 Genuine Pumpnickle, the real German black bread, at the City Bakery, P. Freihage, Prop.
 It is an old saying "lightning never strikes twice in the same place," but the exception will have to prove the rule. The large house of Mr. Merrill not far from the standpipe has been struck twice practically in the same place. This time the stroke was on Saturday night when the dreaded visitor darted down the chimney distributing soot over the floor, and then struck the sink and down the pipe to the ground.
 Saturday Mrs. C. J. Kemming gave a large and very pleasant afternoon party. A game was played resulting in the second prize of the week going to Mrs. C. M. Jensen, lilies of the valley and gorgeous tulips were used for the decorations. Mrs. Jesse Rumsey of Cripple Creek, Mrs. Naeve's guest, was present. Miss Verne Stocking and Miss Alice Romans assisted Mrs. Kemming in serving very nice two course refreshments.
 Mrs. Dr. Wright and Mrs. Hugo Gebert had a large and very pretty reception on Wednesday. Pink and white, the real summer colors, were used in the flowers and carried out in the menu. The Misses Gebert and Edna Wright in white with pink sashes received the guests and in the dining room the Misses Wright, Mamie Nicholson and Gertrude Romans in similar attire served. The reception made most delightful what would have been otherwise a most undesirable day.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Evans of Missouri Valley announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillie, to Mr. Frank A Killion. The wedding took place on yesterday and the young people will be at home at Lesterville, S. D. The bride will be remembered by many Denison friends as a worker in the Omaha Ticket Co. plant several years ago. She was here with her sister, Miss Maggie, and the two were as faithful, as efficient and as self-reliant and capable as two girls could be. We know that Mr. Killion has won for his bride a charming young lady who has every qualification for the making of a happy home. The Review sends kindest remembrance and congratulations.
 Mr. Waldo Kahler gave a most interesting talk before the Current Event Club on Thursday, concerning the Legal Rights of Women. It was very lucidly presented and on a subject of such vital interest to all women. Mr. Kahler's talk was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Strahn gave a very graphic and able talk on the leading lawyers of the present day. Mrs. S. G. Wright and Mrs. Chas. Bollen's excellent account of their visit to the biennial convention of Womens' Clubs at Davenport closed the program. The ladies felt that their delegates had brought a great deal home to them and were much pleased. The next meeting of the Current Event Club will be for the purpose of electing officers and perfecting the plan upon which the club was founded of making it a department club.

 The drunkenness in Denison the past week has been something frightful. A good deal of it was home talent but the majority was of the imported variety.
 Among those to come from Boyer to participate in the Memorial Day exercises were F. A. Smith, John Kullberg and Miss Fleming. Mr. Smith is a Son of Veteran and a member of W. A. McHenry camp of Denison.
 Mr. M. McMahon is back from El Reno, Oklahoma this week and will remain for the summer. He tells us that the season has been cold and backward in Oklahoma, but that the warm weather has come at last and things are booming.
 The heavy rain of Saturday night was particularly destructive to fresh laid cement work. Mr. Redenbaugh had just completed an additional retaining wall and gutter in front of the Review block. The gutter was distributed very evenly all the way to the Illinois Central depot by the rush of water. A similar fate overtook the new gutter laid by Wm. Daniels in front of the O'Connor property on Sweet street. The damage there was fifty or sixty dollars. The moral is to wait until the June rains let up.

On the fact that we have specially stocked for the two spring events—marriage and graduation. For the former we have a remarkably wide choice in Sterling and Plated Silver for the table or decorative use; Cut Glass, rich and superb in design and appearance. Small gold favors for the best man, bridesmaid, etc.
 Our stocks are far too varied to be fully covered in this brief "ad"—would you call and inspect.
