RULE-RANNIGER WEDDING

A Pleasant Home Wedding on Wednesday, March 10.

On Wednesday last occurred the marriage of Mr. Howard Rule of Dow City and Miss Anna Ranniger of Denison, Rev. DePree officiating. The ceremony was at one o'clock at Cedar Place, the home of the bride's brother, just east of town. Only a small company of relatives and friends were present. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as they entered the parlor. The bride was becomingly gowned in white, and carried cream roses. After a three course wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Rule drove to their new home five miles west of Dow City.

The bride is a young lady of culture and refinement. Being of an ambitious nature, she strove to improve her opportunities for a wider usefulness. After spending two years in Ames College, she became one of Crawford county's most successful teachers. Mr. Rule comes from a highly respected family and has proved himself a capable and worthy young man. Some years ago he entered the U. S. Navy, where his services were given conscientiously and faithfully. He was recently discharged with exceptionally high honors. Mr. and Mrs. Rule have the good wishes of numerous friends.

THE RIDDLES MOVING AWAY

The Removal of Earl Riddle of Coon Grove to South Dakota this Week.

The changes in population by the passing of time comes to mind with the departure of Mr. Earl Riddle and family to South Dakota. He is the last of the sons of the original Riddles, and now there is no one by that name in the Coon Grove vicinity. In the early days of this county there were three well known families of the Riddles headed by Mike, Mose and Daniel. Mr. Mike Riddle was a member of the board of supervisors and all lived south of Denison about the beautiful Coon Grove. Death and removal have taken all the men folks away. Mr. Earl Riddle has rented his fine farm and gone up to Stanley county, S. D. He will be fifty miles northwest of Pierre and so west of the Missouri river and in the valley of the Cheyenne. He ships his goods to Philip, a station of the Northwestern extension from Pierre to Rapid City, and when settled will be forty or fifty miles from a railway station. He has been up there prospecting and likes the country. Mr. Riddle married Miss Lydia Smith, one of the daughters of Mr. William Smith and wife, who lived on the fine farm two miles south of Denison and Mrs. Smith is to live with her daughter in the new country. Their many Crawford county friends hope that prosperity may be theirs. They have the good Coon Grove farm yet and so can return.
