

SUPPLEMENT TO The Denison Review

Wednesday, August 11, 1909

MC AHREN SOLE PROPRIETOR

Young Business Man Purchases Partner's Interest in the Empire Clothing Co.

It is announced that M. J. McAhren has purchased the interest of his partner, W. R. Kirkup, in the Empire Clothing Co. Mr. Kirkup remains with the firm having charge of the merchant tailoring department. He is most proficient in this line and felt that he preferred to devote his entire time to that work. Mr. McAhren has had long experience both as a buyer and as a seller of clothing and is a popular young man. The firm has been in business just a year and has been very successful, enjoying a prosperity which there is every reason to believe will be prolonged under the new management.

Worked Like Old Veterans.

Speaking of the Denison Dunlap ball game the Carroll Sentinel says: It was evident from the start that Denison was the better club and would have no trouble in defeating their opponents. Denison was in excellent trim and went at the work like old veterans while the Dunlap bunch appeared to be in the air and were playing ragged ball that could not result in anything but defeat. Faul pitched an excellent quality of ball and received almost an errorless support while Brace had to play the game alone with what little assistance his catcher gave him and the man in center field.

Danbury Review: John Prokop, a well known young man of this community, was drowned at about half past four Sunday afternoon while bathing in the Maple river about half way between Danbury and Mapleton in company with his two younger brothers and a nephew. The circumstances were about as follows: Prokop and the two boys had thought to find relief from the hot sultry day by a swim in the river. Recent rains had raised the river somewhat but this was no objection as all were good swimmers. After they had been in for a considerable length of time, John, who was the oldest of the party, told the others it was time to go out. He was still in the water when the others reached the bank and all at once they heard him cry out and immediately after saw him sink. Hardly realizing the situation they were helpless until he came up some distance below where the strong current had carried him. They were powerless to reach him and he was soon beyond any earthly help.

Sale.

140 acre farm adjoining the town of Charter Oak, known as the Jones homestead, improvements fair, and one of the finest living pieces of land in Crawford county. For any further particulars call on or write M. I. Jones, R. F. D. No. 1, Charter Oak, Iowa.

THE CUMMINS INTERVIEW

According to the Chicago Tribune Senator Cummins has given out a most extraordinary interview. The words attributed to the junior senator are so startling and so revolutionary that we are loath to give them credence without further authentication.

According to the Tribune Senator Cummins has declared war. He has determined that a war of agitation shall be waged throughout the nation and he presents the impossible picture of a party, divided against itself, engaged in the bitterest kind of an internal feud, and still presenting a solid front towards the enemy. This war is to be waged not for another general revision of the tariff but for a piecemeal, schedule by schedule, revision which shall keep the business interests of the country in continual turmoil and hot water. In our opinion nothing could be more detrimental to the welfare of the country than the persistent irritation which the Tribune says Mr. Cummins desires.

The tariff commission of which the Tribune makes Mr. Cummins speak is partially provided for in the present law and it would be well to see how the matter works out before announcing further agitation.

The last clause of the so-called Cummins program is that there shall be no fight on the President, at least so long as he is good and progressive. We reiterate that we shall not believe Mr. Cummins guilty of promulgating a program so suicidal to the republican party, until the authenticity of the interview is established.

If this is the Cummins program, we cannot adopt it as our own, nor do we see how any republican can do so.

The present tariff does not suit us exactly because we would like to see further reductions in some manufactured articles; at the same time it is displeasing to the east because it does not make sufficient reductions in bread stuffs and other agricultural products.

It is a parent that no absolutely satisfactory tariff bill will ever be enacted. We believe the Payne bill is fairly satisfactory and that it is entitled to fair treatment from republicans at least. We believe president Taft did right to sign it. We agree with those republicans who voted for it on the ground that it was a republican measure, founded on the protective theory and the best that could be obtained. We cannot align ourselves with any preconceived attack upon the new republican law until it has time to prove itself good or bad. We have no club to hang over the President that he must be our kind of a republican or none at all. We shall very much regret if the words attributed to Senator Cummins are in truth his own.

The Progressives agree with president Taft in calling it the Payne bill, but there is a sharp divergence as to the way the Payne should be spelled.

A FAMILY MOTOR PARTY

R. A. Romans Family and Scriver Young Folks Take Two Cars For Two Weeks Trip

R. A. Romans got out his big Pope Toledo and his smaller Buick and started on yesterday for a tour of eastern Iowa. All the Romans family went along and the Scriver young people, Marion, Clara and Stewart. They expected to reach Marshalltown on Tuesday afternoon and to be in Cedar Rapids sometime today. They will make Cedar Rapids their headquarters, visiting Mrs. Auracher and journeying to a number of nearby cities. Mr. Romans says he does not know when he will get back as he is prepared to stay just as long as his family is having a good time.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Postponed Fourth of July Event Will Take Place Next Friday at the City Park.

It has been decided to hold the Union Sunday School Picnic, postponed from July Fourth on account of the rain, at the city park next Friday afternoon. While under the auspices of the Sunday Schools the management wishes it distinctly understood that young and old of any creed or no creed are invited. The literary program as arranged for the Fourth will be carried out, there will be sports and free lemonade and peanuts for all comers. There will be a basket dinner at twelve o'clock and all are invited to join in the festivities.

Holstein Advance: Charles F. Bauer, one of the most highly respected and successful farmers of this locality, died last Saturday evening at his home northeast of town, after a brief illness of typhoid fever. The deceased was one of the many who attended the firemen's tournament at Schleswig June 23rd, and about two weeks later he complained of feeling unwell. At this time it was not definitely known that a typhoid epidemic had originated from the Schleswig trip, and being of a hearty, robust character he thought his illness of minor importance and did not call for medical aid until the disease had a firm and fatal hold upon his system. A trained nurse was then hastily procured and everything possible done for his relief but it was too late and on Saturday evening he passed away.

Samuel Luney received word from his daughter, Leora, at Los Angeles that she arrived safely.

Mrs. Ainsworth and Mr. C. F. Kuehnle gave a very pretty and attractive yellow and white dinner on Thursday complimentary to Miss Turckley and Miss Lois of Iowa City. The color scheme was carried out both in menu and decoration and the guests went a very delightful evening. Misses Ethel Chamberlin and Dorothy Laub assisted Mrs. Ainsworth in serving.

Tariff revision piecemeal is like cutting off a dog's tail by inches.

The President will be glad to know that Senator Cummins gives him a few days of grace.

With our usual forehandedness it is thought that the street sprinkler problem can be solved by December.

Miss Grace Coon is spending her vacation in the country with her aunt, Mrs. Clinton.

Mrs. Carl Shelm made a trip to Schleswig to see her daughter, Mrs. Shultz, who has been sick.

Mrs. Jas. Armstrong returned from Wall Lake Monday. She says she enjoyed herself greatly.

Born on July 31st to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, a twelve pound daughter.

Mr. Samuel Luney is much better and is able to be up and out riding again. His son, Robert, will go back to Gettysburg, S. D., to finish his farming.

Mr. M. E. Jones of the Crawford County bank is entertaining this week his uncle, Mr. Eli L. Jones and wife, of Lowville, N. Y., and his brother, Mr. G. D. Jones, of Wausau, Wis. Since G. D. was here last and the four brothers had their pictures taken together one of them, the oldest, William D. has died. He was up in Alaska looking after the mining interests of his brother, Adelbert. It is understood that Mr. Adelbert Jones is now enroute home bringing with him the remains of his brother whose home was in New York state. Mr. G. D. Jones, who is one of the fine business men of Wausau, was just returning from a trip through the west. He reports the corn crop in Nebraska as booming.

Indictment of Flat Life.

In proportion as flat life increases home life decreases. The flat dweller ought not to keep a dog, prefers not to keep a cat, cannot have a garden, has no chance of keeping house, has no possible place for memories, and, most emphatically of all, has no use or accommodation for babies.—Fortnightly Review.

An Inherited Failing.

A native of Annam, Indo-China, sentenced in Paris for theft, wrote the following apology to his employer: "All Annamites, whether emperors, mandarins, secretaries, literary men and others, are born thieves. It is a grave and deadly complaint, and there is no cure for it. I know people do not like thieves in France, but it cannot be helped."

er exercise.—George Crabbe.
while it injures his mind by improper rewards the progress of the learner;
ever, more harmful than otherwise; it given. A divided attention is, how-ing to the proportion in which it is various degrees, and it rewards accord-ment of knowledge; it may be given in making any progress in the acquire-Attention is the first requisite for Attention.