

The Whole Family

Is interested in the baby's picture.
Have it taken today, at

Fergusons

Bernard Bamford spent the Fourth in Carroll.

Russell Lyon visited friends at Missouri Valley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Sibbert visited friends in Omaha last Thursday.

J. V. Barborka and T. Benecke visited friends in Vail last Sunday.

C. J. Larson of Kiron transacted business in Denison last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen visited friends at West Side over Sunday.

Miss Kate Henry and Miss Nell McGrin spent the Fourth in Dunlap.

Lenzon Moeller of Council Bluffs spent the Fourth at his home in Denison.

The best bargain in soap you ever saw at the Racket Store—three bars for ten cents.

Dr. P. J. Brannon has purchased a fine St. Bernard dog which arrived last week.

Mr. M. Kelly of Vail transacted business in Denison the latter part of this week.

A. F. Boylan returned Saturday from Sioux City with a new E. M. F. roadster.

Link Young of Nevada is in Denison this week visiting his mother Mrs. F. J. Young.

Mrs. L. E. Barrett of Cedar Rapids is in Denison visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Strahn.

Mrs. M. E. Jones and children returned last Saturday from an outing at Lake View.

Mrs. N. Goodwin of Sioux City is in Denison this week visiting at the J. B. Romans home.

C. L. Voss drove to Odebolt Friday in his car. He was accompanied by Chas. Tabor and A. C. Weeks.

R. A. Romans and wife returned on Thursday from the west, where they have been making an extended visit.

Mrs. R. L. Davis and children of Lawrence, Kansas, are the guests of Mrs. C. J. Kemming in Denison this week.

Miss Margaret Champion left on Sunday for Dubuque where she will visit friends and relatives for two weeks.

Miss May Hayes left on Tuesday of last week for Seattle, where she will spend a month taking in the exposition.

The Empire Clothing store will have a sale of hats, caps and straw hats starting Saturday, July 10. Lots of bargains.

Carsten Christiansen returned to Denison on Thursday from Lemars, where he has been for the past week on business.

LOST—Black leather bill book containing C. N. W. R. R. bills. Finder please leave at Review office or return to W. C. Miller. 28-1

W. W. Cushman and family drove to Lake View in their car last Saturday. They will remain at the lake for the month of July.

FOR SALE—House and either three or four lots at a bargain for quick sale. Mrs. Van Vliet, east of Standpipe, Denison, Iowa. 28-1pd

Be sure to attend the Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of hats, caps, pants, men and boys suits at the Empire Clothing Store Saturday, July 10.

We still have some of that good ten cent candy left. The Racket Store.

Marie Liscomb of Dunlap was a shopper in Denison the fore part of the week.

Come in and see the new postals, eleven views for ten cents. The Racket Store.

J. P. Conner left on Wednesday for North Dakota, where he was called on legal business.

George Seeman left on Tuesday for Okoboji, where he will open up the McHenry cottage.

We have the Chautauqua mats for you. Call and see them before buying elsewhere. The Racket Store.

Mr. David B. Ely and family returned to their home in Cairo, Ill., after a two weeks visit in Denison.

Miss Alice Stevens left on Tuesday for Tipton, Iowa, where she will visit friends and relatives for two weeks.

Buy the boys school suits now while they are cheap. Empire Clothing Co., Semi-Annual Clearance sale Saturday, July 10.

Mr. William Rath and family returned on Wednesday from Havelock, Neb., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. G. Ashmore.

Don't suffer with that Headache any longer, but see Dr. Weber, the Oculist, Wednesday, July 21, at Hotel Denison. Examination free.

The Misses Katherine and Marietta Sims left on Tuesday for Lake View, where they will spend a week as the guests of Florence Cushman.

Mr. Henry Milliman of Dublin, Texas, and Mr. E. W. Milliman of Logan are in Denison this week visiting their cousin, Mr. N. L. Hunt.

Mr. August Engleman of Des Moines arrived in Denison Saturday and will have charge of the decorating the windows of the Balle-Brodersen store.

Chas. K. Meyers writes us from Salt Lake City that he is having a fine time. He will spend a couple of days at Colorado Springs and will return to Denison the last of the week.

C. E. Wheeler worked a couple of days of this week in the Review office after playing some band engagements over the Fourth. He will enter upon his new work at Woodbine next week.

WANTED—Men to distribute advertising matter; no experience necessary. $3.00 per day and expenses. No soliciting. For information write East St. Louis Chemical Distributing Co., 6th and Missouri Avenue, East St. Louis, Ill.

Mr. T. W. Harker left on Monday morning for a visit with various Iowa friends, after which he will go to Cripple Creek, Col., where he will make his home. He looks well and hearty and a full ten years younger than when he lived in Denison.

Mr. Frank Liscomb and son, Donald, of Boyer township were Denison visitors on Tuesday. Mr. Liscomb said there was "nothing doing" on his farm on account of the rain and he thought he might as well take a day off. He said the top of the corn was just sticking out of the water. He has some fine bottom land which usually produces great crops but the prospects are poor for this year.

Miss Edith Staley spent the Fourth at Lake View.

J. Weiss made a business trip to Omaha last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Duffy of Vail was a shopper in Denison on Wednesday.

Glen Ainsworth of Omaha celebrated the Fourth at his home in Denison.

Miss Florence Wearmuth spent Monday at Lake View visiting friends.

John Bayles of Manilla was a business caller in Denison last Saturday.

Carl Caswell returned on Monday night from a month's visit to Chicago.

H. C. Simmons of Boyer was a business caller in Denison last Saturday.

Ed. Childs of Dunlap was in Denison last Saturday calling on Denison friends.

Miss Mildred Shugart of Council Bluffs is a guest at the Jacob Sims home this week.

Albert Hoehl of Arcadia is visiting his brother-in-law, P. Clausen, in Denison this week.

WANTED—The address of a reliable party living at Kalispell, Montana. Theo. Walker.

Talking about lynching, it is the man who ordered this weather for whom we are looking.

William McHenry had the misfortune to burn his hand very badly with a fire cracker on the Fourth.

Mrs. W. E. Bainbridge of Council Bluffs is visiting her brother, Mr. Jacob Sims in Denison this week.

G. W. Carpenter of Marion, Iowa, was in Denison the fore part of the week renewing old acquaintances.

Floyd Lyman was in Denison the latter part of last week. Floyd is the express agent at Superior, Neb.

Winfield Randall left the first of the week for Des Moines, where he has secured a position with a law firm.

If you need anything in the way of a hat or a pair of pants you can save money now at the Empire Clothing Co. Sale starts Saturday, July 10.

Addis Lally had a fine St. Bernard dog presented to him. It is eighteen months old and weighs 160 pounds. It promises to be quite a dog when it gets its growth.

Mr. W. A. McHenry, wife and daughter, Abbie, expect to leave for the lakes the latter part of this week.

Mrs. L. E. Goodwin returned to her home at Sioux City, after a visit of a week with Denison friends and relatives.

Mrs. Frank Pfart and children are contemplating a trip to Boston, and other eastern points the fore part of next week.

James Schlumberger came up from Omaha to spend the Fourth at home. He tells us he likes his work very much in Omaha.

C. E. Wheeler and George Hover went to Malvern, Iowa, last Friday to play in the band at that place. They returned on Monday.

Mr. W. A. McHenry has purchased a Pope Hartford auto from a firm in Fort Dodge. The car is a five passenger forty horsepower touring car especially adapted to this hilly country. George McHenry went up to Fort Dodge the fore part of the week to drive the car home but on account of the roads was unable to do so.

Born on Saturday, July 3rd, to Dr. and Mrs. R. O. McConnaughey, a son. The Dr. is now administering his glad smiles in lieu of laughing gas for painless dentistry and he says the stork is the national bird as far as he is concerned. We congratulate the happy parents and hope they may live to see their man child grow to sturdy, happy, upright manhood.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. C. Lally returned last week from Cambridge, Mass., where they had the proud honor of seeing their son the first and only graduate Crawford county has ever sent to the Harvard Law School. Mr. and Mrs. Lally were delighted with the many things they saw and the jolly good times attendant upon the great commencement. Addis will spend a week longer saying goodbye to his university friends and will then return to Denison for a rest before going to work in earnest.

Mrs. Rohwer and Mrs. Cook gave a very pretty reception on Thursday afternoon. The parlors were beautifully decorated in flowers and the dining room was most attractive in yellow and white. The table was decorated in daisies and yellow flowers and the favors to the guests were the daisies. Simple but effective arrangements of yellow and white festoons over the table was used while baskets and vases of the two colors made the coolest kind of a color scheme. Mrs. Rohwer was assisted by her daughter, Miss Hilda, and two nieces from Charter Oak. The Misses Cook, Saul and Faul also assisted in the dining room. Mesdames Rohwer and Cook are certainly to be congratulated upon their successful and charming party.

Luck favored Arion this time.

Saturday was the right day to celebrate.

Two Dollars for One Thousand Printed XXX Envelopes. What a snap.

Wm. Byrnes of Vail transacted business in Denison the latter part of last week.

Miss Anna Eckert arrived on Wednesday for a visit with Denison friends.

One thousand envelopes at the regular price for 500 at the Review's Summer Sale.

Leslie and Bernice Osborn visited in Harlan over the Fourth, making an over and trip of it.

The Review's special price on Envelopes is f. o. b. any town in the county. $2 for a thousand delivered.

Mr. Farmer, Can't you afford a box of 500 envelopes neatly printed with your personal return card for $1.35.

Look up your last invoice for envelopes and you will appreciate how cheap the Review's special Mid-summer Sale Price really is.

Mr. John Powers of Vail was a Review caller on Wednesday. He said the Review was a dandy and that he was going to keep right on taking it.

Miss Hays and Miss McAhren left for the coast on Monday morning. Owing to the floods they left on a special made up here which took the place of No. 17.

Mrs. J. N. Collins, a granddaughter of Mr. M. King, arrived in Denison on Tuesday evening, just a few hours too late to be able to be present at the obsequies she came so far to attend.

Mrs. Silletto and daughter, the Misses Kirkup, Miss Nell Cushman, Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle and Carl Frederic Kuehnle made up a western party which left for Seattle on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. E. Fink received news this week that her son, G. M. Miller, who visited here last year, had met with an accident. His hand was caught in some farm machinery and several fingers were taken off.

August Petersen, a young man working on the John Gierstorf farm in Hanover township was overcome by the heat on Friday afternoon and died in a short time. The sunstroke came at the end of a hard day in the field plowing corn. He was a hard working young man and deserved a better fate.

Andrew McMinimee returned the first of the week from a month's visit on the coast. He had a fine time and found all his relatives well and happy. Andrew is substitute city mail carrier and the boys will commence to take their vacations. When passing through Denver Mr. McMinimee saw Miss Hays and Miss McAhren. In some way they had missed their train and their sleeper and their belongings were journeying westward while they remained in Denver.

William Hoppe, the far-famed billiard expert appeared in Denison last Wednesday night. The Denison sports enjoyed the exhibition and got the worth of their money. He played a bank-line game of 400 points against four of our best players, Haugh, Kelly, Richards and Freed. The local boys scored 74, which was a pretty good showing after all. The exhibition gave an added impulse to billiard playing here and all the boys are practicing his shots. The exhibition was witnessed by a good crowd and The Magnet lost nothing by its enterprise.

The Review is making a special drive in Envelopes. Well the merchants are having Summer Sales and the Review joins the procession. Our summer sale price for XXX 6 1/2 high cut, white envelopes is $1.35 for 500. $2.00 for 1000 and $1.50 for each additional thousand. For Manilla, number Six, reply envelopes the price is $1.00 for 500. $1.50 for 1000 and $1.15 for each additional thousand. These are sure enough Dog Day, rock bottom prices and they are good only during July and August. You will save money by ordering your envelopes now. The above price includes printing in any style you may wish.

There was quite an ice cream show on the 5th. The Sunday School picnic committee had laid in a supply of fifty gallons which they were anxious to dispose of. In order to help out and to give his friends a jolly good time, Mr. Chas. Tabor, who is the regular stand-by on such occasions bought more than forty quarts which he sent to his friends among the little folks of the city. The Balle-Brodersen Co. kindly volunteered their delivery teams and the drivers cheerfully acted as mid-summer Santas. The remainder of the cream was purchased in small lots by other parties and the committee was fortunate enough to dispose of the entire amount. Al. Lyman secured quite an ad. out of it, as he made the cream and it was pronounced excellent.

If You Are Trying to Save 1-4 Purchase Price

You should investigate the WINDOW FULL OF BROACHES that we are showing. They are our regular stock and are marked at our REGULAR LOW PRICES, and in addition to this we will give you the very liberal discount for a short time only of 25 per cent off

The broaches cost from $1.00 to $29.00 each, so you see they will cost you now from 75c to $21.75 each. Is not this worth investigating?

E. C. Chamberlin The Jeweler

Order your envelopes NOW.

Otto Vosgerau is still laid up with a sprained ankle.

Hermann Henningsen of Anthon visited Denison friends and relatives last week.

Mrs. Chas. Saul is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Cole, way down in Missouri.

F. J. Edgar of Eldora, Vail's old jeweler, made Denison friends a brief visit this week.

Miss Genevieve Richards visited with friends and relatives in Missouri Valley last week.

Mrs. Wm. Theodorff went to Hartington, Neb., last Friday for a week's visit with relatives.

J. M. Noff of Des Moines was one of the out of town relatives to be present at the funeral of Mr. M. King.

The many friends of G. W. Carpenter were glad to welcome him for a Denison visit this week. He says he is doing well in his new location.

It is just during July and August that you can get One Thousand high grade white XXX envelopes printed at the Review office for two dollars.

Now is the time for road supervisors and farmers generally to co-operate with the rural carriers in opening the roads and lending first aid to bridges and culverts.

R. W. Bamford is gaining finely after his severe illness. As soon as he is able he will go to Colfax and this winter he will go to a higher altitude for the benefit of his health.

The farmers of Hays and East Boyer, being dissatisfied with a raise in rates by the Vail Telephone Co. are building a line of their own. Quite a number of phones have been put in.

Miss Gertrude Van Wagenen of Sioux City left on Tuesday morning for Iowa City where she will visit relatives. In Denison she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Meyers and she had a delightful time with her young friends.

Miss Alice Saul is taking advantage of her mother's absence and is giving a delightful house party to the N. B. Club, a bunch of ten pretty Denison girls. Miss Eva Walweber and Miss Hazel Gates are out of town guests also taking in the festivities.

Announcements of the wedding of William John Scriver and Miss Florence Ellen O'Connor at Los Angeles on June 30th were received by Denison friends this week. The cards announce that Mr. and Mrs. Scriver will be at home in Denison on August first.

A bunch of gypsies created some curiosity on our streets Wednesday. They offered their "rolling stock" at auction, quite an unusual thing, and auctioneer McAhren affected a number of sales for them. They claimed to be Cherokee Indians but there was no sign of Cherokee oil about them and we think they were straight, or rather crooked, gypsies after all.

The contract for building the new Presbyterian Mansie has been let to W. R. Temple for the sum of $3980 and work will commence in the near future. The plans call for a neat and roomy home suitable for the head of the Presbyterian congregation. The old building has not been disposed of. John Rollins was the highest bidder under the sealed bids, having offered $360. We understand that since the bids were opened Mrs. N. J. Wheeler has offered $400 for the old building.

A day late.

The 15th is Auto Day, if—

July 15th is Auto Day, if the rain lets up.

Dr. R. P. Plimpton was a Saturday visitor in Arcadia.

Miss Kate Slattery of Manilla was a Denison caller today.

Mrs. Henry Bell of Dow City was a Denison shopper today.

James Menagh was a business visitor in Audubon on Tuesday.

This is to be a Bargain month with Denison merchants. Read the ads.

Miss Anna Peper left this morning for a visit with relatives in Glenwood, Mo.

Finding it a losing venture, H. B. Tabor has closed his pool room on Main street.

Sarabon Sisters closed their store and made Omaha a business visit last week.

Prof. C. F. Hover of Sioux City visited his Denison relatives over the Fourth.

Dr. John Meyers of Grand Island, Neb., visited relatives in Denison over the Fourth.

Mrs. John Erler and children of Council Bluffs visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Erler over Sunday.

Miss Anna Watson of Des Moines was in Denison over the Fourth calling on Denison friends.

Miss Grace Meyers took advantage of the Fourth of July Holiday to visit Independence relatives.

Eugene Mueller returned last week to Washington, where he resumes work in the physical laboratories of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Glenn, who has been visiting her son and her daughter, Mrs. Gibson, left on July first for her home at Chadron, Neb.

H. H. Carleton, who was agent for the Northwestern at Denison for a short time has accepted the agency at Wheeland, Iowa.

Mrs. D. L. Ballard is enjoying a visit this week from her mother, Mrs. Mary Glassinger, and her sister, Mrs. Isaac Smith, of Creston, Iowa.

Mrs. A. F. Boylan tore herself away from Wall Lake long enough to run down to Denison on Tuesday. The fishing is said to be fine this rainy weather.

Mrs. Anna Schroeder and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Lochmiller, left today for Seattle, Wash., where they will visit Mr. H. H. Klinker, Mrs. Schroeder's son.

The Bulletin states that the Sunday School picnic has been postponed to July 15th. This is not the case. It is planned to hold the picnic as soon as possible but no date has been fixed. The German Brotherhood has however, decided to celebrate on the 15th.

The new motor has arrived for the Review office and we are in hopes that the next issue of the Review will be printed by electric power. In our opinion it will be but a short time now before day power is installed. It will be a great boon to the city.

The problem of straightening our waterways so as to carry off these annual torrents without great damage is one which confronts our people and which must be dealt with. If the rains cease now the damage to the general corn crop will not be great, but if the rains persist ten days longer the loss will be heavy.

Summer Jewelry

There was a time when December was the accepted time for the sale of Jeweler. But why not July as well? Why should you let opportunity slip simply to follow traditions?

We are showing so many new things in festoon necklaces, buckles, back combs, waist pins, bracelets, lockets and chains.

J. V. BARBORKA

Sign of the Big Clock Jeweler and Optician