McFadden, returned to Des Moines where she will continue her work as a nurse. Wm. Wilson, Dr. Waterhouse and Bert E. Weed have purchased new Oakland autos at Omaha. Things will be lively when the new machine arrives. Mr. John Simon went to South Dakota Monday to visit his son, Bert, and look after his farm interest there. he expects to be gone about two weeks. Jones and Kemp sold their new auto to the Welmers last week and Mr. Jones immediately journeyed to Sioux City with the purpose of purchasing another. Mr. Henry Tappendorf's foreman arrived Wednesday morning and immediately began active operations toward the erection of the new Catholic church. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Romans left Monday morning for Tacoma, Wash., where they will make a visit with Mrs. Roman's people. They expect to be gone two months. Gus Meseck went to O'Brien county Monday in search of a farm. None there, Gus, to equal your farm in Crawford. We predict you will search many a day to better yourself. Mrs. Chas. Weed returned Monday morning from her winter's sojourn in California. She stopped to visit a daughter in Wyoming leaving Mr. Weed to go on alone. He arrived in Charter Oak last Friday. A deal was made between Hans Arff and G. S. Waterhouse whereby Mr. Arff becomes the owner of Mr. Waterhouse's Rambler, leaving taking the machine as part payment for an eighty acre tract of land. August and Grover Jacobsen went to Sioux City to dispose of the result of their efforts in catching squirrels. They took with them 69, which they expect to sell to the bird store receiving about 40 cents a piece for them. Theo. Wyckoff had the misfortune to fall and break a rib last Friday. His daughter, Gusta, is sick with appendicitis and Bennie Wyckoff who cut his foot badly not long ago is just able to be around on crutches. They think they have a hospital all their own.

The time is now at hand when our people should better themselves and begin making arrangements for the proper observance of Memorial Day. Let our younger generation take the initiative and see to it that the day set aside upon which to do honor to our fallen heroes be made a memorial one. Don't ask the 70 and 80 year old boys to entertain you on this important occasion. You entertain them—They appreciate it.

Welsh moved his barn over into his lots near his new house one day last week. He is gradually getting things in shape around his new property and will certainly have a handsome place when all finished. While plowing Saturday, a son of Mr. E. B. Sherman was kicked in the face by a horse. He was found unconscious in the field. A doctor was called who said it was a close call for his life, but it is hoped it will not prove serious. The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Joe Brewster Thursday and notwithstanding the inclemency of weather there was a good turnout and an usual all enjoyed a good time as well as sewing up all carpet rags that Mrs. Brewster had ready, which is a good record. A very pleasant social event was left out from the Buck Grove local last week through an oversight. The good time in question was a gathering at Mrs. George Harveys by her neighbors who brought lots of good things to eat and visited a few hours with her. Mrs. Harvey and daughters expect to leave in a short time for their claim in South Dakota so the visit in question was a farewell party. All present had a good time and are sorry that they are to lose Mrs. Harvey and family so soon.

Advertisement for Calumet Baking Powder. 'The real test is in the baking.' Other Baking Powders may make broad claims, but when it comes to the production of real delicious biscuit, cakes and pastry CALUMET BAKING POWDER proves its real worth. This is because of its much greater leavening power and the strict purity of its ingredients. It costs only a trifle more than the cheap and big can brands and much less than the Trust Baking Powders. Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition Chicago, 1907.
