

WEST SIDE ITEMS.

Co. Supt. F. L. Hoffman, wife and son of Denison, Iowa, spent Thursday in West Side at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Patteeon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staley of Denison, Iowa, spent Sunday at the Fred Paeholke home.

Mr. Frank Westland returned Saturday from Sweden, where he has spent the past two years at his old home. Mr. Westland says he is glad to be back in West Side again as he prefers to live in America.

Miss Minnie Craft spent Sunday with West Side friends.

Mr. S. C. Blackman of Madison, Neb., is visiting with old neighbors and friends in West Side this week.

Mrs. E. B. Spottswood, Miss Emily Schneekloth and Miss Lillian Spottswood were Omaha visitors last Friday.

Rev. K. Fauth and family were Manning visitors last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Austin returned to her home in Chisholm, Minn., after a week's visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Cathcart.

Miss Carrie Schwecke attended the Owxang-Ackley wedding at Denison last Wednesday.

Miss Rose Broderick of Carroll visited her friend, Miss Gladys Cathcart, last Monday.

Mrs. M. Peters of Charter Oak, Iowa, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Suhr, this week.

We are glad to report that Mrs. E. G. Dannatt was able to return from the hospital at Carroll last Thursday. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. G. Cady, of Camanche, Iowa. Mr. Dannatt, who was operated upon for appendicitis is gaining strength and is expected home in a short time.

On Wednesday, April 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eiffert occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Martha Eiffert, to Rev. Fred J. Rolf of Rock Island, Ill. Rev. Karl Fauth performing the ceremony. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock in the presence of about thirty guests, who were relatives and intimate friends. Miss Margaret Buton sang "O, Promise Me," and then as she played the Lohengren Wedding March the bride and groom unattended took their stations in the parlor which was beautifully decorated in green and white. The bride's costume was of sheer white trimmed with val lace and she carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The groom wore conventional black suit. Immediately following the ceremony after the congratulations had been extended to the newly married pair, the company were invited into the dining room, where an elegant three course dinner was served. The table was charmingly decorated with smylax and white carnations with loops of white ribbon extending from table to ceiling. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts in cut glass and silver etc. Rev. and Mrs. Rolf started for their new home at Rock Island on the evening train amidst showers of rice and hearty congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eiffert and has grown to womanhood in West Side, where she is so well known and beloved for her many excellent qualities. She will be greatly missed in church and social circles where she has been ever willing to lend assistance with her musical talent. The groom is well and favorably known to quite a circle of friends in West Side. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rolf extend to them their heartiest congratulations for a long and happy life together.

The Comedy-Drama, "A Soldier of Fortune," given at the hall last Friday evening by our local talent was well patronized and all seemed well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Considerable talent was shown by some of the amateurs. The proceeds of this entertainment will be for the benefit of the Epworth League.

The play was given in Arcadia Saturday evening to a fairly good house.

ARION ITEMS.

Mr. Frank Marr and Miss Jessie Butler were married last Saturday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage in Denison by Rev. LaReau. Miss Bertha Lueck and Mr. Fred Marr were bridesmaid and groomsmen. These young people are well and favorably known in this community where they have lived since childhood. Jessie enjoys the friendship and affection of a large circle of acquaintances and Frank is a young man whose industry and business ability will win success. All their friends wish them happiness along life's journey.

Riley Talcott was home from Mapleton over Sunday.

Mrs. Michels and Miss Lulu Howarth were Denison visitors last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. McKeeman went to Denison for dental work last Thursday.

Olive Talcott is employed as deputy in the post office.

Rev. W. H. Armstrong of Dunlap will preach next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

A box social will be held in the hall next Friday evening for the benefit of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Seemann of Dow City were Arion callers Monday.

Mrs. Oscar Goodrich visited Arion relatives last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kelly attended the S. S. convention Sunday and took supper with Mrs. Talcott.

Grace Butler is suffering with a very sore hand which was caused by being cut slightly with a knife.

Prof. Gillaspie of the Dow City schools attended the Sunday School convention.

Owing to the bad weather the attendance at the Sunday School convention was not large. The talks by Rev. DePree, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Rae, Mr. Stilson and Mrs. Evans were superior in every way. Prof. VanNess made a strong appeal on the temperance question. All were proud of the singing by the little ones. Much good is certain to come from the convention here.

KING EDWARD

NATIVE
PERCHERON HORSE.

KING EDWARD is jet black, foaled May 7, 1900, and weighs 1850 pounds. He is a very blocky and stylish actor, with a splendid bone and muscle and is admired by all. He is a sure foal getter and his colts show the very best kind.

King Edward was sired by Diomede, who is duly registered in the American Stud Book of America. No. 18548. Bred and owned by C. M. Jones of Plain City, Ohio. King Edward's grand sire was Sans Puer. Black, weighing 2100 pounds, and imported by M. T. Elwood of DeKalb, Ill., he is registered in the register of French Draft Horses, No. 3488. King Edward's dam is a dapple gray mare, weighing over 1600 pounds in work condition. She was sired by that fair famed horse, Sans Puer.

One of the best colt-getters of draft horses that ever traveled Crawford county.

KING EDWARD will make the season of 1909, beginning April 15 and ending August 1st, as follows:

Monday at minor Thompson's; Tuesday at Frank Larson's; Wednesday and Sunday at home, in Goodrich; Thursday at W. J. Bauman's; Friday and Saturday at Grill's Barn, Denison.

TERMS: $12 to insure a living colt 5 days old. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur. Parties selling, trading or otherwise disposing of their mares, or removing from the county, the insurance becomes due at once.
