

WE SELL ALL KINDS OF Picture Frames.

Ferguson's Studio,
109 Broadway.

W. J. McAhren made a trip to Deloit on Wednesday.

P. J. Rank went down to Dow City on Wednesday.

Russell Norman went to Deloit on business on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hannan of Vail spent Saturday in Denison stores.

We are still selling oranges cheaper than apples, 45c peck. The Boys. 7-2

Be sure and see Ed. Nelson's harness before you buy, east of Court House. 8-1

Mrs. Howard and sister of Deloit were in Denison Thursday doing some shopping.

P. J. Clausen's brother and wife from near West Side made him a short visit last week.

Norway mackerel 12 to 15 oz each, 10c each. Red Salt Salmon, 8c per pound. The Boys. 7-2

Peter Spiegle moved into the house owned by Mrs. Keane, near the West Denison Mill on Friday.

M. J. Quinlan of Wall Lake was in Denison on Wednesday getting some repairs for some machinery.

Mr. Eddie Hollison, who has been making a visit with his sister, Mrs. Godbersen, returned to his home in Alta on Friday.

Mrs. Lelia Woodard of Manilla, who has been spending a few days with her daughter, Pearl, at Mr. Hunt's, returned home on Friday.

Frank Friend, who has been visiting lately with his brother, Ray, left on Thursday for his home in Elkader, Iowa. He liked Denison very well.

German young man and family want to work on the farm. Want to hire out by March 1. Fred Mathis, Box 127, Dow City, Iowa. 7-2pd

Doctor L. L. Bond declares it is his determination to go to Washington, D. C., to be present at the inauguration ceremonies. He will visit Chicago relatives for a short time on the same trip.

Acreage and tracts of prairie land for sale and homesteading. Intending settlers will consult their own interests by communicating with the undersigned when settling in the west. T. H. Koll, Great Falls, Montana, 505 5th Ave. South. 8-1

Supt. E. W. Fellows left Friday for Chicago to attend the Department of Superintendent's of National Educational Association which will hold a meeting in that city on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Fellows will take advantage of the opportunity to see his wife and little daughter.

J. H. Orr loaded a car of household goods, etc. last Saturday and started it on its way to Boise, Idaho, where Mr. Orr and his family plan to start a new home. We are sorry to lose this good family from among us, but what Iowa loses Idaho gains. Mr. Orr is shipping out 40 hives of bees and plans to go quite extensively into the honey business. We wish him the best of success. Miss Nellie Orr will find a home with Mrs. Crippen until school closes for the summer vacation. The rest of the family left Saturday for Council Bluffs, where they will visit a week before going to Boise.

Next Monday is March 1st.

Geo. McHenry spent part of last week in Chicago and Omaha.

Prof. Fellows is in Chicago this week visiting his wife and daughter.

To the Racket Store for good candy is what they say, only 10c per pound.

Our respected citizen, E. Fink, is to be seen up town at intervals on pleasant days.

Now is the time to have your harness repaired and oiled. Ed. Nelson's Harness Shop. 8-1

Miss Minnie Natze visited last week at her brother's, Otto Natze, near Buck Grove.

Mrs. C. W. Merrill is enjoying a visit from her niece, Miss Kate Priny, this week.

Mrs. Jacob Sims went to Council Bluffs on Saturday to spend a few days with old friends.

Miss Nora Barkley enjoyed a visit from her friend, Miss Hedwig Kulhof of Des Moines last week.

Try our 30c, 40c, 50c and 60c teas. They are the very best grades of Japan tea on the market. The Boys. 7-2

Malvin Breen and his sister, Tressie, were among the Vail contingent who took in Denison sights on Saturday.

Our public schools did not close for Washington's birthday, but in many of the rooms much mention was made of his career.

Aunt Maggie Talcott has been a visitor with Denison friends the past week with headquarters with her niece, Mrs. Woodruff.

FOR SALE—9 room house located at 502 West Chestnut St. Modern improvements. Inquire of John Kelly. 5tf

The Misses Hilda Rohwer and Mabel Kelly are home from their schools to spend a couple days at home after an absence of four weeks.

If you need a pill take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Insist on them; gentle, easy, pleasant, little liver pills. Sold by Lamborn Drug Co. 5-4

Fred Bradbury's were quarantined last Tuesday on account of Mrs. Bradbury having an attack of diphtheria, but fortunately she seems to be recovering safely.

Mrs. J. B. Noel of Arion underwent a successful operation for gall stones at Omaha last Thursday morning. She is now reported to be much improved and she is expected home in about three weeks.

The Misses Marie Gallagher, Mary and Nellie O'Shea, Bertha and Abbie Kral, and Mamie Harrington were among the jolly crowd who came from Vail to Denison on Saturday to do some shopping and see what our stores had to offer.

Fred Costello, marketed cattle at South Omaha last week which were sold by Jim Laird, who is with the Lee Live Stock Commission company, who succeeded Rice Bros. at South Omaha, a year ago. The Company seems to have a mania for associating with them the best talent to be had, as the Draper Smith Company has recently consolidated with them, strengthening their selling and buying departments, which have always enjoyed the distinction of giving entire satisfaction.

Mr. Smith, the auctioneer, made a trip to Vail on last Friday.

Fred O'Barrion was among those on Saturday, spending the day at Denison.

Henry Moeller of West Side, was a business caller in Denison on Monday.

J. H. Gable and wife spent Sunday at Logan with her sister, Mrs. Edith Sells.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Schwartzbach spent Sunday in Dow City with relatives.

W. J. Wheeler is now recovering after a severe illness of nearly two weeks.

Bernice Moeller was up from Council Bluffs to spend Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Westcott of Des Moines and children, are making glad the N. J. Wheeler home.

David and James Mengah spent Friday at Omaha attending to some business affairs.

Mr. Chas. Bollen and wife and Henry Moeller and wife were Sunday visitors at West Side.

Father Farrelly of Carroll was down last Friday; the guest of Father M. J. Farrelly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wiley of Dow City, were in Denison on Monday on a shopping expedition.

John Ringold's mother and sister from Arcadia, spent Sunday with him, to his great enjoyment.

Miss Minnie Watje and Miss Alma Goldbeck were among those to visit in Council Bluffs this week.

Miss Pearl Riddle and her friend, Miss Scott of Dow City, were in Denison Saturday between trains.

Rev. J. J. DePree will return this week and be in his pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Mrs. Bamford and Miss Fanchon have gone to Chicago in the interest of their millinery business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jones and Miss White of Ellis, were in Denison visiting at the Buesing home on Friday.

Mrs. Rex B. Schmidt of Aberdeen, South Dakota, arrived Sunday for a visit with her parents, at the Nielsen Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneekloth were at West Side, Sunday, with their daughter, Mrs. Spottswood and old time friends.

Mrs. E. L. Johnson, accompanied by John and Maud Storey, came from Deloit, Saturday, to spend the day in Denison.

Mr. J. W. Miller Jr., the popular efficient assistant in the bank of Denison, spent last Sunday with his parents at Manning.

Julius Bohling of Glidden, and Harry Jons of Bonesteel, South Dakota, spent a day last week at the home of P. F. Clausen.

J. D. Jenkins and family move this week to a farm, two miles from Sac City. They have been on a farm in South Milford township.

Jens Lorenzen and wife returned to their home in Schleswig, Holstein, Germany, on Tuesday. This is their sixth crossing of the Atlantic.

Mrs. Gus Brown of Boyer, was in Denison and vicinity on Monday seeing her sister, Mrs. Selander and friends. She will soon go to Fullerton, Neb.

Mrs. George Winans, Mrs. L. Miller, Mrs. James Spence, Mrs. Bessie Meyers, were among the Deloit delegation to be seen in Denison on last Saturday.

Mr. Clem Mahon came up from Belton, Mo., Saturday. His wife had preceded him in time to be here at the time of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Hughes.

The young people's society of the Presbyterian church had a meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Gene Luney. The members were in Washington costume and had a great time.

Mrs. Scott Wheeler has returned from a visit at Maxwell, Iowa, and reports that a daughter was born to her son, Ancel and wife, on February 8th. Friends here congratulate them.

Mr. George Menagh and wife took the Monday Los Angeles limited for that city to the western coast. Friends are glad they have decided to take a vacation and hope it will do them much good.

News comes of the birth of a dear little baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Weeks, way down in Texas. People will commence to believe us about the production of the Lone Star state before long.

Rev. Stoplet of the Presbyterian college at Storm Lake, filled the pulpit of the church in this city last Sunday and preached two good sermons. He said some words in addition as to the college he represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeller went to West Side for a visit with relatives. Later the ladies spent a few days at Manning. Mrs. Bollen and Mrs. Moeller met with their brothers and sisters for a family reunion, which they much appreciated, as they had not all been together for thirteen years.

Henry Godbersen was a Dow City visitor on Monday.

T. J. Kelley and Miss Margaret Kelly were Carrol visitors on Monday.

Sears McHenry transacted business in Des Moines and Newton this week, Mrs. Emma Corwall is visiting with her sons, George and Frank in Chicago.

Call and see some of my high grade clover seed which I am selling at low grade prices. J. G. Wvgant. 5tf

Tom Kelley tells us his shoe sale has been the most successful he has ever held, not only here but at his other stores.

Mr. Carl Evers and wife who have been farming near Battle Creek for three years moved back this spring to the Wulf Ever's farm, three miles north of Arion. Friends are glad to have them in Crawford again.

Undersigned would inform the ladies of Denison and vicinity who desire to learn French and Swiss embroidery that she will teach this class of work, also how to make phantasta dresses. Emma Buehler, Denison, Iowa. 7-4

James Schlumberger who has been employed in the wholesale house of E. Bruce and Co., of Omaha has just had a fine promotion with increase of salary and responsibility. This is pleasing news to all the friends of the bright little lad.

Word was received on Monday, of the death of Mr. C. M. Johnson, the citizen who was recently sent to Clarinda hospital from this county. He will be buried at Odebolt. Friends of the family have much sympathy for them in the death of the father under all the circumstances of the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Jessup soon to be of Cincinnati, Ohio, stopped in Denison on the way from their wedding at Columbus, Neb. to their new home. Mrs. Jessup is a cousin of Mrs. W. E. Terry and like all the Beck family, is mighty good looking. The groom looked like a man who was playing in great luck, and knew it.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McGrin Jr. left today for their new home at Athol, S. Dakota. They are among our deservedly popular young people, they are ambitious, industrious and we are sure they will like their new home and that their new home will like them. Nevertheless they leave many lonesome ones behind them who regret that the call of the West has taken them.

The George Menagh Co. is arranging to use the rooms over the Broadway store in connection with the dry goods and cloak departments. This means the space occupied by the Ferguson gallery until its removal to the other side of the street. Interior stairs have been built connecting the two floors. The great north window used by the photographer is still there and this will give a fine light for the room.

Weekly cottage prayer meetings are being held in town under the auspices of the Old Folk's bible class of the M. E. Sunday School. They are designed as neighborhood affairs to have those who cannot go far away to the churches and who like a prayer meeting, obtain an opportunity to attend one. The time is on Tuesday evenings and the last was held at the home of Mrs. Lister in East Denison. It was led by Mrs. Haworth.

Fred Paulsen and family, Matthias Hugg a son of Geo. Hugg and Walter Hugg a son of H. Hugg will leave this week from Buck Grove for their new homes in the Dakotas. Their going constitutes another heavy loss for Crawford county, but we have the satisfaction that we are giving of our best for the upbuilding of the Nation as a whole and that no matter what their success in other lands, they will never forget their friends in good old Crawford.

J. M. Nielsen leaves next week for his new home at Bladen, Neb. He has been a splendid, fore-handed, honorable and enterprising citizen of this county and we hate to see him go. It is such men as he who have been the making of this county and who will be among the substantial and best citizens of any community. Mr. Nielsen has promised to write back to us about his new surroundings and he is so sure he wants the Review that he has paid for it clear into the middle of Taft's administration.

Look Out For Our SPRING
Announcement

IT'S COMING SOON

It's of Interest to You.

E. C. Chamberlin,
THE JEWELER and OPTICIAN

For style, comfort and durability wear the Case corset, at Sarachon Sisters.

Arthur Orr waved a happy hand to Denison folks as he went through last night on Number Six, bound from Council Bluffs to Iowa City.

Mrs. Garret, whose husband died on the Hayes farm in Washington township recently has been assisting in the bakery which Mr. Town is conducting.

Postmaster Johnson of Boyer was among those in Denison recently. He is a bustling business man, selling implements as well as general merchandise.

As will be seen by the advertisement the Chautauquas at Denison this year will come during the week beginning July 12. That ought to give plenty of hot weather in connection.

On assuming control of the bakery on the corner opposite the new hotel Mr. Town directed that no more tobacco be sold on the place. He is man living up to his convictions of right.

The J. B. Romans Co. has moved its line of fine automobiles to the building on South Main opposite Mr. Tabor's residence. See what this firm has to say in the big advertisement on another page.

Mr. Dean, the artist, whose work is on display at the Knau drug store, is making a trip to Carroll this week in connection with his business. He is showing some fine work, and his methods will be well worth learning.

A. E. Holt of Kiron called on us Friday. He is another of our bright young men who is going to South Dakota. Carthage will be his post office and he is looking forward to hard work in the western state this spring.

At the last meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion, Mr. Jacob Sims gave a strong talk to the children on keeping free from strong drink and tobacco, and using their influence to keep others from habits which will undermine health and strength.

Mrs. John Baker entertained the Daughters of Rebekah at an old fashioned "quiltin" on Friday and they all had a very good time, besides setting a lot of fine stitches. Mrs. Baker served refreshments, which were much enjoyed by her company.

Elmer Watson, who lives several miles out from Denison, suffered a most painful accident last week on Tuesday. He had his knee very badly crushed by having a wagon backed against it. It is probable that it will be quite a time before his knee will be well again.

Mr. A. H. Polzien, who went from Washington township to Farmington, S. D., writes back to have the Review sent him. He says so far he likes the country pretty fair and thinks it will be settled up soon as settlers are arriving all the time. His friends here wish him much success and will be glad if he writes later on, a letter for the paper.

We are glad to know that Mr. Dean, the well known artist, will remain with us for another week or two to teach those who are interested in art. Mr. Dean does all kinds of painting in oil and water colors, also crayon and pastel portraits and views, and teaches those branches. All those interested will find him in Mr. Knau's drug store, where he will give free demonstrations. Mr. Dean will call at the homes of any desiring to know his methods of doing the fine paintings and art in oil. 7-

Miss Jennie Quade made Omaha a visit this week.

The latest in spring vielings at Sarachon Sisters.

Don't forget the new pillow tops are on sale now at the Racket Store.

Miss Ida Blanchard of Beatrice, Neb., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Harry Dearduff.

Before fitting your spring gown get one of those new Directorie corsets at Sarachon Sisters.

Rev. LaReau of the Baptist church is at Council Bluffs this week assisting the Baptist pastor there in a series of revival meetings.

T. A. Miller returned from Ogden for an over Sunday visit at home, and was more than pleased to find here his two cousins, Mr. Frank Miller and Mr. John Spall, of Rochester, N. Y., who had come for a brief visit.

Little Charles Morphy Meyers is enjoying (?) an enforced vacation on account of chicken pox. He is a brave little fellow and is taking his medicine like a major. He is busy caring for Little Paul who has the trouble in light form.

The Northwestern road has put up the promised shed on the south side of the tracks opposite the station at Denison and should have the thanks of the traveling public. It is not as much of a storm protection, however, as it had been hoped it would be.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Lorenzen left last night for Bohmstedt in north Germany. They do not expect to return to America, but hope to spend the evening of life together in the old home. They have earned a competence and can afford to retire and enjoy the fruits of their labor. The good wishes of many friends go with them.

Mrs. T. A. Miller informs us that they expect to have their household goods ready for shipment, and to move to their new home at Ogden on Monday next. Mr. Miller is a fine workman and an industrious and dependable man. Mrs. Miller is a delightful helpmate for him and their Denison friends, who are many, hope for their success and happiness in their new home.

The gang of men which is installing the new system on the Northwestern line of automatic signals has reached Denison from the east. The workings of the system, contemplate that a moving train will give warning when it goes on or off a given section of track and other trains can follow in rapid succession. If it always works in practice, it is a splendid thing. The Northwestern road is ever up-to-date in its operating methods.

David Simmerman, and brother, Jenkins, now of Wayne, Neb., took their departure on Monday night from Denison for the old home in Tuscarawas county, Ohio. They expect to be gone some ten days. The old homestead where the Simmerman boys grew up will be sold on Saturday, and David and Jenkins mean to see that the purchaser pays what it is worth. The native timber on the place is practically untouched, Father Simmerman refusing to see the trees destroyed in his life time.

The undersigned would inform the ladies of Denison and vicinity who desire French and Swiss embroidery that she will do this class of work at reasonable prices. Finest dressmaking a specialty. Address EMMA BUEHLER, Denison, Iowa. 8-2

JUST ARRIVED

We are showing some beautiful patterns in "Souvenir Spoons"

The Jefferson, Chantilly, Mother's Plain and Engraved, Lancaster, Norfolk, Melrose, Atlanta, Eastern Star and many others.

Rich patterns in Belt Pins, the latest creation in Hat Pins, elegant designs in Bracelets and Stick Pins. Have you seen the "Silver Mesh Bags?"

LOOK IN THE WINDOW.

Prices Always Right

J. V. BARBORKA,
Sign of the Big Clock Jeweler and Optician.

Find out how cold it is by getting one of our good

Standard..... Thermometers

Your Druggist

Ph. A. Schlumberger.