

The best time to have your Photograph made is Right Now. Do it Today at Ferguson's Studio.

Get ready to attend the Arion fair. Wm. Hall went to Dunlap Saturday.

Al Lyman and Will Cramer were in Council Bluffs on Monday.

John Shaw Van visited friends at Council Bluffs on Monday.

Miss Frances Hart visited in West Side the first of the week.

F. W. Meyers was a business visitor in Omaha last Saturday.

Hon. J. P. Conner transacted business in Omaha last Saturday.

Advance styles in the new hats on display now at Sarachon Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howarth visited Dow City relatives Sunday.

Herman Priest visited friends in Omaha the fore part of the week.

I. O. Orem and family drove over to Scranton on Sunday and visited friends.

Mr. George Fletcher returned on Tuesday to Aberdeen, after a week's visit in Denison.

Mrs. Will Stribley and daughter of Denver, Col., are guests of Mrs. E. H. Smith in Denison this week.

Mrs. A. Meyer of Carroll returned to her home in Carroll, after a week's visit with Mrs. Hattie Ferrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Amthor left on Monday for their home in Sioux City, after a few days' visit at the H. C. McWilliams' home.

Luman Sewell returned on Monday from Okoboji, where he has been visiting Leslie Gulick for the past two weeks.

Miss Flora Isminger returned on Sunday from Fort Wayne, Indiana, where she has been visiting her sister for the past two weeks.

The Misses Mariana and Catherine Simms returned on Monday from Council Bluffs, where they have been visiting friends for the past week.

Mrs. Carl E. Kuehnle together with Miss Lydia Belle and Carl Frederick are expected to return from their Seattle visit the last of the week.

Good authorities state that 90 per cent of all the pigs that die in the "corn belt" die of worms. WORM-ITE is death to these worms. Lamborn Drug Co.

Miss Marie Miller, who was a guest of her uncle, Mr. Carl F. Kuehnle, this summer, has accepted a position in the public schools of Independence for the coming year.

We haven't time for a formal opening, but are placing the hats on display as fast as they come in and will be glad to show you the new styles at any time. Sarachon Sisters.

Mrs. Henry Schwartz is in the city packing goods for shipment to Havre, Montana, where she and Mr. Schwartz will have their home. Friends will be glad to know that he is better in health.

Miss Grace Meyers returned on Monday from a visit with relatives in Independence, Iowa. She will spend this week cataloging an installment of new books which she hopes to have ready for the re-opening of the library.

Joe Duncan went to West Side on business on Saturday.

A. F. Boylan transacted business in Sioux City last Monday.

Low Romans left on Tuesday for a business trip to Akron, Col.

Switches, puffs and everything in hair goods at Sarachon Sisters.

Doug McIntosh returned on Saturday evening from a Logan visit.

Miss Rhea Cummings returned last week from a vacation visit to Marshalltown.

Mr. Otto Vance of Arthur is in Denison this week visiting his mother, Mrs. Upham.

Arion promises to give a good fair this year. See the advertisements about it this week.

Flour Down—Cream $1.50, Charter Oak $1.65, Gold Medal $1.75, Eaco $1.85. Old wheat. The Roys. 35 2

Ask your neighbor about WORM-ITE. He can tell you how effective and thorough it is for worms in pigs. Lamborn Drug Co.

Miss Bernice Osborne left on Sunday morning for Emporia, Kansas, for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Wieland.

Quite a delegation of our German citizens have been in Columbus, Neb., this week attending a meeting of the Western Landwehr Verein.

Orrie McElwain is in town today, moving his household goods to Sioux City, where he has a position with the street railway company.

Mabel Howarth left for Henderson, Iowa, Saturday morning, where she has accepted a position as teacher of the grammar room at that place.

The Review was misinformed last week when it stated that Miss Pearl Erickson was an Omaha visitor. Miss Erickson was not out of the city.

Oh, pshaw, that's nothing. The Review editor once asked a lady of a "certain" age how old she was, and he discovered the North Pole then and there.

Ben Mill leaves this week to resume his studies in the Veterinary College in Kansas City. Mrs. Mill will remain in Denison until Ben secures a house.

Farms and ranches for sale by Levi King, Mason City, Nebraska, in Danish, German and Bohemian settlements, $20 to $75 per acre. Good water, good soil, no rocks. 36-1

Henry Suckedorf, Jr., of Morgan township called on Denison relatives today and took occasion to enroll himself as a Review subscriber. He was the sixth new subscriber this week.

For guaranteed cement work, brick laying and plastering see D. V. Redenbaugh—Phone 198. His work speaks for itself and is always reliable. Estimates furnished. 32if

The friends and relatives of Fred Buesing and wife, who lived out on the Paradise, but who moved to Bloomfield, Neb., last spring will hear with pain that their dear sweet little Bernice is dead. She was four and a half years old and a child much beloved. We feel sorry indeed for Corrie and her husband.

Fat at the Oxford. 6tf

District court convenes September 20.

John Tamm was a State Fair visitor last week.

All evening church services begin with 7:30.

M. E. Jones has bought a cottage at Wall Lake.

The public library will again open next Monday.

Harry Dearduff was a Dunlap visitor last Friday.

Mrs. Carl Scheim left on yesterday for a visit in Omaha.

T. C. McCarthy left on Monday for a business visit to Chicago.

P. J. Eggers is making a business trip in Nebraska this week.

Mr. Roeh has moved into the Baumman house east of the north brick.

Miss Emily Scheckloth is attending the state normal school at Cedar Falls.

Mr. L. Cornwell and wife are home from their summer's stay at Lake Okoboji.

Every day is "opening day" at our store now. Come in and see the latest in millinery. Sarachon Sisters.

B. G. Lyman left on Tuesday evening for a visit with his brother, Chester, who is now located at Hutchinson, Kansas.

Mrs. Eva Haworth returned the first of the week from a delightful lake trip from Chicago to Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Miss Clark, who taught in the central building last year, has made a transfer to the west brick as it was nearer her home.

Mr. Brown has taken the janitorship of the north brick school house. He lives handy and will make a good man for the position.

The Friday Club will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 22. There will be no meetings of the Friday Club during the Ostrom meetings.

LOST—At Old Settler's Picnic an old-fashioned, gold, heavily engraved breast pin. Reward for return to Helen Hayes, Denison.

Mr. A. A. Bellefleur left last week for a business trip to Des Moines. Mrs. Bellefleur will visit in eastern Iowa during his absence.

Dr. Coon arrived home from his British Columbia and Pacific coast trip Tuesday forenoon, glad to be again in Iowa and at work.

Mrs. Blanche Sperry and children returned on Monday from a visit with relatives at Masonville, Iowa. They had a very pleasant visit.

Rev. LaReau is at Harlan this week attending a convention of Baptists. From all reports the gathering will be notable in denominational circles.

This week will be your last chance to obtain good selection at the Half Price Granite Ware Sale at The Balle-Brodersen Co.

If wanted I will sell 160 acres of my 245 acre farm 1 1/2 miles southeast of Denison, with buildings. Geo. Dethlefs, Manning, Iowa. Phone 82

Miss Ada Shillington and brother, Harry, have returned to their home at Roseale, Kansas, after a visit of two weeks with their aunt, Mrs. Chas. K. Meyers.

Walter Hoenes, who is visiting his father this summer, is an artist in photography. He has done some excellent work in coloring his productions, and evidently has ability in this line of art.

There will be a called meeting of the Current Event Club on Thursday, September 16, at the Club room to transact important business and plan for the year's work.

By order of Club President.

Mr. C. A. Campbell, now of Lorimer, Iowa, and formerly so well known in this county, made Denison a hurried business trip this week. He is now in the produce business of which he is making a success.

Mrs. D. L. Boynton was hostess on Thursday at an elaborate luncheon given in honor of Mrs. D. W. McAnren. Covers were laid for nine ladies and at one o'clock all sat down to the beautifully appointed table with its unique and artistic decoration of hops. The delicious menu of four courses was perfectly prepared and exquisitely served.

George Naeve and family are expected home on Friday.

A fine eight inch glass bowl for a dime at The Racket Store.

It seems to have been a "hoss race" and Cook got the pole.

W. A. Lamborn visited his branch store in Battle Creek last week.

Do you want a stylish hat at a medium price? Sarachon Sisters have them.

We are showing a beautiful line of popular priced hats. Come in and see them. Sarachon Sisters.

Miss Alvena Remien returned on Friday from a delightful vacation spent at her home at Marne, Iowa.

A rush of advertising compels us to omit some excellent base ball "dope" this week. It will appear in our next issue.

WANTED—A man with team to plow up my land in Goodrich township right away. Address E. Fink, Denison. 36-2

The Misses Beatrice and Blaind Lilly leave next Tuesday for Dubuque, where they will attend school the coming year.

Missouri farm lands. No better grain and stock land anywhere. Write for list and prices. Fulton Real Estate Agency, Fulton, Missouri. 33-10

Mr. Chas. Bullock returned from a health trip to Colfax last week in order to reside at the meeting of the Old Settlers' Association of which he was president. On Friday he found that his health would not permit him to reside at the big open air meeting and, to use his own words, "It made me so doggone mad that I just wouldn't go at all." There is no cleverer, wittier old settler than Mr. Bullock and his bright quips would have added very greatly to the jollity of the occasion.

Received By Wireless.
Copenhagen, Sept. 9, 1909.
To the Review,
Denison, Ia., U. S. A.
This message sent you from afar is but a simple, few-lined song. Just tell my friends I "really are" a coming home where I belong. Goodbye old world I'm on my way. For home—and home means U.S.A.
Mrs. S. P. Jacobsen.

Introductory Sale on Auto Day.
of clean pure wholesome Candies at 12 cents the pound, Main floor candy section. The Balle-Brodersen Co.

Buy your lecture course tickets and buy them now.
Just in some big bargains in glass-ware at The Racket Store.
Mr. J. P. Conner left on Tuesday night for Minneapolis on legal business.
Our line of jet belts cannot be beat. Come in and see them. The Racket Store.
Why burn smoky kerosene when you can get the best White Light Oil at Wycant's? 36if
Katherine Ridgeway and her ever winning smile October 6. Buy your tickets now.
Have you children? An Edison phonograph will keep them at home evenings. The Racket Store.
A new line of Alligator Hand Bags for your inspection at the Lamborn Drug Co.
We are getting in today another 100 basket shipment of those luscious grapes which we are selling at 29c per basket or four baskets for $1.00. J. B. Lyon.

A fine large water pitcher at The Racket Store for 15c.
FARM FOR RENT—160 acres four and one half miles from Denison. Good condition. Inquire of Dr. J. C. Robinson. 36-2
Rev. J. James DeFree will return on Friday from his vacation. There will be services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday.
The new shapes, styles and leather in Hand Bags displayed in a complete new line is being shown by the Lamborn Drug Co.
In the list of teachers' salaries we notice that Prof. Jacob Johnson receives $111.11 per month. It looks to us very much as if Jacob had the school board Buffaloed.
Mr. Robert Breckenridge from St. Joseph, Mo., came up Saturday evening to spend Sunday and Monday with his wife who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Harthun. Mr. Breckenridge was greatly impressed with our city and said that the court house was certainly a fine one for a town of this size.

Out From the Clean Kitchen

come a percentage of man's inspiration to toil. Somebody said the way to keep a man happy "was to feed the brute." Meal-time largely regulates the affairs of life, and like everything else meals should be on time. A clock is more important in the kitchen than anywhere else. We have in stock an excellent showing of cheaper clocks, just the thing for kitchens.

E. C. Chamberlin

Jeweler and Optician

THE SPECIAL SALE

Furniture
Carpets
Linoleum
Rugs, Etc.

At The Salomon Furniture Company is on for just ONE MORE WEEK. Did you get in on any of the Bargains?

We handle only such Goods as we are sure will please and satisfy you and give you the Best that Money Can Buy.

SALOMON FURNITURE COMPANY

Undertaking and Embalming C. C. Phone, Store 56; Residence, 90

We are showing a new line in La Valiers Dutch Color Pins and other Novelties. : : :

PIANOS, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS
KODAKS, AND KODAK SUPPLIES

J. V. BARBORKA,

KRESO DIP!

The dipping season is here again. Are you ready for it? If not, you had better get busy and buy a can of Kreso Dip the next time you are in town.

For Sale by
Ph. A. Schlumberger,

The Farmers and Their Families

ARE INVITED FOR

AUTO DAY

A Fine Five Mile Ride Free. Rides from 10 to 12 A. M. and from 1 to 5 P. M. Register at City Hall and receive your ticket and number just as soon as you get to town.

Every automobile owner in Denison has promised to donate the use of his machine. Many autos from other towns in the county will be here. Denison business men will pay for gasoline and lubricating oil used by any machine taking part.

BAND CONCERT ALL DAY

A system of Numbered Tickets will be used which will avoid all crowding and confusion and unnecessary waiting. Come in and have a good ride and spend the day.

In case postponement is necessary on account of rain the Telephone Co. will be notified by 6 a. m. Call Central for information if in doubt Friday morning.