THE LAST WEEK OF THE REVIVAL

THE INTEREST GROWING AS CAMPAIGN
PROGRESSES AND PEOPLE AROUSED

MANY TO BECOME CHRISTIANS

Important Conference of Religious Workers from Adjoining Country Wednesday, Meetings
Night and Day for Old and Young,
Great Preparations for Sunday.

The evangelist Ostrom is showing that he is an old hand in conducting religious revivals, by the many plans he has developed to arouse interest and get the church people at work. Cottage prayer meetings, forty at once; early morning gatherings at the church; banquet of business men; church officers prayer meetings to pray for the work; gatherings for children; the infirmed ones; men only; women only; calling people from out of town for conference, engaging a lady cornetist to stimulate attendance; banners, cards. Such activities should be and are being rewarded and the Ostrom meetings will be a landmark in the religious life of hundreds of people.

Dr. Ostrom does not conduct meetings which bring men and women up to a high pitch of feeling. There are none of the sin and iniquity denouncing sermons of Sunday which electrify the church people and arouse those not christians to the vital necessity of being such. His sermons are more in line of persuasion to better things, a favorite expression being, "come on." It is explained that it is the right and proper, the manly and womanly thing to do, to follow Jesus; that He will help, that christianity uplifts; that children should enlist in the good cause, and that the best things in life and in eternity come to those following the bible and its vital teachings. Dr. Ostrom has been successful along these lines elsewhere and at Denison.

The gathering for men in the opera house last Sunday afternoon was a notable one. Dr. Ostrom spoke on "Why men fail" and the sermon was strong, entertaining and uplifting. He held up that there need be no failures in religious life if men would obtain God as their helper over the rough places. His sermon that morning in the M. E. church was a remarkable setting forth of what the christian church had done for the world, and an appeal for all to be helpers in their life times. On Monday evening the children were specially addressed. While the sermon was not specially adapted for the little ones, there was an earnestness about it which moved them to come forward resolved to lead christian lives. Their names were taken and the pastors and leaders will give such aid as will, it is believed.

Historical, as curator ten with the reality of the day and confirm their resolution to stand for the bible and its teachings through life.

On Tuesday afternoon there was a special service for the aged and those who cannot usually get out by reason of disabilities. Carriages and autos were used to convey such to the church. Dr. Ostrom gave a most touching talk on this occasion and many were moved to new christian activities. Tuesday night came a meeting of great interest in which there was no lessening of the revival spirit. On Sunday afternoon Dr. Senseney addressed the meeting for women in the Baptist church. His talk was strong and helpful.

Mrs. Pauline Glidden Chapman is another of the workers associating with Henry Ostrom in the city wide evangelistic campaigns. Her forte is playing the cornet. Dr. Ostrom heard her in New York and determined if possible to engage her to interpret old time gospel tunes for the people. The effort succeeded. Her cornet solos are of great interest in the meetings and will be a feature of all until the end of the meetings.

The coming and last Sunday will be a great day. A sermon which has been productive of much good with the subject "Spending" is reserved for the men's meeting and the one for women will be full of interest. People from out of town can come to any meeting and not be disappointed. Many are coming over in autos from the Oak and adjoining places. If the good weather continues there should be a need for over flow meetings before the end of the revival. It has been good to see the christian people united and at work and the results are apparent. By all means hear Dr. Ostrom as many times as you can.

SWALLOWED A SAFETY PIN

Miss Edith Kelly Victim of a Peculiar and Excitingly Painful Accident.

Last week Miss Edith Kelly was left alone in the Chamberlin jewelry store as Mr. Chamberlin had offered his automobile to take the evangelist to Kiron for a meeting. Miss Kelly has her dinner sent. With the first mouthful of rice pudding something seemed to lodge in her throat. She could not dislodge it, and finally it became so painful that she called a physician. Nothing could be found and it was thought that something had scratched her throat and that she imagined something was still there. She did not get relief and yesterday she was able, with her finger, to feel some sharp metallic substance in her throat. The physician felt it also but an effort to get it out, only dislodged it. It is thought that it is either a piece of bent wire or an open safety pin. It is causing Miss Kelly great agony and it is possible that a serious operation must be performed.

GLASSBURNER LOGSDON WEDDING

Host of Friends in West Crawford Join in Felicitations Over the Auspicious Event
Which Occurred Last Week.

At the comfortable and cozy country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Logsdon 3 1/2 miles east of Dow City at noon on Friday, Oct. 1st, occurred one of the prettiest of home weddings, when their eldest daughter, Gertrude, was united in marriage with Frank J. Glassburner, a young man worthy in and beautiful drawn work bed spread, the gift of the groom's sister, Mammie, who is a missionary in China. The spread is hand work, very beautifully worked and finished. After congratulations, an elegant and sumptuous three course dinner was served by Mesdames Logsdon, Glassburner and Smith assisted by Ruth Cole, Bertha Logsdon. The young couple were accompanied to the train at Arion where at 2:30 o'clock they went east to Marshalltown, Washington, Des Moines and other points of interest for a week or ten days. They will return to the home the groom has already prepared on a farm near the home folks to keep house in earnest. Best wishes of the entire community are with them as they are worthy of all due respect and honor.

C. W. Merrill shut up his shop and went to Omaha today for a jolly day of fun at the Ak-Sar-Ben.

ANOTHER ARION ACCIDENT

Illinois Central Flyer Nearly Kills a Man at Arion.

Harry Wilson, a sign painter and paperhanger was struck by the Illinois Central flyer at Arion Monday night and had a narrow escape from death. He was crossing the track near the Milwaukee depot at nearly the same spot where Mrs. Cummings met her death. He was thrown many feet, his head, hip, legs, badly injured, but life not crushed out. His home is in Michigan. He had been working at Dow City. His baggage was checked to Aspiwall on the Milwaukee. He is now at the hospital in Denison. That Arion crossing of three big lines of road where trains pass without stopping, is a terror and some way of protecting people should be arranged.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.

AND THIS WAS GERMAN DAY IN A CRITICAL CONDITION

Good Sized Crowd Reviews Parade and Listens to Oratory at Brotherhood Park.

This was German Day. The celebration attracted a good many people but the crowd was not up to the circus day, Fourth of July standard. The parade was first class. A large number of business houses were represented but the floats were not as fine as have been shown here in other parades. The Bulletin and the Review were represented but the two German papers failed to show up. Parade prizes were awarded as follows: Best farm rig, Geo. Atzen; second prize, Mrs. John Watke. Business displays, Salomon Furniture Co., 1st, Merchants Hotel 2nd, Peerless Cleaner 3rd, Wm Koepke 4th. This was the decision of Thos. McGrin, Peter Oxwang and John Rohwer.

In the afternoon Brotherhood park was crowded with a large audience. Hon. J. F. Hartun acted as chairman and eloquent addresses were made in German by Rev. E. Hansen of Schleswig and in English by Hon. Carl F. Kuehne. After the addresses games and sports entertained the crowd and this evening there will be a grand ball.

Mr. Smith of the Bookstore Has an Operation and His Condition Still Uncertain.

Geo. B. Smith of the book store was operated on for appendicitis last Saturday night and is not out of danger. He awoke Friday after midnight with terrible pain, and medical aid was called. His trouble was located as appendicitis and an operation recommended. This took place at the hospital Saturday at eight. Gangrene had set in and the surgeon said the chances of recovery were half and half. He is yet in a critical condition. His wife and parents have the sympathy of their friends.

DEATH OF MRS. LEHFELDT

Mrs. Emelie Lehfeldt, Mother-in-Law of B. Brodersen Dies at Los Angeles.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Lehfeldt started from here to Los Angeles accompanied by her daughters, Miss Minnie and Mrs. Brodersen. They reached the home of her brother-in-law, C. F. Hensen, Saturday at eight p. m., and she died the following Tuesday noon. The casket is expected here by Sunday, and if so, the funeral will be held at the home of B. Brodersen Sunday afternoon. The deceased was the wife of H. H. Lehfeldt and they were among the first Germans to settle in our county. She was eighty-one years old and a superior wife and mother. We shall speak further of her life next week.
