BOYER RIPPLINGS.

On Wednesday, March 17, 1909, occurred the marriage of Mr. Charles Wainright and Miss Emma Frahm, both of this place. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Claus Frahm at 4 o'clock Rev. O. Richter officiating. The bride was becomingly dressed in light blue taffeta silk. Their attendants were Misses Mary Sass, of Ida Grove and Greda Otlier of Denison and Messers Walter Wainright and Claus Frahm. After the ceremony which was witnessed by a host of relatives and friends the company partook of the repast which had been prepared for them. In the evening a dance was held at the hall in their honor. Among those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. August Sass, of Ida Grove, Albert Sass, Mr. Peter Henderickson and wife of Deloit, Mrs. Mary Kinise, Cherokee, Iowa and Henry and Albertine Senhen. The best wishes of all are extended to them.

The farmers of this vicinity enjoyed a very successful institute last Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance and such an interest was taken that many wished that we have a two days institute instead of half a day. It would be a good plan to have a longer institute next year if possible. Prof. Robins gave the first lecture which was on Animal Husbandry. He gave statistics showing that at the present high price of feed the farmer had to feed on a scientific basis in order to have a clear profit after taking into account his expenses. Prof. Bliss followed with a lecture on seeds. He suggested that we have a corn judging contest for boys as a stimulus for good seed corn. He said that soil fertility is the most important question before the up-to-date farmer and that the raising of clover was considered the most important crop to bring about the desired result.

In memory of Miss Tillie Anderson who died March 23rd, 1908, just one year ago at the age of 14 years:

"Tillie, how we miss you,
 None but we can tell;
 But God, who loved you better
 Has taken you home to dwell.

You are gone, but not forgotten,
 And your memory shall never fade,
 And lonely hearts will linger
 Where our beloved lies.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Ayer's

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
