

1.50 a year
Worth More

THE DENISON REVIEW

Advance Paid
Subscribers get the big Magazine

VOLUME 44

DENISON, IOWA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1909.

No 15

COMRADE GILLMOR IS LAID TO REST

DEATH CLAIMS ANOTHER BRAVE VETERAN OF THE CIVIL WAR

DENISON LOSES SPLENDID CITIZEN

Isaac Gillmor for Forty Years One of Our Most Highly Respected Citizens is Called to Death

On Thursday, April 8th, the soul of Isaac Gillmor was called unto its God. Quietly, peacefully, without any of those pangs of parting which often make the last hour so harrowing and so full of anguish, his spirit left the mortal tenement and went to its reward.

To be strong and manly, to be kind hearted, keen minded and true, to be brave in time of peril, to be valiant in battle, to be patient in adversity to be strong in peace, to be successful in the work of life, to be loving and to be beloved, to know the blessing of a faithful wife, to have a home filled with the laughter and the light of children, to see them grow to useful and honored maturity, to be respected of ones neighbors, to be at peace with ones God and then, to die, surrounded by loving hearts and bearing on ones breast the flag he fought to save—can you picture a life more complete, more compelling in its quiet dignity, more fully measuring to the stature of a man?

Born in County Sligo, Ireland, on February 14th, 1835, the son of Stewart and Rebecca Gillmor, Isaac Gillmor came to America at the age of twelve.

For nine years, or until 1856, the family lived near Davenport, then moved into Illinois and there the father died.

When twenty-three, Isaac struck out for himself, pre-empting a tract of 160 acres in Scott county, Iowa. He was just getting a good start when the war of the Rebellion broke out. He was a young man, he had his fortune to make, he had plans for the future, we think he even had hopes that the maiden of his choice was soon to join him on the Scott county farm. But when the call of Father Abraham was sounded, when the flag of his country was in danger, the fighting Irish blood of him tingled in every vein. When you find a man who fought for more than four years in the war of the rebellion, you may know that you have found a patriot; when you find a man who rose from private to shoulder straps, you may know that you have found a natural leader, and when you find a member of the glorious 2nd Iowa Cavalry, you may know that you have found a fighter bred and born.

effects he never completely recovered. The murderous little bullet is one of the keep-sakes of the family today. Just as soon as the war was over Isaac Gillmor came north. He had business waiting for him on that little Scott county farm and he had a warm heart waiting for him, too, a heart that never failed him until it throbbled its last five years ago. In November 1865 they were married, Isaac Gillmor and Hannah M. Connor and they lived in Scott county for four years. Then the call of the quiet, modest, unassuming, persistently honest, steadfast and reliable. He was a trustee of Denison township from the day it was organized until the day he abandoned farming and moved to town. He was a life-long republican. And we know that he would not count it amiss, should we say of him that he was a subscriber to the Review for forty years. Twelve years ago a comfortable home was built in Denison and in this his declining years were spent. Five years ago the loving partner of his life was called and since that time his spirit has been gently fading, loosening little by little its hold on earthly things and clinging more and more to the joys of life eternal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillmor were the parents of six children, all of whom survive. They are Miss Margaret and Miss Edith, who have made the care of their father the supreme duty of their lives, Mrs. Grace Gillmor Laub of Sioux City, Mrs. Nell Gillmor Goudie of Sergeants Bluff, Mrs. Olive Gillmor Failor of Tucson, Arizona, and Mr. Ira C. Gillmor of Denison, the only son.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church under the auspices of his comrades of the Grand Army. The Sons of Veterans acted as a guard of honor, the ladies of the Relief Corps, the comrades of the G. A. R. attended in a body. The altar was beautified by a great profusion of flowers. Rev. J. H. Senseney, pastor of the church of which Mr. Gillmor was so faithful a member, conducted the services assisted by Rev. J. James DePree. The church was filled with the friends and neighbors of a life time and no man there but felt a sense of personal loss that this dear Christian patriot should walk our streets no more. With the tiny silk flag resting on his breast, he looked very calm and brave, ready and fit to meet his God. We sympathize with his children in their loneliness and grief, but we glory with them in the splendid heritage of his noble life.

High grade corn Saturday at 5c per can. Geo. Menagh & Co.

There is no damage to a carpet or rug when cleaned by the carpet cleaning wheel. Pounding with stick and metal beaters wears out the carpet in short order. Call Phone 497.

ISAAC GILLMOR

Isaac Gillmor was mustered in on August 1st, 1861, a private, and he was mustered out a First Lieutenant of the Second Iowa Cavalry, down in Selma, Alabama, in 1865, when the fighting was all done.

He was with Grant and Sherman all through the campaigns of the west.

He was at Corinth, at Franklin, at Columbia and was with his regiment in all the battles and skirmishes around Nashville. At Tupelo he was wounded in the head by a minie ball. The wound was almost in the center of the crown of the head and from its West came to them and some kind, guardian angel lead them to Crawford county.

Down the Boyer Valley three miles south and west, is the old homestead. From its elevation and through the vista of cottonwoods one can see the broad acres of corn lands, the winding stream, the fertile hills beyond. Success was wrested from the soil, the farm grew in acreage and wealth, until nearly 800 acres were comprised within its bounds. During all these years Mr. Gillmor had been gaining a place in the community. He was

SIoux CITY PRESBYTERY

DENISON HAS THE HONOR OF ENTERTAINING
MINISTERS AND DELEGATES

A FINE BODY OF PEOPLE

Delegates to Denver General Assembly Selected, Denison has a Lay Delegate, Women have Interesting Meetings

Our city has had the pleasure of entertaining the membership of the Sioux City Presbytery this week. The Presbyterian and Baptist churches were used. In the election of delegates to the General Assembly Mr. W. D. Luney of Denison was one of the lay delegates and this is held a high honor. On Tuesday evening Rev. Echlin of Sioux City made a grand plea for colleges where the Bible was taught and honored. He spoke specially for the college at Storm Lake. The same evening there was a talk on foreign missions by Rev. McClintock who has been in China eighteen years. He declared that at least three good things could be said for the Chinaman, he respected his parents and old age, was honest in business, and true to a trust. He appealed for more equipment for the mission stations. On Wednesday morning his wife came from Sioux City and spoke very well before the meeting of women. The Presbytery was a success in every way. The resolutions reported in a unique manner by Rev. West complimented Denison, her people, the local church, the able pastor, in glowing terms.

Ministers Present.

Dr. O. S. Thompson, Paullina, the Moderator; Daniel Williams, Storm Lake; J. W. Counterline, Sac City; J. Jas. DePree, Denison; Dr. Geo. Earhart, Schaller; M. Hyink, Inwood; Dr. W. G. Moore, LeMars; Thos. Hughes, Leeds; R. D. Echlin, Samuel McComb, R. C. Cully, Jas. B. Chase, J. L. Howie, Sioux City; Dr. S. E. Koons, Bronson; Chas. E. Memmot, Ida Grove; T. A. Ambler, Hawarden; D. A. McLeod, Odebolt; Z. W. Steele, Pocahontas; Geo. West, Cleghorn; Robt. Bradley, Meriden; I. G. Smith, Hull; Dr. D. C. Mackintosh, Storm

Lake; W. J. Creswell, Ireton; Jas. Bean, Cherokee; Dr. Furmont, Des Moines; Rev. Little, Bellevue, Neb.; J. N. Robertson of North Dakota; Dr. Davenport, Waterloo.

Lay Delegates.

John Preston, Battle Creek; Benj. Thompson, Cherokee; W. D. Luney, Denison; G. S. Needham, Early; Jno. Finney, Hawarden; Alex Hartley, Ida Grove; Geo. Wright, Ireton; Dr. E. D. McLaren, Manilla; A. G. Mitchell, Meriden; C. A. Smith, Odebolt; A. Scott, Paullina; W. H. Hart, Sac City; H. W. Allen and C. H. Bryant, Sioux City; J. H. McLaughlin, Storm Lake; G. W. Sherwood, Vail.

Presbytery Officers.

The new officers are as follows: Moderator, Dr. S. E. Koons, Bronson; Stated Clerk, J. W. Counterline, Sac City; Permanent Clerk, J. Jas. DePree, Denison; Temporary Clerk, M. Hyink, Inwood; Assistant Treasurer, Elder G. S. Needham, Early.

Delegates to General Assembly.

Ministerial—Rev. Martin Hyink, Inwood and Dr. G. W. Moore, LeMars. Lay—W. D. Luney, Denison, W. H. Hart, Sac City.

At the meetings of the woman's work of the church Mrs. Cox of Storm Lake presided for home missions, and Mrs Geo. Earhart of Schaller for foreign. The new officers are Mrs. Smith of Hull in the foreign branch, and Mrs. Needham of Sac City in the home branch. The meetings of the women were most interesting. The sessions closed Wednesday noon.

MERCHANT GETS BAD NEWS

Walter Huettmann Learns of Sudden Death of His Mother in Germany

Mr. Walter Huettmann received a letter yesterday telling of the sudden death of his mother, Christine Huettmann, at the old home in Germany. Mrs. Huettmann was sixty-two years of age and was in apparent good health on the very evening of her death. She went to visit a sister and after spending a pleasant evening retired, only to call for assistance a short time later. By one o'clock of the same night she was dead, heart failure being the cause. To Walter, the young man who has no one of his family nearer than San Francisco and who is thus alone to bear his sorrow, we extend our sincerest sympathy.

Umbrellas

Very newest in fancy parasols Mission handles, all of the newest colors.

$1.25

We always show the very latest styles. Our leadership is acknowledged by all of the better trade. Read about the newest creations in this ad.

We want all of the ladies of Denison to see the very latest in
LOW CUTS
The new Bronze, a regular $5.00 slipper with Louis XV heels in the new color fad of 1909. We have all sizes
Our Price $4.00

Millinery!

At prices that are one-half off regular price. Beautiful hats, our regular $5.98 line, now

$2.98 and $3.98

Be sure and see these great values

Clearance of Ladies' Suits

We are making a grand clearance of our entire line of suits. Every suit must be sold within the next 14 days regardless of cost. Now is the time to buy if you will need a suit by next fall you can buy it at a price that will surprise you.

30 styles in regular $17.50 to 25.00, now $10.50 to 16.48

15 styles in regular $11.50 to 16.50, now $7.48 to 9.98

Every suit must go. Be sure to see these great values in all of the best colors, for this season's wear.

Sale of

Lawn

Waists

Regular $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 Waists, now at 98c, $1.19 and $1.48

Be sure to see these exceptional values. They are money savers.

Men's Hats, Low Shoes, Neckties and Shirts in all of the newest creations.

Neckties, four-in-hand style, hundreds of the newest patterns. More colors than are being shown in regular 50 and 75c lines. Our price, each 29c

The accompanying illustration shows one of the very latest styles in hats. This hat comes in green, tan and black. Price $1.48

OXFORDS! OXFORDS!

We are showing this season the strongest line of men's low shoes that we have ever carried. The accompanying illustration shows one of the dressy shoes in our line. This shoe comes in patent and gun metal, price, per pair $3.50

We want you to look over our complete line of men's dressy shirts. We are offering the largest assortment of shirts in all of the very latest styles. Tan, green and blue mixtures, price each $1.00

SALE OF RUGS
We are this week opening for sale 9x12 rugs at prices that will mean a big saving to you. This illustration shows a brussels rug that is one of the best values we have in our line. Size 9x12, good colors, regular $12.50 value, our price $9.85. Be sure to see our complete line of Lace Curtains Portieres and Draperies.

GEO. MENAGH & CO.

Broadway and Main Streets

Denison, Iowa