WEST SIDE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Glascock of Lake View are visiting at the home of their son, F. E. Glascock, this week. The rain, which was almost a cloud-burst last Sunday evening was the worst in the history of the town of West Side according to the memories of the old residents. Mud and water covered the depot floor; a mile and a half of track was washed out just west of town, the sidewalk from the depot to the resident portion in the north part of town was carried away. Several hundred dollars worth of wheat at the mill was ruined. A wagon bridge 1 1/2 miles east of town was carried into town and was not broken apart in any place. In a few of the low localities cellars were filled with water and many chickens lost their lives in the flood. Miss Charlotte Richter of Manning and Mr. Ernest Richter of Ralston, Iowa, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Richter, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freed of Denison are visiting at the John Mumm home this week. Mrs. Bert Marks and little son of Kansas City, Mo., arrived Monday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Buton, Sr. Mrs. F. D. McIlravey and little son of Sioux City are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. Campbell. On account of the heavy rains the races which were to have taken place July 5 and 6 had to be postponed. Fred C. Bock arrived here last week from Texas, where he has been looking after land interests there. The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gary was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, June 30, when their daughter, Miss Beatrice Gary, was married to Mr. J. M. McLearn of Rifle, Colorado. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Cathcart in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The impressive ring ceremony being used. Promptly at 5 o'clock Mrs. Genevieve Spottswood, presiding at the piano, began the wedding march and the wedding party descended the stairs taking their station in the bay window of the beautifully decorated parlor. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Maylou Richards of Charter Oak, as bridesmaid and F. J. Gary, Jr., best man. The bride was beautifully attired in a white lace princess dress over white and carried a bouquet of lillies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore cream chiffon over cream silk and carried cream roses. The groom wore conventional black. Following the ceremony and congratulations the guests were seated on the lawn, where a three course luncheon was served. The house was beautifully decorated in asparagus, carnations, also ferns and palms adorned the rooms. The many elegant wedding gifts of cut glass, silver and linen were displayed in the second parlor and helped to show in what high esteem the young couple were held by their many friends. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gary and was born and raised in West Side and has made this her home with the exception of her school days at Morningside and a year spent in Rifle, Colorado. She is a graduate in music and elocution, and was always a help in the social and religious circles here. The groom, though a stranger here, is a man of pleasing personality. He is bookkeeper in a large department store in Rifle. Mr. and Mrs. McLearn left here Thursday evening for a short wedding trip to Minneapolis, returning Monday evening. They will leave for their future home in Rifle, Col., this week. The best wishes of a host of friends will follow the young couple to their new home. The out of town guests at the Gary-McLearn wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McGowan, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Marriott, Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Emmett, Des Moines; Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Meyerheim, Nevada; Miss Maylou Richards, Charter Oak; Miss Gean Garretson and C. J. Wescott, Sioux City. Mrs. R. J. Hill and children of Boone came Saturday for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Stoffers. We are called upon this week to announce the death of Mrs. Henry Hagge, which occurred at her home in West Side July 1, 1909. Mrs. Hagge has been in poor health for many years and has been confined to her bed for about eight weeks, quietly passing away last Thursday. Sophia Magdalena Hagge nee Grage was born June 21, 1842, at Ellsford near Reutzburg, Schleswig, Holstein, being 67 years and 10 days of age at the time of her death. She came to America in 1868, she lived in Davenport, where she was married to Henry Hagge March 8, 1868. They moved to West Side, March 10, 1869, and resided on a farm six miles south of here for 35 years. In 1904 they moved to town and have lived here since. Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hagge, one dying in infancy. Those remaining are: John, Henry, Julius, Christina Strathman, Annie Schelldorf, Emma Frahm, Emilie Ort and Dora Frahm. Besides her husband and children she leaves to mourn her death, two brothers, George and Claus Grage, and one sister, Anna Brosch, and twenty-three grandchildren. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the German Evangelical church, Rev. Karl Fauth, officiating. Burial at Hayes township cemetery. The sorrowing relatives have the sincere sympathy of their many friends.

willing to let them run and Mapleton could have done like wise. The Denison boys paid out over $50 for expenses to enter the races, all for nothing, when they had assurance that everything was all right. This was very much regretted by many—and especially Schleswig—as we were mostly responsible for their re-entering the association. No doubt Denison would have captured some of the prizes, but we hope to see them up and coming next year. They have the material and might make the best go some.

LITTLE COUPLINGS

Schleswig Leader: Mapleton filed a protest against the Denison running team, on the grounds that their roster had not been filed fifteen days before the tournament. According to association rules the protest stood. However, the other running teams were
