

When Thinking of

Photographs

focus your mind on

FERGUSON

109 Broadway

Go to the Racket Store for your candies.

Mr. and Mrs. Branch have returned from their visit at Battle Creek, Iowa.

Mr. D. L. Boynton was called to Fort Dodge on a business trip last week.

Miss Effie Norris spent Saturday in Mapleton, a guest at the Stephen Carhart home.

Mr. and Mrs. Spottswood of West Side spent Sunday at the Schneckloth home in Denison.

Grand Masquerade Ball at the Bruederschaft hall on Friday, Jan. 15, 1909. All are cordially invited. 1-2

The public schools are in session and the ringing of the various school bells make the town seem natural again.

Lloyd Lister, now has the station at St. Mary, Kansas, on the U. P. road. He is making good as a railroad man.

Mr. and Mrs. Voss returned from their trip to Oklahoma on Thursday last and report a delightful time with relatives and friends.

Owing to the severe cold and the electric lights being out of order there was no preaching service at the Baptist church on Sunday evening.

President VanNess informs us that the Denison college has now the highest enrollment of any time since he has been connected with it.

In spite of the cold weather Scott McKim was able to give a warm welcome to his son, Clare, who came home Sunday from Omaha, where he has been clerking.

Dr. Mueller informs us that his daughter, Miss Olga, who went from here to teach in the public schools of St. Louis, likes her work very much, and is thus contented and happy.

Mrs. C. L. Voss attended the Sunday School convention at Boyer last Friday. She had the pleasure of having a good visit with Mrs. Frank Woolston, who is one of the members of the Boyer M. E. Sunday School.

Mr. John R. Robinson of Milford, the well known farmer, has followed in the steps of his brother, Richard, and bought a Buick automobile through J. B. Romans Co. We congratulate him on feeling he can afford the luxury of a fine auto. As time goes on, the farmers will make more and more use of the machines which move so swiftly.

Tuesday evening of last week Peter Folz, who is one of the I. C. R. R. bridge force was brought home from Woodbine with a seriously injured foot. He cut it to the bone with an adze. The company doctor considered it quite a bad cut and it will take several weeks to heal. However, at present it is doing well and since the first few days has not given any pain.

William Hieden and his son-in-law, Henry Homeier, of East Boyer township start this week for Whittier in southern California. Mr. Homeier has sold his farm and means to remain there. Mr. Hieden has rented his farm. We are pleased to see the farmers of East Boyer feel they can retire from active work and spend their winters in the Southland where the climate is not so severe. Of course the Review will be a visitor to them each week, and so they will keep well posted on what is going on in Crawford.

The next excursion day to Texas is January 19, or next Tuesday. The ideal way to make the trip is in the manner taken by Mr. Gulick and Mr. Allard. They engaged sleeping berths and meals all on one car and so were not bothered about eating at irregular times, and discomfort for lack of comfortable beds. Any one in this locality wishing to make the trip on January 19 should notify Mr. F. W. Meyers and the arrangements will be made saving inconvenience about securing tickets and sleeping car. Many who did not get off last time expect to go Jan. 19 if nothing important comes up to change their plans.

Mrs. Eva Hastings was a Carroll visitor part of last week.

Leon Moeller took a business trip to Council Bluffs Saturday.

FOR RENT—The barn at J. B. Romans' house. Romans Bros.

Ben Smith was called to Avoca Friday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Ruey Davis is again at home with her parents, Mr. Mark Wright and wife.

Ed. Messenbrink and Frank Dally of Dunlap were Sunday callers in Denison.

Mrs. Charles Smutney went down to Vail on last Saturday to see her people and friends.

Mr. Charles Christianson and wife were among the Denison visitors at Omaha on Friday last.

B. A. Lyman and wife took a ride down to Council Bluffs on Saturday for a visit with friends.

FOR SALE—Some good young horses and an old Chester White stock hog. John R. Robinson. 2-1

Dr. J. F. Barrett, who is a dentist in Chicago, has been a visitor with his sister, Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

Grand Masquerade Ball at the Bruederschaft hall on Friday, Jan. 15, 1909. All are cordially invited. 1-2

Mrs. Lundgren returned home Saturday evening from an extended visit with her daughter in Plattsmouth, Neb.

Dr. Weber's Glasses fit right, look right and are right, call Friday, Jan. 22 at Nielson House. Examination free.

Miss Bertha Kelley returned from her vacation at Grand Island, Neb., and is at her school work again in the west brick.

Miss Ella Harding is back from Hermosa, S. D., and assisting in Dr. Robinson's dentist office. She reports her folks well.

Miss May Wiese, the popular clerk at the Menagh Store, is taking her mid-winter vacation of two weeks and spending it near Manning.

Mrs. Leslie Igou was at the depot Sunday to meet her sister, whom she was expecting from Cherokee. We are glad to say she was not disappointed.

Mrs. Blanche Dillon, after spending the holidays with her parents, J. H. Gable and wife has gone to Octavia, Neb., where her husband is the railway station agent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Merrill are enjoying a visit from their son, Clifford, who arrived Saturday from Waterloo, Iowa. He will make a stay of two weeks or more.

The magazine section is full of good stories this week. We could wish that every subscriber was receiving this magazine free. It only takes the foresight to pay up for the paper in advance.

Mrs. D. S. Miles was over from her new home at Manilla last week for a time, to see her children and friends and attend the special meeting under the leadership of the Holiness band. She finds she likes Manilla very well.

Mr. Charles Way took his departure for Albany, Ore., on Thursday last. This town is one of the old settlements of Oregon being south of Portland in the Willamette valley. Mr. Way is a worker and a hustler, and will prosper wherever he is.

The Presbyterian parsonage is under quarantine for diphtheria, as the disease has been contracted by the pastor's wife. Under the circumstances Rev. DePree could not fill the pulpit on Sunday last. Mrs. DePree is taking the anti-toxine treatment and will recover.

C. C. Tripp, one of the old time residents of Dow City, Arion and vicinity, was at the county seat Saturday. His daughter, Mrs. Bolton, resides on the east side of town. He called to pay for his paper well ahead, and took with him a handsome calendar.

The Review has an up-to-date mailing list of over 3000 names in Crawford county. We will address circulars for any local firm from this list for $2.00 per thousand. We will guarantee the list to be 99 percent correct. This list will not be rented or loaned. 46 tf.

Don't Swear Off

buying Hot Water Bottles just because one went wrong. Maybe you bought the wrong kind—the kind we sell we guarantee. If they go wrong we give you another.

Our Combination Hot Water Bottle and Fountain Syringe
Costs less than the two, and serves the purpose of both. Remember this when buying.

Ph. A. Schlumberger.
Pharmacist

Mr. John Finneran made a business trip to Omaha on Friday.

A full line of dishes, china and glassware at the Racket Store.

Mr. Will Seemann of Dow City had business at the county seat Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Smith was confined to the house last week with an attack of neuralgia.

Mrs. August Voss of West Side was a business visitor in Denison on Thursday.

Mrs. Jacob Sims has been suffering greatly lately with neuritis, which affects her arm.

Miss Ina Johnson returned on Monday from Fort Dodge, ready to take up her work at the schools.

Miss Jennie Quade has a position with the Iowa Telephone Co. having charge of the night work.

Acme chocolates stand the test where others fail. Fresh, clean milk chocolates always on hand at The Book Store.

Mr. A. L. Roberts was quite sick last week, being threatened with pneumonia. We are glad to say that he is much improved.

Miss Nellie Goodenow of Wall Lake returned home Monday, after spending a few days very pleasantly at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith.

Mrs. A. T. Grayson and children of Decatur, Ill., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. P. Quade, left for home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Anna Moss and her little nephew of Deloit were in Denison Saturday attending to some matters of business and doing a little shopping.

Beulah and Evelyn Aylesworth returned Saturday from Council Bluffs, where they spent the holidays happily with their grandmother, Mrs. Aylesworth.

Mrs. J. C. Shattuck of Smithland, Iowa, who has been making a visit with her mother, Mrs. Osborne, and sister, Mrs. Gebert, left for home on Friday.

Miss Alice Stevens plans to take a furlough for a few weeks from her work at the store and will spend it with her sister at Tipton, Iowa. She left Sunday evening.

J. V. Barborka left on Saturday evening for Iowa City to spend Sunday with relatives. Clifford will return with his father. He has been having a fine vacation, but school began Monday and that settles it.

Mr. O. O. Spencer and daughter, Truth, left Sunday for Kansas City. The daughter will stay there for a time with her aunt, while Mr. Spencer will go on to Texas. Mrs. Spencer and the rest of the family will go to Kansas City in a few weeks to visit her sister and look after Truth, who probably will be ready to see her mother by that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hutendorf, a young couple, who were recently married at Charter Oak, have decided to start their first home in Denison and are now settled on South Main next door to Criswell's. It is a great event, this starting a new home, and it is a worthy accomplishment that of keeping it happy.

The board of supervisors is about to authorize the building of a cement arch bridge over the creek crossing the ridge road at the Charles Brogden place west of town. The creek has a habit of rising up on short notice and washing out the pile bridges and the approaches. Now a bridge that will not wash out will be put in. The full board went out to examine the proposition on Tuesday after dinner.

The Loyal Temperance Legion began its meetings Monday after a two weeks' vacation. There was a very large attendance. The membership has reached far beyond one hundred. On account of illness neither Mrs. Sims, the superintendent, nor Rev. DePree were present, but it is hoped they will soon be back and that the work will go on with renewed interest. Much interest is taken in the children's temperance work by the loyal citizens and with this generous backing the workers feel greatly encouraged.

No one as yet has answered "Who struck Billy Patterson?" and it will ever be mystery. In the same situation seems to rest "Who set Sam Luney's house on fire?" At any rate he is still looking for information along that line. Sunday was a cold day and there being no Presbyterian meeting that night the occupants of the Luney home were closely housed when without warning at 8:30 a fire was discovered in the hallway leading up stairs. How it became started Mr. and Mrs. Luney do not know. Of course, Mr. Luney was not long putting the fire out, but in the meantime the fire alarm had been turned in and the firemen came puffing down, having been urged out from warm quarters by their duty. They had nothing to do. Some clothing was scorched but no further serious damage done.

Mrs. Allard is spending two weeks at Woodbine.

Nearly everybody comes to the Racket Store for something useful.

Miss Agnes Mitchell of Vail has been a visitor at the A. D. Servoss home.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton McArhen are expected home from their wedding trip today.

Mrs. Fred Mohr and Mrs. Borders of Schleswig were Denison shoppers on Tuesday.

If you think of buying a phonograph call at the Racket Store and get prices.

Earl Heiden made a business trip to Omaha Tuesday for goods for the Racket Store.

Mrs. J. S. Murphy and son, George, visited Denison relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. H. Patterson has gone to Baltimore to join his wife and see his daughter.

Miss Grace Schlumberger will continue her studies in music at St. Katherine Hall at Davenport.

The last reports from the home of Rev. DePree state that the diphtheria is not malignant and under control.

LOST—A bunch of five keys near Broadway and Main St. Finder please leave the same at The Boys store.

Mrs. W. H. Bowen accompanied her niece, Miss Della Coleman to her home south of Charter Oak last Saturday morning.

Mrs. T. A. Grason and two daughters left for their home at Decatur, Ill., after a pleasant two weeks' visit with her mother.

Through the efforts of Dr. Simpson and Mayor Rollins there will be a lecture on pure milk at the city hall next Monday Jan. 18.

Everything in sheet music. If you don't see what you want ask for it. Prompt attention given orders for special copies at The Book Store.

The friends of Mrs. Lulu Rose Chriss will be glad to hear that she is now recovering at Omaha from her long and serious illness of over a year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Diemel, who have been spending a few days at the home of Chas. French, returned Monday evening to their home in Knierian.

Since moving to the residence in the jail Miss Rhea, the young lady daughter of Sheriff Cummings, has been very sick, requiring a trained nurse.

Mrs. F. F. Ranniger and Miss Ive Smith are visiting in Lincoln, Neb. Ferdinand will be glad when they get back as "baching" gets monotonous, especially at dishwashing time.

The harness department of the Geo. Menagh & Co. store has installed a gas engine for power and began the manufacture of harness by the wholesale. This department seems to be doing a large business.

Mr. W. L. Cole and wife and Mr. W. E. Cole have gone to Manson, Iowa, to visit Rev. T. S. Cole, who is the Methodist pastor there. The friends of W. L. Cole are wishing he and his good wife will find a home in Denison and be permanent residents here.

WATCH FOR IT 23

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Frank were called to give back to God the life of their babe born Christmas day after keeping the little one sixteen days. The funeral was conducted at the house on Jan. 12 by Pastor Freese of the Lutheran church. Mr. Frank is the expert electrician, who was with the electric light company, but who is now with Mr. Scriber. The father and mother may know that their friends sorrow with them. They had named their babe Dorothea Elizabeth.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Messenbrink out in the country is having a sorrow in the death of the baby boy, Irwin Jennings, which occurred on Thursday, Jan. 7. The babe was born August 9, 1908, and so was nearly five months old. The funeral was held at the Lutheran church on Friday with services by Rev. Freese. Burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery. The babe had wrapped itself about the heart strings of the parents and its death is hard to bear.

The case of the State of Iowa in behalf of Lizzie Mundt and against Henry Meier decided by a jury against Mr. Meier in the District Court some years ago was lately reversed by the Supreme Court. During the progress of appeal defendant died, but so eager were the relatives of Mr. Meier, a son of Adolph Meier living near Charter Oak, to vindicate him from the charges made that the suit was carried on by his administrator. The Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the District Court. The relatives of Mr. Meier are well pleased as they felt he was innocent at all times.

PARODY ON "THE BROOK."

I've come from some'er's else to here,
To fix yer clocks 'n' watches--
Be'n keepin' count of year by year
By means of sticks 'n' notches.

I've tried to do as fellers should
To earn an honest penny--
And find that sellin' goods that's good
Don't hurt a feller enny.

I'm goin' to foller up this plan
Be'cuz, yuh know, square dealin'
Is just the thing, twixt man and man,
To fix a friendly feelin'.

I'm trying to run a jew'ry store
Complete in all its phases,
For your sake friend I would do more
Though I should work like blazes.

We sell the Victor phonographs,
This is the best one ever,
'Twill play 'n' sing 'n' talk 'n' laff,
Aad none kin beat it, NEVER!

Now come and see us when you kin,
And truly we'll endeavor,
To treat you so you'll come ag'in,
And then onct more forever.

E. C. Chamberlin.
The Jeweler and Optican.

WATCH FOR IT 23

Chris Nissen of Ells was in Denison on Tuesday.

John Rollins made a business trip to Fort Dodge on Wednesday.

Saturday is our big day at the Racket Store. Stop in.

J. W. Smith made a business trip to Wall Lake Wednesday.

The Penelope club will meet with Mrs. Eugene Gulick Tuesday, Jan. 19.

Amanda Schnoor returned from her trip to Council Bluffs and is at school.

Come in and ask for Edison records—always the latest. Racket Store.

Mr. E. E. Clauson, the hustling post master of Kiron, was in Denison Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Muenster from near Ricketts were at the county seat Wednesday.

Tablets, pencils, crayons, slates everything in stationary and school supplies at The Book Store.

Those wishing to take an examination for a teacher's certificate are notified that the county superintendent will hold examinations Jan. 27, 28 and 29.

Mr. Louis Freese is the new clerk at The Boys store. He came to Denison from St. Louis, and is the brother of Rev. Freese, the pastor of the Lutheran church.

Mr. Sam Christensen and wife living northwest of town buried on Tuesday a baby boy, who only lived thirteen hours. Burial was made in the Nissen cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Aken arrived Tuesday from Webster City and will make a short stay with Mrs. Aken's mother, Mrs. Staley, and then will go on to their home in Omaha.

The S. S. club had a very pleasant meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Norris assisted her daughter, Miss Norris, in serving supper and it would be difficult to find a better or more beautiful supper. Miss Hart had charge of the program. Miss Broderick gave two fine readings and Mrs. Martin sang two beautiful songs. Owing to the next meeting being the club's guest night a short program was given in order that business might be attended to. Miss Austin and Miss Buckley were elected members of the club. Mesdames Martin, Mahoney and Goodwin and the Misses King and Hart were guests of the club.

The Nielson Hotel has an independent bus line. Telephone order to call at your home for passengers. Charges moderate and good service.

Mrs. Englemund, the aged mother of Mrs. Lister, had a bewildering experience on one of the cold nights last week. She had been at a meeting held at the B. Jacobson house near Washington park, and on starting out for home well bundled up, lost her directions and found herself on the porch of the home now occupied by Mr. P. J. Farrelly one block north of Mr. Harding's. She knocked for aid, and he saw her safely home.

RECENT MARRIAGE LICENSES

The Young Folks Are Still Calling For Licences to Wed.

Since last report the county clerk has issued marriage licenses to the following parties:

C. E. Liscombe and Georgia M. Ferrill.

Geo. R. Hird and Nell B. Breckenridge.

Charles H. Meyer and Marie Miller. Milton J. McArhen and Junia B. Romans.

Augusta Gollhofer and Flora B. Hoffer.

Carl H. Lohse and Anna P. Johansen.

Richard E. Hoefler and Margaret Pearsall.

Wilhelm Rothe and Emma Nemitz. James Hook and Mary Ann Cody.

Milton R. Deidge and Clara E. Fewins.

C. M. Pederson and Olava Særerøe.

DES MOINES EVENING TRIBUNE.
$1.00 to July 4th, '09.

Send $1.00 today for a trial subscription to The Des Moines Evening Tribune, every day except Sunday to July 4th, 1909.

In every department, The Tribune is the best evening newspaper printed in Iowa. In addition to the service of the Associated Press it has a splendid state news service and its own representatives in Washington and Chicago. The many special features are always entertaining.

Subscribe with the publisher of this newspaper, any postmaster or remit to The Des Moines Evening Tribune, Des Moines, Iowa.

Sample copies mailed to any address upon request.

WATCH FOR IT 23

The well dressed, discriminating woman is the one who will appreciate our offerings in

- Hair Ornaments
- Necklaces
- Pendants
- Rings
- Bracelet, Etc.,

Of distinctive original designs always with superior quality, workmanship and material. You are certain to be pleased with our various stocks.

J. V. Barborka, Jeweler & Optician
Sign of the Big Clock.