 The alumni of the Charter Oak High School held their annual banquet and class initiation last Friday night. The supper was furnished by P. H. Bahnsen and was given in the city hall which was prettily decorated for the occasion.
 On last Friday afternoon Miss Lyon died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. McWilliams. It was known for some time that Miss Lyon would never recover and the end came quickly and without the months of suffering that usually attend that dread disease-- cancer. After she learned that there was no help for her, she returned to her old home in Illinois to make a last settlement of all business affairs and came again to Charter Oak to await patiently the call to her heavenly home. She prayed that it might not be long and her prayer was answered. She was confined to her bed only two weeks. Miss Lyon was not very well known in Charter Oak, but the few who did become acquainted with her loved and respected her. Short services were held at the residence Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. Barkley and the remains accompanied by Mrs. McWilliams were sent to Morrison, Ill., where interment was made beside the father and mother. Julia E. Lyon was born at Mt. Pleasant, Ill., March 9, 1857. She leaves two brothers and two sisters to mourn her loss, all of whom, excepting Mrs. J. J. McWilliams, live in Illinois. This is the third time within the last two years that Mrs. McWilliams has been called upon to part with a dear one and her friends sympathize with her in her trouble.

 Mrs. Susie Mackey Mitchell came up from Arion to visit relatives in Charter Oak. When she returns to the West she and her husband will move to Vancouver, B. C.
 Chas. Drake returned from Morningside College Sunday evening.
 Mrs. H. A. Tinker and children went to Ute the first of last week to make a farewell visit with her parents before settling in the new home at Dunlap.
 Chris Kortmann and wife of Madison, Neb., were here in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Fred Kortmann. They returned home on Monday.
 Mabel Kiedesel returned to her work at the Iowa State Teachers' College on Monday. Miss Mabel graduates from a course in kindergarten at the end of the summer term.
 Mrs. Chas. Robertson, Miss Jennie Robertson and their niece, Miss Lillian McWilliams, left for Geddes, S. D., Thursday morning for a visit among relatives.
 Miss Nell McGrath, who has been very sick for the past few days, is very much better.
 Summoned by a telegram Monday morning announcing the death of their father, G. S. and D. A. Waterhouse left on the evening train for Farley, Iowa, to attend the funeral.
 Miss Sadie Shumaker, who has been keeping house for the Wyckoff since the death of her sister, Mrs. Wyckoff, returned to her home Monday evening in Coffeyville, Kansas.
 Last Tuesday, June 8th, Charter Oak and vicinity were shocked by the death of Mrs. Fred Kortmann. The deceased had been sick but a few days and death caused by peritonitis and heart failure came Tuesday afternoon at her home on Main street. Minnie Ackelbein was born in Chicago March 4, 1879. When she was a small child her parents moved to Crawford county, where she grew to womanhood. On February 25, 1900, she was married to Fred Kortmann and since then has lived in Charter Oak where her husband is engaged in the harness business. Mrs. Kortmann was a friendly little woman and well liked by every one. She leaves many friends who will sadly miss her. Besides the husband who is grief stricken at her loss she leaves a mother, one brother and four sisters. Her father, August Ackelbein, has been dead about eight years and the mother makes her home with her son, Wm. Ackelbein. The sisters are Mrs. Fred Bockelmann of Berne, Mrs. Dan Nemitz of Ricketts, Mrs. Chris Kemming of Hanover and Miss Emma Ackelbein who is at home. The funeral services were held Friday morning in the Lutheran church and conducted by Rev. Amstein. Services were held also in the Hanover church and the remains laid at rest in the Hanover cemetery.
