When You "Boost" Away From Home

They's some questions I would ask you, and I think you'll all agree.
That they's others interested, just as well as only me,
'N' I want yuh all to ponder on the merits o' the case,
Whether boostin' here or yonder, (er some'n' else's place.
Kin a feller help his brother, while a runnin' of 'im down?
When yuh "knock" yer Institutions, do yuh think it helps yer town?
Does it "boost" a proposition, jist to set a chewin' gum,
Er, in lieu of that omission, doin' likewise to yer thumb?
Does it help a feller's pocket when he sends his cash away
On a journey like a rocket, on a celebration day?
Aint "returns" a little meager, and would you repeat the trick,
Out o' cash, still rather eager, fer to buy at home "on tick"?
Summin' up—Kin you determine as you "well 'n' truly try"
All the merits of my sermon, wher' you rely 'dort to buy?
Kin yuh now, as onct yer used ter—when you'd be a talkin' some—
Make the pint that you're a "Booster" when you "Boost" away fm hum?
Now all things a bein' equal, don't you think it fur the best
Jist to try, (now ketch the sequel,) "one by each" to help the rest?
If yuh do you'll reach conclusion, 'tain't no matter wher' you're frum,
That a "Boast" is a delusion—when you Boost away fm hum.
