a new location.

When down town doing your Christmas shopping don't forget to stop in and get a bottle of White Pine cough syrup for the children and incidentally look over our large stock of Perfumes.

The Peerless Cleaners and Dyers..
Will occupy the entire building at 107 East Broadway on Jan. 1st, 1909, and will install all of the Up-to-Date machinery required for cleaning and drying LADIES' and GENTLEMEN'S garments. : : : : :

Denison patrons should consider themselves fortunate in having a cleaning and drying establishment at home, where they can with confidence, take their clothing to be cleaned, dried and pressed to their satisfaction.

We do not class ourselves as tailors, therefore we DO NOT MEDDLE IN THE TAILORING BUSINESS.

But in our business REPAIR IS A SPECIALTY and we can handle your rips and tears and put them "out of sight."

If you want a new suit go to the clothiers or tailors—and if you want them cleaned, pressed and dyed come to us. 14 years experience—we should know how.

Remember we issue a guarantee slip "yellow" with every piece of work done by us.

WE ADMIT that our prices are slightly higher than you have been accustomed to pay here at home. BUT our work is of a much higher quality than you ever received in Denison before.

WE ISSUE A GUARANTEE SLIP which is dated, numbered and signed, with every garment we work upon, and with the return of the GUARANTEE SLIP should the garment not be satisfactory we are always READY AND WILLING to make it good.
