

HOMER PARTRIDGE MARRIED

Denison Youth Wins Fair Bride in South Dakota City.

Pierre, S. D., Capital-Journal: At the home of her brother E. C. Bauman last night at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Hazel Bauman was united in marriage to Mr. Homer Partridge. The wedding was a very quiet affair only immediate friends and relatives being present.

The parlor where the ceremony was performed, was beautifully decorated in white carnations, smilax and white streamers of crepe paper. The dining room was all in red. After the marriage ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served Mrs. Bauman being assisted in serving by Mrs. Laird, a sister of the bride.

The bride was beautifully gowned in an exquisite robe of white French linen, elaborately trimmed in valen ciennesinsertion and lace, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Bauman has been a resident of this city for the last two years and has scores of friends who will rejoice in her happiness.

The groom is one of our progressive young business men, who thru his accommodating manner and strict application to business, has built up a fine patronage and has one of the most up-to-date men's furnishing establishments in the city. The young couple will go to house keeping at in the Mower house on Broadway, the home having been prepared for occupancy before their marriage.

The Capital-Journal extends congratulations and wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

The largest and finest line of fire-works in the city at The Racket Store.

Miss Nellie Orr, after having so successfully finished her high school course, leaves this week for Boise, Idaho, where her parents reside. Miss Orr was one of the brightest of the big class and many friends wish her continued success in her new home.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

Irving Torrey and Roy Probasco spent last Wednesday in Sioux City.

Mrs. Chas. Robertson spent between trains in Denison on Monday.

On last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chas. Robertson a farewell reception was given to Mrs. H. A. Tinker by the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Tinker was presented with a very pretty piece of cut glass. Dainty refreshments were served to the guests.

Hanging by a string in the window of the "Times" office are the remains of a boat which was discovered in a box with three others on the farm just south of town occupied by W. A. Wilson. In excavating for a cistern Mr. Wilson found the box about a foot below the surface. About sixteen years ago the farm was occupied by the Graham family, all of whom are now in the penitentiary. This family made robbing a business and several business houses of Charter Oak suffered on account of their thievery.

It is evident that they never had a chance to wear out the boots. Many a missing article was discovered on the place at the time that the Grahams lived there.

Carl Stuges left Wednesday morning for Hot Springs, S. D., where he has a good position for the vacation months.

Miss Jesse Atherton left for her home at Manning Saturday. She will teach in the Lake City schools next year.

Miss Frances MacKenzie went to Minneapolis where she will spend part of the summer vacation. Miss Carson will enjoy her vacation at her home in Odebolt.

D. D. Carlton left Friday night for Rippey in answer to a telegram announcing the illness of his wife.

Mrs. A. F. Barber had a very pleasant visit from her sister whose home is at Coleridge, Neb.

Clarence Herbison came from Battle Creek to visit at home over Sunday.

Miss Ida Cook of Mapleton visited her aunt, Mrs. Sam Lyon, of Charter Oak last week.

Miss Orpha Heiland came from Panora to attend the commencement last week. She was the guest of Mrs. C. H. Stark.

Miss Pearl Wilson is visiting friends and relatives in Charter Oak. She came in time to attend the commencement exercises.

Arleme and Harold Johnson of Mason City are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weed, and other relatives in the Oak.

Miss Anna Thomsen came from her work at Council Bluffs to see her sister, Else, graduate.

Our agent, Bert Wright, is enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. Wright, of Sioux City.

Clark Marshall, Jr., is at home after his year of work in the State Agricultural College.

Very few trains were running Saturday on account of the wreck on the other side of Kenwood and many passengers were disappointed. Miss Florence Drake took a team and drove to Denison, where she boarded the train to her home at Brooklyn, Iowa. Miss Mabel Riedesel came as far as Arion from Cedar Falls, where she has spent the year at the Iowa State Teachers' College and was met by her father with a team.

Miss Ethel Sturzes came from Vermillion Saturday night to spend the summer with her parents.

Pratt Coffman of Ute was a business visitor in the Oak last Saturday. Dr. McWilliams was a Mapleton caller Saturday.

John Happe spent over Sunday at Denison under his own roof-tree.

Kate Healy, Chas. Smith and Miss Anna Beck came down from Ute Thursday evening for a visit with friends.

H. A. Tinker made a business trip to Dakota last week which delayed his moving his family to Dunlap. They expect to go this week if nothing prevents.

Miss Emma Rabe visited her friends at Charter Oak during commencement time. She formerly was a pupil in the high school here.

Mrs. A. C. Leeper is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. I. F. Scroggins, of Nebraska.

Geo. Schleis, Jr., spent a few days last week visiting his parents in the Oak. He returned to his work at Sioux City on Tuesday.

I. Waddington and Mrs. Carroll were married at the Catholic parsonage by Rev. Schenkelberg last Tuesday morning. They went to Sioux City on their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Loyd, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. T. C. Dubois, went to Ute to visit other relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. G. Pierce and daughter, Bertha, who have been visiting the former's brothers, John and A. C. Grant, of Charter Oak, returned Wednesday to their home in Fort Dodge.

The Southern Iowa District of the Missouri Synod will meet in convention at Charter Oak beginning June 8th and will last two days. The district is composed of about sixty members, forty of whom are expected to be in attendance. The service Wednesday evening will be conducted by A. D. Greif, president of the Iowa Synod. Presiding Elder Dornseif will administer the Lord's Supper to the members.

J. P. Thompson visited Charter Oak last week and while here engaged Miss Hazel Kevan to teach in the Smithland schools. Mr. Thompson has been president of the board for four years.

Rev. E. S. Johnson, superintendent of the Ida Grove District, preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning and held quarterly conference Monday morning.

Mrs. Fred Kortmann is reported to be seriously ill.

Paddy Copps returned Saturday evening from Spencer, Neb., where he had spent the winter with his sons, Dan and Patsy.

Chas. Robertson was a passenger to Des Moines Monday morning.

Miss Marie entertained her cousins, the Misses Crates, over Sunday.

The commencement exercises of the Charter Oak High School were held on Thursday and Friday evenings. On Thursday evening the address of welcome was given by Miss Amalia Adams. This was followed by an instrumental duet by Misses Mae Rogers and Else Thomsen. The girls of the third and fourth grades sang the Song of the Cuban Girls and made a pleasing picture in their Cuban hats and sashes. Miss Stella Arff and Miss Beulah Crone sang a very pretty duet.

The class play entitled, "His Model Wife," required a cast of men characters and the young people did very well. On Friday evening the commencement address was given by Lucian Edgar Follansbee and was heard by an appreciative audience.

DELOIT ITEMS.

Mrs. Ray Winans and sister, Miss Bowman, were at Deloit Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Williams went to Odebolt last Friday to stay a few days at the home of her grandson, Mattie Brogan.

Mrs. A. N. Galland and daughters and Miss Daisy Worley were passengers to Denison last Tuesday afternoon.

John Worley came down from Sac City Monday evening to see his grandfather, who is very ill and to visit his parents, returning the day following.

"Uncle Dave McKim" who is now 87 years of age, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Winans, at present.

Mrs. Chas. Campbell spent a few hours in Denison Tuesday last week.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. James McKim again last Wednesday.

On Tuesday morning S. W. Streeter joined the G. A. R. men from Denison at Deloit and went to Ft. Dodge to attend the encampment.

As Guy Nixon, mother and sister were returning from Denison Monday last week the team ran away down by the I. C. depot at Denison and broke up the buggy. The family escaped very luckily unhurt.

The families of C. Sjives, T. Hutchinson, J. Myers and J. Dewitt met at the home of Wm. Petty, their father, and grandfather and helped him celebrate his birthday Sunday. Leslie Hunt of Denison spent a few days with Leslie Childress this week.

Mrs. E. A. McKim started Thursday of last week to Kansas City, Mo., where she will attend the graduation exercises of her granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth McKim, daughter of John McKim. She stopped at Denison on the way, where she was joined by her grandson, Bruce McKim, who is returning home from school to be present at his sister's graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson were at Denison Saturday afternoon.

Elder C. J. Hunt returned home from his mission field Monday.

Mrs. Kessler purchased a horse and new buggy and harness last week.

The L. D. S. Sunday School and Religio Convention will be held here Friday and the Quarterly Conference Saturday and Sunday. Elder's Paul Hansen and J. W. Wright are among those expected to be present. All invited.

Mrs. R. B. Johnston accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. E. Brogden went to Lake City Saturday to visit at her son's, George Johnson home, who was recently married. They returned home Monday afternoon.

ARION ITEMS.

Miss Lillie Weiss who has been sewing at Mrs. Jas. Tranter's, is sewing at Mrs. Dan Wingrove's this week.

Ed. Downs of Overton, Neb., is visiting his brothers, Hudson and Frank Downs.

Geo. Sciford has been quite sick, but is improving.

Mrs. Mary Davie and Mrs. Laura Burnett are here to stay with their father, who is very sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. F. Stilson.

Mrs. Chas. Horn spent last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Gibson.

L. C. Butler returned from a trip to Crofton, Neb., last Saturday accompanied by Dr. Talcott's little son, Horace. He stopped at Concord to see Dr. Evans and reports that the doctor is feeling better.

Rev. Mr. Walsh preached two excellent sermons last Sunday morning and evening. Theme of morning sermon, "The Crucifixion," of the evening, "The Christian Life."

Earl Kepford was taken sick and went home Saturday for a rest.

Chas. Horn made a short trip to Colorado, returning Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Walsh, our new minister, with his family came here last Thursday from Brookings, S. D., and are occupying the house owned by Mrs. Doidge in the east part of town.

Vincent Hockett of Corning, a former resident of Buck Grove, is visiting Arion and Buck Grove relatives and friends.

Mr. Barsby has failed steadily for several days and is very low.

Mrs. Margaret Talcott, her daughter, Gertrude, and niece, Opal McColl, were visitors at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kelly last Sunday.

Olive Talcott visited friends in Council Bluffs last week, returning Saturday.

The Friday Club met with Mrs. Sam Fox last week and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon at her beautiful home. An elegant lunch was served.

Mrs. Lewis and children of Chicago and Mrs. Pete Eggers of Denison were visitors at the Wm. Marr home last week.

Isaac Howorth was in town a short time last Thursday.

Quite a number from this place went to Denison last Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Jack Ahart shipped three cars of cattle to Omaha last week.

Mrs. Lucinda Downs made a short visit to see her son, Mr. Hudson Downs, of this place, going from here to Overton, Neb., to visit her children at that place.

Mrs. Schwarz and little Martha Ferne and Dorothy Butler were in Denison Tuesday, having dental work done.

F. Heilman of Portland, Ore., is visiting his sister, Mrs. McKeeman.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howlett were very sick last week. Little Alva died last Saturday and the sympathy of all is extended to the family.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Miss Lu Verne Moffit is the proud possessor of a new bicycle, which arrived last Tuesday as a birthday present. Cycling is now all the rage and the two wheel machines are quite numerous.

Letters from Mrs. George Harvey from Consta state that they arrived safely at their destination. They are living in a shack belonging to an uncle whose claim is near theirs until their house is finished, which will be some time this week if it don't rain too much.

Marie, of Pender, Neb., are visiting Tom Noonan and family. Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Noonan are sisters.

Mrs. Mary Neilson and daughter, Mary, visited relatives in Irwin for several days last week. They returned home Saturday.

Roy Moffit and sister, Verne, drove to Denison Friday evening to visit their sister, Lura, at the college.

Vinton Hockett of Corning, Iowa, is visiting Mrs. Marion Newman and daughter. Vinton looks quite natural and thinks our town has improved very much indeed, since he was last here ten years ago. His little daughter came with him.

Mayor Finnigan and family attended the funeral of a relative at Manilla Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Neighbor of South Dakota visited his cousin, Mrs. Newman, last week.

Word has reached here that Rev. Father Coffey of Manilla has resigned his pastorate and it is uncertain when a new priest will be appointed. Meanwhile there will be no services in the Catholic church at Buck Grove until further notice.

John Griffin and daughter, Mollie, went to Manilla Sunday evening to be on hand to attend the funeral of John McMahon at that place Monday.

James Slattery, who arrived home Saturday is lying critically ill at his parent's home southwest of here.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Meara and Leo spent Sunday with relatives at Dow City.

Mr. Welsh has had a lot of filling in done around his new house. Has sodded the terrace and planted the rest to blue grass and clover. He will have a very pretty place when all is finished.

Carl Beerman has erected a fine new hog house on his farm north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beutel, Mr. and Mrs. William Moffitt attended the baccalaureate sermon in Denison Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lute Peterson were county seat visitors Saturday.

Mrs. W. L. Morton was a Sioux City visitor Friday.

Mat Arnold shipped a car of cattle from here Saturday evening and he and his son went with them to Chicago. Our little town is quite a shipping point.

DOW CITY ITEMS

Rita Odell returned home Saturday from Cedar Falls.

Mrs. Jos. McColl went to Des Moines Friday.

A party of young folks from Denison visited our park Sunday.

Edna Fritz went to Denison Saturday, then out to the John Fritz home in the country for a week's visit.

Some boys were caught pilfering in the school house last week.

Miss Esther Nelson of Shickley, Neb., was an over Sunday visitor with her cousins, Henry and Sears Nelson.

Mrs. W. E. Fisher visited relatives at Ute last week.

The Queen Esther society was entertained at the Goddard home Friday afternoon.

The Woman's Home Missionary society met Friday evening on the church lawn. Lunch was served which added quite a sum to their treasury.

The doors of the M. E. church have been changed to swing out instead of in.

D. Daughenbaugh has sold his residence to John Ahart and expects to move to Des Moines soon.

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Howlett died Sunday morning. It is thought it was poisoned by eating candy. Funeral Monday afternoon at the M. E. church and the little one laid to rest in the Dow City cemetery. The family have the sympathy of all in their great sorrow.

Miss Edna Morrison of Indianola arrived in town Tuesday afternoon to visit friends.

SCHLESWIG ITEMS.

Chris Hoffer called at Ricketts Sunday.

Geo. Hooten and daughter, Laura, visited with Mrs. Hooten, who is very ill at the hospital in Carroll over Sunday.

The Charter Oaks crossed bats with the home team Sunday, score 3 to 3. The game was called off before it was finished on account of the rain.

The annual promotion exercises of the Schleswig high school will be held at the opera house Friday evening, June 11.

Pauline Schroeder announced her 21st birthday last week Tuesday.

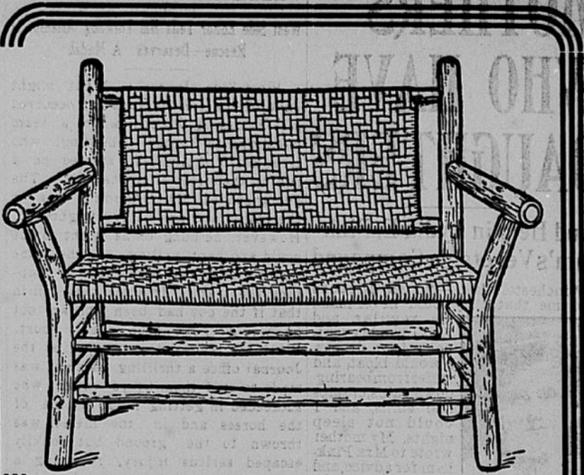

Mrs. Dr. Schultz and son Sherry were on the sick list this week. But are now well.

Grandma Schroeder, who has been very ill for the part week, was able to sit up a brief period Sunday. She is now gaining her usual good health.

Alma Schroeder went with her uncle, Fred Kastner, to Ida Grove Sunday, where she boarded the train for Holstein to visit relatives.

The Woodmen held their memorial services Sunday at the Morgan cemetery.

The new ball park is located across the road west of the John Ehler residence.

Old Hickory Furniture!

Put it on your lawn or porch TODAY. Learn NOW how easy, comfortable and homelike "OLD HICKORY" FURNITURE is. There's a suggestion of the woods, a simple touch of nature in the smooth unpainted bark on Old Hickory Furniture

All steel frame, one motion folding go-cart, very similar to the one shown in cut. Without hood, only

$5.00

Hammocks Hammocks

We still have a very complete stock of hammocks, and the large number of sales that we have enjoyed the past week goes to show that our prices are right.

Bartcher & Ewall

124 E. Broadway Denison, Iowa

The Best Place to Buy ... AT ...

Good Clothing Cheap Prices

The Denison Clothing Co.
J. SOENCKSEN, Proprietor
Corner Broadway and Main Streets ... Denison, Iowa

DON'T!

Why go to Texas and the far west for land snaps when you more than match the same in "Good Old Iowa?"

READ Stock men remember: Woodbury is Iowa's banner corn county, and we can furnish you improved land for $37.50 per acre up. Tell us your wants, inspect our list, no trouble to show lands.

YOURS FOR BUSINESS
Sioux Valley Land Agency, Correctionville, Iowa