

Don't Delay

But have the children photographed today at

Fergusons

Eat at the Oxford. 6tf
Mrs. Tamm spent Sunday at Wall Lake.

Miss Amanda Vonahnen is visiting at her home in Ute.

Arch Laird went to Audubon on Monday on business.

Dr. J. K. Sewell of Omaha was a Sunday visitor at home.

Come to The Racket Store when in need of sewing machine needles.

Lensen Moeller of Omaha was a welcome over Sunday visitor in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Sibbert enjoyed a brief vacation at Lake View this week.

Mrs. Claud Raynor of Carroll visited her father, Mr. P. Hillebrand, on Sunday.

Miss Lillian Raine spent Friday in West Side with her friend, Miss Anderson.

Dr. Richards and Mr. Bert Colver of Dunlap spent Sunday with Denison friends.

Mrs. Chas. Langmade of Council Bluffs has been visiting at the M. Molony home.

Pat Henry returned from his work at Logan for a Sunday visit with the folks at home.

Mr. Chas. Tabor and Miss Flora Ames are enjoying the hot spell at Lake Okoboti.

Mrs. W. R. Kirkup and Miss Florence are expected home from Chicago on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Henry Seemann of Sioux City was a charming guest at the L. Seemann home last week.

The thing you have merely HOPED TO BUY may be within your reach today. Look it up in the ads.

Give us a trial at your work and if you are not satisfied it will cost you nothing. The Denison Pantorium.

To double your volume of business begin by doubling the volume of your advertising. It's a pretty sure method.

L. Cornwell and C. J. Kemming were in Charter Oak this week checking up the bank upon the installation of Mr. Barber as cashier.

Sometimes the bargain merchant fails to mention in his ad. is the particular thing that would have brought scores of people to his store that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle returned on Friday from a delightful commencement visit at Iowa City. Mr. Kuehnle is one of the most devoted alumni and he rarely misses the big event of the University year.

John Ainsworth, philosopher and poet, is pushing the pencil for the Bulletin this summer and will stay on the job until it is time to give the young idea further instruction in markmanship. John will improve the Bulletin.

True Bros. up at Deloit are said to be building up a great business in their department store. They are now putting in a line of furniture and they seem bent on reviving the days when the Deloit Store was one of the prominent institutions of the county.

Cut prices on all millinery goods at Bamfords.

Mrs. B. F. Philbrook was a Dunlap visitor last week.

Chas. Christensen was in Omaha last week on business.

Mrs. Olivette Carr visited Dow City friends last Wednesday.

The largest and cheapest line of fireworks in the county at The Racket Store.

Mrs. John Champion and son, Donald, of Vail were Denison visitors on Saturday.

Me! Jones of Charter Oak made Denison friends, and they are many, a call last week.

Dr. Conn of Ida Grove was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. M. Houlihan, Sr.

Mr. Ed. Winsett of Chicago was in Denison on Sunday, the guest of Miss Fanebon Bamford.

Do you find theatre a gamble? An Edison phonograph always makes a hit. The Racket Store.

Geo. Stevens and Robert Lynch of Boone were between trains guests at the Ferrill home this week.

House for Rent. Five rooms, cistern, city water. Inquire of Mrs. Ewall, 22 Wall Street. 2 tf.

John P. Nestlebusch, the hustling salt salesman of Deloit called upon Denison friends last week.

Do the children keep you at home? An Edison phonograph makes going out a hardship. The Racket Store.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and children are planning to spend the week at Wall Lake. She will give her Sunday School class an outing.

Best high grade kerosene for incubators and lamps—also gasoline delivered promptly. New phone at store No. 474. J. G. Wygant.

Mrs. Chas. K. Meyers has received word that her brother, Mr. James Shillington, is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of his son at Arkona, Ontario.

His many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. A. F. Barber has been elected Cashier of the Farmers' State Bank of Charter Oak to succeed Mr. H. A. Tinker, who goes to Dunlap. We are pleased to know that Mr. Barber, who is a fine business man, is to remain in the county.

Marie Rielly, who has been teaching near Kiron was a charming Denison caller on Monday. After the Fourth she leaves for Sioux Falls, S. D., for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Rielly. She informs us that she will not teach next year, and it is our guess that Cupid is at the bottom of the affair. If not, he is a very blind little god indeed.

Miss Jennie Rae of Arion has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. S. J. Woodruff. Miss Rae has just graduated with high credit at North Western University, Chicago. This is one of the leading colleges of the Methodist church, and is a strong college. During vacation Miss Rae will teach bible and industrial work in the slums of Chicago, and at the opening of the school year goes to a position in the Red Oak high schools.

Della Schwartzbach is on the sick list.

Frank Woolston was a Denisonite Tuesday.

Chas. Kemming tells us that Arion will celebrate.

Mrs. P. D. McMahon spent Saturday in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. D. O. Johnson has returned from an Omaha visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Homan were Denison callers Friday.

Mrs. Will Seeman of Dow City spent Saturday in Denison.

Miss Bertha Gary of West Side visited in Denison Tuesday.

Chas. Helsley left Tuesday for a visit with Boone friends.

Clara Scriver and Alice Romans are Omaha visitors to-day.

Mrs. Carl Schelm returned Monday from a visit to Ainsworth, Neb.

I. O. Orem went to Marshalltown Tuesday on a business mission.

Miss Edna Stephens left Tuesday for a few weeks' visit in Colorado Springs.

Miss Mamie Hutchinson is an Illinois visitor at the Hays home.

Mrs. A. N. Jordan of Dunlap visited at the Raine home this week.

The best place to buy shirt waists and the latest hosiery is at Bamfords.

Mrs. A. Linman and Miss Della of Kiron, were Denison shoppers Tuesday.

Miss Mary Jane McCarthy returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with Davenport relatives.

Gene Boylan of Hubbard, Iowa, is in Denison visiting his brother, A. F. He may remain in Denison.

Have you heard the latest song success? Its among the new Edison records at The Racket Store.

Chas. Roan of Vail was a genial Review visitor on Thursday. Always glad to see the smiling Charlie.

Genuine Pumpernickle, the real German black bread, at the City Bakery, P. Freihage, Prop.

Have you children? Nothing holds their attention longer than an Edison phonograph. The Racket Store.

On account of the celebration on Monday The Review will be published on Thursday, July 8th, instead of Wednesday, July 7th.

The merchants tell you, in today's ads, what they consider the most important things you ought to know, just now, about their stores.

Raymond Conner left on Thursday for a ten days' visit at his old "frat" house at Mount Vernon. The boys are planning a good time and they will doubtless have it.

It is reported that Clarence Erickson, who is now a telegraph operator for the Nickel Plate at Leipsig, Ohio, was married on Saturday last. May he and his bride live long and prosper.

The Denison Fire laddies are in Schleswig today taking part in the great tournament. With the practice they had at Scranton they should be in good shape to win some of the money. Good weather will mean a big crowd at Schleswig.

Lamborn's Carnation Day was a great success. Leslie Gulick and Rollo Terry assisted at the soda fountain. Miss Pearl Wilson dispensed to posies and the whole store was busy from morning until night. Alex Aebischer was the lucky recipient of a box of cigars and Lucy Drake received the box of candy given to the lucky lady.

J. D. Sievers and family left Los Angeles on June 15th. They are on their way for a visit of several weeks in Denison, but will visit in Portland and Seattle and take in the fair before coming east. They expect to reach Denison about July 1st. It is rumored that Mr. Sievers has sold his California interests and that he may decide to make Denison his home and engage in the banking business.

Chas. K. Meyers left on Friday night for Salida, Col., and Salt Lake City. He will be gone for several weeks in search of health and rest. Mr. Meyers has worked hard in the Review office the last two years, taking upon himself any work that has been needed and doing more than his health permitted. It is our hope that two or three weeks in the mountains, away from work or worry, will restore him completely to his accustomed health.

Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle visited Glidden friends last week.

James Schlumberger came down from Omaha for an over Sunday visit.

Hats, Hats, Hats. Great bargains in hats at Bamford's.

Miss Ethel Gulick is expected home the first of next week.

G. L. Caswell and family are enjoying an outing this week.

Do you care for dancing? The Edison phonograph is a whole orchestra. For sale at The Racket Store.

Owing to lack of space we are obliged to omit interesting letters from Dow City and Ricketts.

Private lessons in German, French and Drawing given by H. Meinke. Leave word at Review office. 22-3

Everyone can have a phonograph now. $22 will buy you a good one. The Racket Store.

The Misses Sarachon go to Logan tomorrow to attend the funeral of the father of Dr. A. G. Norman.

Geo. McHenry and Geo. Seemann go to Okoboji the last of the week to open up the McHenry cottage for the summer.

Mrs. Sears McHenry entertained Penelope yesterday afternoon. It was the last meeting of the year and one of the most delightful ones.

Miss Gusta Danielson left on Thursday for a summer visit with her brother in Oslo, Minn. We trust she will have a delightful vacation.

A postal received from Chas. K. Meyers from Boulder, Colorado, tells of a delightful trip and that he is gaining in health every day.

W. W. Cushman has rented the Tamm cottage at Wall Lake for the month of July and the entire family will rusticate during the dog days.

J. G. Fittion of Omaha, spent Tuesday night in Denison. He was en route from Chicago to Omaha with his big six cylinder Stevens-Duryea car.

The July records will be on sale tomorrow. Come in and hear them, they are fine. The Racket Store.

Mr. Geo. Naeve and family left last night for their long summer trip through Canada to the coast, with a stay at beautiful Lake Chelan.

Rev. Lagerquist of Kiron preached in Omaha last Sunday. He was a Denison caller on Monday, being an interested spectator at the proceedings in connection with the mulet petition.

Born on Wednesday, June 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Harthun a daughter. The mother is doing finely and Hugo is the happiest printer have seen for a long time.

Ray Town of Hazelton, N. D., was a brief Denison visitor on Friday having stopped here after a commencement visit at Iowa City. He is doing nicely in his new home and is fulfilling the promise of success which his work as a student gave.

Will Fritz, well remembered in Denison as a former postoffice clerk, called on Denison friends last Thursday. He is still with a large electrical concern at Madison, Wis., but his work now takes him to various cities. He is looking well and prosperous, and says handling electricity beats handling the mails.

The total eclipse scheduled for Thursday evening was a distinct disappointment and those who had purchased reserved seats are demanding their money back. There was a lack of totality which smacked of misrepresentation and the show did not live up to advertisements. Seen through a glass darkly it looked like a lemon pie with a bite gone.

Willie Hoppe, the billiard champion, who has been the sensation of the billiard world for the past four years, has been secured by Paul & Mills the enterprising proprietors of the Magnet Billiard Parlor to play here on Wednesday, June 30th, in the evening at 8 o'clock with the best local expert that can be secured. After the game he will give an exhibition of his wonderful fancy shots as he plays them in vaudeville.

F. H. Randall and his sister, Miss Addie, returned on Thursday evening from Iowa City. Frank left on Saturday for Spokane where he will be joined by Mr. B. E. Brick with whom Mr. Randall has formed a law partnership. The young men will hang out their shingle either in Spokane or some other Washington city. Mr. Randall is a splendid young man of marked ability and high character. He will undoubtedly make a success and the best wishes of many Denison friends go with him.

Henry Maynard and Henry Schroeder were in Denison Thursday and they had a good time swapping yarns about the days not long past, when they were members of the board of supervisors. Mr. Schroeder spoke of the work of the legislature and he did not seem to have a very high opinion of that body's enactments. He said most of the time was spent in undoing the good laws passed at prior sessions. Mr. Maynard tells us that his brother, James Maynard, is improving slowly and is now able to be about.

Whether you wish a 25c stick pin or $50 watch

repaired, you will be sure of having them done with painstaking and care if you leave the work with us.

Perhaps you are thinking of buying a watch? That being the case you should call and examine our line of gold watches at $12---ladies' or gents'.

E. C. Chamberlin The Jeweler

Mr. E. H. Fralick of Gallion, Ohio, is visiting at the home of Mrs. H. S. Gulick.

Warren Romans spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Liscomb at Dunlap.

Miss Helen Garber left on Saturday for a visit of a few days with friends at Sioux City.

CHAUTAUQUA MATS. Just the thing to use on the porch at Barcher & Ewall's, Iowa Phone 175 C. C. Phone 112

The Knights of Pythias held their annual memorial services on Sunday afternoon. The graves of the Knights were beautifully decorated with flowers and the colors of the order.

Hon. C. G. Saunders of Council Bluffs delivered an eloquent oration

Prof. C. E. Humphrey is in Iowa City attending the summer term of the state university.

Miss Abbie McHenry is expected today.

Doris Jensen is steadily improving in health and strength.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Maynard returned to Boston on Monday evening.

Miss Emma Raine spent Friday in West Side, the guest of the Misses Anderson.

Mr. Harry Senseney leaves this week for a summer visit in Seattle and California.

Mrs. Nichols of Omaha, nee Cecil Matthews, is the happy mother of a little daughter born Monday, June 20th.

Mr. Ira J. Wilson, wife and daughter arrived in Denison on Sunday to remain until after the Wilson family reunion. Mr. Wilson is a prosperous farmer and real estate dealer in Dickinson, North Dakota.

4th of July CELEBRATION

Under the Auspices of

The German Brotherhood Monday, July 5th At Brotherhood Park, Denison, Iowa

All Are Invited to Attend.

Program for the Day:

Band Concert on Streets of Denison--Starting at 10 A. M. Speaking at the Park in English and German at 1 P. M. Reading of Declaration of Independence. Singing of Patriotic Songs by a chorus of young people.

Sports and Races

100 yard foot race ..... free for all
50 yard foot race ..... for boys 14 and under
50 yard foot race ..... for boys 10 and under
Sack Race for boys .....
Wheelbarrow Race .....
Ladies Spoon Race ..... Ladies foot race
Foot Race ..... for girls 14 and under
Foot Race ..... for girls 10 and under
Fat Man's Race ..... 210 pounds and over

Ring Catching Pole Climbing, Target Shooting for Prizes. Music all Day. $50 Fireworks Display. $50 in Prizes.

Grand Ball in the Evening

Summer Jewelry

And why "Summer Jewelry?" Because there possibly is a certain light airiness of effect in some kinds of Jewelry that renders it particularly wearable and appropriate for summer gowns.

The fresh crisp muslins, the cool swishy lace frocks that help to make the summer girl the charming creature that she is, must have their own little accessories--Lace pins, chains, and so on. We have a fascinating array of Pretty, Pretty New Things.

J. V. BARBORKA

Sign of the Big Clock Jeweler and Optician

Step to the Phone

and tell us your Drug Store needs and we will send a messenger with the goods. Watch how quickly they will be delivered. Shopping over our Phone you will find a great convenience especially on a stormy day or when you are in a great hurry.

PH. A. SCHLUMBERGER
Pharmacist