ALL ARE WELCOME

Certainly no one can object if the owners of automobiles wish to give Omaha gentlemen a free ride about our pretty city. It is a town we are not ashamed of and we can point with pride to many things.

If the business men are to spend any money on entertainment however, the Review suggests that they spend it on their customers. Last year the merchants felt too poor to hold a Fourth of July celebration. Let us spend our money, if we have any to spend, on the people who buy from us, not on the people from whom we buy. This is not said in a spirit of unkindness but is a spirit of business sense.

The Review can see why the wholesalers of Omaha should "blow themselves" on the country merchants and why the country merchants should "blow themselves" on the farmers, but it sees no reason for the reversal of the process. When the farmers of East Boyer give a picnic in honor of the merchants of Denison we shall commence to see the point. All this does not signify a lack of hospitality and we surely shall not object if Mayor Rollins takes the advice of the Bulletin

IN THE DAYS OF THE DUEL

Reminder of Times When Gentlemen Met on "Field of Honor."

The years which separate us Americans from dueling are fewer than most of us realize. The late Prof. Shaler's Autobiography, in the Atlantic, has this amusing reminiscence:

"The first occasion was when a silly cousin of mine with too much wine in him challenged a well-known duelist, James Jackson, who as a general fell Perryville. Fortunately, I knew Jackson well as a boy of 13 may know a man of twice his years. I made my plea to him to give my kinsman an easy way out. At first he was obdurate, saying that he would have his life—he had, indeed, reason to be vexed—but in the end he told his second to 'fix it up' with me. My good, I may say indeed affectionate, relations with Jackson had begun a year before in a like absurd business in a ballroom. Frankfort. I had accidentally stepped into a mess made on the floor by the breaking of a bottle of champagne, which he as manager was trying to have cleaned up. With a sharp word, he pushed me aside; my new-found manly dignity was offended; so therefore, as usual in such cases, I asked him for his card. His answer was: 'I beg pardon, my dear sir, I took you for a boy.' We both saw the fun of the situation, and became friends. He was one of the glories of this world; he lifted my sense of what it was to be a man—the ancient type of gentleman."

Principle of Education.

At the foundation of the art of education must be the following principle, which those who make in advance the plans for such education must understand: It is necessary to bring up children so that their education shall be adaptable not to the present, but to the future, perhaps better, condition of the human race—that is, it should be adapted to the idea of mankind and to its entire designation. This principle is important in the highest degree. Usually parents bring up their children so that they shall be fit only for the present world, even though it is depraved. But they should educate their children better in order to create thus a future better state of mankind.—Kant.

MADE WELL AND STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Another Woman Cured.
 Christiana, Tenn.—"I suffered from the worst form of female trouble so that at times I thought I could not live, and my nerves were in a dreadful condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me, and made me feel like a different woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold to suffering women."—MRS. MARY WOOD, R.F.D. 3.
 If you belong to that countless army of women who suffer from some form of female ills, don't hesitate to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.
 For thirty years this famous remedy has been the standard for all forms of female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, fibroid tumors, ulceration, inflammation, irregularities, backache, and nervous prostration.
 If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Perhaps.
 Pearl—In the first chapter of this novel it states that the heroine has hazel eyes and in another chapter it alludes to her liquid eyes.
 Ruby—Liquid! Well, or—perhaps she has witch hazel eyes.
The Most Common Cause of Suffering.
 Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Ph. A. Schlumberger. 18-4

An Ode To Spring
 The open season for Spring poetry has been brief, but we have managed to garner in a few touching lines, as follows:
 For this is May-time, play-time,
 Hurricanes blow all the day-time.
 Robins twitter in the trees,
 Folks with influenza sneeze
 Grass is green, and now I see
 Children coasting o'er the sea.
 Bursting into bud the rose
 And the water pipes are froze
 For this is May-time, play-time
 Bet your boots its a gay-time.
 This May-time.

Whooping Cough.
 "In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane of Hartland, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his customers the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Goss, of Durand, Mich. For sale by Ph. A. Schlumberger. 18-4

Loved and Hated.

Europe loves our rich art patrons and loves them. It loves them for the money they have made and are willing to spend on old masters and new masters, even when they are spurious. It hates the rich American when he beats a rich European in competition for some highly desired art treasure. Then Americans become mere men who triumph by brute strength of the longer purse, and, worst than that, art consumers who raise art prices to unreasonable heights by their traditional desire to get what they want when they want it.
