THE BOYS

DENISON WINS BY A NOSE

TWO TO NOTHING IS THE SCORE AGAINST HARLAN ON SATURDAY

THEY SCORED ON A SAFETY.

Denison Team Clearly Out-Played Harlan, But Costly Fumbles Kept the Score Down

One of the most interesting and closely contested games of foot ball ever seen in Denison was played last Saturday at the college grounds. The Denison team was victorious in a score of 2 to 0. A moderately large crowd gathered to see the game.

At 3:30 the signal for beginning the game was given and Denison kicked off to Harlan. Harlan advanced the ball by long end-runs and a few line plunges to Denison's fifteen yard line. At this place Harlan was held for downs and Denison took the ball keeping it for most of the time during the first half. Some punting was done and the forward pass was used successfully a number of times. Vandervall broke through the lines a good many times when Harlan had the ball and downed the Harlan quarterback before he passed the ball or when he attempted to work the forward pass. Harlan could not make their gains through Denison's line. The line held exceptionally well and frequently Otto would down the Harlan man five to ten yards behind the line.

At the beginning of the second half Harlan kicked off to Denison and the ball was advanced within a short distance of Harlan's goal and by the failure of the forward pass Denison lost the ball, but soon regained it as Harlan was compelled to punt immediately. From this on the playing was all done in Harlan's territory and the score was made by a safety behind Harlan's goal. Denison was gaining very rapidly through the opponent's line and was close to the goal when time for the second half was called.

There was no question but that the Denison team outplayed the opposing team in every part of the game in spite of the fact that Harlan has one of the best foot ball men in the state for a coach. However, the Harlan team showed the results of good coaching and the members of the team worked together well. Space will not permit further the going into details concerning the work of the members of the Denison team, but all did well and the work of the boys is worthy of the highest commendation. This coming Saturday a return game is to be played with Audubon at Audubon. The game played here was a victory for the home team and the boys expect to carry off the honors again when they go to Audubon. At this writing plans are being definitely made for the game with Ida Grove which is to be played Nov. 20. This, no doubt, will be the hardest game of the season and by that time the boys will be in extra good trim to show the Ida Grove boys that the boys of Denison can play extra good football also. The boys would be glad to have a large number of rooters accompany them to Ida Grove as they will need their support on the side lines to help them win the game.

High School Mass Meeting

A mass meeting was held in the High school last Friday afternoon and speeches were made by Mr. Meyers of the Denison Review and Mr. Kahler. Mr. Kahler spoke of his interest in football and of some of its advantages also urging upon the boys the importance of doing good work in school when they played on the team.

Coch Senseney made a few remarks concerning the game to be played with Harlan on Saturday and putting the matter to the team in such a way that the boys would not be over confident of victory.

It seemed good to have the Alumni of the high school come back and give some ideas from their own experiences and to show their interest in high school functions.

Death of Mrs. Patrick Behan

Many homes and hearts have been saddened this week by the death of Mrs. Patrick Behan at her home in Denison township. After three months illness following a stroke of paralysis death came to her as a release from suffering. Funeral services were held at St. Ros of Lima church on Tuesday forenoon and the very large attendance from town and country was evidence of the esteem in which this good woman was held by all who knew her. The Review was unable to obtain a portrait in time for this issue and we have decided to delay publishing any fuller account of her life and death until next week, when we can also present her portrait to our readers. In the meantime let us assure the husband and children of our deepest sympathy in their great grief.

S. S. had a gay time Tuesday night. Miss Craft had charge and served a very nice menu. Miss Strahan had the program and the Misses McAhren, Marshall, Strahan, Hayes, Brodersen and Scriver gave a jolly little farce in deaf and dumb talk. Mrs. Christenson of De Witt and Mrs. Milligan of Sioux City were the out of town guests.

At the meeting Monday night James Armstrong was appointed to fill the vacancy on the city council caused by the death of Mr. M. D. Wright. Mr. Armstrong has had considerable experience with city affairs as water rent collector and deputy marshal and it is expected that he will be of unusual value to the city in superintending the digging of the new wells.

We understand that more trouble is brewing at Vail with the telephone war. It is reported that the East Boyer people attempted to erect their poles under cover of darkness last night and that the parties responsible were again arrested. An injunction has been granted by Judge Powers restraining the Vail authorities from further interfering with the work of the telephone company and the merry war goes on.

The little daughter of Charles McWilliams is very ill. A relapse after an attack of pneumonia is proving very serious. Last night the physicians and nurses made battle royal for the little life and this morning she is reported as on the gain.

Marshall Weeks had a rough and tumble with a laboring man named McGraw who had just been paid off Saturday and started in to paint the town. In the court yard he rushed at the marshal and succeeded in knocking him down, but Weeks got on top and belabored him.

He promised to be good but as soon as he got up tried his tactics again. This time the Marshal called others to his assistance and the would be bully was landed in jail with scant ceremony. Later Mayor Rollins gave him a thirty day sentence.

Chinese Laws

In lemon colored silk a Chinese diplomat talked about Chinese laws. "Some of our laws, you know, are very stimulating," he said. "For example, Chi owed money to a money lender. Chi would not pay, and the money lender hanged himself on Chi's doorpost. Chi was condemned to death. You see, he was really responsible for the money lender's death."

"A son able to support his parents is imprisoned for life if he won't do so. A son unable to support them is imprisoned for three years, as we hold—and quite rightly—that there must be something wrong with a young man who can't support his parents."

"Our police are excellent, thanks to the stimulus of our law. When a crime is committed a sleuth is put upon the case and given, say, thirty days to land the criminal. If the sleuth fails he himself pays the penalty of the crime, less two degrees. That, too, is a just and stimulating law for if the police can neither prevent nor punish crime then they should be themselves punished for their rank incapacity."—New York Press.

Superstitious Remedies

For whooping cough a cooked dormouse is good. In the eighteenth century this remedy was employed in Scotland. Here is another medication for the same complaint: "Watercress is a very good thing, sir, with a little bit of that brown sugar what you uses to put on to bacon and some honey mixed with it. And I'll tell you what's a good thing for croup but a riesty bacon fat fried down and afore it resolves add some pepper and vinegar. It opens the pipes of the lungs, d'ye see." And if you are adventurous you may try this for "phlegm on to the chest": Catch a "dear little dotty frog" and tie a bit of string to one of its back legs. Then you "keep on letting it go down your throat and pulling it up again." The narrator of this added to T. W. Thompson, who sets down these stories: "It's the truth, young fellow, and it cleared the phlegm out of his throat bootful, but we wouldn't do such a thing as that."—London Chronicle.

Some Excuse Needed

Hoosier Special Kitchen Cabinets

4,000 Great Loads

Over 4,000 wagons piled high with Hoosier Special Kitchen Cabinets will go out during November and December to American women who have learned to work in the easy way.

You are as interested in reading, sewing, visiting and resting as these other women. Yet, you are wasting two or three hours every day over an old fashioned kitchen table.

Your neighbors have Hoosier Cabinets, and thousands upon thousands of women situated as you, are emancipating themselves every month from the slavery of their kitchens.

Mr. Husband:

We won't even whisper it till Xmas morning.

Just say: "Save it."

You need this wonderful new invention, and every day you delay makes the need more apparent to you.

Therefore, our determination to win in the big $1,000.00 Hoosier prize contest—as we told you last week—is to your decided advantage.

We want every woman who needs a Hoosier Cabinet to have it set aside before December 25th, and we are going to make it so easy to buy now that you cannot afford to postpone. Come in and get these terms. See the Window Display from November 8th to 13th inclusive.

many relatives here, but more on her side of the family were present. The large crowd who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect came, some of them for several miles around from the country showing their sympathy for the bereaved ones. Among those from other towns, we noticed N. L. Hunt, wife and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Myers and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Montgomery of Denison, Mr. Hemer of Arthur, father-in-law of Alfred Dobson, and four sons and two daughter-in-laws and two or three friends came down from Arthur with a couple of teams and an automobile and were present at the funeral. Thus were the last sad respects paid to one of our noble, energetic young men who was taken from this life without one moment's warning. The remains were laid in the Deloit cemetery. Forty-five teams gathered at the cemetery. We commend the grief-stricken widow and her little son and widowed mother and other relatives to Him who doeth all things well.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Lillian Dobson, widow of Harry Dobson, hereby wishes to express her most sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted her in her sudden and very sad bereavement of her husband.

Many old time Denison friends will learn with regret of the death of Mr. H. H. Studley which occurred at Seattle, Washington, on October 22nd. His mother, who was with him at the time of his death will now reside with her son, Dr. Louis Studley, in the Wenatchee Valley, of Washington.

The Denison post-office has been honored by visits from two inspectors the past week. One came to look over the city delivery service and has ordered an additional letter collection to take place between six and seven o'clock every evening from all but the out-lying collection boxes. The other inspector, Mr. H. A. Strohm, has been with us today looking into the conditions regarding second class (newspaper) matter. He will examine the various newspaper lists of the county and will establish a system for counting refused and misdirected second class matter received in this city as Denison is to be made one of the experiment stations in this section. Lincoln, Neb., Denison with other Iowa towns have been selected to make special reports along this line.

John Lammiller of Arthur is another well satisfied subscriber to call upon us this week. Mr. Lammiller's subscription expires the first of each November and is always "Johnny on the Spot" to pay it a year ahead.

J. H. Mahoney dropped in on Denison folks last Sunday for a brief visit. We understand that Mr. Mahoney prefers work on this division to work in South Dakota and that he will resume his position as inspector with offices at Boone. This will enable him to make Denison his home much to the joy of the many old time friends of the family.
