

SUPPLEMENT TO DENISON REVIEW

MARCH 10, 1909.

BOYER RIPPLINGS.

Mr. H. B. Hansen was a passenger to Kiron, Saturday.

Mr. Carl Erne, a popular young man of this vicinity is very ill at his home just west of town. The trouble seems to be similar to tonsillitis with other complications of throat and lung trouble.

The many friends of Mr. J. P. Wolf Sr., will be glad to learn that he is still improving from his long and severe illness. He is able to be out of doors a short time each day.

Mr. John Erne, who has been to Chicago with cattle, returned home Thursday.

Mr. Clark Winans of Odebolt, moved to his farm just north of Boyer, which he purchased of Henry Hansen some time ago.

Miss Edna Nelson went to Denison Thursday morning to visit her sister, Tena, who is attending college. Miss Edna returned home Sunday morning.

Miss Emma Anderson went to Sioux City Monday morning, where she will stay for some time.

Mr. H. B. Hansen was a Denison visitor Friday.

Anna Anderson and Agnes Wahlin went to Odebolt Friday a. m., returning in the afternoon.

Mr. Albert Baker has moved onto his farm just west of Boyer, formerly occupied by Knut Matson. We welcome Mr. Baker and family into our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Henkel returned Tuesday from Arthur, where they had attended the funeral of Mr. Kohn Mrs. Henkel's brother-in-law.

Mrs. John Hagge of Ogden, Ia., came Saturday to spend a few days visiting her parents and many friends of this place. On Tuesday Mrs. Hagge, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Neuman, and her sister, Mrs. Loui Gronau, went to Denison, where she purchased some furniture and had it shipped to her new home at Ogden. Mrs. Hagge also departed for her home Tuesday.

Mr. Jim Abbot, who has been farming his father's place, moved to a farm near West Side. His younger brother will work the old home place the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Nissen celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday. The large gathering consisted of the older people in the afternoon, while the young people waited till evening to come. A pleasant time was had by all and they departed wishing this estimable couple many happy returns of the day.

Miss Lizzie Schlecta went to Denison Monday, to fit herself for seamstress work.

Mr. Harry Brown and family drove down near Deloit Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. Chas. Shives.

Miss Christine Nissen returned home from Deloit, where she had been staying at the home of William Stehr, helping them move.

On Saturday evening, March 6th, a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Harry Brown in honor of Mr. Emil Carlson and family, Mr. Gus Brown and wife and Mr. Harry Brown and family. About 100 relatives and friends met at a pre-arranged place and all came to the home of Mr.

Harry Brown in a body, making the surprise complete. An abundance of good things was prepared and brought by the members of the party, which made a bountiful lunch for all those present. A very pleasant evening was spent in visiting which will be remembered by all. The party showed their high esteem of the friends, who are about to depart for their new home at Oakes, S. D., by presenting Mr. Brown's and Mr. Carlson's families each with a beautiful rug and Mr. Gus Brown and wife with a half dozen silver table spoons. We regret very much to see these three families who are held in such high esteem by all their neighbors and acquaintances, leave this place. We can only say that what Boyer loses by the departure of these worthy families is Oakes gain.

Mr. Charlie Anderson and family and Mr. Gust Brown and wife went to Odebolt Sunday, where the friends of Mr. Gust Brown and wife served a dinner at the Swedish Mission church in their honor. Mr. Brown has been an enthusiastic worker in the Mission church, having been Supt. of the Mission Sunday school about two miles north of Boyer, for the past fourteen years.

Miss Agnes Wahlin of Omaha, came Monday to visit at the home of Gust Anderson for a short time.

Mr. Lem Watts and son, Ralph, were Denison visitors Monday.

Mr. Steve Jans transacted business in Denison Monday.

Mr. John Kooch and wife and Miss Ella, visited at the home of August Thiede Monday.

Thelma Gustafson, who is staying at her brother's home in Old Kiron came home Tuesday to make her parents a short visit.

Mr. B. N. Benson of Kiron was a Boyer visitor Wednesday.

The Misses Ella Kooch and Rosina Thiede were Denison shoppers Wednesday.

Mr. Jensen of Schaller stopped in Boyer Monday on his way to Kiron.

Mr. Walter Wainright accompanied Mr. Knutt Mattson's car of stock to Oskaloosa, Iowa, Monday. He will work for Mr. Mattson the ensuing year.

Mr. N. P. Swanson of Kiron was in Boyer Monday.

Mr. Casper, the land-agent was in Boyer, Iowa.

Mr. C. S. Johnson received a car of salt Tuesday.

Mrs. William Graham of Odebolt, visited over Sunday with her son, Mr. O. M. Graham and family.

George Lundell of Kiron, was a Boyer visitor Friday.

Miss Rosina Thiede is spending the week at the home of Mr. John Kooch.

Mr. Adolph Brown was a Kiron visitor Sunday.

Among those who shipped from Boyer Saturday night were: Mr. Chas. Ernie one car each of cattle and hogs, Mr. Gust Anderson, one car of cattle; Mr. Jim Lestrangle, one car of cattle. Each accompanied their own shipment.

Mr. Henry Brown visited at C. S. Johnsons, Sunday night.

We understand that Mr. Ernest Schlecta and Mr. Jim Abbot are each nursing a hurt foot.

VAIL ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Magill have moved into town from their farm and are nicely settled in the home they bought in the west part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gronemeyer were passengers to Carroll Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit at the parental Wiedemier home.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland of Manilla, was the guests of relatives here, a couple of days last week.

Pete McCormick spent Wednesday in Denison.

Misses Mary and Kate Kelly and Gertrude McCarthy of Denison made Vail friends a call Saturday.

James McCune of Arion spent last week here with relatives.

Mrs. Frank FitzSimmons and children took their departure last Monday morning for their new home near Geddes, S. D., after a couple weeks visit here with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Hill and other relatives, Frank went with his car a week before.

John Stagleman spent the first of last week with his brother at Dunlap.

John Harrison was over from Manilla a couple of days last week visiting old friends.

Mrs. Dave Tonner visited her mother at Carroll last week.

Mr. Pat Finnegan was called to Omaha the first of last week by the death of his son-in-law.

George Friday made West Side a call Thursday.

Mr. R. D. Allison of Grand Junction is visiting relatives in this vicinity for the past two weeks.

Pete McCormick closed a very successful term of school last Friday in the P. Costello school, two miles northwest of town.

James Byrnes and family moved here from Newton, Iowa last week and will farm the Mrs. Byrne's farm west of town, the coming year. We welcome Jim and family amongst us once more.

Pete Ludwig was attending to business at West Side Tuesday.

P. Finneran made a business trip to the county seat Thursday.

Andrew Gallagher and wife are the proud parents of a young son, born Feb. 28, 1909.

Tom Hassett was down from Denison Wednesday.

Miss Clara McCarthy of Denison, is a guest at the Will Mitchell home for the past week.

Frank Simon was a Denison caller Tuesday.

Pete Martins of West Side, was on our streets Wednesday.

Mike Maher and son of Arcadia attended the funeral of M. E. Ryan here Friday.

John Holland and John McCormick was attending to business in Denison Monday.

Willie Welch came up from Maple River Junction Saturday for a short visit with his sisters.

J. Garvin of Dunlap, and P. Garvin of Albion, Neb., was calling on friends here Saturday.

Herman Hagge returned Saturday from Kennebec, S. D., where he has been for the last week looking after his land interests at that place.

Miss Ollive Dieter of West Side, was calling on her many Vail friends Sunday.

In a game played here in the open house, Vail High school defeated Missouri High school in a basket ball game last Friday evening by the overwhelming score of 62 to 21. The high school girls served an oyster supper in the hall to help the boys defray expenses.

Mrs. Thos. Burke went back to Clinton on a visit a week ago, and was taken very sick with heart trouble. His family was sent for last Thursday and at present writing he is very low.

L. L. Osterlund was transacting business in the county seat Tuesday.

Miss Nettie Campbell of West Side was a guest at the Joe Rundlett home last week.

Miss Lottie Vennink was an over Sunday visitor in West Side.

Wm. Finneran made a trip to Denison Tuesday.

Jas. O'Connell came Saturday, from Logan, where he is working with the Hall block gang, and spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Trexel and daughter, Helen, spent Tuesday in Denison.

M. J. Keane was transacting business in West Side Wednesday.

Ross Saunders of Manilla was calling on Vail friends Thursday.

Mrs. M. O'Reilly went to Omaha Sunday for a few days visit.

Died, Tuesday, February 23d, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Novotine. All extend sympathy to them in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Champion and baby went to Denison Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her folks.

Mrs. James Mitchell and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell went to Denison Monday morning and spent the day visiting friends.

Frank O'Boyle and Otto Pound each shipped one car of fat cattle to Chicago Saturday night; Mr. Pound going in charge of same.

Miss Bookh Lyman entertained fourteen of her young friends Sunday evening, complimentary to Miss Carrie Butler, who left Monday morning for Orchard, Neb., to make her future home.

Earl Hoffman has purchased the vacant lot near the Presbyterian parsonage and expects to build a modern home on the same the coming summer. The lot was purchased from Mrs. North and cost $400 dollars.

Miss Anna Mae Strong entertained to Vail last Wednesday and is busy getting ready for her spring millinery, which is arriving daily for the last few days.

Miss Nell McCarthy of Denison, made Vail friends a short visit Wednesday.

Mrs. Scaggs of Denison spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. R. Robinson.

The Woodmen Band of Vail will give a ball in the opera house here Thursday, March 17, music will be furnished by the band. Everybody is cordially invited. The ladies will please bring baskets with lunch, free coffee will be served and a royal good time promised to all who will attend.

Thomas Adams shipped two loads of cattle to Chicago Monday night.

Miss Rook Lyman and Carrie Butler spent Saturday in Denison with Miss Alice Staininger.