

PHOTOS-

GET THEM AT

FERGUSON'S

THEY ARE BETTER.

109 BROADWAY

Miss Mamie Wilson of Mondamin is the guest of her uncle, Mr. E. C. Chamberlin.

Mr. Giss has moved his family to the Theron Beck cottage south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jensen and baby of West Side spent Tuesday in Denison.

Myrtle Searl of Morning Side has been making a visit with her one time Denison schoolmates.

This is the time of kite flying and the boys keep their eyes turned skyward with interest.

As the little one had but a slight case of chicken pox the family of Mr. Chas. K. Meyers hope to be out of quarantine by Friday of this week.

Mrs. Frank McHenry of Dow City returned home on Friday, after a pleasant visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Pierce.

Miss Huldah Markert of Krierim is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Chas. R. French, to take care of her during her convalescence.

The Salomon Furniture Co. reports a great sale on carpets and rugs this season. This is because it has bright, new designs, and keeps receiving more.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller of Grand Island, Neb., made a short visit at the home of Mrs. Hope last week on their way home from visiting their son, who is in a military school at Lima, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Talcott of near Arion were in Denison Tuesday. Mrs. Talcott has not entirely recovered from her accident of last summer when she had both arms broken by being thrown from the buggy.

Bismark Quart Pickles, Preserves and Condiments—25c at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-1

It is to be hoped that the large number of young people beginning housekeeping this spring have not failed to call on the Salomon Furniture Co. for household furnishings. It is the place to buy.

Mr. Chris Brockmann of West Side was a Denison caller today. He is enrolled as a brand new Review subscriber. He is one of the substantial German farmers of eastern Crawford whom we are glad indeed to have as a reader.

W. W. Cushman was taken seriously ill one night last week and for a time his life was despaired of. He recovered in quick time, however, and is now apparently as well as ever.

Word comes from Mr. R. A. Romans that he is gaining in health although the improvement is slow and painful. His weight has been reduced to 100 pounds, but he is now on the mend and will be able to be at home in a few weeks.

Otto Zimmerling, who has for some time been window trimmer at the Balle-Brodersen Co.'s store, resigned his position and left for Milwaukee, Wis., on Saturday. Clarence Meyers arrived on Monday from Des Moines to fill the vacancy.

Fred Buesing of Goodrich township shipped his car of household goods etc., to Bloomfield, Neb., on Tuesday. He is going to establish a new home in our neighboring state. Mrs. Buesing will visit a short time in Dow City and then join her husband in Nebraska.

W. J. Wagoner the old time real estate man, is in Denison this week, visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. Shaw Van. Mr. Wagoner is one of the old timers here, but is now living in Mena, Ark. He is still in the real estate business and your attention is called to his announcement in this issue.

Bismark Quart Preserves—25c at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-1

Mr. C. P. Olds, Great Degree Chief of the Redmen, is in Denison instructing the team in the work of the order. The Redmen are taking hold in earnest, practicing every night and they will soon be in readiness to take the palefaces through in fine shape. The Denison Redmen have as fine regalia as any lodge of the order in the state.

Mr. C. Green was off on Tuesday morning for a trip to Texas. He will be gone some two weeks. He has been about the country considerable, but never in the far south. This is a good time of year to visit there, as one escapes the last of the northern winter.

Walter Huettman went to Omaha on Thursday on business.

Miss Etta Pithan from near Boyer was a Denison visitor on Friday.

Roy Moffitt from Buck Grove was a Denison visitor on last Wednesday.

F. F. Ranniger's were freed from quarantine restrictions on Thursday.

Miss Eunice Dobson of Deloit was in Denison between trains on Friday.

FOR SALE—A five room house. Inquire of C. Green, Denison. 9-4pd

Mrs. Emil Dosier of Dow City spent last Wednesday in Denison on a shopping expedition.

John Ringold enjoyed a visit from his brother, Reuben Ringold, of Arcadia on Friday.

Mrs. Starr Goddard of Dow City spent last Wednesday in Denison doing some shopping.

John Green and family of Buck Grove visited at the Daniel Cruise home the first of last week.

Miss Alta Hillebrand returned last Wednesday from Carroll, where she had been taking care of a sick niece.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Hulth on Feb. 26 and their friends are tendering congratulations.

The Misses Hazel Kevan, Kate Sweeney, Ellen Scott and Sadie Riddle of Dow City were Denison visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Sim's friend, Miss Squire, of Council Bluffs, who has been visiting for a few days, returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. Earl Barrett returned home Friday from her winter's stay with her daughter, Mrs. Kate Maloney, at Muskogee, Okla.

Linoleum is the thing on your floors if you want them to look bright and clean. You will find plenty at the Salomon Furniture store in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lally and Dr. and Mrs. Brannon were among the Denison company, who took in the Omaha Automobile Show last Wednesday.

Longley Hats for Men—$3.00 at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-6

Miss Isabel Campbell on her way home from Chicago to Omaha on Thursday stopped between trains for a short visit with her friend, Margaret Champion.

Dressmaking, fancy dresses, French and Swiss embroidery done to order. Satisfaction guaranteed. Call and see samples of work. Telephone No. 509. Emma Buehler, 205 Jefferson Ave. 9-2pd

Mrs. John Larson of Charter Oak left for home Saturday after spending a week or so with her parents and other Denison relatives. She expects soon to move to Wessington Springs, S. D.

The Misses Anna Schumaker, Anna Petersen, Hilda Brodersen, Sophia Balle and Marie Naeve are home from Chicago. By their account we should judge they had a merry time during their absence.

Morning Glory, the flour that never fails. $1.60 per sack. J. B. Lyon.

Miss Bessie Gillett was an over Sunday visitor in Denison. Miss Bessie is succeeding splendidly with her work in Omaha and is kept so busy that her visits home are not frequent.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wiley, who have been spending a month visiting their relatives in Denison and vicinity, left on Friday for their home in Garrison, Iowa. They have had an especially enjoyable visit as Mrs. Wiley had not been back to Denison for fifteen years.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at 3 p. m. Thursday will be devoted to "mothers." There will be talks and papers along lines in which every mother should be interested. All are welcome.

Mr. Eggers, the horse breeder, wishes the public to know that he has put in his stables a number of fine stallions and will have them at the usual places this spring. Further particulars will be made later.

Mrs. Penney has been appointed collector for pledges made to support the Marshall Law movement when Mr. Rankin was here. Rev. Barnes of Lisbon, vice-president of the society was here on Tuesday.

Let the voters take more interest in the Denison school election than they did in the recent caucus. At 2 p. m. next Monday is the time when the taxes are voted.

Eat at the Oxford. 6tf

You can hear a concert free at the Racket Store for the asking.

Prof. E. W. Fellows returned Monday morning from his Chicago visit.

On Thursday evening the Redmen decided to re-lease the Review hall for another year.

A fine line of local views at one cent each or six for five cents at The Racket Store.

Messrs. S. F. Wedlock and Milt Childress of Deloit were Denison visitors this afternoon.

Thomas Tracy of Magnolia, Iowa, stopped in Denison on Saturday for a short visit with friends.

The Great Grocery Value—Bismark Quart Preserves—25c at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-1

Arthur Green is doing splendidly after his operation. He is now at home and will soon be around again.

Chas. Moorhead of Moorhead, Iowa, made a short visit at Seymour Bond's on Friday on his way to Defiance, Iowa.

Wm. Wilroth moved his possessions by team to Charter Oak on Monday. He certainly had to travel on bad roads.

Mrs. Thos. McGrin jr. and sister, Mrs. Oscar Fienhold are spending a few days in Omaha with their sister, Mrs. Hughes.

The popular kindergarten teacher on the west side, Miss Vrea Fluent, has been enjoying a visit from her mother of Charles City, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strissel and Mr. Otto Jahn and sister, Minnie, of Charter Oak visited Denison friends and relatives the first of the week.

The very best RED AND WHITE CLOVER, ALSYKE BLUEGRASS and TIMOTHY SEED at the very best price. J. G. Wygant 8tf

Mrs. T. A. Miller and her bright little children left Denison this afternoon for their new home at Ogden. We hope they will like Ogden, but that they will not forget Denison friends.

Mr. John Nehls returned Saturday from a week or more of travel through the two Dakotas and parts of Minnesota. He reports much snow where he has been, the drifts in places looking like great hills.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Streeter went Tuesday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Sadie Tyler and family, of Creighton, Neb. Dennie and Carl went to visit their sister, Mrs. Orval McKim, at Auburn, Iowa, during their absence.

Gertrude Rhodenbaugh arrived Sunday morning from near Northwood, Iowa, for a week's visit among her Denison friends before going to Boise, Idaho. She will make her headquarters at the Pierce home during her stay.

The Review list was corrected Feb. 22 and again on March 1st. There was a NET gain of eleven in the six days, while forty-nine subscribers renewed their subscriptions. How's that? Later—The Review gained five new subscribers on Tuesday.

On the seventh page will be found the statement of the Crawford County State bank. The deposits are nearly six hundred and fifty thousand dollars. With Mr. Naeve at the helm there is little danger of the management going amiss. The directors are never borrowers or endorsers at the bank, and the old Crawford County bank enjoys the confidence of our community.

We say without hesitation that De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled for weak kidneys, backache, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary disorders. They are antiseptic and act promptly in all cases of weak back, backache, rheumatism and rheumatic pains. Accept no substitute. We sell and recommend them. Lamborn Drug Co. 9-5

The Edison records for March are certainly fine. Come in and hear them. The Racket Store.

House at Auction.

I will sell at public auction at one p. m. on Saturday, March sixth, a seven room house with good cellar, and city water. There is a chicken house and barn, also ten fruit trees. Located 524 Church street. Sale on the premises. F. J. Smith. 9-1

CHICKEN HOUSES

Should be painted this month with

KRESO DIP.....

For sale at

Ph. A. Schlumberger.

C. M. Jensen spent Friday in Dow City

Buy your furniture of Fastje. Price always the lowest. 47tf

Miss Kathryn Hasset visited friends in Vail on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Romans spent Sunday with Charter Oak relatives.

Bismark Quart "Finest Eating Olives"—35c at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-1

Mr. A. L. Strong has been this week on a business trip to Pilger, Neb.

Morris McHenry was in town Monday, the first time since his severe sickness.

Miss Dougherty, Denison's popular dressmaker, visited Vail friends last week.

Mrs. Peter Miller and Miss Lillian have been spending two days of this week at Omaha.

J. H. Mahoney is in Chicago this week attending a meeting of Northwestern officials.

Mrs. Edith Baker of Sioux City was the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. G. Lyman, last week.

Rev. J. Jas. DePree was called to West Side last week to preach the funeral sermon for Mr. Hope.

David Clark of Dow City was a Denisonite today and remembered the Review while on his shopping tour.

Mr. Z. T. Hawk is suffering from a severe attack of the grippe and is obliged to remain at home this week.

The rustling young merchant, David Menagh, was off last week for New York City in the interests of the firm.

Mr. Samuel Luney has decided to try Colfax Springs for his disabilities and was off for there on Tuesday forenoon.

A. F. Boylan, P. D. McMahon, C. L. Voss and son, Loyal, took in the automobile show at Omaha last Thursday.

Lenten services at St. Rose of Lima church on Sunday and Wednesday evenings are well attended and attracting much interest.

The American express wagon has a new driver in Harry Wearmouth. He is a strong husky lad, and has the native ability to make a good expressman.

Mrs. Nellie Lorentzen, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. Will Marshall and wife, and many friends, returned on Tuesday morning to Amherst, S. D.

Dr. Weber's Treatment cures Eye and Ear Diseases and his Glasses stop Headache, Nervousness and Save the Sight. Call Thursday, March 18, at Nielsen House. Examination Free.

Mr. Otto Hink, who has been in the grocery department of the Menagh store, has gone to Omaha, and in a few weeks expects to go out on the road for the Swift packing house. He is a bright, capable young man, and should make good in his new line of work.

C. C. Howard is among the movers. He goes to Smithland, where he has purchased a farm. He has done well in Milford township and he will doubtless succeed in his new home.

Prof. E. W. Fellows tells us that the total contributed by Denison school children towards the Allison Monument fund was $12.50. Unless other cities did much better the collection was a failure.

Penelope had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Ley on Tuesday. Mrs. Ley's daughter, Mrs. Watson, who is very popular in Denison was present which in itself was a delightful pleasure. Mrs. Rusk of Elk Point was also present. The ladies had a good visit and also enjoyed the refreshments served by Mrs. Ley. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Mahoney.

Dr. Philbrook goes to Iowa City Tuesday and Wednesday of next week where he gives a clinic before the Alumni Association of the Dental Department of the University. The Doctor's professional ability is very much in demand at these meetings of Dentists, where they gather to acquaint themselves with the new and best ways of serving their patients. Dr. Philbrook seems to be in the front rank of these instructors as the numerous invitations indicate.

Among those from out of town attending the K. P. banquet was Mr. R. J. Dieter and daughter from Jackson township. They had a fine time and only regret that they cannot be present next year. Mr. Dieter has bought a farm of 120 acres near a flourishing town in central Michigan and will soon move there. He buys the land for less than similar land can be bought in this county and has added advantage of nearness to a good town, and excellent educational facilities. He means to try western style of farming and believes he can make a success of it. It is needless to say that his friends are sorry to see him go.

We are sorry Indeed

To postpone our announcement--BUT the goods we expected are still on the way, so the best I have to offer is to keep buying of

E. C. Chamberlin,

THE JEWELER and OPTICIAN

And you will be the one that will profit by it.

Odd pieces of furniture at Fastje's. 47tf

Miss Lucinda McHenry returned home to Dow City Wednesday.

John Cose and wife of Deloit were shopping in Denison on Tuesday.

Miss Ella Koch of Boyer was a pleasant Denison caller on Wednesday.

FOR SALE—Six pure bred Short Horn bulls. John R. Robinson, Denison, Route 1. 2tf

A. A. Conrad, one of Arion's merchants, was a business caller in Denison on Monday.

Miss Rosina Thede of near Kiron spent Wednesday in Denison shopping and visiting with friends.

Call and see some of my high grade clover seed which I am selling at low grade prices. J. G. Wygant. 5tf

The Empire clothing store has caught the fixing up fever and rejoices in a fine new case for haberdashery.

FOR SALE—9 room house located at 502 West Chestnut St. Modern improvements. Inquire of John Kelly. 5tf

Miss Flechzig arrived Monday from Chicago to take the position of assistant trimmer in the Balle-Brodersen Co. millinery department.

A letter from Mrs. Savage tells of the death of Mr. Savage's sister and the last of his family. She leaves two children. Our hearts go out in sympathy to this much stricken family.

Miss Mae Cavanaugh of the Bulletin force is on the retired list this week on account of sickness and Miss Margaret Kelly is helping out in the office of our "loathed contemporary."

Longley Hats for Men—$3.00 at The Balle-Brodersen Co. 9-6

H. A. Dixon and family returned from Hitchcock, S. D., today. He sold his farm and had a fine sale and is now looking for a new location. It is a good thing South Dakota gives us back a family once in a while or Crawford would soon be uninhabited.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

Have your mirrors resilvered while you wait at John Fastje's. 47tf

Paul Norris has gone up to Pierre South Dakota for a trip to cover some two weeks. If pleased with the country he may decide to stay.

Rev. LaReau was home from Council Bluffs over Sunday and held the usual services at the Baptist church. He returned to continue to help in the revival meetings until Friday of this week.

Mr. J. P. Duncan has bought the cottage owned by Fermin Tucker in the east part of Denison and will take possession March 15th. He thinks by the 20th he and his wife will be ready to receive their friends in the new home.

Rooms for Rent.

Two furnished rooms, furnace heat, electric lights, excellent location. Inquire of Mrs. N. Staininger. 6tf

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Beginning with this issue the little house maid will tell you each week how to make homes happy.

The pictures will be by Mr. R. F. Outcault, the world's famous artist. WATCH FOR THEM.

We will have souvenir postals for the children under eight years of age who will call for them at our store.

We will have valuable prizes to the boy and girl bringing in the most copies of our ads. Announcement of these prizes will be made later.

Bartcher & Ewall
124 E. Broadway Denison, Iowa

Spring Jewelry!

New jewelry is as much a demand of the changing as new gowns and hats, and we are showing some beautiful pins and buckles and combs and things, which are meant especially to go with the silks of spring, the laces and linens of summer.

Sleeves are shorter than ever so we have secured prettier bracelets and more of them.

We want you to join the throng of new customers that is steadily wearing a beaten path to this store.

Souvenir Spoons of High School, Court House, College, Carnegie Library. : : :

LOOK IN THE WINDOW

J. V. Barborka

Sign of the Big Clock

Jeweler and Optician