

Falling Hair
 Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair-beds, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Dandruff
 Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.

Does not Color the Hair
 We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest or the lightest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker.

Ingredients: Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinin, Sodium Chlorid, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol, Water, Perfume.

Death of Mrs. H. S. Vroman.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. H. S. Vroman which occurred Saturday, October 9th, at Beemer, Neb. Mrs. Vroman had gone to Nebraska some three weeks ago to visit a sister of Mr. Vroman and to consult a doctor, who was a friend of the family. Letters came daily saying she was no better, but not being bedfast thought it not of a serious nature until a telegram came Thursday evening to her husband saying to come at once. Mr. Vroman left on Friday morning. Mrs. James Baker, her mother, and Mrs. T. W. Bell, her sister, left Saturday morning to be at her bedside and were with her in her last hours. Monday evening Mr. Vroman with his son, the aged mother and sister accompanied the remains to Manilla. The body was taken to the home of her brother, E. C. Baker, where it laid in state until Wednesday afternoon when it was laid to rest in the Manilla cemetery north of town. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Gordan Swan of Dows, Iowa, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Vroman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker of Oxford Junction, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Scranton, Iowa, Mr. C. N. Baker of Belgrade, Nebraska, Mrs. C. C. Wood and daughter of Hale, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Will Holmes of Beemer, Nebraska, Mr. Don Vroman of Hale, Iowa, Mrs. Ella Vroman of Sac City, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Simpson of Manning, Iowa.

Emma Baker Vroman was born August 25, 1868, in Jones county, Iowa, and died of heart disease October 9, 1909, at Beemer, Nebraska, being at the time of her death forty-one years, one month and fourteen days. The early years of her life were spent in Jones county. After her marriage to Hiram S. Vroman March 24, 1891, she with her husband removed to Beemer, Nebraska, where they lived for several years. In 1902 they moved to Crawford county, Iowa, where they have since made their home. Her last illness was not of long duration. All that loving hands could do was done for her but to no avail. She was a good wife, a loving mother, a kind friend, always thoughtful to those about her. Those who knew her best loved her most. She leaves besides her husband a daughter, Mrs. Gordon Swan of Dows, Iowa, a son, Leonard, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker, three sisters and two brothers: Henry Baker of Scranton, Iowa, Mrs. T. W. Bell of Vail, E. C. Baker of Manilla, Mrs. Libby Beaman of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. C. C. Wood of Hale, Iowa. An infant son, Otis McKinley died in 1897. A large circle of other relatives and friends mourn her departure. The many friends extend to the family their sympathy and love in their sad bereavement.

The first number of the lecture course was rendered Saturday evening at the opera house by Dr. James Hedley of Ohio. Dr. Hedley delivered his address, "The Sunny Side of Life," to a large audience. The address was fine and heartily enjoyed by all. It was a plea for contentment and happiness. Truly it was a great theme.

Joe Milligan was a Manning visitor Tuesday evening.

Friday evening at the home of Minda Tillet, Misses Tillet entertained the class of '10 and their teachers in honor of their birthday. The house was tastily decorated in the class pennants and autumn leaves in the class colors, maroon and old gold. Several guessing games were played. Harry Hoffens and Hazel Dempster winning the prizes after which the usual games were indulged in. At a late hour a two course luncheon was served consisting of nut bread, pressed chicken sandwiches, apple and beet

Kitchen Cabinets

Save Time by Saving Steps

$3.50 to $25.00
